Notice of Data Security Incident

Forrestall CPAs LLC (“Forrestall”) recognizes the importance of protecting the personal information we maintain. Forrestall is providing notice of a data security incident. This notice explains the incident, the measures we have taken, and some steps you may consider taking in response.

We recently concluded an investigation into an incident involving unauthorized access to certain of our systems. Upon discovering the incident, we took measures to secure our systems and launched an investigation. A cybersecurity firm was engaged to assist. Our investigation determined that an unauthorized individual viewed and obtained certain files on our network. We reviewed those files and determined that they contained certain individuals’ names and personal information, including Social Security numbers, driver’s license numbers, state identification card numbers, and/or financial account information.

Forrestall began notifying affected individuals on August 7, 2026. We have received no reports or evidence to suggest fraud or identity theft occurred as a result of this incident. We nonetheless encourage you remain vigilant for instances of fraud or identity theft, from any source. You should monitor your account statements, credit reports, and explanations of benefits (EOBs) and report any suspicious activity to your financial institution or the appropriate service provider. You may also file a report with law enforcement, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission. Please refer to the below “Additional Steps to Help Protect Your Information” for more information and recommended steps you can take in response to this event, should you find it appropriate to do so.

We regret any inconvenience or concern this incident may have caused. If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact our dedicated response line at 888-500-5670, Monday through Friday, between 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time, except holidays.
