Notice of Data Security Incident

Bethesda, Maryland – April 17, 2026 – ASC Ortho Management Company, LLC d/b/a Aligned Orthopedic Partners (“Aligned Orthopedic”) learned of a data security incident that may have impacted certain individuals’ personal and/or protected health information.

On December 8, 2025, Aligned Orthopedic identified unusual activity in its email environment. Aligned Orthopedic took immediate steps to ensure its network was secure and launched an investigation with the support of external cybersecurity experts. Based on the investigation, Aligned Orthopedic learned that an unknown actor gained unauthorized access to its email environment between November 16, 2025 and December 16, 2025 and potentially accessed certain emails and files. Following a comprehensive review of the affected data, which concluded on February 17, 2026, Aligned Orthopedic learned that certain individuals’ personal and/or protected information may have been involved in this incident.

The potentially impacted information varies by individual but may include names, dates of birth, Social Security numbers, driver’s license or state identification numbers, Medicaid or Medicare numbers, financial account numbers, medical dates of service, medical provider names, mental or physical condition, medical treatment information, diagnosis or clinical information, prescription information, health insurance information, patient account numbers, and medical record numbers.

Aligned Orthopedic has taken steps to augment security and reduce the risk of similar incidents occurring in the future.

On April 17, 2026, Aligned Orthopedic mailed notice of this incident to potentially impacted individuals for which Aligned Orthopedic had identifiable address information. The notice provided information about the incident and resources that potentially impacted individuals could utilize to protect their information. For eligible individuals, this also included the opportunity to enroll in complimentary identity protection services through Cyberscout, a TransUnion company specializing in fraud assistance and remediation services.

Aligned Orthopedic has established a toll-free call center to answer questions about the incident. The call center is available Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time (excluding major U.S. holidays) and can be reached at 1-833-877-6247. All affected individuals may qualify for complimentary identity protection services through Cyberscout. Individuals who have not received a notification letter must obtain verification of eligibility through the call center to enroll in services. The deadline to enroll in services is July 16, 2026.

While we are not aware of the misuse of any potentially affected individual’s information, we are providing the following information to help those wanting to know more about steps they can take to protect themselves and their personal information:

What steps can I take to protect my personal information?

- Please notify your financial institution immediately if you detect any suspicious activity on any of your accounts, including unauthorized transactions or new accounts opened in your name that you do not recognize. You should also promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidents of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities.
- You can request a copy of your credit report, free of charge, directly from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. To do so, free of charge once every 12 months, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll free at 1-877-322-8228. Contact information for the three nationwide credit reporting agencies is listed at the bottom of this page.
- You can take steps recommended by the Federal Trade Commission to protect yourself from identity theft.

The FTC's website offers helpful information at www.ftc.gov/idtheft.

- Additional information on what you can do to better protect yourself is included in your notification letter.

How do I obtain a copy of my credit report?

You can obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, directly from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. ### How do I put a fraud alert on my account?

You may consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. This fraud alert statement informs creditors to possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that your creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact Equifax, Experian or TransUnion and follow the Fraud Victims instructions. To place a fraud alert on your credit accounts, contact your financial institution or credit provider. Contact information for the three nationwide credit reporting agencies is included in the letter and is also listed at the bottom of this page.

How do I put a security freeze on my credit reports?

You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you need to make a request to each consumer reporting agency. You may make that request by certified mail, overnight mail, or regular stamped mail, or online by following the instructions found at the websites listed below. You will need to provide the following information when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are making a request for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) address. You may also be asked to provide other personal information such as your email address, a copy of a government-issued identification card, and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. There is no charge to place, lift, or remove a freeze. You may obtain a security freeze by contacting any one or more of the following national consumer reporting agencies:

What should I do if my family member was involved in the incident and is deceased?

You may choose to notify the three major credit bureaus, Equifax, Experian and Trans Union, and request they flag the deceased credit file. This will prevent the credit file information from being used to open credit. To make this request, mail a copy of your family member's death certificate to each company at the addresses below.

Equifax
Equifax Information Services
P.O. Box 740256
Atlanta, GA 30374

Experian
Experian Information Services
P.O. Box 9701
Allen, TX 75013

TransUnion
Transunion Information
Services
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19016

What should I do if my minor child or protected person's information was involved in the incident?

You can request that each of the three national credit reporting agencies perform a manual search for a minor's or protected person's Social Security number to determine if there is an associated credit report. Copies of identifying information for the minor and parent/guardian may be required, including birth or adoption certificate, Social Security card and government issued identification card. If a credit report exists, you should request a copy of the report and immediately report any fraudulent accounts to the credit reporting agency. You can also report any misuse of a minor's information to the FTC at <https://www.identitytheft.gov/>. For more information about Child Identity Theft and instructions for requesting a manual Social Security number search, visit the FTC website: <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0040-child-identity-theft>. Contact information for the three credit reporting agencies may be found above.
