

NOTICE OF DATA SECURITY EVENT

Community Realty Management, Inc. is providing notice of a recent incident that may affect the privacy of certain individuals' personal information. While we are unaware of any attempted or actual misuse of information, below are details of the incident, Community Realty Management, Inc.'s response, and steps individuals may take to better protect their personal information, should they feel it appropriate to do so.

What Happened? Last year, Community Realty Management, Inc. became aware of suspicious activity in our email tenant. We promptly took steps to secure our systems and launched an internal investigation to determine the nature and scope of the activity. We also engaged third-party cybersecurity specialists to conduct a separate analysis of the event. Those investigations determined that there was unauthorized access to a limited number of email accounts from September 10, 2024 to October 22, 2024. Thereafter, we conducted a comprehensive review to determine what information was potentially at risk and to whom it related. We completed this process on April 14, 2025, and determined that certain information was contained within the potentially impacted emails and attachments. We then reviewed our internal records to locate addresses for potentially impacted individuals. These efforts are now complete and Community Realty Management, Inc. is mailing notices to potentially impacted individuals for whom we have an address.

What Information Was Involved? Information that was impacted varies by individual but includes name and one or more of the following: date of birth, Social Security number, driver's license number, other government identification number, passport number, financial information, payment card information, medical information, and health insurance information.

Community Realty Management, Inc. takes the confidentiality, privacy, and security of information in our care very seriously. Upon discovering the issue, we promptly commenced an investigation to confirm the nature and scope, and to identify what information could have been affected.

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO PROTECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer's express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer's name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
