UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

FEDOR ANTONOV on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated consumers

Plaintiff,

FORSTER & GARBUS LLP

Defendant.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Introduction

 Plaintiff, Fedor Antonov, brings this action against Forster & Garbus LLP for violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692, et seq. ("FDCPA"). The FDCPA prohibits debt collectors from engaging in abusive, deceptive and unfair collection practices while attempting to collect on debts.

Parties

- 2. Plaintiff is a citizen of the State of New York who resides within this District.
- 3. Plaintiff is a consumer as that term is defined by Section 1692(a)(3) of the FDCPA, in that the alleged debt that Defendant sought to collect from Plaintiff a consumer debt.
- Upon information and belief, Defendant's principal place of business is located in Commack, New York.
- 5. Defendant is regularly engaged, for profit, in the collection of debts allegedly owed by consumers.
- 6. Defendant is a "debt collector" as that term is defined by the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692(a)(6).

Jurisdiction and Venue

- This Court has federal question jurisdiction under 15 U.S.C. § 1692k(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.
- 8. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), as the acts and transactions that give rise to this action occurred, in substantial part, in this district.

Allegations Particular to Fedor Antonov

- 9. Upon information and belief, on a date better known by Defendant, Defendant began to attempt to collect an alleged consumer debt from the Plaintiff.
- 10. On or about October 10, 2017, Defendant sent the Plaintiff a collection letter.
- 11. The letter fails to adequately convey the "amount of the debt".
- 12. The October 10, 2017 letter stated in part: "Interest may subsequently accrue to this account; therefore, the amount due on the day you pay may be greater."
- 13. This language violates § 1692g(a)(1), which requires debt collectors to inform consumers of the amount of the debt, and § 1692e, which prohibits the use of false, deceptive, or misleading representations in connection with the collection of a debt.
- 14. The language stated above violates these provisions because it fails to inform Plaintiff whether the amount listed is the actual amount of the debt due, what other interest or charges might apply.
- 15. The letter does not provide any explanation or information about the claimed accruing interest and charges.
- 16. In order to comply with the FDCPA's provision which mandates that a collector inform the consumer in its initial communication of "the amount of the debt" the collector must give the consumer the tools in which the consumer could easily calculate the amount due on the date, he or she receives the letter.

- 17. In order to comply with the FDCPA's provision which mandates that a collector inform the consumer in its initial communication of "the amount of the debt" the collector must give the consumer the tools in which the consumer could easily calculate what he or she will need to pay to resolve the debt at any given moment in the future.
- 18. The failure to provide this information or tools to ascertain "the amount of the debt" on the date of receipt of the letter or at any give other time in the future does not comply with 1692g as it fails to meaningfully provide "the amount of the debt".
- 19. It is not enough that the collector provide "the amount of the debt" on the date of the letter. The consumer must be able to know the interest rate and be able to discern the amount of the debt at given time in the future.
- 20. In Carlin v. Davidson Fink LLP, 852 F.3d 207, 216 (2d Cir. 2017), the Second Circuit clarified its holding in Avila by explaining that a collection letter "is incomplete where ... it omits information allowing the least sophisticated consumer to determine the minimum amount she owes at the time of the notice, what she will need to pay to resolve the debt at any given moment in the future, and an explanation of any fees and interest that will cause the balance to increase."
- 21. This language in the collection letter did not adequately state the amount of the debt, as required under the FDCPA. In particular, the collection letter failed to specify or explain what the interest rate was or what type of charges could cause the balance to increase, nor did they inform the debtor what he or she would need to pay to resolve the debt at any given moment in the future. The letter precluded a determination of what "the amount if the debt" was on the date of receipt of the letter.
- 22. The least sophisticated consumer would not understand how the fees would be calculated; what the current interest rate was and whether they could be disputed; or what provision of the underlying credit agreement gave rise to them.

- 23. The collection notice included a vague disclosure without providing any "clarity as to whether new fees and costs are accruing or as to the basis for those fees and costs." Carlin, 852 F.3d at 217.
- 24. Similar to Carlin, the Collection Letter, in this case, refers with vagueness to "accrued interest or other charges," without providing any information regarding the rate of interest; the nature of the "other charges"; how any such charges would be calculated; and what portion of the balance due, if any, reflects already-accrued interest and other charges. By failing to provide even the most basic level of specificity in this regard, it would be impossible to conclude whether those amounts are properly part of the amount of the debt," for purposes of section 1692g. Carlin, 852 F.3d at 216.
- 25. Further, as set forth in Carlin, without any clarifying details, the letter states only that these unspecified assessments may be added to the balance due, which the Second Circuit found to be insufficient to "accurately inform[] the [Plaintiff] that the amount of the debt stated in the letter will increase over time." Carlin, 852 F.3d at 217.
- 26. The Defendant did not refer the Plaintiff to the underlying credit card agreement with the original lender. As was true in Carlin, the least sophisticated consumer would not understand from this reference what provision of that agreement, if any, gives rise to the potential "accrued interest and other charges" described in the said collection letter.
- 27. The Defendant's collection letter violates sections 1692g(a)(1) and 1692e of the FDCPA, since the collection letter failed to adequately convey the "amount of the debt".
- 28. 15 U.S.C. § 1692e prohibits a debt collector from using any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt.
- 29. The question of whether a collection letter is deceptive is determined from the perspective of the "least sophisticated consumer."

- 30. While § 1692e specifically prohibits certain practices, the list is non-exhaustive, and does not preclude a claim of falsity or deception based on any non-enumerated practice.
- 31. A collection letter is deceptive under 15 U.S.C. § 1692e if it can reasonably be read by the least sophisticated consumer to have two or more meanings, one of which is inaccurate.
- 32. A collection letter is also deceptive under 15 U.S.C. § 1692e if it is reasonably susceptible to an inaccurate reading by the least sophisticated consumer.
- 33. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to inform Plaintiff whether the amount listed is the actual amount of the debt due.
- 34. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to inform Plaintiff whether the amount listed already includes accruing "interest."
- 35. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to advise Plaintiff what portion of the amount listed is principal.
- 36. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to inform Plaintiff whether the amount listed will increase.
- 37. The letter should have disclosed that interest was accruing, or in the alternative, that the creditor and / or Defendant had made the decision to waive any accruing interest.
- 38. The letter fails to inform the consumer as to what he or she may need to pay to resolve the debt at any moment after the date of the letter, or provide an explanation of any fees and interest that will cause the balance to increase.
- 39. A general disclosure that the balance may increase due to interest does not automatically shield a debt collector from liability under Section 1692e when a different part of the Collection Letter provides inaccurate information, which makes the communication

"false, deceptive, or misleading." 15 U.S.C. § 1692e.

- 40. The letter states that the "Total amount of interest accrued since charge-off" is zero, when in fact, as Defendant concedes, interest is "may subsequently accrue". Based on this factual contradiction, the letter could be found to contain "confusing other information (or misinformation).
- 41. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to inform Plaintiff if there is accruing "interest," what the amount of the accruing interest will be.
- 42. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to inform Plaintiff if there is accruing "interest," when such interest will be applied.
- 43. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to inform Plaintiff if there is accruing "interest," what the interest rate is.
- 44. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to inform Plaintiff if there is accruing "interest," the amount of money the amount listed will increase per day.
- 45. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to inform Plaintiff if there is accruing "interest," the amount of money the amount listed will increase per week.
- 46. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to inform Plaintiff if there is accruing "interest," the amount of money the amount listed will increase per month.
- 47. The October 10, 2017 letter failed to inform Plaintiff if there is accruing "interest," the amount of money the amount listed will increase per any measurable period.
- 48. The October 10, 2017 letter fails to indicate the minimum amount Plaintiff owed at the time of the letter.
- 49. The October 10, 2017 letter fails to provide information that would allow the least sophisticated consumer to determine the minimum amount he or she owes at the time of the letter.

- 50. The October 10, 2017 letter fails to provide information that would allow the Plaintiff to determine what Plaintiff will need to pay to resolve the debt at any given moment in the future.
- 51. The October 10, 2017 letter, because of the aforementioned failures, would render the least sophisticated consumer unable to determine the amount of his or her debt.
- 52. The least sophisticated consumer could reasonably believe that the debt could be satisfied by remitting the listed amount as of the date of the letter, at any time after receipt of the letter.
- 53. The least sophisticated consumer could reasonably believe that the amount listed was accurate only on the date of the October 10, 2017 letter.
- 54. If interest is continuing to accrue, the least sophisticated consumer would not know the amount of the debt because the letter fails to indicate the applicable interest rate.
- 55. If interest is continuing to accrue, the least sophisticated consumer would not know the amount of the debt because the letter fails to indicate what the amount of the accruing interest will be.
- 56. If interest is continuing to accrue, the least sophisticated consumer would not know the amount of the debt because the letter fails to indicate when such interest will be applied.
- 57. If interest is continuing to accrue, the least sophisticated consumer would not know the amount of the debt because the letter fails to indicate the amount of money the amount listed will increase at any measurable period.<sup>1</sup>

By failing to provide even the most basic level of specificity in this regard, the Court "cannot say whether those amounts are properly part of the amount of the debt," for purposes of section 1692g.Carlin, 852 F.3d at 216. - 58. The letter failed to advise Plaintiff that if Plaintiff pays the amount listed, an adjustment may be necessary after Defendant receives payment.
- 59. The letter failed to advise Plaintiff that if Plaintiff pays the amount listed, Defendant will inform Plaintiff of the balance difference before depositing payment.
- 60. The Defendant's failures are purposeful.
- 61. In order to induce payments from consumers that would not otherwise be made if the consumer knew the true amount due, Defendant does not inform the consumer whether the amount listed will increase.
- 62. Defendant failed to clearly and unambiguously state the amount of the debt, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692g(a)(1).
- 63. The October 10, 2017 letter would likely make the least sophisticated consumer uncertain as to the amount of the debt, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692g(a)(1).
- 64. The October 10, 2017 letter would likely make the least sophisticated consumer confused as to the amount of the debt, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692g(a)(1). See Polak v. Kirschenbaum & Phillips, P.C., No. 17-CV-1795 (MKB)(PK), 2018 BL 57467 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 16, 2018) ("Pursuant to the holding in Carlin, this [alleged letter's language] is not enough to satisfy Section 1692g's requirement that the written notice contain the amount of the debt.")
- 65. Defendant's conduct constitutes a false, deceptive and misleading means and representation in connection with the collection of the debt, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692e.

have two or more meanings concerning the actual balance due, one of which must is inaccurate, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692e.

- 67. Defendant's conduct violated 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692g(a)(1) and 1692e.
- Plaintiff suffered injury in fact by being subjected to unfair and abusive practices of the Defendant.
- 69. Plaintiff suffered actual harm by being the target of the Defendant's misleading debt collection communications.
- 70. Defendant violated the Plaintiff's right not to be the target of misleading debt collection communications.
- 71. Defendant violated the Plaintiff's right to a truthful and fair debt collection process.
- 72. Defendant used materially false, deceptive, misleading representations and means in its attempted collection of Plaintiff's alleged debt.
- 73. Defendant's communications were designed to cause the debtor to suffer a harmful disadvantage in charting a course of action in response to Defendant's collection efforts.
- 74. The FDCPA ensures that consumers are fully and truthfully apprised of the facts and of their rights, the act enables them to understand, make informed decisions about, and participate fully and meaningfully in the debt collection process. The purpose of the FDCPA is to provide information that helps consumers to choose intelligently. The Defendant's false representations misled the Plaintiff in a manner that deprived him of his right to enjoy these benefits, these materially misleading statements trigger liability under section 1692e of the Act.
- 75. These deceptive communications additionally violated the FDCPA since they frustrate the consumer's ability to intelligently choose his or her response.
- 76. Plaintiff seeks to end these violations of the FDCPA. Plaintiff has suffered damages including but not limited to, fear, stress, mental anguish, emotional stress and acute embarrassment. Plaintiff and putative class members are entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, including, declaratory relief, and damages.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

- 77. This action is brought as a class action. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and on behalf of all other persons similarly situated pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
- 78. The identities of all class members are readily ascertainable from the records of Forster & Garbus LLP and those business and governmental entities on whose behalf it attempts to collect debts.
- 79. Excluded from the Plaintiff's Class is the Defendant and all officers, members, partners, managers, directors, and employees of Forster & Garbus LLP, and all of their respective immediate families, and legal counsel for all parties to this action and all members of their immediate families.
- 80. There are questions of law and fact common to the Plaintiff's Class, which common issues predominate over any issues involving only individual class members. The principal issues are whether Defendant's communications with the Plaintiff, such as the above stated claims, violate provisions of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.
- 81. The Plaintiff's claims are typical of the class members, as all are based upon the same facts and legal theories.
- 82. The Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Plaintiff's Class defined in this complaint. The Plaintiff has retained counsel with experience in handling consumer lawsuits, complex legal issues, and class actions, and neither the Plaintiff nor his attorneys have any interests, which might cause them not to vigorously pursue this action.

Case 1:18-cv-05613 Document 1 Filed 10/08/18 Page 11 of 14 PageID #: 11

- 83. This action has been brought, and may properly be maintained, as a class action pursuant to the provisions of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure because there is a well-defined community interest in the litigation:
  - (a) Numerosity: The Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that the Plaintiff's Class defined above is so numerous that joinder of all members would be impractical.
  - (b) Common Questions Predominate: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the Plaintiff's Class and those questions predominate over any questions or issues involving only individual class members. The principal issues are whether the Defendant's communications with the Plaintiff, such as the above stated claims, violate provisions of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.
  - (c) Typicality: The Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the class members. Plaintiff and all members of the Plaintiff's Class defined in this complaint have claims arising out of the Defendant's common uniform course of conduct complained of herein.
  - (d) Adequacy: The Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class members insofar as Plaintiff has no interests that are adverse to the absent class members. The Plaintiff is committed to vigorously litigating this matter. Plaintiff has also retained counsel experienced in handling consumer lawsuits, complex legal issues, and class actions. Neither the Plaintiff nor his counsel have any interests, which might cause them not to vigorously pursue the instant class action lawsuit.

- (e) Superiority: A class action is superior to the other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy because individual joinder of all members would be impracticable. Class action treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum efficiently and without unnecessary duplication of effort and expense that individual actions would engender. Certification of a class under Rule 23(b)(l)(A) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is appropriate because adjudications with respect to individual members create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications which could establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant who, on information and belief, collects debts throughout the United States of America.
- 84. Certification of a class under Rule 23(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is also appropriate in that a determination that the above stated claims, violate provisions of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, and is tantamount to declaratory relief and any monetary relief under the FDCPA would be merely incidental to that determination.
- 85. Certification of a class under Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is also appropriate in that the questions of law and fact common to members of the Plaintiff's Class predominate over any questions affecting an individual member, and a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

- 86. Further, Defendant has acted, or failed to act, on grounds generally applicable to the Rule (b)(l)(A) and (b)(2) Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief with respect to the Class as a whole.
- 87. Depending on the outcome of further investigation and discovery, Plaintiff may, at the time of class certification motion, seek to certify one or more classes only as to particular issues pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(4).

CAUSE OF ACTION

Violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act brought by Plaintiff on behalf of himself and the members of a class, as against the Defendant.

- 88. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs numbered one (1) through eighty-seven (87) herein with the same force and effect is if the same were set forth at length herein.
- 89. This cause of action is brought on behalf of Plaintiff and the members of a class.
- 90. The class involves all individuals whom Defendant's records reflect resided in the State of New York and who were sent a collection letter in substantially the same form letter as the letter sent to the Plaintiff on or about October 10, 2017; and (a) the collection letter was sent to a consumer seeking payment of a personal debt; and (b) the collection letter was not returned by the postal service as undelivered; and (c) the Plaintiff asserts that the letter contained violations of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692e and 1692g(a)(1) for the use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt, for misrepresenting the amount of the debt owed by Plaintiff and for failing to accurately state the amount of the debt in the initial communication.

Violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act

91. The Defendant's actions as set forth above in the within complaint violates the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act. 92. Because the Defendant violated the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, the Plaintiff and the members of the class are entitled to damages in accordance with the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, respectfully requests preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, and that this Court enter judgment in Plaintiff's favor and against the Defendant and award damages as follows:

- (a) Statutory damages provided under the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692(k);
- (b) Attorney fees, litigation expenses and costs incurred in bringing this action; and
- (c) Any other relief that this Court deems appropriate and just under the circumstances.

RELATED CASE STATEMENT (Section VIII on the Front of this Form)

Please list all cases that are arguably related pursuant to Division of Business Rule 50.3.1 in Section VIII on the front of this form. Rule 50.3.1 (a) provides that "A civil case is "related" to another civil case for purposes of this guideline when, because of the similarity of facts and legal issues or because the cases arise from the same transactions or events, a substantial saving of judicial resources is likely to result from assigning both cases to the same judge and magistrate judge." Rule 50.3.1 (b) provides that " A civil case shall not be deemed "related" to another civil case merely because the civil case: (A) involves identical legal issues, or (B) involves the same parties." Rule 50.3.1 (c) further provides that "Presumptively, and subject to the power of a judge to determine otherwise pursuant to paragraph (d), civil cases shall not be deemed to be "related" unless both cases are still pending before the court."
