18 Attorneys for Plaintiff,
19 WILLIAM NORMAN BROOKS, III

20 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
21 SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

22 WILLIAM NORMAN BROOKS, III,) Case No.: '20CV1348 BAS LL
23 ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ALL OTHERS)
24 SIMILARLY SITUATED) CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT
25 Plaintiff,) JURY TRIAL DEMANDED
26 vs.)
27 BANK OF AMERICA, NA,)
28 Defendant.)

Plaintiff, William Norman Brooks, III, by undersigned counsel, alleges as follows:

1 INTRODUCTION

2 1. This is an action for damages and injunctive relief brought against
3 Defendant Bank of America, NA, pursuant to the California Unfair Competition
4 Law, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §17200 et seq. (“UCL”), the California Consumer
5 Credit Reporting Agencies Act, Cal. Civ. §1785 et seq. (“CCRAA”), and the Fair
6 Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. §1681, et seq. (“FCRA”).

7 2. The responsibilities of creditors to accurately use and report consumer
8 information are essential in ensuring fairness and accuracy in credit transactions,
9 goals which are at the heart of the CCRAA, FCRA, and the promise of fair
10 business transactions enshrined in California’s UCL. Defendant fails to comply
11 with these responsibilities by systematically failing to obtain and use adequate 12 identifying information to distinguish between an individual who has filed for 13 bankruptcy and a distinct individual who has not, and inaccurately reporting the 14 existence of a bankruptcy filing to consumer credit reporting agencies.

15 3. Defendant compounds this error by routinely failing to correct this 16 inaccurate reporting when notified by consumer credit reporting agencies that the 17 consumer makes a dispute.

18 4. Defendant’s practices harm consumers by prejudicing their 19 prospective Creditors which inaccurate, adverse information stating that the 20 individual has filed for bankruptcy when they in fact have not.

21 JURISDICTION

22 5. This action arises out of violations of the UCL, CCRAA, and FCRA.

23 6. Supplemental jurisdiction exists pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

24 7. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b), in that
25 Defendant transacts business here and a substantial portion of the acts giving rise 26 to this action occurred here.
27
28

1 THE PARTIES

2 8. Plaintiff, William Norman Brooks, III, is an adult individual residing 3 in San Diego County, California.

4 9. Defendant, Bank of America (“BofA” or “Defendant”), is a national 5 bank with over 4,500 retail branches. Bank of America has its headquarters and 6 principal place of business in Charlotte, North Carolina. Bank of America operates 7 banking centers and conducts business within this judicial district and throughout 8 the State of California.

9 10. BofA is a furnisher of information as contemplated by CCRAA
10 §1785.25 and FCRA §§1681s-2(a) & (b), which regularly and in the ordinary 11 course of business furnishes information to one or more consumer reporting
12 agencies (“CRAs”), about consumer transactions or experiences with any 13 consumer.

14 11. The causes of action herein also pertain to Plaintiff’s “consumer credit
15 report” as that term is defined by Cal. Civ. Code §1785.3(d), in that inaccurate
16 representations of Plaintiff’s credit worthiness, credit standing, and credit capacity
17 were made via written, oral, or other communication of information by a consumer 18 credit reporting agency, which is used or is expected to be used, or collected in 19 whole or in part, for the purposes of serving as a factor in establishing Plaintiff’s
20 eligibility for, among other things, credit to be used primarily for personal, family,
21 household and employment purposes.
22

23 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

24 Defendant’s Use and Furnishing of Bankruptcy Information

25 12. Defendant regularly and in the course of its business obtains information 26 regarding individuals who have filed for bankruptcy, in order to determine whether 27
28

1 any individuals with credit accounts or lines of credit with BofA have filed for 2 bankruptcy and included some credit accounts or lines of credit in the bankruptcy.

3 13. When BofA determines, according to its standardized internal 4 procedures, that an individual account holder has included an account in 5 bankruptcy, it closes such account.

6 14. Furthermore, BofA reports to each consumer credit reporting agencies
7 with which it does business that the account has been included in a bankruptcy.

8 15. However, BofA routinely and as a matter of standardized practice
9 fails to obtain sufficient identifying information to adequately distinguish between 10 an individual who has filed for bankruptcy and an individual who has not.

11 16. Specifically, BofA disregards conflicting middle name and 12 generational suffix information which is available on the face of public records.

13 17. As a result of this failure to obtain and use sufficient personal 14 identifying information related to bankruptcies, BofA will falsely report to 15 consumer credit reporting agencies (and thus, to an individual's other creditors)
16 that a credit account has been included in bankruptcy.
17

18 The Experience of Plaintiff William Norman Brooks, III

19 18. Plaintiff had several accounts with BofA, including a personal line of 20 credit. At all times mentioned herein, all of Plaintiff's accounts with BofA and 21 other creditors were timely paid and remained in good standing.

22 19. On January 8, 2020, BofA sent a form letter to Plaintiff advising him, 23 among other things, that it had "received notification of a bankruptcy filing by or 24 against [him]" and that it was suspending [his] access to [his] funds from [his] line
25 of credit" as of 01/06/2020" (the January 8 Letter").

26 20. BofA further communicated that it "was required to discontinue
27 access to his account based on the terms of his line of credit." However, BofA
28 erroneously attributed the bankruptcy to Plaintiff according to its standardized

1 policies and procedures for obtaining and using bankruptcy information, and 2 deprived him of his credit line funds and credit privileges without any basis in 3 contract or law.

4 21. Plaintiff has never filed for bankruptcy.

5 22. On or around January 13, 2020, Plaintiff contacted BofA to dispute
6 that he had filed for bankruptcy. Through the call to BofA, Plaintiff learned that 7 BofA had matched him to a bankruptcy filed in Mobile, Alabama by a William E.
8 Brooks, with a social security number matching the last four digits of Plaintiff's
9 social security number.

10 23. Plaintiff has never lived in Alabama. Furthermore, his middle name is 11 "Norman," and he consistently uses the generational suffix "III."

12 24. The public record of the Alabama bankruptcy that BofA attributed to 13 Plaintiff plainly shows that the filer used the full middle name "Eugene."

14 25. Based on the differences between his personal identifying information
15 and that of the individual who filed the bankruptcy, Plaintiff disputed the accuracy
16 of BofA's association of the Alabama bankruptcy with him and his credit accounts.
17

18 26. BofA nevertheless reported to the consumer credit reporting agencies
19 that Plaintiff had filed for bankruptcy.

20 27. As a result of BofA's inaccurate reporting of the bankruptcy, BofA
21 defamed Plaintiff and his credit score dropped substantially. Plaintiff took great 22 pride in having earned a high credit score, and the decrease in his credit score
23 caused him great distress.

24 28. On or around January 16, 2020, Plaintiff sent a certified letter to each 25 of the consumer credit reporting agencies and directly to BofA, explaining that he 26 had not filed for bankruptcy, and including supporting documentation. Plaintiff 27 requested in the letters that the inaccurate information on his credit report be 28 removed.

1 29. In response to Plaintiff's dispute letter, each of the consumer credit
2 reporting agencies in turn communicated the dispute to BoA in accordance with 3 section 1681i of the FCRA. Notwithstanding the disputes, BofA failed to 4 investigate Plaintiff's disputes as required by both the FCRA and the CCCRA,
5 failed to remove the bankruptcy from Plaintiff's credit reports, and continued
6 reporting the defamatory information via the Metro 2 reporting format.

7 30. On January 27, 2020, BofA sent Plaintiff a letter responding to his 8 dispute. BofA told Plaintiff in the letter that it had accurately reported the 9 bankruptcy.

10 31. Plaintiff thereafter spoke to BofA representatives many times in an 11 effort to clear up the inaccurate reporting.

12 32. Despite these efforts, and representations by BofA that it would
13 correct its misreporting, BofA continued to inaccurately report to consumer credit
14 reporting agencies that Plaintiff had filed for bankruptcy.

15 33. Based upon BofA's representations that the inaccurate reporting had 16 been rectified, Plaintiff applied for a personal loan. However, on March 16, 2020,
17 Plaintiff was denied financing solely because BofA continued to inaccurately
18 report the bankruptcy.

19 34. BofA repeatedly and continuously acted, and continues to act, in 20 reckless or conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights. BofA's actions, and its 21 inaction, continue to cause great distress to Plaintiff. As a direct result of BofA
22 conduct, Plaintiff suffered anguish, embarrassment, anxiety, distress, feelings of 23 hopelessness, and sleepless nights.
24

25
26 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

27 35. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of the following Classes:
28

1 (a) For Defendant’s violations of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200
2 (the “UCL Class”):

3 All persons residing in the State of California, during the
4 period beginning four (4) years prior to the filing of this
5 Complaint and continuing through the resolution of the 6 case, to whom Defendant sent a letter substantially in the 7 form of the January 8th Letter or for whom Defendant
8 suspended and/or otherwise deprived funds or credit
9 privileges due to misattribution of another individual’s
10 bankruptcy or material change in financial circumstances.

11 (b) For Defendant’s violations of CAL. CIV. CODE § 1785.25(a) (the 12 “CCRAA Class”):

13 All persons residing in the State of California, during the 14 period beginning five (5) years prior to the filing of this
15 Complaint and continuing through the resolution of the 16 case, about whom Defendant reported a bankruptcy
17 notation to one or more consumer credit reporting
18 agencies, though the person did not file for bankruptcy
19 and/or for whom the personal identifying information
20 available in the public record of the bankruptcy does not 21 match the account holder’s personal identifying 22 information.

23 36. Plaintiff seeks certification of the UCL Class pursuant to Rule
24 23(b)(2) and (3), and certification of the CCRAA Class to Rule 23(b)(2) and (3).

25 37. The Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members is 26 impracticable. Although the precise number of Class members is known only to 27 Defendants, Plaintiff avers upon information and belief that the Classes number in 28 the hundreds or thousands.

38. There are questions of law and fact common to the Classes that predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class members. The principal questions concern whether Defendant’s practices with respect to obtaining and using bankruptcy information constituted unlawful, unfair, or

1 fraudulent business practices, and whether the Defendant willfully and/or
2 negligently violated the CCRAA by furnishing credit information to consumer
3 credit reporting agencies despite having reason to know it was inaccurate.

4 39. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Classes, which all
5 arise from the same operative facts and are based on the same legal theories.

6 40. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Classes.
7 Plaintiff is committed to vigorously litigating this matter. Further, Plaintiff has 8 secured counsel who are very experienced in handling consumer class actions.
9 Neither Plaintiff nor his counsel have any interests which might cause them not to 10 vigorously pursue this claim.

11 41. This action should be maintained as a class action because the 12 prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the Classes would create 13 a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members 14 which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the parties opposing 15 the Classes, as well as a risk of adjudications with respect to individual members
16 which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of other members 17 not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to 18 protect their interests.

19 42. Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable
20 to the Classes, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding 21 declaratory relief with respect to the CCRAA Class.

22 43. Whether Defendant violated the UCL and/or CCRAA can be easily
23 determined by Defendant's policies and a ministerial inspection of Defendant's 24 business records.

25 44. A class action is a superior method for the fair and efficient 26 adjudication of this controversy. Management of the Classes' claims is likely to 27 present significantly fewer difficulties than those presented in many individual
28

1 claims. The identities of the Class members may be derived from Defendant's
2 records and publicly available records.

4 COUNT I

5 Cal. Bus & Prof. Code § 17200

6 (Plaintiff Brooks Individually and on behalf of the UCL Class)

7 45. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this
8 Complaint as though fully stated herein.

9 46. Defendant was required to adhere to the requirements of the 10 California Unfair Competition Law (UCL).

11 47. Defendant's inaccurate reporting and inaccurate disclosures
12 constituted unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business practices.

13 48. Defendant's practices were unfair because it is unethical, immoral,
14 unscrupulous, oppressive, and substantially injurious to consumers to match them
15 to records of bankruptcy based on insufficient criteria, and to disseminate 16 inaccurate bankruptcy information to third parties.

17 49. Defendant's practices were fraudulent because the recipients of 18 consumer credit reports prepared based upon Defendant's inaccurate bankruptcy
19 information were deceived and/or were likely to be deceived by Defendant's
20 inaccurate representations that Plaintiff and others similarly situated had filed for 21 bankruptcy.

22 50. The harm caused by these business practices vastly outweighs any 23 legitimate utility they possibly could have.

24 51. Because Plaintiff and the Class will seek credit in the future, there is a
25 real and immediate threat that Plaintiff will suffer the same injury in the future.
26
27
28

1 52. Plaintiff and the UCL Class are entitled to injunctive relief, restitution
2 of their account funds and credit privileges, and to the recovery of attorneys’ fees
3 and costs.

5 COUNT II
6 Cal. Civ. Code § 1785.25(a)
7 (Plaintiff Brooks – Individually and on behalf of the CCRAA Class)

8 53. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this
9 Complaint as though fully stated herein.

10 54. Defendant is a furnisher of consumer credit information as defined by 11 the CCRAA, and Defendant was required to adhere to the requirements of the 12 CCRAA.

13 55. The CCRAA prohibited Defendant from furnishing information about 14 consumers to consumer credit reporting agencies which Defendant knew or had 15 reason to know was inaccurate or incomplete. Cal. Civ. Code §1785.22(a).

16 56. Defendant violated this provision by furnishing information to 17 consumer credit reporting agencies indicating that a credit account had been 18 included in bankruptcy, despite having reason to know that the alleged bankruptcy
19 was filed by a person other than the consumer account holder. Specifically, the 20 publicly available personal identifying information on bankruptcy records gives 21 Defendant reason to know that its attribution of bankruptcy records without 22 reference to middles names and/or generational suffixes is inaccurate. Moreover,
23 Defendant for years has received many consumer disputes regarding its inaccurate
24 reporting of bankruptcy history information.

25 57. Because Plaintiff and the Class will seek credit in the future, and 26 because Defendant’s inaccurate reporting of bankruptcy information is 27 communicated to other potential creditors on consumer credit reports, there is a
28

1 real and immediate threat that Plaintiff and the Class will suffer the same injury
2 with respect to future credit applications.

3 58. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief and to the 4 recovery of attorneys' fees and costs.

6 COUNT III
7 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b)
8 (Plaintiff Brooks – Individually)

9 59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this
10 Complaint as though fully stated herein.

11 60. Defendant is a person as defined by FCRA § 1681a(b), and is a
12 “furnisher” of credit information as defined by the FCRA.

13 61. After receiving notice of the inaccurate reporting, Defendant failed
14 and continues to fail to correct the error in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(b).

15 62. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to recover from BofA the full amount of 16 statutory, actual and punitive damages, along with the attorneys' fees and the costs
17 of litigation, as well as such further relief, as may be permitted by law.

18
19 COUNT IV
20 Cal. Civ. Code § 1785.25(f)
21 (Plaintiff Brooks – Individually)

22 63. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this
23 Complaint as though fully stated herein.

24 64. Defendant is a furnisher of consumer credit information as defined by 25 the CCRAA, and Defendant was required to adhere to the requirements of the 26 CCRAA.
27
28

1 65. After receiving notice of the inaccurate reporting, Defendant failed to
2 properly and adequately conduct an investigation and/or review all relevant
3 information provided in the dispute, in violation of Cal. Civ. Code § 1785.25(f).

4 66. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to recover from BofA the full amount of 5 actual and punitive damages, along with the attorneys' fees and the costs of 6 litigation, as well as such further relief, as may be permitted by law.

8 PRAYER FOR RELIEF:

9 WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff seeks relief as follows:

10 A. An order certifying the Classes pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23;

11 B. An award of damages for denial of a loan pursuant to 15 U.S.C.
12 §1681n(a)(1)(A), §1681o(a)(1), Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1785.31(a)(1) and 13 1785.31(a)(2)(A);

14 C. An award of actual damages for mental anguish, emotional distress, 15 inconvenience, frustration, embarrassment, and despair, or as the jury may allow at 16 trial, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§1681n(a)(1)(A) and 1681o(a)(1), and CAL. CIV.
17 CODE §§ 1785.31(a)(1) and 1785.31(a)(2)(A);

18 D. An award of punitive damages, as the Court may allow pursuant to 15
19 U.S.C. §1681n(a)(1)(A), 15 U.S.C. §1681n(a)(2), and CAL. CIV. CODE §1785.25(a)
20 and §1785.31(a)(2)(B);

21 E. Restitution of all funds suspended and the value of credit privileges
22 revoked or terminated;

23 F. Injunctive relief ordering BofA to rectify the credit reporting errors
24 and change its procedures for attributing bankruptcy information;

25 G. An award for reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to maintain the 26 instant action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§1681n and 1681o, and CAL. CIV. CODE 27 §§1785.31; and
28

1 H. Any other equitable relief deemed appropriate.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553
Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
