		CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Sandra Brown ("Plaintiff"), on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, by and through his undersigned counsel, hereby brings this action against The Starbucks Corporation ("Starbucks"), alleging that certain products manufactured, packaged, labeled, advertised, distributed and sold by Defendant is misbranded and falsely advertised in California and otherwise violate California law, and upon information and belief and investigation of counsel alleges as follows:

7

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8 1. This Court has original jurisdiction over this action under the Class Action
9 Fairness Act of 2005 ("CAFA"), 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d). The Defendant is a citizen of a state 10 different from that of the Plaintiff, the putative class size is greater than 100 persons, and 11 the amount in controversy in the aggregate for the putative Class exceeds the sum or value 12 of $5 million exclusive of interest and costs.

13 2. The Court has jurisdiction over the state law claims because they form part 14 of the same case or controversy under Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. This Court has both general and specific personal jurisdiction over the Defendant.

4. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because its Starbucks 17 products are advertised, marketed, distributed and sold through the State of California; 18 Defendant engaged in the wrongdoing alleged in this Complaint throughout the United 19 States, including in the State of California; Defendant is authorized to do business in the 20State of California and engages in substantial activity with the State of California; 21 Defendant has hundreds of stores throughout the United States, including in the State of 22 California; and Defendant has sufficient minimum contacts with the State of California, 23 rendering the exercise of jurisdiction by the Court permissible under traditional notions of 24 fair play and substantial justice.

5. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred within this judicial district, Defendant has marketed and sold the Sour Gummies product at issue in 28

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

this judicial district, and it conducts business within this judicial district. Plaintiff also purchased the Product within this District.

II. NATURE OF THE ACTION

6. This is a consumer class action for violations of warranty, negligent and intentional misrepresentations/omissions and consumer protection laws, with a California class for violation of California consumer protection laws.

8 7. Defendant manufactures, packages, distributes, advertises, markets, and sells 9 a house-brand product identified as "Starbucks Sour Gummies" (the "Product").

8. The Product is falsely advertised in California and throughout the United States, violates express and implied product warranties, and otherwise violates consumer protection law.

13
9. The Product's front label identifies the Product as "Apple, watermelon, 14 tangerine and lemon-flavored candies."

10. However, the Product contains an undisclosed artificial flavor.

16 11. The Product is labeled as if it is flavored only with natural ingredients when in fact the Product is artificially flavored.

18 12. Because consumers prefer naturally-flavored food products over products
19 with artificial flavors, and will pay more for natural products, Defendant intentionally 20 conceals the artificial flavor from consumers.

13. Defendant's packaging, labeling, and advertising scheme is intended to give consumers the impression that they are buying a premium, 'all natural' product with natural flavoring ingredients instead of a product that is artificially flavored.

14. Plaintiff, who was deceived by Defendant's unlawful conduct and purchased one or more of the Products multiple times in California during the proposed Class Period, brings this action, on her own behalf and on behalf of California and nationwide consumers similarly situated, to remedy Defendant's unlawful acts.

28

1 15. On behalf of the Class as defined herein, Plaintiff seeks an order compelling 2 Defendant to, inter alia: (1) cease packaging, distributing, advertising and selling the 3 Products in violation of California law; (2) re-label or recall all existing deceptively
 4 packaged Products; (3) conduct a corrective advertising campaign to fully inform 5 California consumers; (4) award Plaintiff and other Class-members restitution, actual 6 damages, and punitive damages; and (5) pay all costs of suit, expenses, and attorney fees.

7

III. PARTIES

8 16. Defendant the Starbucks Corporation ("Starbucks" or "Defendant") 9 manufactures, packages, labels, advertises, markets, distributes, and sells the Products in 10 California and throughout the United States.

11 17. Starbucks is a Washington corporation with its headquarters and principal 12 place of business located at 2401 Utah Avenue S., Suite 800, Seattle, Washington.
13 Starbucks is registered with the California Secretary of State under entity number 14 C1672418.

15 18. Plaintiff Sandra Brown ("Plaintiff") is a resident and citizen of Santee, 16 California who purchased the Products multiple times during the Class Period in 2017 in 17 California for personal and household consumption.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

19 A. Defendant unlawfully conceals that the Product contains artificial flavor.

19. The Product is a Starbucks private-label sour gummy candy assortment.

21 20. The Product's front-of-package label claims that the package contains Apple, 22 Watermelon, Tangerine, and Lemon-flavored sour candies.

27

28

21. The label does not disclose that the Product contains artificial flavors.

24 22. In fact, Starbucks maintains a health and wellness campaign stating that 25 Starbucks listens to its customers and continues to evolve its health and wellness options
26

1 influenced by customer feedback.<sup>1</sup>

2 23. Starbucks' Director of Retail Brand Partnerships, Deb Hannah stated that 3 "We know customers are snacking on the go and looking for snacks that are healthier."<sup>2</sup>

4 24. Starbucks adds a synthetic flavoring chemical mixture to the Product that 5 mimics and reinforces the Product's advertised "natural flavors."

6 25. California consumers, like American consumers nationwide, seek out natural 7 food products and are willing to pay significantly more for such products when compared 8 to food products with artificial ingredients.<sup>3</sup>

9 26. Food products made exclusively with natural ingredients command a price 10 premium compared to similar products that contain synthetic ingredients such as artificial 11 flavors.

12 27. To appeal to consumers who seek out natural food products and are willing 13 to pay more for them, Defendant labels and advertises the Products as if they were 14 exclusively naturally-flavored.

15 28. Below is a true and accurate representation of Starbucks' Sour Gummies16 Product label.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1 reinforce the Product's four characteristic fruit flavors.

33. Because Defendant fails to properly disclose this artificial flavor on the label, the Product's labeling and advertising violate California law in multiple ways.

- 34. Because the Product contains artificial flavoring ingredients that simulate and reinforce the Products' characterizing flavors, the front labels are required by law to prominently disclose that artificial flavoring. Failing to do so falsely informs the consumer that the Products are flavored only with natural juices or flavors. Cal. Health & Saf. Code § 109875, et seq., (Sherman Law), incorporating 21 C.F.R. § 101.22.<sup>4</sup>
- 9 35. Omitting this disclosure falsely informs the consumer, by operation of law, 10 that the Product is flavored only with natural juices or flavors. Cal. Health & Saf. Code
  11 § 109875, et seq., (Sherman Law), incorporating 21 C.F.R. § 101.22.<sup>5</sup>
- 36. The industrial chemical ingredient fumaric acid that Defendant uses is artificially-synthesized. It is derived from petrochemicals, not from natural source materials, and is therefore an artificial flavor under California law.
- 15 37. The fumaric acid is not naturally-occurring but is in fact manufactured in 16 petrochemical plants from benzene or butane—components of gasoline and lighter fluid, 17 respectively—through a series of chemical reactions, some of which involve highly toxic 18 chemical precursors and byproducts.
- 19 20

38. The fumaric acid ingredient is synthesized from petrochemical feedstocks,

 et seq., incorporates into California law all regulations enacted pursuant to the U.S. Food Drug and Cosmetic Act. An act or omission that would violate FDCA regulations necessarily therefore violates California's Sherman Law. Id. at § 110100. Regulatory 1 through an intermediate chemical transformation to maleic anhydride.

39. Maleic anhydride, also called 2,5-Furandione, is a common chemical precursor used in the industrial manufacture of various other chemicals and intermediaries as well as fumaric acid. It is also commonly used as a feedstock in other chemical manufacturing processes to make paints, polymeric plastic resins, industrial coatings, pesticides, and agricultural chemicals.<sup>6</sup>

7 40. Starbucks uses a synthetic fumaric acid in its Product to simulate the flavor
8 of the four characterizing fruits and the generic "sour" flavor in the Product.

9 41. The synthetic fumaric acid simulates, resembles, and reinforces the10 characterizing flavors in the Product.

42. Because the Product contains artificial flavoring, California law requires the Product to display both front- and back-label disclosures to inform consumers that the Product is artificially flavored.

14 43. The Product has neither of the required disclosures.

44. California law, incorporating U.S. Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act regulations by reference, further requires that a food's label accurately describe the nature of the food product and its characterizing flavors. 21 C.F.R. § 102.5(a).

45. Any recognizable primary flavor identified directly or indirectly on the front label of a food Product, whether by word, vignette, depiction of a fruit, or other means, is referred to as a "characterizing flavor."

46. Any flavor components identified on the Product's front label, either in text or in recognizable pictures, are considered primary recognizable flavors and are therefore characterizing flavors for each Product.

24 25 47. For Defendant's "Starbucks Sour Gummies" product, the "Sour" flavor and

1 the four specifically-identified fruits are all considered characterizing flavors.

48. If any characterizing flavor is not created exclusively by the named flavor ingredient, the product's front label must state that the product's flavor was simulated or reinforced with either or both natural or artificial flavorings. If any artificial flavor is present which "simulates, resembles or reinforces" the characterizing flavor, the label must prominently inform consumers that the product is "Artificially Flavored."<sup>7</sup>

Further, a food product's label also must include a statement of the "presence or absence of any characterizing ingredient(s) or component(s)... when the presence or absence of such ingredient(s) or component(s) in the food has a material bearing on price or consumer acceptance... and consumers may otherwise be misled about the presence or absence of the ingredient(s) or component(s) in the food."<sup>8</sup>

12 50. Such statement must be in boldface print on the front display panel and of13 sufficient size for an average consumer to notice. Id.

14 51. In addition, a food product that does not contain any of the natural fruit 15 comprising the advertised fruit flavors must disclose on the front label that the product is 16 "artificially flavored."

17 52. The synthetic fumaric acid in the Product simulates, resembles, and18 reinforces the characterizing "Sour" flavor and all the characterizing named fruit flavors.

19

53. The Product violates both state and federal food labeling laws.

54. Under California statutory labeling requirements as well, Defendant was required to place prominently on the Product's front and back labels a notice sufficient to allow California consumers to understand that the Product contained artificial flavorings.

- 55. Defendant failed to do so, deceiving consumers and violating California law.
  56. Plaintiff and the Class were unaware that the Product contained artificial flavoring when they purchased them.
- 26

57. When purchasing the Product, Plaintiff and the Class were seeking a product of particular qualities, that were flavored only with the natural ingredients claimed on the label and which did not contain artificial flavoring.

58. Plaintiff is not alone in these purchasing preferences. As reported in Forbes 4 Magazine, eighty-eight percent (88%) of consumers polled recently indicated they would 5 pay more for foods perceived as natural or healthy. "All demographics [of consumers]-6 from Generation Z to Baby Boomers-say they would pay more" for such Product, 7 specifically including foods with no artificial flavors.<sup>9</sup> Forty-one percent (41%) of 8 consumers rated the absence of artificial flavors in food Product as "Very Important," and 9 10 eighty percent (80%) of North American consumers are willing to pay a premium for foods with no artificial ingredients.<sup>10</sup> 11

12 59. John Compton, a Fortune 50 food and beverage industry CEO, spoke to 13 investors at the Morgan Stanley Consumer & Retail Conference, stating, "We have talked 14 extensively to consumers about this idea, and they come back and tell us the number one 15 motivation for purchase is products that claim to be all natural."

16 60. Defendant's labeling and advertising reflects these consumer preferences —
17 not by making the Product only with natural ingredients, but instead by concealing the fact 18 that the Product contains artificial flavors.

19 61. The Product's label deceived consumers into paying a price premium for an 20 artificially-flavored product. That product was worth less than the naturally-flavored 21 product promised by the labels.

62. California's Health & Safety Code states that "Any food is misbranded if it bears or contains any artificial flavoring, artificial coloring, or chemical preservative, unless its labeling states that fact." Cal. Health & Saf. Code § 110740.

3 63. California law therefore required Defendant to include on the Product's label
4 a notice alerting California consumers that the Product is artificially flavored.

64. Defendant failed to do so.

6 65. Because the Product violated California law, it was misbranded and illegal to 7 advertise, transport, distribute, or to sell in California. Cal. Health & Saf. Code § 110740;
8 § 110760; § 110765.

9 66. Plaintiff and the Class lost money as a result of Defendant's conduct because 10 they paid a price premium for a product that was artificially flavored when they sought to 11 purchase a naturally-flavored product.

12 B. Defendant's competitors label their products lawfully.

13 67. Starbucks not only deceives consumers but also gains an unfair commercial 14 advantage in the marketplace by labeling the Products deceptively.

15 68. Manufacturers of competing sour and fruit candy products label their16 products lawfully.

17 69. Competing manufacturers correctly label their artificially-flavored fruit18 candies as "Artificially Flavored."

19 70. Other competing manufacturers, offering products whose labels suggest just 20 as Defendant's do that their products are naturally flavored, truly are flavored only with 21 natural ingredients.

22 71. Defendant, however, conceals its use of artificial flavoring, deceiving 23 consumers, illegally cutting costs and increasing profits, and competing unfairly and 24 unlawfully in the marketplace, hurting competitors as well as consumers.

25 72. Defendant's conduct injures competing manufacturers that do not engage in 26 the same illegal behavior. These manufacturers compete for market share and limited shelf 27 space, as well as for consumers' buying preferences and dollars. Defendant's competitors 28 do so lawfully. Defendant does not.

C. Plaintiff's and Class Purchases of the Products.

2 73. Plaintiff purchased the Product in California during the Class Period as 3 defined herein.

4 74. Plaintiff purchased Starbucks Sour Gummies several times in 2017.
5 Plaintiff's most recent purchase was in December 2017 at Starbucks located on 9868
6 Mission Gorge Road B., Santee, CA 92071.

7 75. The Products were purchased at the marked retail prices, typically $1.758 each.

9 76. Plaintiff first discovered Defendant's unlawful acts described herein in 10 September 2018, when she learned the Product's characterizing flavors were deceptively
11 created or reinforced using artificial flavoring even though Defendant failed to disclose 12 that fact on the Product's label.

13 77. Plaintiff was deceived by and relied upon the Product's deceptive labeling, 14 and specifically the omission of the fact that this Product contained artificial flavoring.
15 Plaintiff purchased this Products believing it was naturally-flavored, based on the 16 Product's deceptive labeling and failure to disclose that it was artificially flavored.

17 78. Neither Plaintiff nor any of the Class members, as reasonable consumers, are 18 required to subject consumer food products to laboratory analysis, to scrutinize the back
19 label to discover that a product's front label is false and misleading, or to search the label 20 for information that federal and state regulations require be displayed prominently on the 21 front – and, in fact, under state law are entitled to rely on statements that Defendant 22 deliberately place on the Product's labeling.

23 79. Defendant, but not Plaintiff or the Class, knew that this labeling was in24 violation of state law.

80. Because Plaintiff reasonably assumed the Product to be free of artificial flavoring, based on the Product label, when it was not, she did not receive the benefit of her purchases. Instead of receiving the benefit of a Product free of artificial flavoring, she received a Product that was unlawfully labeled to deceive the consumer into believing that it was exclusively naturally flavored and contain no artificial flavoring, in violation of federal and state labeling regulations.

81. Plaintiff would not have purchased the Product in the absence of Defendant's misrepresentations and omissions. Had Defendant not violated California law, Plaintiff would not have been injured.

82. The Product was worth less than what Plaintiff paid for it and Class members would not have paid as much as they have for the Product absent Defendant's false and misleading statements and omissions.

9 83. Plaintiff and the Class members paid a price premium for each of the Products 10 that they purchased. That price premium will be determined by the fact finder at trial based 11 on evidence adduced then. The anticipated price premium is significantly less than the full 12 retail price of the Product.

13 84. Plaintiff and the Class therefore lost money in the amount of the price14 premium paid as a result of Defendant's unlawful behavior. Plaintiff and Class members 15 altered their position to their detriment and suffered loss in an amount equal to the amount 16 of the price premium when they paid for the Product.

17 85. Plaintiff intends to, desires to, and will purchase the Products again when she 18 can do so with the assurance that the Product's label, which indicates that the Product is 19 naturally-flavored, is lawful and consistent with each Product's ingredients.

V. DELAYED DISCOVERY

86. Plaintiff did not discover that Defendant's labeling of the Products was false and misleading until September 2018 when she learned the Products contained undisclosed artificial flavoring.

Plaintiff is a reasonably diligent consumer who exercised reasonable diligence in her purchase and consumption of the Product. Nevertheless, he would not have been able to discover Defendant's deceptive practices and lacked the means to discover them given that, like nearly all consumers, she relies on and is entitled to rely on the manufacturer's obligation to label its products in compliance with state law. Furthermore,

Defendant's labeling practices and non-disclosures—in particular, failing to identify the artificial flavor in the ingredient list or to disclose that the Products contained artificial flavoring—impeded Plaintiff's and Class members' abilities to discover the deceptive and unlawful labeling of the Product throughout the Class Period.

88. Because Defendant actively concealed its illegal conduct, preventing Plaintiff and the Class from discovering its violations of state law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to delayed discovery and an extended Class Period tolling the applicable statute of limitations.

12

VI. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

10 89. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated 11 (the "Class") pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(a), 23(b)(2), and 23(b)(3).

90. The nationwide Class is defined as follows:

- All U.S. citizens who purchased the Product in their respective state of citizenship on or after January 1, 2012 and until the Class is certified, for personal use and not for resale, excluding Defendant and Defendant's officers, directors, employees, agents and affiliates, and the Court and its staff.
  - 91. The California sub-Class is defined as follows:
- All California citizens who purchased the Product in California on or after January 1, 2012 and until the Class is certified, for personal use and not for resale, excluding Defendant and Defendant's officers, directors, employees, agents and affiliates, and the Court and its staff.
- 92. During the Class Period, the Products unlawfully contained the undisclosed artificial flavor fumaric acid and was otherwise improperly labeled. Defendant failed to label the Product as required by California law.

93. During the Class Period, Class members purchased the misbranded Product, paying a price premium for the Product compared to similar products lawfully labeled.

94. The proposed Class meets all criteria for a class action, including numerosity,

1 typicality, superiority, and adequacy of representation.

2 95. The Product is offered for sale at over 100 Starbucks locations in California 3 alone; the Class numbers at minimum in the tens of thousands. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action against Defendant. While the 4 exact number and identities of other Class Members are unknown to Plaintiff at this time, 5 Plaintiff is informed and believes that there are hundreds of thousands of Members in the 6 Class. The Members of the Class are so numerous that joinder of all Members is 7 impracticable and the disposition of their claims in a class action rather than in individual 8 actions will benefit Class members, the parties, and the courts. 9

96. The proposed Class satisfies typicality. Plaintiff's claims are typical of and are not antagonistic to the claims of other Class members. Plaintiff and the Class members all purchased the Product, were deceived by the false and deceptive labeling, and lost money as a result, purchasing a Product that was illegal to sell in California.

14 97. The proposed Class satisfies superiority. A class action is superior to any 15 other means for adjudication of the Class members' claims because each Class member's 16 claim is modest, based on the Product's retail purchase price which is generally under 17 $5.00 per unit. It would be impractical for individual Class members to bring individual 18 lawsuits to vindicate such claims.

98. Because Defendant's misrepresentations were made on the label of the Products, all Class members including Plaintiff were exposed to and continue to be exposed to the omissions and affirmative misrepresentations. If this action is not brought as a class action, Defendant can continue to deceive consumers and violate California law with impunity.

99. The proposed Class representative satisfies adequacy of representation.
Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the Class as she seeks relief for the Class, her interests do not conflict with the interests of the Class members, and she has no interests antagonistic to those of other Class members. Plaintiff has retained counsel competent in the prosecution of consumer fraud and class action litigation.

1 100. There is a well-defined community of interest in questions of law and fact 2 common to the Class, and these predominate over any individual questions affecting 3 individual Class members in this action.

101. Questions of law and fact common to Plaintiff and the Class include: 4 Whether Defendant failed to disclose the presence of the 5 a. artificial flavoring ingredient fumaric acid in the Product; 6 Whether Defendant's labeling omissions and representations 7 b. constituted false advertising under California law; 8 Whether Defendant's conduct constituted a violation of 9 c. 10 California's Unfair Competition Law; Whether Defendant's conduct constituted a violation of 11 d. California's Consumer Legal Remedies Act; 12 13 Whether Defendant's label statements claiming solely natural e. 14 flavorings was an affirmative representation of the Product's 15 composition and conveyed an express warranty; f. Whether Defendant's conduct constitutes a breach of implied 16 17 warranties under California's Commercial Code: Whether the statute of limitations should be tolled on behalf of 18 g. 19 the Class; 20 h. Whether the Class is entitled to restitution, rescission, actual damages, punitive damages, attorney fees and costs of suit, and 21 injunctive relief; and 22 23 i. Whether members of the Class are entitled to any such further 24 relief as the Court deems appropriate.

102. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class, has no interests that are incompatible with the interests of the Class, and has retained counsel competent and experienced in class litigation.

28 103. Defendant has acted on grounds applicable to the entire Class, making final

1 injunctive relief or declaratory relief appropriate for the Class as a whole.

2 104. Class treatment is therefore appropriate under Federal Rule of Civil 3 Procedure 23.

4 105. Class damages will be adduced at trial through expert testimony and other 5 competent evidence.

106. On information and belief, based on publicly-available information, Plaintiff alleges that the total amount in controversy exclusive of fees, costs, and interest, based on the estimated price premium and Product revenues for sales to the Class in California during the proposed Class Period, exceeds $5 million.

10	VII. CAUSES OF ACTION
11	FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
12	FRAUD BY OMISSION
13	Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1709-1710
14	and the common law of all states
15	(on behalf of the Nationwide Class and the California Class)
16	107. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations made
17	elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.
18	108. Plaintiff brings this claim for fraud by omission pursuant to California Civil
19	Code §§ 1709-1710, et seq. and the common law of all states. The elements of fraud are
20	substantially similar from state to state, thus making nationwide class certification
21	appropriate.
22	109. Defendant actively concealed material facts, in whole or in part, with the interest to induce Disintiff and the members of the Class to membrase the District intent to induce Plaintiff and the members of the Class to purchase the Product. Specifically, Defendant actively concealed the truth about the Product by not disclosing the existence of artificial flavoring ingredients on the front label of the Product as is required by California and federal law.

26 110. Plaintiff and the Class were unaware of these omitted material facts and 27 would not have purchased the Product, or would have paid less for the Product, if they 28 had known of the concealed facts.

1 111. Plaintiff and the Class suffered injuries that were proximately caused by 2 Defendant's active concealments and omissions of material facts.

3 112. Defendant's fraudulent concealments and omissions were a substantial factor in causing the harm suffered by Plaintiff and the Class members as they would not have 4 purchased the Product at all if all material facts were properly disclosed. 5

NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION

and the common law of all states

(on behalf of the Nationwide Class and the California Class)

113. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations made elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.

114. Defendant had a duty to disclose to Plaintiff and the Class members the existence of artificial flavoring ingredients on the front labels of the Product pursuant to 14 California and federal law. Defendant was in a superior position than Plaintiff and the 15 Class members such that reliance by Plaintiff and the Class members was justified. 16 Defendant possessed the skills and expertise to know the type of information that would influence a consumer's purchasing decision.

18 115. During the applicable Class period, Defendant negligently or carelessly 19 misrepresented, omitted, and concealed from consumers material facts regarding the 20products, including the existence of artificial flavoring ingredients.

116. Defendant was careless in ascertaining the truth of their representations in 21 that they knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the Class members would not have 22 realized the true existence of artificial flavoring ingredients in the Product. 23

117. Plaintiff and the Class members were unaware of the falsity of Defendant's 24 misrepresentations and omissions and, as a result, justifiably relied on them when making 25 the decision to purchase the Product. 26

118. Plaintiff and the Class members would not have purchased the Product, or would have paid less for the Product, if the true facts had been known.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION VIOLATION OF THE CONSUMERS LEGAL REMEDIES ACT
CAL. CIV. CODE §§ 1750, et seq.
(on behalf of the California Class)

119. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations made elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.

7 120. The California Consumers Legal Remedies Act, Cal. Civ. Code § 1750 et 8 seq. ("CLRA") prohibits any unfair, deceptive and unlawful practices, and unconscionable 9 commercial practices in connection with the sale of any goods or services to consumers.

121. Plaintiff and the Class are "consumers" as defined by Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(d). The Products are a "good" as defined by Cal. Civ. Code § 1761.

122. Defendant's failure to label the Product in compliance with federal and state labeling regulations, was an unfair, deceptive, unlawful, and unconscionable commercial practice.

 123. Defendant's conduct violates the CLRA, including but not limited to, the following provisions:

§ 1770(a)(5): representing that goods have characteristics, uses, or benefits which they do not have.

§ 1770(a)(7): representing that goods are of a particular standard, quality, or grade if they are of another.

§ 1770(a)(9): advertising goods with intent not to sell them as advertised.

§ 1770(a)(16): representing the subject of a transaction has been supplied in accordance with a previous representation when it has not.

124. As a result of Defendant's violations, Plaintiff and the Class suffered ascertainable losses in the form of the price premiums they paid for the deceptively labeled and marketed Product, which they would not have paid had the Product been labeled truthfully, and in the form of the reduced value of the Product purchased compared to the Product as labeled and advertised.

125. On or about October 2, 2018, prior to filing this action, Plaintiff sent a CLRA notice letter to Defendant which complies with California Civil Code § 1782(a). Plaintiff sent Defendant, individually and on behalf of the proposed Class, a letter via Certified Mail, advising Defendant that it is in violation of the CLRA and demanding that they cease and desist from such violations and make full restitution by refunding the monies received therefrom.

6 126. Wherefore, Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief for Defendant's violations of the 7 CLRA. If Defendant fails to take the corrective action detailed in Plaintiff's CLRA letter 8 within thirty days of the date of the letter, then Plaintiff will seek leave to amend their 9 complaint to add a claim for damages under the CLRA.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA'S UNFAIR COMPETITION LAW (UNLAWFUL PRONG)

CAL. BUS. & PROF. CODE §§ 17200, et seq.

(on behalf of the California Class)

14
 127. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation 15 contained elsewhere in this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

16 128. Section 17200 of the California Business & Professions Code ("Unfair
17 Competition Law" or "UCL") prohibits any "unlawful," "unfair" and "fraudulent" 18 business practice. Section 17200 specifically prohibits any "unlawful . . . business act or 19 practice."

20 129. The UCL borrows violations of other laws and statutes and considers those 21 violations also to constitute violations of California law.

130. Defendant's practices as described herein were at all times during the Class Period and continue to be unlawful under, inter alia, FDA regulations and California's Sherman Law.

131. Among other violations, Defendant's conduct in unlawfully packaging and labeling and distributing the Product in commerce in California violated U.S. FDA and California packaging and labeling regulations.

28

12

13

132. The Product's front label fails to disclose that it contains synthetic artificial <sup>1</sup> flavoring in violation of 21 C.F.R. § 101.22 and California's Sherman Law.

133. The Product contains fumaric acid.

12

13

3 134. The fumaric acid is a flavoring material; it is included in the Product to create,
4 simulate and reinforce the characterizing fruit flavors.

5 135. The fumaric acid in the Product is not derived from a natural material as 6 defined in 21 C.F.R. § 101.22 and is therefore by law an artificial flavor.

7 136. Defendant fails to inform consumers of the presence of artificial flavors in 8 the Product on the front label as required by law.

9 137. Defendant's practices are therefore unlawful under Section 17200 et seq. of 10 the California Civil Code.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA'S UNFAIR COMPETITION LAW (UNFAIR PRONG)

CAL. BUS. & PROF. CODE §§ 17200, et seq.

(on behalf of the California Class)

15
 138. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation 16
 16 contained elsewhere in this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

17 139. Section 17200 of the California Business & Professions Code ("Unfair
18 Competition Law" or "UCL") prohibits any "unfair . . . business act or practice."
19 Defendant's practices violate the Unfair Competition Law "unfair" prong as well.

140. Defendant's practices as described herein are "unfair" within the meaning of the California Unfair Competition Law because the conduct is unethical and injurious to California residents and the utility of the conduct to Defendant does not outweigh the gravity of the harm to consumers.

141. While Defendant's decision to label the Product deceptively and in violation of California law may have some utility to Defendant in that it allows Defendant to sell the Products to consumers who otherwise would not purchase an artificially-flavored food product at the premium retail price, or at all, if it were labeled correctly, and to realize higher profit margins than if it formulated or labeled the Product lawfully, this utility is small and far outweighed by the gravity of the harm inflicts upon California consumers.

2 142. Defendant's conduct also injures competing food product manufacturers,
3 distributors, and sellers, that do not engage in the same unlawful, unfair, and unethical 4 behavior.

5 143. Moreover, Defendant's practices violate public policy expressed by specific 6 constitutional, statutory, or regulatory provisions, including the Sherman Law, the False 7 Advertising Law, and the FDA regulations cited herein.

8 144. Plaintiff's and all Class members' purchases of the Product all took place in 9 California.

 145. Defendant labeled the Product in violation of federal regulations and California law requiring truth in labeling.

146. Defendant consciously failed to disclose material facts to Plaintiff and the Class in Defendant's advertising and marketing of the Product.

13 147. Defendant's conduct is unconscionable because, among other reasons, it 14 violates 21 C.F.R. § 101.22(c), which requires all foods containing artificial flavoring to 15 include:

A statement of artificial flavoring . . . [which] shall be placed on the food or on its container or wrapper, or on any two or all three of these, as may be necessary to render such a statement likely to be read by the ordinary person under customary conditions of purchase and use of such food.

20 148. Defendant's conduct is also "unconscionable" because it violates, inter alia, 21 21 C.F.R. § 101.22, which requires all food products for which artificial flavoring provides 22 a characterizing flavor to disclose this fact prominently on the product's front label.

149. Defendant intended that Plaintiff and the Class rely on Defendant's acts and omissions to induce them to purchase the Product.

150. Had Defendant disclosed all material information regarding the Product, Plaintiff and the Class would not have purchased the Product or would only have been willing to pay less for the Product than they did.

28

12

16

17

18

151. Plaintiff and the Class suffered injury in fact and lost money or property as a result of Defendant's deceptive advertising: they were denied the benefit of the bargain when they purchased the Product based on Defendant's violation of the applicable laws and regulations, and purchased the Product in favor of competitors' products, which are less expensive, contain no artificial flavoring, or are lawfully labeled.

5 152. The acts, omissions, and practices of Defendant detailed herein proximately
6 caused Plaintiff and other members of the Class to suffer an ascertainable loss in the form
7 of, inter alia, the price premium of monies spent to purchase the Product they otherwise
8 would not have, and they are entitled to recover such damages, together with appropriate 9 penalties, including restitution, damages, attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

153. Section 17200 also prohibits any "unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading advertising." For the reasons set forth above, Defendant engaged in unfair, deceptive, untrue and misleading advertising in violation of California Business & Professions Code § 17200.

154. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code § 17203, Plaintiff seeks an order requiring Defendant to immediately cease such acts of unlawful, unfair, and fraudulent business practices and requiring Defendant to return to the Class the amount of money improperly collected.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION VIOLATION OF THE FALSE ADVERTISING LAW CAL. BUS. & PROF. CODE §§ 17500, et seq.

(on behalf of the California Class)

155. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained elsewhere in this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

156. Defendant manufactured, packaged, labeled, advertised, and distributed, in California and in interstate commerce, a Product that unlawfully failed to disclose the presence of artificial flavoring as required by federal and state food labeling regulations.

5 157. The Product's labeling and advertising in California presents the Product as if it is solely naturally-flavored.

158. Under California's False Advertising Law ("FAL"), Business and

12

13

14

Professions Code § 17500 et seq.,

"It is unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association, or any employee thereof with intent directly or indirectly to dispose of real or personal property . . . to make or disseminate or cause to be made or disseminated before the public in this state, or to make or disseminate or cause to be made or disseminated from this state before the public in any state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any advertising device . . . any statement, concerning that real or personal property . . . which is untrue or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading. . . ." Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17500.

159. Defendant's labeling and advertising statements on the Product's labels and in advertising and marketing materials are "advertising device[s]" under the FAL.

160. Defendant's labeling and advertising statements, communicating to consumers that the Product contains no artificial flavors and concealing the fact that the Product contains a synthetic artificial flavor, were untrue and misleading, and Defendant at a minimum by the exercise of reasonable care should have known those actions were false or misleading.

161. Defendant's conduct violated California's False Advertising Law.
 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION BREACH OF EXPRESS WARRANTIES
 CAL. COMM. CODE § 2313
 (on behalf of the California Class and all states with substantially similar laws)
 162. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained elsewhere in this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.
 163. The Product's front label misleadingly claims by operation of California law that the Product is flavored only with the listed natural flavors.

164. These promises became part of the basis of the bargain between the parties and thus constituted an express warranty, which Defendant breached. The Product is not "all natural" but is artificially flavored.

Case 3:18-cv-02286-JM-WVG Document 1 Filed 10/03/18 PageID.26 Page 26 of 29

1 165. Defendant sold the goods to Plaintiff and Class members who bought the 2 goods from Defendant.

3 166. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class did not receive goods as warranted by 4 Defendant.

5 167. Within a reasonable amount of time after Plaintiff discovered that the Product
6 contained synthetic ingredients, Plaintiff notified Defendant of such breach.

7 168. As a proximate result of this breach of warranty by Defendant, Plaintiff and 8 the Class have been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

EIGHT CAUSE OF ACTION BREACH OF IMPLIED WARRANTIES

CAL. COMM. CODE § 2314

(on behalf of the California Class and all states with substantially similar laws)

169. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the allegations made elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.

170. Defendant's label representations also created implied warranties that the product was suitable for a particular purpose, specifically as a naturally-flavored food product, and created implied warranties by operation of California statute.

171. Defendant breached these warranties.

 172. The Product's front label misleadingly implies that the Product is flavored 20 only with the natural ingredients comprising the characterizing flavors.

173. As alleged in detail above, at the time of purchase Defendant had reason to know that Plaintiff, as well as all members of the Class, intended to use the Product as naturally-flavored food product.

10

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

174. This became part of the basis of the bargain between the parties.

175. Based on that implied warranty, Defendant sold the goods to Plaintiff and other Class members who bought the goods from Defendant.

176. At the time of purchase, Defendant knew or had reason to know that Plaintiff and the Class members were relying on Defendant's skill and judgment to select or furnish a product that was suitable for this particular purpose, and Plaintiff and the Class justifiably relied on Defendant's skill and judgment.

177. The Product was not suitable for this purpose.

10

12

13

4 178. Plaintiff purchased the Product believing it had the qualities Plaintiff sought, 5 based on the deceptive advertising and labeling, but the Product was actually 6 unsatisfactory to Plaintiff for the reasons described herein.

7 179. Further, the Product was not merchantable in California because it was not
8 of the same quality as other products in the category generally acceptable in the trade.

180. The Product would not pass without objection in the trade when packaged with the existing labels, because the Product was misbranded and illegal to sell in California. Cal. Comm. Code 2314(2)(a).

181. The Product also was not acceptable commercially and breached its implied warranty because the Product was not adequately packaged and labeled as required. Cal. Comm. Code 2314(2)(e).

14 182. The Product also was not commercially acceptable and breached its implied 15 warranty because it did not conform to the promises or affirmations of fact made on the 16 container or label, Cal. Comm. Code 2314(2)(f), and other grounds as set forth in 17 Commercial Code section 2314(2).

18 183. By offering the Product for sale and distributing the Product in California, 19 Defendant also warranted that the Product was not misbranded and was legal to purchase 20 in California. Because the Product was misbranded in several regards and was therefore 21 illegal to sell or offer for sale in California, Defendant breached this warranty as well.

184. As a result of this breach, Plaintiff and the Class did not receive goods as impliedly warranted by Defendant.

185. Within a reasonable amount of time after the Plaintiff discovered that the Product contained synthetic flavoring ingredients, Plaintiff notified Defendant of such breach.

186. As a proximate result of this breach of warranty, Plaintiff and the Class have been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

187. As a result, Plaintiff, the Class, and the general public are entitled to injunctive and equitable relief, restitution, and an order for the disgorgement of the funds by which Defendant was unjustly enriched.

VIII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, all others similarly situated in California, and the general public, pray for judgment against Defendant as follows:

- A. An order confirming that this action is properly maintainable as a class action as defined above;
- B. An order appointing Plaintiff as class representative and The Law Office of Ronald A. Marron as counsel for the Class;
  - C. An order requiring Defendant to bear the cost of Class notice;
  - D. An order declaring that the conduct complained of herein violates the CLRA;
  - E. An order declaring that the conduct complained of herein violates the UCL;
  - F. An order declaring that the conduct complained of herein violates the FAL;
  - G. An order declaring that the conduct complained of herein breached express warranties, implied warranties, or both;
- H. An order requiring Defendant to disgorge any benefits received from Plaintiff and any unjust enrichment realized as a result of the improper and misleading labeling, advertising, and marketing of the Products;
- I. An order requiring Defendant to pay restitution and damages to Plaintiff and Class members so that they may be restored any money which was acquired by means of any unfair, deceptive, unconscionable or negligent acts;
- J. An award of punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial;
  - K. An order enjoining Defendant's deceptive and unfair practices;
  - L. An order requiring Defendant to conduct corrective advertising;
    - M. An award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;
  - N. An award of attorney fees and costs; and
  - O. Such other and further relief as this Court may deem just, equitable, or proper.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I.(a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- (b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)
- (c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below. United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here. United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box. Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If there are multiple nature of suit codes associated with the case, pick the nature of suit code that is most applicable. Click here for: Nature of Suit Code Descriptions.
- V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date. Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation – Transfer. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407.

Multidistrict Litigation – Direct File. (8) Check this box when a multidistrict case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket. PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE IS NOT AN ORIGIN CODE 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statue.

- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P. Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction. Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
