Counsel for Plaintiff and the Proposed Class

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

John Forrett, individually, and on behalf of those similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

West Thomas Partners, LLC d/b/a GFB,

Defendant.

CASE NO.
CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT
Demand for Jury Trial

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff John Forrett (“Plaintiff”) brings this action, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, against Defendant West Thomas Partners, LLC d/b/a GFB (“Defendant”). Plaintiff makes the following allegations pursuant to the investigation of counsel and based upon information and belief, except as to the allegations specifically pertaining to himself, which are based on personal knowledge.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

2 1. This case arises out of Defendant’s deceptive, misleading, and unlawful 3 practices with respect to its marketing and sale of its GFB Gluten Free Bites which
4 are sold in a variety of flavors (collectively, the “Product” or “Products”).¹

5 2. Defendant manufactures and sells its Products throughout the United 6 States in a variety of physical and e-commerce stores.

7 3. Defendant’s marketing stresses the importance of protein consumption,
8 the health benefits of its Products, and the high-protein nature of its Products.

9 4. Notably, all Products are labeled as “PROTEIN PACKED” despite not 10 being high in protein.

11 5. Moreover, in violation of federal regulations, Defendant attempts to 12 perpetuate this deception by prominently making protein claims on the Principal
13 Display Panel and the back of the packaging while also omitting the Percent Daily
14 Value for protein in the Nutrition Facts panel on the Products’ labels.

15 6. Plaintiff and other reasonable consumers purchased the Products
16 believing that they were accurately represented. Specifically, Plaintiff and reasonable 17 consumers believed that the Products contained accurate label information and 18 representations. Plaintiff and other reasonable consumers would not have purchased 19 the Products if they had known about the misrepresentations and omissions, or would 20 have purchased them on different terms.

21 7. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of those similarly 22 situated and seeks to represent a California Class and a Nationwide Class. Plaintiff
23 seeks damages, interest thereon, reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, restitution, 24 other equitable relief, and disgorgement of all benefits Defendant has enjoyed from 25 its unlawful and deceptive business practices, as detailed herein. In addition,
26

27 ¹ At the time of this filing, the following GFB Bites products are included in this
28 definition: Dark Chocolate Coconut, Dark Chocolate Peanut Butter, Coconut Cashew
Crunch, Chocolate Cherry Almond, Dark Chocolate Almond, and Peanut Butter. This definition is not exhaustive, and shall include all of Defendant’s products that are similarly deceptively marketed.

GOOD GUSTAFSON AUMAIS LLP

1 Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief to stop Defendant’s unlawful conduct in the labeling
2 and marketing of the Products.

3 PARTIES

4 8. Plaintiff is a citizen of California, who purchased the Products during 5 the class period, as described herein. Plaintiff’s claim is typical of all Class Members
6 in this regard. In addition, the advertising and labeling on the package of the 7 Products purchased by Plaintiff, including the representations, is typical of the 8 advertising and labeling of the Products purchased by members of the Class. In May 9 2020, Plaintiff purchased Defendant’s Dark Chocolate + Peanut Butter Gluten Free
10 Bites at a price of $4.99 per bag from a CVS store located in San Jose, CA. In making 11 his purchase, Plaintiff relied upon Defendant’s labeling and advertising claims,
12 namely, the “protein packed” representations made throughout the Product’s 13 packaging.

14 9. Defendant is a Michigan company with its principal place of business in 15 Grand Rapids, Michigan. Defendant produces, markets and distributes its consumer
16 food products in retail stores across the United States including stores physically
17 located in the State of California and in this district.

18 10. Whenever reference is made in this Complaint to any representation, 19 act, omission, or transaction of a defendant, that allegation shall mean that the 20 defendant did the act, omission, or transaction through its officers, directors, 21 employees, agents, and/or representatives while they were acting within the actual or 22 ostensible scope of their authority.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 11. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant. Defendant 25 purposefully avails itself of the California consumer market and distributes the 26 Products to many locations within this District and hundreds of retail locations
27 throughout the State of California, where the Products are purchased by hundreds of 28 consumers every day.

GOOD GUSTAFSON AUMAIS LLP

1 back of each Products' labels, (2) the claim that each product is "PROTEIN
 2 PACKED," and (3) the omission of the Percent Daily Value for protein in the 3 Nutrition Facts panel.

18. On the front label, as shown above, the Defendant prominently represents that the product is “PROTEIN PACKED.”

19. On the rear label, as shown above, the Defendant prominently represents that the product is “Protein-packed” in two locations.

20. In the Nutrition Facts panel, as shown above, the Defendant notably omits the Percent Daily Value for protein.

B. Defendant Violates Identical Federal and State Regulations

GOOD GUSTAFSON AUMAIS LLP

1 a. Federal and State Regulations are Identical

2 21. The FDA oversees the regulation and labeling of food pursuant to the 3 Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (“FDCA”).

4 22. California’s Sherman Food, Drug and Cosmetic Law, Cal. Heath & Saf.
5 Code § 110765 et seq. (the “Sherman Law”), incorporates all food labeling regulations
6 promulgated by the FDA under the FDCA. See e.g., Cal. Heath & Saf. Code §
7 110100(a) (“All food labeling regulations and any amendments to those regulations
8 adopted pursuant to the federal act, in effect on January 1, 1993, or adopted on or 9 after that date shall be the food labeling regulations of this state.”), § 110380 and § 10 110505.

11 b. Regulations Governing the Labeling of Food Products

12 23. 21 U.S.C. § 343 addresses misbranded food and states that a “food shall 13 be deemed to be misbranded – (a) If (1) its labeling is false or misleading in any 14 particular, or (2) in the case of a food to which section 350 of this title applies, its 15 advertising is false or misleading in a material respect or its labeling is in violation of 16 section 350(b)(2) of this title.” See 21 U.S.C. § 343(a).

17 24. All Products contain 4 to 5 grams of protein per serving.

18 25. All Products make nutrient content claims concerning protein content.

19 26. Reasonable consumers, including Plaintiff, believe that the term
20 “PROTEIN PACKED” means that the products are “high” in protein or constitute an 21 “excellent source” of protein.

22 27. This consumer belief is consistent with FDA regulations that provide a 23 benchmark for the ability to claim that a food product is “high,” “rich in,” or “excellent
24 source of” a particular nutrient – 10 grams or more per serving for protein. See 21
25 C.F.R. § 101.54; 21 C.F.R. § 101.9(c)(7)(iii).

26 28. To make a claim that a food is “high” in protein, the foods must meet a 27 certain level of Reference Daily Intake (RDI) or Daily Reference Value (DRV). For 28 example, 21 C.F.R. § 101.54 requires that the “food contains 20 percent or more of the

GOOD GUSTAFSON AUMAIS LLP

1 RDI or the DRV per reference amount customarily consumed.” For protein, the FDA
2 has established that the RDI or DRV for adults and children over 4 years old is 50
3 grams. 21 C.F.R. § 101.9(c)(7)(iii).

4 29. Generally, a manufacturer is not required to include the DRV for 5 protein. However, when a product’s label makes a nutrient content claim related to 6 protein content, the manufacturer is required to include the DRV.²

7 30. The Products fail to include the Percent Daily Value for protein.

8 31. At most, the Products contain only 50% of the protein content required
9 to substantiate high protein claims.

10 32. By artfully omitting the DRV for protein, the Defendant is able to 11 mislead and deceive consumers that the Products are excellent sources of protein.

12 33. Despite containing only deficient amounts of protein, consumers are 13 misled by Defendant’s marketing, labeling, and advertising to believe that the 14 Products are high in protein.

15 c. The Products Are Misbranded Under the Regulations Governing
16 the Labeling of Food Products

17 34. The marketing of the Products as “PROTEIN PACKED” in a prominent 18 location on the labels of all of the Products, throughout the Class Period, evidences 19 Defendant’s awareness that high protein claims are material to consumers.

20 35. As described herein, the Products contain deficient amounts of protein to 21 justify these claims.

22 36. Thus, the Products’ labels are false and misleading, and therefore the 23 Products are misbranded.

25
26
27 ² 21 C.F.R. § 101.9(c)(7) and see Guidance for Industry: A Food Labeling Guide, U.S.
28 FOOD & DRUG ADMINISTRATION, <https://www.fda.gov/files/food/published/Food-Labeling-Guide-%28PDF%29.pdf> at N22 (“The percent of the DRV is required if a protein claim is made for the product or if the product is represented or purported to be for use by infants or children under 4 years of age.”) (last visited March 20, 2022).

1 37. To be clear, Plaintiff does not allege any claims pursuant to the FDCA
2 and Sherman Law and relies on these regulations only to the extent they provide a 3 predicate basis for liability under state and common law, as set forth herein.

4 C. Plaintiff and Consumers Purchased the Products to Their

5 Detriment

6 38. Plaintiff and the Class Members reasonably relied to their detriment on 7 Defendant's misleading representations and omissions.

8 39. Defendant's false, misleading, and deceptive misrepresentations and 9 omissions are likely to continue to deceive and mislead reasonable consumers and the 10 general public, as they have already deceived and misled the Plaintiff and the Class
11 Members.

12 40. In making the false, misleading, and deceptive representations and 13 omissions described herein, Defendant knew and intended that consumers would pay 14 a premium for Products labeled high protein over comparable products not so labeled.

15 41. As an immediate, direct, and proximate result of Defendant's false, 16 misleading, and deceptive representations and omissions, Defendant injured the 17 Plaintiff and the Class Members in that they:

- 18 a. Paid a sum of money for Products that were not what Defendant
19 represented;
- 20 b. Paid a premium price for Products that were not what Defendant
21 represented;
- 22 c. Were deprived of the benefit of the bargain because the Products they 23 purchased were different from what Defendant warranted; and
- 24 d. Were deprived of the benefit of the bargain because the Products they 25 purchased had less value than what Defendant represented.

26 42. Had Defendant not made the false, misleading, and deceptive
27 representations and omissions, Plaintiff and the Class Members would not have been 28 willing to pay the same amount for the Products they purchased, and, consequently,

GOOD GUSTAFSON AUMAIS LLP

1 Plaintiff and the Class Members would not have been willing to purchase the 2 Products.

3 43. Plaintiff and the Class Members paid for Products that were high in 4 protein but received Products that were not high in protein. The products Plaintiff
5 and the Class Members received were worth less than the Products for which they 6 paid.

7 44. Based on Defendant's misleading and deceptive representations,
8 Defendant was able to, and did, charge a premium price for the Products over the cost
9 of competitive products that are not represented as high in protein.

10 45. Plaintiff and the Class Members all paid money for the Products.
11 However, Plaintiff and the Class Members did not obtain the full value of the 12 advertised Products due to Defendant's misrepresentations and omissions. Plaintiff 13 and the Class Members purchased, purchased more of, and/or paid more for, the 14 Products than they would have had they known the truth about the Products.
15 Consequently, Plaintiff and the Class Members have suffered injury in fact and lost
16 money as a result of Defendant's wrongful conduct.

17 FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

18 46. Consumers are focused on increasing the amount of protein in their 19 diets. This increased demand indicates that consumers are willing to pay a premium
20 for products labeled and marketed as high protein.³

21 47. Defendant's Products are manufactured, distributed, and marketed by 22 Defendant and sold in drug, grocery, and other online and brick-and-mortar retail 23 stores nationwide.

24 48. Based on the language that appears on each product, Plaintiff
25 reasonably believed that Products were high in protein.

GOOD GUSTAFSON AUMAIS LLP

1 putative classes that predominate over questions that may affect individual Class
2 Members include, but are not limited to the following:

- 3 a. whether Defendant misrepresented material facts concerning the 4 Products on the label of every product;
- 5 b. whether Defendant's conduct was unfair, misleading, and/or deceptive;
- 6 c. whether Defendant has been unjustly enriched as a result of the 7 unlawful, fraudulent, and unfair conduct alleged in this Complaint such 8 that it would be inequitable for Defendant to retain the benefits
9 conferred upon them by Plaintiff and the classes;
- 10 d. whether Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to equitable and/or 11 injunctive relief;
- 12 e. whether Defendant breached express warranties to Plaintiff and the 13 classes;
- 14 f. whether Plaintiff and the classes have sustained damages with respect 15 to the common-law claims asserted, and if so, the proper measure of 16 their damages.

17 55. Plaintiff's claims are typical of those of other Class Members because 18 Plaintiff, like all members of the classes, purchased Defendant's Products bearing the 19 high protein representations and Plaintiff sustained damages from Defendant's 20 wrongful conduct.

21 56. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the classes
22 and has retained counsel that is experienced in litigating complex class actions.
23 Plaintiff has no interests which conflict with those of the classes.

24 57. A class action is superior to any other available means for the fair and 25 efficient adjudication of this controversy, and no unusual difficulties are likely to be 26 encountered in the management of this class action. The damages or other financial 27 detriment suffered by Plaintiff and the other Class Members are relatively small 28 compared to the burden and expense that would be required to individually litigate

1 their claims against Defendant, making it impracticable for Class Members to
 2 individually seek redress for Defendant’s wrongful conduct. Even if Class Members
 3 could afford individual litigation, the court system could not. Individualized litigation 4 creates a potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments, and increases the 5 delay and expense to all parties and the court system. By contrast, the class action 6 device presents far fewer management difficulties, and provides the benefits of single 7 adjudication, economies of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court.

8 58. The prerequisites to maintaining a class action for equitable relief are 9 met as Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the 10 classes, thereby making appropriate equitable relief with respect to the classes as a 11 whole.

12 59. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the classes would 13 create a risk of establishing inconsistent rulings and/or incompatible standards of 14 conduct for Defendant. For example, one court might enjoin Defendant from 15 performing the challenged acts, whereas another might not. Additionally, individual
 16 actions could be dispositive of the interests of the classes even where certain Class
 17 Members are not parties to such actions.

18 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

19 Violations of the Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”),

20 Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 *et seq.

21 60. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every factual allegation
 22 contained in the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

23 61. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of 24 the proposed California Class against the Defendant.

25 62. Defendant’s conduct constitutes an unfair business act and practice 26 pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. (the “UCL”). The 27 UCL provides, in pertinent part: “Unfair competition shall mean and include 28

GOOD GUSTAFSON AUMAIS LLP

1 unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business practices and unfair, deceptive, untrue or 2 misleading advertising”

3 63. Defendant’s knowing conduct, as alleged herein, constitutes an “unfair”
4 and/or “fraudulent” business practice, as set forth in California Business &
5 Professions Code §§ 17200-17208.

6 64. Defendant’s conduct was and continues to be unfair and fraudulent
7 because, directly or through its agents and employees, Defendant made materially 8 false representations and omissions.

9 65. As described herein, Defendant made representations that the Products
10 are high in protein when the Products are not high in protein.

11 66. Defendant is aware that the representations and omissions they have 12 made about the Products were and continue to be false and misleading.

13 67. Defendant had an improper motive—to derive financial gain at the 14 expense of accuracy or truthfulness—in its practices related to the labeling and 15 advertising of the Products.

16 68. There were reasonable alternatives available to Defendant to further its 17 legitimate business interests, other than the conduct described herein.

18 69. Defendant’s misrepresentations of material facts, as set forth herein,
19 also constitute an “unlawful” practice because they violate California Civil Code §§ 20 1572, 1573, 1709, 1710, 1711, and 1770 and the laws and regulations cited herein, as 21 well as the common law.

22 70. Defendant’s conduct in making the representations and omissions 23 described herein constitutes a knowing failure to adopt policies in accordance with 24 and adherence to applicable laws, as set forth herein, all of which are binding upon
25 and burdensome to their competitors. This conduct creates an unfair competitive 26 advantage for Defendant, thereby constituting an unfair business practice under 27 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200-17208.
28

GOOD GUSTAFSON AUMAIS LLP

1 71. In addition, Defendant’s conduct was, and continues to be, unfair in that 2 its injury to countless purchasers of the Products is substantial, and is not
3 outweighed by any countervailing benefits to consumers or to competitors.

4 72. Moreover, Plaintiff and members of the California Class could not have 5 reasonably avoided such injury. Defendant’s material misrepresentations and 6 omissions regarding the Products were likely to deceive, and Defendant knew or 7 should have known that its misrepresentations and omissions were untrue and 8 misleading. Plaintiff purchased the Products in reliance on the representations made 9 by Defendant, including that the Products’ labeling was accurate as alleged herein,
10 and without knowledge of Defendant’s misrepresentations and omissions.

11 73. Plaintiff and members of the California Class have been directly and 12 proximately injured by Defendant’s conduct in ways including, but not limited to, the 13 monies paid to Defendant for the Products, interest lost on those monies, and 14 consumers’ unwitting support of a business enterprise that promotes deception and 15 undue greed to the detriment of consumers, such as Plaintiff and members of the 16 California Class.

17 74. As a result of the business acts and practices described above, Plaintiff
18 and members of the California Class, pursuant to § 17203, are entitled to an Order
19 enjoining such future wrongful conduct on the part of Defendant and such other
20 Orders and judgments that may be necessary to disgorge Defendant’s ill-gotten gains
21 and to restore to any person in interest any money paid for the Products as a result of 22 the wrongful conduct of Defendant.

23 75. Pursuant to Civil Code § 3287(a), Plaintiff and the members of the 24 California Class are further entitled to pre-judgment interest as a direct and 25 proximate result of Defendant’s unfair and fraudulent business conduct. The amount 26 on which interest is to be calculated is a sum certain and capable of calculation, and 27 Plaintiff and the class members are entitled to interest in an amount according to 28 proof.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Violations of the False Advertising Law (“FAL”),

Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17500 et seq.

76. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every factual allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

77. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the proposed California Class against the Defendant.

78. California’s False Advertising Law, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17500, et seq., makes it “unlawful for any person to make or disseminate or cause to be made or disseminated before the public in this state, ... in any advertising device ... or in any other manner or means whatever, including over the Internet, any statement, concerning ... personal property or services, professional or otherwise, or performance or disposition thereof, which is untrue or misleading and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading.”

79. Defendant committed acts of false advertising, as defined by §§ 17500, et seq., by misrepresenting that the Products were high in protein.

80. Defendant knew or should have known through the exercise of reasonable care that its “PROTEIN PACKED” representation and other misrepresentations for the Products were false, misleading and/or deceptive.

81. Defendant’s actions in violation of § 17500 were false and misleading such that the general public is and was likely to be deceived. Consumers, including Plaintiff and members of the California Class, necessarily and reasonably relied on Defendant’s statements regarding the contents of its products. Consumers, including Plaintiff and members of the California Class, were among the intended targets of such representations.

82. As a result of Defendant’s conduct, Plaintiff and members of the California Class were harmed and suffered actual damages as a result of Defendant’s FAL violations because: (a) they would not have purchased the Products on the same

1 terms if they knew that the Products were not high in protein; (b) they paid a price
 2 premium for the Products based on Defendant’s misrepresentations and omissions;
 3 and (c) the Products do not have the characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, or 4 quantities as promised, namely the represented protein content. Additionally,
 5 misbranded food products cannot legally be manufactured, held, advertised,
 6 distributed or sold. Thus, misbranded food has no economic value and is worthless as 7 a matter of law, and purchasers of misbranded food are entitled to a refund of the 8 purchase price of the misbranded food. Plaintiff and members of the California Class 9 have thus been damaged either in the full amount of the purchase price of the 10 Products or in the difference in value between the Products as warranted and the 11 Products as actually sold. Defendant has further been unjustly enriched at the 12 expense of Plaintiff and the members of the California Class.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Violations of the Consumer Legal Remedies Act (“CLRA”), Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1750 et seq.

16 83. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every factual allegation
 17 contained in the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

18 84. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of 19 the proposed California Class against the Defendant.

20 85. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and members of the California
 21 Class were “consumer[s],” as defined in Civil Code section 1761(d).

22 86. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant constituted a “person,” as 23 defined in Civil Code section 1761(c).

24 87. At all times relevant hereto, the Products manufactured, marketed,
 25 advertised, and sold by Defendant constituted “goods,” as defined in Civil Code
 26 section 1761(a).

1 88. The purchases of the Products by Plaintiff and members of the 2 California Class were and are “transactions” within the meaning of Civil Code section 3 1761(e).

4 89. Defendant disseminated, or caused to be disseminated, through its 5 packaging, labeling, marketing and advertising misrepresentations that the Products
6 were and are high in protein.

7 90. Defendant’s representations violate the CLRA in at least the following 8 respects:

- 9 a. In violation of Civil Code § 1770(a)(5), Defendant represented that the 10 Products have characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, and quantities 11 which they do not have;
- 12 b. In violation of Civil Code § 1770(a)(7), Defendant represented that the 13 Products are of a particular standard, quality, or grade, which they are 14 not; and
- 15 c. In violation of Civil Code § 1770(a)(9), Defendant advertised the 16 Products with an intent not to sell the products as advertised.

17 91. Pursuant to the provisions of Cal. Civ. Code § 1782(a), Plaintiff provided
18 notice to Defendant of its alleged violations of the CLRA, demanding that Defendant
19 correct such violations, and providing it with the opportunity to correct its business
20 practices. Notice was sent via certified mail, return receipt requested on March 22, 21 2022. As of the date of filing this complaint, Defendant has not responded.
22 Accordingly, if after 30 days no satisfactory response to resolve this litigation on a 23 class-wide basis has been received, Plaintiff will seek leave to amend this request to 24 seek restitution and actual damages as provided by the CLRA.

25 92. Pursuant to California Civil Code § 1780, Plaintiff seeks injunctive
26 relief, reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, and any other relief that the Court deems 27 proper.
28

1 102. All conditions precedent to Defendant’s liability under the contract,
2 including notice, have been performed by Plaintiff and the Class Members.

3 103. Defendant has breached the terms of its express warranties by failing to 4 provide the Products as warranted.

5 104. As a result of Defendant’s breach of its warranties, Plaintiff and others
6 similarly situated have been damaged in the amount of the purchase price of the 7 Products.

8 FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

9 Unjust Enrichment

10 105. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in 11 the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

12 106. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of 13 the proposed Class against the Defendant.

14 107. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant deceptively marketed,
15 advertised, and sold merchandise to Plaintiff and the Class.

16 108. Plaintiff and members of the Class conferred upon Defendant
17 nongratuitous payments for the Products that they would not have if not for 18 Defendant’s deceptive advertising and marketing. Defendant accepted or retained the 19 nongratuitous benefits conferred by Plaintiff and members of the Class, with full 20 knowledge and awareness that, as a result of Defendant’s deception, Plaintiff and 21 members of the Class were not receiving a product of the quality, nature, fitness, or 22 value that had been represented by Defendant and reasonable consumers would have 23 expected.

24 109. Defendant has been unjustly enriched in retaining the revenues derived 25 from Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ purchases of the Products. Retention of those 26 monies under these circumstances is unjust and inequitable because of Defendant’s
27 misrepresentations about the Products, which caused injuries to Plaintiff and Class
28

1 Members because they would not have purchased the Products if the true facts had 2 been known.

3 110. Because Defendant's retention of the non-gratuitous benefits conferred
4 on it by Plaintiff and members of the Classes is unjust and inequitable, Defendant
5 must pay restitution to Plaintiff and members of the Class for its unjust enrichment,
6 as ordered by the Court.

7 RELIEF DEMANDED

8 111. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all others
9 similarly situated, seeks judgment against Defendant, as follows:

- 10 a. For an order certifying the Class under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of 11 Civil Procedure and naming Plaintiff as representative of the Classes
12 and Plaintiff's attorneys as Class Counsel to represent the members of 13 the Classes;
- 14 b. For an order declaring the Defendant's conduct violates the statutes and 15 laws referenced herein;
- 16 c. For an order awarding, as appropriate, compensatory and monetary 17 damages, restitution or disgorgement to Plaintiff and the Classes for all 18 causes of action;
- 19 d. For an order requiring Defendant to immediately cease and desist from 20 selling their misbranded Products in violation of law; enjoining
21 Defendant from continuing to label, market, advertise, distribute, and 22 sell the Products in the unlawful manner described herein; and ordering 23 Defendant to engage in corrective action;
- 24 e. For prejudgment and postjudgment interest on all amounts awarded;
- 25 f. For an order awarding punitive damages; and
- 26 g. For an order awarding attorneys' fees and expenses and costs of suit.
- 27
- 28
