IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF PHILADELPHIA COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

DOCKETED

SEP 3 0 2025

JANE DOE, Individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

No.: 230702146

R. POSTELL COMMERCE PROGRAM

Plaintiff,

vs.

MAIN LINE FERTILITY, LTD. and MAIN LINE FERTILITY CENTER, INC., collectively d/b/a MAIN LINE FERTILITY, Defendants.

Assigned to: Hon. James Crumlish III

ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Before the Court is Jane Doe's ("Plaintiff") Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (the "Motion"), the terms of which are set forth in a Settlement Agreement between Plaintiff and Main Line Fertility, Ltd. and Main Line Fertility Center, Inc., collectively d/b/a Main Line Fertility ("MLF" or "Defendants" and, together with Plaintiff, the "Parties"), with accompanying exhibits attached as Exhibit 1 to Plaintiff's Memorandum of Law in Support of her Motion (the "Settlement Agreement").

Having fully considered the issue, the Court hereby GRANTS the Motion and ORDERS as follows:

1. Class Certification for Settlement Purposes Only. The Settlement Agreement provides for a Settlement Class defined as follows:

All patients of Main Line Fertility, Ltd. and/or Main Line Fertility Center, Inc., collectively d/b/a Main Line Fertility, who had a patient portal account with Main Line Fertility as of February 5, 2025.

ORDER-Doe Vs Main Line Fertility Ltd Etal [RCP]

129314.000001\4920-8229-4627.1

¹ All defined terms in this Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement ("Preliminary Approval Order") have the same meaning as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, unless otherwise indicated.

Specifically excluded from the Settlement Class are:

(1) Any Judge presiding over this Action, any members of the Judges' respective staffs, and immediate members of the Judge's family; (2) officers and directors of the Defendant, its agents, affiliates, subsidiaries, parent companies, successors, predecessors, and any entity in which the Defendant or its parents have a controlling interest; (3) persons who timely and validly request exclusion from and/or opt-out of the Settlement Class; (4) the legal representatives, successors or assigns of any such excluded persons; and (5) Class Counsel.

Pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1714, the Court finds that giving notice is justified. The Court finds that it will likely be able to approve the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court also finds that it will likely be able to certify the Settlement Class for purposes of judgment on the Settlement because it finds that, solely for the purposes of settlement and notice, the requirements of Pa. R. Civ. P. 1702, 1708, 1709 and 1714 have been met. Specifically, the Court finds for settlement purposes that: (a) the Settlement Class is so numerous that joinder of all Settlement Class Members would be impracticable; (b) there are issues of law and fact that are common to the Settlement Class; (c) the claims of the Class Representative are typical of and arise from the same operative facts and the Class Representative seeks similar relief as the claims of the Settlement Class Members; (d) the Class Representative will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Settlement Class under the criteria set forth in Rule 1709 as the Class Representative has no interests antagonistic to or in conflict with the Settlement Class and has retained experienced and competent counsel to prosecute this Litigation on behalf of the Settlement Class, and Class Counsel has adequate financial resources to prosecute the litigation; (e) questions of law or fact common to Settlement Class Members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members; and (f) a class action and class settlement is superior to other methods available for a fair and efficient resolution of this Litigation.

2. Settlement Class Representatives and Settlement Class Counsel. The Court finds that Plaintiff Jane Doe will likely satisfy the requirements of Rule 1709 and should be appointed as the Class Representative. Additionally, the Court finds that CohenMalad LLP, J

Stranch, Jennings & Garvey PLLC, Strauss Borelli, LLP, and Saltz Mongeluzzi & Bendesky

P.C. should be appointed as Class Counsel.

3. Preliminary Settlement Approval. Upon preliminary review, the Court finds the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate to warrant providing notice of the Settlement to the Settlement Class and accordingly is preliminarily approved. In making this determination, the Court has considered the monetary and non-monetary benefits provided to the Settlement Class through the Settlement, the specific risks faced by the Settlement Class in prevailing on their claims, the good faith, arms' length negotiations between the Parties and absence of any collusion in the Settlement, the effectiveness of the proposed method for distributing relief to the Settlement Class, the proposed manner of allocating benefits to Settlement Class Members, the Settlement treats the Settlement Class Members equitably, that sufficient discovery has been taken or investigation completed to enable counsel and the court to act intelligently; that the proponents of the settlement are counsel experienced in similar litigation; the risks of establishing liability and damages, the range of reasonableness of the settlement in light of the best possible recovery, the range of reasonableness of the settlement in light of all the attendant risks of litigation, the complexity, expense and likely duration of the litigation, the stage of the proceedings and the amount of discovery completed, the recommendation of competent counsel, and all of the other factors required by Rules 1702, 1708, and 1709 and relevant case law.

4. Jurisdiction. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction and personal jurisdiction over the parties before it. Additionally, venue is proper in this county because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in this county.

5. Final Approval Hearing. A Final Approval Hearing shall be held on 2022 [DEFINE ADDRESS] or Joseph or Jo

6. Settlement Administrator. The Court appoints Simpluris as the Settlement Administrator, with responsibility for class notice and settlement administration. The Settlement Administrator is directed to perform all tasks the Settlement Agreement requires. The Settlement Administrator's fees will be paid pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

Class Representatives for Service Awards should be approved.

- 7. Notice. The proposed notice program set forth in the Settlement Agreement and the Notices and Claim Form attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibits A, B, and C are hereby approved. Non-material modifications to these Exhibits may be made by the Settlement Administrator in consultation and agreement with the Parties, and without further order of the Court.
- 8. Findings Concerning Notice. The Court finds that the proposed form, content, and method of giving Notice to the Settlement Class as described in the Notice program and the Settlement Agreement and its exhibits: (a) will constitute the best practicable notice to the Settlement Class; (b) are reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement

Class Members of the pendency of the Litigation, the terms of the proposed Settlement, and their rights under the proposed Settlement, including, but not limited to, their rights to object to or exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement and other rights under the terms of the Settlement Agreement; (c) are reasonable and constitute due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class Members and other persons entitled to receive notice; (d) meet all applicable requirements of law, including Rule 1712; and (e) and meet the requirements of the Due Process Clause(s) of the United States and Pennsylvania Constitutions. The Court further finds that the terminology, and is designed to be readily understandable by Settlement Class Members.

The Settlement Administrator is directed to carry out the Notice program in conformance with the Settlement Agreement.

10. Exclusion from Class. Any Settlement Class Member who wishes to be excluded from the Settlement Class must individually sign and timely submit written notice of such intent to the designated Post Office box established by the Settlement Administrator in the manner from the Settlement Class. To be effective, such requests for exclusion must be postmarked no

Initial Direct Notice program is complete pursuant to ¶ 4.1(b) in the Settlement Agreement, and

In the event that within seven (7) days after the Opt-Out Date as approved by the Court, there have been more than fifty (50) timely and valid Opt-Outs (exclusions) submitted,

If a Final Order and Judgment is entered, all Persons falling within the definition of the Settlement Class who do not request to be excluded from the Settlement Class shall be bound by Notice. The Website Notice shall instruct Settlement Class Members who wish to object to the Settlement Agreement to file their objections with the Court and to mail copies to Class Counsel and Defendants' counsel. The Notice shall advise Settlement Class Members of the deadline for submission of any objections—the "Objection Date." Any such notices of an intent to object to the Settlement Agreement must be written and must include all of the following: (i) the objector's full name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address (if any); (ii) information identifying the objector as a Settlement Class Member, including proof that the objector is a to the Settlement Agreement, and shall be bound by all the terms of the Settlement Agreement and by all proceedings, orders, and judgments in the Litigation. The provisions stated in ¶ 4 of the Settlement Agreement shall be the exclusive means for any challenge to the Settlement Agreement. Any challenge to the Settlement Agreement, or the Final Order and Judgment to be entered upon final approval shall be pursuant to appeal under the Pennsylvania Rules of

Appellate Procedure and not through a collateral attack.

12. Claims Process. Settlement Class Counsel and Defendants' counsel have created a process for Settlement Class Members to claim benefits under the Settlement. The Court preliminarily approves this process and directs the Settlement Administrator to make the Claim

Form or its substantial equivalent available to Settlement Class Members in the manner specified in the Notice.

The Settlement Administrator will be responsible for effectuating the claims process.

Settlement Class Members who qualify for and wish to submit a Claim Form shall do so in accordance with the requirements and procedures specified in the Notice and the Claim Form.

If the Final Order and Judgment is entered, all Settlement Class Members who qualify for any benefit under the Settlement but fail to submit a claim in accordance with the requirements and procedures specified in the Notice and the Claim Form shall be forever barred from receiving any such benefit, but will in all other respects be subject to and bound by the provisions in the Final Order and Judgment, including the releases contained therein.

and before they entered the Settlement Agreement, if: (a) the Court does not enter this

Preliminary Approval Order; (b) Settlement is not finally approved by the Court or is terminated in accordance with the Settlement Agreement; or (c) there is no Effective Date. In such event, (i) the Parties shall be restored to their respective positions in the Litigation and shall jointly request that all scheduled Litigation deadlines be reasonably extended by the Court so as to avoid prejudice to any Party or Party's counsel; (ii) the terms and provisions of the Settlement

Agreement shall have no further force and effect with respect to the Parties and shall not be used in the Litigation or in any other proceeding for any purpose, and (iii) any judgment or order entered by the Court in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement shall be treated as vacated, nunc pro tunc.

14. Use of Order. This Preliminary Approval Order shall be of no force or effect if the Final Order and Judgment is not entered or there is no Effective Date and shall not be construed or used as an admission, concession, or declaration by or against Defendant of any fault, wrongdoing, breach, or liability. Nor shall this Preliminary Approval Order be construed or used as an admission, concession, or declaration by or against the Class Representatives or any other Settlement Class Member that his or her claims lack merit or that the relief requested is inappropriate, improper, unavailable, or as a waiver by any Party of any defense or claims they may have in this Litigation or in any other lawsuit.

Continuance of Hearing. The Court reserves the right to adjourn or continue the Final Fairness Hearing and related deadlines without further written notice to the Settlement Class. If the Court alters any of those dates or times, the revised dates and times shall be posted on the Settlement Website maintained by the Settlement Administrator. The Court may approve the Settlement, with such modifications as may be agreed upon by the Parties, if appropriate, without further notice to the Settlement Class.
