10 COMES NOW, Plaintiff WILLIAM GEAGLEY (“Plaintiff”), individually
11 and on behalf of all others similarly situated as defined below, and states as follows:

12 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13 1. This Court also has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
14 §1332(d)(2)(A) because this case is a class action where the aggregate claims of all 15 members of the proposed Classes are in excess of $5,000,000.00, exclusive of 16 interest and costs, there are 100 or more members of the proposed Classes, and at 17 least one member of the proposed Classes, including Plaintiff, is a citizen of a state
18 different than TomoCredit, Inc. (hereinafter, “TomoCredit”).

19 2. This Court has personal jurisdiction over TomoCredit because 20 TomoCredit conducts business in California, including within this District.
21 Defendant is headquartered in this District and, therefore, has sufficient minimum 22 contacts with this state.

23 3. Under 28 U.S.C. 1391, venue lies in this District because TomoCredit
24 maintains its principal place of business within this District and makes decisions
25 related to its marketing and/or advertising and/or promotion of its TomoBoost credit 26 score builder product and/or service from its headquarters and are thus subject to the 27 court’s personal jurisdiction as indicated above. Additionally, this action is brought 28

1 in this District because it is the District in which TomoCredit has its principal place
2 of business and/or is doing business. See, Exhibit A, Venue Affidavit.

3 PARTIES

4 4. Plaintiff Geagley is a citizen of the State of New York, residing in 5 Sullivan County, New York.

6 5. Defendant TomoCredit, Inc. (“TomoCredit”) is a corporation organized
7 under the laws of Delaware with its principal place of business located at 301
8 Howard Street, Suite 950 San Francisco, California 94105. TomoCredit Inc. is 9 therefore a citizen of the states of Delaware and California.

10 TOMOCREDIT’S UNFAIR, UNLAWFUL, AND/OR DECEPTIVE
11 BUSINESS ACTS AND PRACTICES

12 A. Unfair, Unlawful, and/or Deceptive Sales, Marketing, Administration, 13 and/or Other Business Acts and Practices and/or Unfair, Unlawful,
14 and/or Deceptive Terms & Conditions

15 6. TomoCredit operates a website, www.TomoCredit.com and 16 www.TomoBoost.com, on which it markets, advertises, and/or sells a product called 17 TomoBoost – a product and/or service that helps people build credit and/or build 18 better credit.

19 7. Once someone lands on the website, the viewer is alleged to be 20 automatically subjected to an arbitration agreement without even knowing it and 21 without consenting to it.

22 8. In pertinent part, the purported Terms and Conditions state:

23 [...] The Tomocredit App, website and Services are owned and 24 operated by Tomocredit, and are being provided to you expressly 25 subject to this Agreement. By accessing, inquiring, browsing
26 and/or using the Tomocredit App, Tomocredit.com,
27 TomoBoost.com, or the Services, you acknowledge that you have 28 read, understood, and agree to be bound by the Terms of this Agreement and to comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

1 The Terms of this Agreement, as further described in Section 1
2 below, form an essential basis of the bargain between you and 3 Tomocredit, and this Agreement governs your use of the Tomocredit App, Tomocredit.com and the Services.

4 THIS AGREEMENT INCLUDES, AMONG OTHER

28 AND CONDITIONS. THE APPENDICES INCLUDE,
WITHOUT LIMITATION:

- APPENDIX 1: DISCLOSURES & TERMS OF USE
- APPENDIX 2: E-SIGN DISCLOSURE AND CONSENT
- APPENDIX 3: COOKIE POLICY

PLEASE REFER TO APPENDICES (Hyperlinked and available BELOW FOR MORE INFORMATION.

1. ACCEPTANCE OF AGREEMENT

Please carefully review this Agreement before accessing, using, or browsing the TomoCredit App, TomoCredit.com, the Services, or any data available thereon. If you do not agree to these Terms, you may not access or use the TomoCredit App, TomoCredit.com, Tomoboost.com or the Services.

By accessing, browsing, or signing up to use a TomoCredit account or Services through TomoCredit.com, TomoCredit’s APIs, the TomoCredit Application, TomoBoost, or any other TomoCredit website or services in any format, you confirm that you have read, understood, and accepted all of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, including our Privacy Policy, Cookie Policy, Prohibited Use Policy, E-Sign Disclosure and Consent Policy, and the arbitration agreement as set out in this Agreement and its appendices and on Tomo’s Website.

To use the TomoCredit App, TomoCredit.com, or the Services, and to accept this Agreement, you must:

- (i) Be a legal resident of the United States;
- (ii) Be of legal age to form a binding contract with TomoCredit; and
- (iii) Not be prohibited by law from using the TomoCredit App, our website at TomoCredit.com, or the Services.

By using and continuing to use our Services and website, you agree to comply with all Tomo policies, including the Tomo Privacy Policy, Cookie Policy, and the disclosures, obligations, and policies outlined in this Agreement and its appendices.

1 9. Plaintiff and the proposed Classes use the site before they have even 2 seen the purported terms. And the only way to view the terms is to use the Website.

3 10. TomoCredit does this to keep Complaints against it out of the public
4 view. This is because the purported Terms and Conditions contain a purported
5 arbitration provision that TomoCredit attempts to use as a shield to protect itself
6 from court scrutiny.

7 11. Additionally, the TomoCredit Terms and Conditions – including the 8 purported arbitration provision – are illusory, as TomoCredit reserved the right to 9 modify the terms of the purported Terms of Service, including the section on 10 arbitration by “posting on the website”:

11 2. MODIFICATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

12 Tomocredit reserves the right to and may amend this Agreement
13 at any time unilaterally and will notify you of any such changes by 14 posting the revised Agreement on its website, Tomocredit.com,
15 and/or providing a copy to you (a “Revised Agreement”). All changes
16 shall be effective upon posting. We will date the Terms with the last 17 day of revision. Your continued use of the Tomocredit App,
18 Tomocredit.com or the Services after the posting of a Revised 19 Agreement constitutes your acceptance of such Revised Agreement and 20 you will be bound by any changes to the Agreement. Tomocredit may 21 terminate, suspend, change, or restrict access to all or any part of the 22 Tomocredit App, Tomocredit.com or the Services without notice or 23 liability. If you do not agree with any such modification, your sole and 24 exclusive remedy is to terminate your use of the Services and close your 25 account (as defined below). In the event of any conflict between this 26 Agreement and any other agreement you may have with TomoCredit,
27 the terms of this Agreement shall control.

28 [...]

11.19 Modification: Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, we agree that if TomoCredit makes any future material change to this Arbitration Agreement, it will notify you by posting it on its website and/or providing you with a copy. Your continued use of the

1 TomoCredit Website and/or Services, including the acceptance of 2 products and services offered on the TomoCredit Website following the 3 posting of changes to this Arbitration Agreement, constitutes your 4 acceptance of any such changes.

8 as a desktop or laptop, or a mobile device at www.tomocredit.com or 15 14. TomoCredit describes TomoBoost as a credit building product and/or

10
11 22. Thus, read together, while the VIP plan is “2xs faster credit growth” –
12 it is also “Instant”.

13 23. Upon information and belief, the pop-up does not appear when the 14 viewer clicks on the Premium plan, indicating that the Premium plan is either as fast
15 as the VIP plan or the Premium plan credit boost speed falls somewhere between the 16 speed of the Start Plan (2xs slower than VIP) and the VIP plan (2xs faster – but 17 referred to as “Instant”).

18 24. A reasonable consumer would understand ‘instant’ to mean
19 instantaneous at best and same day at worst.

20 25. So, if the VIP plan takes a second or a day to boost credit, the Starter 21 plan should boost it within a couple of days at worst.

22 26. Regardless, taken as a whole, the marketing and advertising indicate 23 that Plaintiff and the Members of the Classes in any plan would all see a boost in 24 their credit within the day – since the VIP plan touts “Instant” results and something 25 that is two times slower than an instant would still be fast.

26 27. Upon logging in, TomoCredit reiterates that it will “Build credit fast”:

28. TomoCredit makes it incredibly difficult to cancel TomoBoost.

29. When a TomoBoost customer tries to cancel, not only does TomoCredit try to upsell the customer, TomoCredit places the cancellation button in small non-conspicuous font and underneath large hard to miss advertising for alternative memberships that are either longer in duration than the customer's current plan and/or more expensive than the customer's current plan:

30. When the customer finally locates the cancellation button, the following message appears and there is no way around it – requiring Plaintiff and the Members of the Classes to schedule a call before being able to cancel:

31. The internet is littered with complaints about TomoCredit’s unfair and

1 deceptive business practices:

4 They are scammers. Please, don't do business with them. I made the 6 been trying to cancel their services for 6 months, and they are still

18 This is the biggest scam. I started with them 10 months ago, and most 19 months haven't even been reported. My score actually went down after 20 they reported. I've been trying to cancel my account for 2 months now, 21 and it's one hoop after another. Even after they say my account is 22 canceled, they continue to try and charge my credit card. This is fraud.

26 This company, Tomo Boost, is a total scam. Someone should file a class
27 action lawsuit against them. They didn't do a single thing they claimed 28

1 they could. I gave them three months, and my score actually went down.
2 I sent multiple emails trying to get a hold of them to close my account.
3 No luck and no customer credit. Instead, they started sending 4 threatening emails and attempted to charge my credit card $80 every 5 single day. I had to freeze my credit card. It's been four months, and 6 every day they try again.

12 ToMoi keeps trying to charge my card. I ended up filing a dispute with 13 my card issuer. I won the dispute. Then exactly a year later TomoCredit 14 has the balls to try and charge my card again for $979.99

15 I ended up filing a dispute and canceling my card. This was really 16 annoying and cost me a lot of time having to update creditors.

10 Fruadulent Company Selling a Non-existant Service

11 The Tomoboost product they are advertising doesn't and can't exist as 12 their data sharing privilages have been revoked by TransUnion,
13 Experian and Equifax, yet they are still advertising and accepting sign-
14 ups and payments. I signed up in and paid for TomoBoost in September, 15 two weeks later I saw nothing had reported on any of my credit reports.

16 After performing a quick search in an attempt to find out how long it
17 would take to show up on my report I came across the news that their 18 data reporting access had been revoked by all of the big three bureaus
19 and they'd all ended their partnerships with Tomo.

20 After learning of this I requested a refund in which I was told, their 21 terms did not allow for refunds, I said well you sold me a fraudulent
22 service. At that point they deleted my account on their support site so 23 that I could no longer view, respond or create support tickets. This is a 24 fraudulent and unethical company who seems to be pulling off a money
25 grab in order to make their exit.

4 Zero stars

5 Zero stars! I paid $69 and received no reporting at all. The system is a
6 robot, and there's no phone number. I canceled this over a week ago,
7 and they still took $49 out of my account today. Somebody needs to fix
8 this before I file a suit against Tomo Boost.

9 No support scam company

10 They had my last review removed. Umm don't use them. To this day 11 they are still trying to charge my card. I paid them 50/month for 12 reporting and not only did I have to email them a month in to get them
13 to actually start reporting to the EX, EQ, TU, they only reported to two 14 of them and only one of them had the correct balance. The other one 15 had a balance of N/A. I emailed them multiple times to fix this because 16 they don't have a support number and each email went ignored. Since 17 you can't cancel your subscription until they respond to your email, I
18 just turned off my card. So now they can't take any more of my money
19 while not providing the service they claim to provide. They removed 20 the accounts from my profile quickly once they figured out they weren't 21 getting paid but they still won't respond to my emails. Nope! Stay far

Stay away from these fraudulent...

Stay away from these fraudulent criminals. I won't even call it a company because it doesn't operate like a business. The email responses appear to be AI generated, and may be operated by 1 to a few criminals using the probably expired credentials of the TOMO card company that went belly up. These losers NEVER INTENDED to deliver the service offered, they'll just drag you claiming "we're

1 working on it” while giving many apologies only whilst extracting the 2 monthly fee from your bank account. If they do report, it’s only one
3 month and it will eventually fall off your reports, so it’s an absolutely
4 worthless waste of money. Don’t expect a refund, they should be jailed.
5 I joined in Sep 2023 until this month April 2024 and in all that time they never got it right. Stay away from them. Hopefully a class action lawsuit is in their future.

7 This company is unethical. I closed my account months ago, yet Tomo
8 continues to attempt to charge my credit card. I have contacted them by 9 email multiple times and tried to speak to a person (they have no
10 customer service, only an 800# to leave a message) to put an end to this 11 nightmare. This is a complete scam - Tomo engages in this practice of 12 not canceling accounts upon request, billing, and then sending emails 13 alerting you to the negative credit information they are 14 creating/reporting, so that you will immediately pay. They are preying 15 on a vulnerable population - people who came to them in an effort to 16 rebuild their credit, and then they do this nonsense. Shame on you, 17 Tomo.

12 Plaintiff William Geagley’s Experience

13 33. Plaintiff signed up for the TomoBoost Premium Journey Plan.

14 34. Plaintiff did not see any credit boosting results in the TomoBoost Plan
15 that he purchased – i.e., the Premium Journey Plan.

16 35. Specifically, in or about October 2025, at the time that Plaintiff
17 interacted with TomoCredit website, TomoCredit did not meaningfully disclose the 18 following material facts:

19 (a) that it would be difficult to cancel the TomoBoost credit building
20 product and/or service that is an automatic renewal program, continuous service
21 program, and/or a negative option program.

22 (b) That TomoCredit fails to display a “prominently located” displayed 23 direct link or button entitled “click to cancel,” or words to that effect, with the 24 presentation of the discounted offer, other consumer benefit, or information.

25 (c) That TomoCredit obstructs and/or delays the consumer from canceling
26 or terminating the automatic renewal service, continuous service, and/or negative 27 option program despite the consumer utilizing a direct link or button to cancel that 28 has been displayed (albeit not prominently) at the same time as a discounted offer,

1 retention benefit.

2 (d) That TomoCredit would not allow Plaintiff to cancel unless Plaintiff
3 scheduled a call with TomoBoost first – despite having clicked the cancel button.

4 (e) The TomoCredit does not provide its customers with the ability to 5 cancel online.

6 (f) That TomoCredit does not actually instantly, nor within 30 days, boost
7 users credit scores, i.e., the product and/or service does not actually work to boost 8 credit scores.

9 36. There are no clear and conspicuous, meaningful disclosures, or 10 otherwise transparent mention of TomoCredit’s arduous cancellation process. There
11 are no clear and conspicuous, meaningful disclosures, or otherwise transparent 12 mention of a way to cancel online without actually having to place a phone call to 13 terminate and/or cancel the automatic renewal program, continuous service program, 14 and/or negative option program.

15 37. TomoCredit induced the Plaintiff and members of the proposed Classes
16 into adhesion contracts, whose terms are procedurally and substantively
17 unconscionable and failed to provide contract terms that are just and reasonable.

18 38. Without prospective injunctive relief, TomoCredit could continue these 19 unfair, unlawful, and/or deceptive trade practices.

20 39. TomoCredit buried this information in dense text and does not provide 21 clear and conspicuous disclosures as required by law.

20 See, Exhibit B, Guidelines for Ethical Business Practice.

21 41. The guidelines include the following with respect to the standard
22 regarding Advance Consent / Negative Option Marketing:

23 II. ADVANCE CONSENT/NEGATIVE OPTION MARKETING

24 These Guidelines apply to all media and address marketing plans where 25 the consumer gives consent to receive and pay for goods or services in the 26 future on a continuing or periodic basis, unless and until the consumer
27 cancels the plan. The following should apply to all advance consent or 28 negative option marketing plans:

1. Initial Offer

Consent. Regardless of channel, marketers should have the consumer’s express informed consent to participate in any advance consent or negative option marketing plan before the consumer is billed or charged. For example, a pre-checked box without further action, such as clicking a response button or sending back a response to confirm

1 individual consent is not sufficient. In telephone sales where the 2 consumer agrees to the offer in a way other than by credit or debit card
3 payment, the consumer consent must be written or audio recorded.

4 • Marketers should inform consumers in the initial offer of their right
5 to cancel their participation in the plan and any outstanding fees that 6 may be owed.

7 • Marketers should inform consumers in the initial offer of the length
8 of any trial period, including a statement that the consumer's account
9 will be charged after the trial period (including the date of the charge)
10 unless the consumer takes an affirmative step to cancel, providing the 11 consumer a reasonable time period to cancel, and the steps needed to 12 avoid charges.

13 Material Terms & Conditions. Regardless of channel, marketers
14 should clearly and conspicuously disclose all material terms and 15 conditions before obtaining the consumer's billing information, 16 including:

- 17 • A description of the goods or services being offered;
- 18 • The identity of the marketer and contact information for service or 19 cancellation;
- 20 • The interval between shipments or services to be provided;
- 21 • The price or the range of prices of the goods or services purchased by 22 the consumer, including whether there are any additional charges;
- 23 • Whether the consumer will be billed or automatically charged;
- 24 • When and how frequently the consumer will be billed or charged;
- 25 • Any terms with regards to a "free to keep" incentive as applicable;
- 26 • The fact that the consumer must take affirmative action to cancel in 27 order to avoid future billing or charges;
 - 28 • The specific and easy steps that consumers should follow to cancel the plan and to stop recurring charges from being placed on the consumer's account; and
 - The time period within which the consumer must cancel.

When applicable, the following terms and conditions should also be clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the initial offer:

- That the current plan or renewal prices of the goods or services are subject to change;
- The length of any free, trial or approval period in time or quantity;

- 1 • The length of membership period, and the length of subsequent renewal or billing periods;
- 2 • The fact that goods or services will continue after the free period unless the consumer cancels;
- 3 • Any minimum purchase obligations; and
- 4 • The terms and conditions of any refund policy.

5 In instances where the marketer uses pre-acquired account information
6 under a free-to-pay conversion plan, the marketer should:

- 7 • Obtain from the consumer the complete account number to be charged within the appropriate data security protocols (such as PCI 8 compliance);
- 9 • Obtain affirmative consent from the consumer to charge such account;
and
- 10 • Provide channel specific proof (an email or hard copy confirmation, 11 or if via telephone, audio record the entire transaction).

12 In instances where the marketer uses pre-acquired account information
13 but does not engage in a free-to-pay conversion plan, the marketer should:

- 14 • Identify with specificity the account that will be charged; and
- 15 • Obtain affirmative consent from the consumer to charge such account.

16 2. Providing the Goods & Services to the Consumer

- 17 • Marketers may provide products or services and bills concurrently; 18 however, consumers should not be obligated to pay bills prior to the expiration of any trial period.
- 19 • Marketers should inform consumers in renewal reminders of their 20 right to cancel their participation in the plan, and any outstanding fees owed.
- 21 • Marketers should provide renewal reminders at the frequency
22 specified in the initial offer.

23 3. Cancellation

- 24 • Marketers should promptly honor requests for refunds due upon consumers' cancellation of the plan.
- 25 • Marketers should allow consumers a reasonable length of time 26 between receipt of renewal reminders and the renewal date, after which consumers can cancel the plan.
- 27 • Marketers should honor the time period they provided for a 28

1 cancellation and should honor a cancellation after the expiration of the 2 trial period.

3 [...]

4 All marketing partners or service providers should comply with these 5 Guidelines.

6 [...]

7 XIII. LAWS, CODES, AND REGULATIONS

8 Marketers should operate in accordance with laws and regulations of 9 the United States Postal Service, the Federal Trade Commission, the 10 Federal Communications Commission, the Federal Reserve Board, and 11 other applicable federal, state, and local laws governing advertising, 12 marketing practices, and the transaction of business.

13 42. TomoCredit failed to meet many of the standards as outlined 14 throughout the Complaint.

15 43. The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) Act's Section 5 is the primary 16 federal statute that governs the use of ARL provisions. The FTC's guidance on 17 negative option features advises businesses to adhere to five fundamental principles
18 for compliance. See Exhibit C, Negative Options – A Report by the staff of the FTC's
19 Division of Enforcement. The five principles are as follows:

20 • Principle One. Marketers should disclose the material terms of the offer in 21 an understandable manner (See Id. at p. 36);

22 • Principle Two. Marketers should make the appearance of disclosures clear
23 and conspicuous (See Id. at p. 37);

24 • Principle Three. Marketers should disclose the offer's material terms before
25 consumers pay or incur a financial obligation (See Id. at p. 37-38);

26 • Principle Four. Marketers should obtain consumers' affirmative consent to 27 the offer (See Id. at p. 38); and

28 • Principle Five. Marketers should not impede the effective operation of promised cancellation procedures (See Id.).

2 PLAINTIFF’S EXPERIENCE

3 44. Plaintiff William Geagley is a resident of Mountaindale, Sullivan
4 County, New York.

5 45. On or about October 2025, Plaintiff purchased and subscribed to 6 TomoBoost, a monthly credit-boosting product and/or service offered and operated 7 by Defendant TomoCredit, Inc.

8 46. Plaintiff purchased TomoBoost for the credit boosting service.

9 47. TomoBoost is marketed as a credit-building service that purports to 10 improve consumers’ credit scores by linking bank accounts and reporting recurring 11 household and utility bill payments to major credit reporting agencies.

12 48. At the time Plaintiff subscribed, TomoBoost was offered as a recurring
13 monthly subscription costing approximately $20.00 per month, billed automatically
14 on a continuing basis unless cancelled.

15 49. Plaintiff enrolled in TomoBoost for the purpose of improving his 16 personal credit score and relied on Defendant’s representations that the service
17 would provide a meaningful credit-boosting benefit through routine use.

18 50. Plaintiff used the TomoBoost service for approximately one month.
19 During that time, Plaintiff did not observe any improvement, increase, or measurable
20 change in his credit score attributable to TomoBoost.

21 51. After determining that his credit score was not improving, Plaintiff
22 decided to cancel the TomoBoost subscription within the first billing cycle to avoid 23 further recurring charges.

24 52. Plaintiff attempted to cancel his TomoBoost subscription by 25 navigating to the cancellation page through Defendant’s website following the steps 26 presented to terminate the service.

1 53. Plaintiff's cancellation attempts were unsuccessful. The cancellation
2 link and/or cancellation page malfunctioned, failed to function as represented, and 3 did not confirm or effectuate cancellation of the subscription.

4 54. Plaintiff encountered repeated error messages and/or failures when 5 attempting to cancel and was unable to complete the cancellation process through 6 Defendant's online interface.

7 55. Plaintiff attempted to cancel his TomoBoost subscription on multiple 8 occasions over several days using the web and/or app interface, but each attempt 9 failed.

10 56. Defendant did not provide Plaintiff with a functional, timely, or 11 effective online cancellation mechanism capable of terminating the automatic 12 renewal subscription.

13 57. Because Plaintiff was unable to cancel through Defendant's online 14 system, Plaintiff was ultimately forced to take the extraordinary step of changing the 15 payment method linked to his account to an inactive payment card in order to prevent 16 further automatic withdrawals.

17 58. As a result of Defendant's obstructive and non-functional cancellation
18 process, Plaintiff was deprived of a simple, cost-effective, and timely means of 19 cancelling his automatic renewal subscription.

20 59. Plaintiff was charged for one month of TomoBoost service.

21 60. Had Plaintiff known prior to enrollment that the TomoBoost credit-
22 boosting service would not work as represented and would not provide a meaningful
23 or measurable improvement to his credit score, Plaintiff would not have subscribed
24 to TomoBoost or authorized recurring charges.

25 61. Had Plaintiff known prior to enrollment that Defendant's cancellation
26 process would be ineffective, obstructive, or non-functional, Plaintiff would not 27
28

1 have subscribed to TomoBoost or authorized recurring charges.

2 62. Defendant did not clearly and conspicuously disclose, prior to 3 Plaintiff's purchase, that cancellation would be difficult, delayed, or require 4 extraordinary steps to stop recurring charges.

5 63. Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff with a clear, prominent, and easy-6 to-use online cancellation method as required for automatic renewal or continuous 7 service programs.

8 64. Defendant's cancellation process impeded Plaintiff's ability to 9 terminate the subscription after affirmatively attempting to cancel.

10 65. Defendant's automatic renewal and cancellation practices exposed 11 Plaintiff to the risk of continued unauthorized charges without his consent.

12 66. Plaintiff suffered financial injury, loss of time, and frustration as a 13 result of Defendant's practices.

14 67. Plaintiff reasonably relied on Defendant's representations and 15 omissions regarding the nature of the TomoBoost service and the ability to cancel.

16 68. Defendant's conduct formed part of a uniform course of conduct
17 applicable to consumers nationwide who subscribed to TomoBoost.

18 69. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly 19 situated to obtain injunctive relief, restitution, and other appropriate relief to prevent 20 Defendant from continuing these practices.

21 I. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

22 70. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all others 23 similarly situated.

24 71. The first proposed Class is defined as follows:

25 All individuals in the United States who paid TomoCredit for a
26 TomoBoost product and did not experience a credit boost
27 within 30 days (the "Credit Builder Class").
28

1 72. The second proposed Class is defined as:

3 All individuals in the United States who paid TomoCredit for a
4 TomoBoost product and had difficulty canceling. (the “Cancellation Class”).

5 (Unless otherwise indicated, collectively referred to as the “Classes”).

6 73. Excluded from the Proposed Classes are TomoCredit, its subsidiaries
7 and affiliates, its officers, directors, the members of their immediate families, and 8 any entity in which TomoCredit has a controlling interest, to include the legal 9 representatives, heirs, successors, or assigns of any such excluded party. Also 10 excluded are the judicial officer(s) to whom this action is assigned, and the members
11 of their immediate families.

12 74. Plaintiff and the Proposed Classes’ respective claims all derive 13 directly from a single course of conduct by TomoCredit. It engaged in uniform and 14 standardized conduct—its advertising, marketing, sales, administration, and/or 15 cancellation acts and/or practices. This case concerns TomoCredit’s responsibility, 16 under law and in equity, for its knowledge and conduct in deceiving its customers.
17 This conduct did not meaningfully differentiate among individual members of the 18 Proposed Classes in its degree of care or candor, its actions or inactions, or in the 19 content of its representations and/or omissions. The objective facts on these subjects
20 are the same for all members of the Proposed Classes.

21 75. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or amend the definitions of the 22 Proposed Classes before the Court determines whether certification is appropriate.

23 76. Numerosity. The members of the Proposed Classes are so numerous 24 that a joinder of all members is impracticable. While the exact number of Members
25 of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, Plaintiff believes the Proposed 26 Classes number in the hundreds or thousands, if not more.

1 77. Typicality. Plaintiff’s claims are typical of the claims of the members of 2 the Proposed Classes because they sustained similar injuries to that of members of 3 the Proposed Classes as a result of TomoCredit’s uniform pattern of wrongful
4 conduct, and their legal claims all arise from the same events and wrongful conduct
5 by TomoCredit.

6 (a) Adequacy of Representation. Plaintiff is adequate representatives of 7 the Proposed Classes because Plaintiff suffered damages as a result of TomoCredit’s
8 material omission that that TomoBoost does not work or does not work as quickly
9 as advertised and/or marketed; that it would be difficult to cancel the TomoBoost
10 credit building product and/or service that is an automatic renewal program,
11 continuous service program, and/or a negative option program; that TomoCredit 12 fails to display a “prominently located” displayed direct link or button entitled “click 13 to cancel,” or words to that effect, with the presentation of the discounted offer, other 14 consumer benefit, or information; that TomoCredit obstructs and/or delays the 15 consumer from canceling or terminating the automatic renewal service, continuous 16 service, and/or negative option program despite the consumer utilizing a direct link
17 or button to cancel that has been displayed (albeit not prominently) at the same time
18 as a discounted offer, retention benefit; that TomoCredit would not allow Plaintiff
19 to cancel unless Plaintiff scheduled a call with TomoBoost first – despite having 20 clicked the difficult to find cancel button; that TomoCredit does not provide its 21 customers with the ability to cancel online. In addition:

22 (a) Plaintiff is committed to the vigorous prosecution of this action
23 individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated and have retained
24 competent counsel experienced in the prosecution of class actions and, in particular,
25 class actions on behalf of individuals and/or entities against companies that have 26 unlawfully assessed one or more fees or charges;

1 (b) There is no hostility of interest between Plaintiff and the 2 unnamed members of the Proposed Classes;

3 (c) Plaintiff anticipates no difficulty in the management of this 4 litigation as a class action; and

5 (d) Plaintiff's legal counsel has the financial and legal resources to 6 meet the substantial costs and legal work associated with this type of litigation.

7 78. Commonality. Common questions of law and fact exist as to all
8 members of the Proposed Classes and predominate over any questions solely 9 affecting individual members of the Proposed Classes, including the following:

10 (a) Whether TomoCredit's conduct constitutes unfair, unlawful and/or 11 fraudulent practices;

12 (b) Whether TomoCredit was unjustly enriched as a result of its pattern of 13 wrongful conduct;

14 (c) Whether TomoCredit engaged in negligent misrepresentation;

15 (d) Whether TomoCredit's actions violate the applicable state consumer
16 protection statutes;

17 (e) Expressly excluding any and all damages under California's Consumer
18 Legal Remedies Act ("CLRA") Cal. Civ. Code § 1750, whether each Member of the 19 Classes is entitled to compensatory, statutory, treble, nominal, and/or punitive
20 damages as a result of Defendants' violations of law;

21 (f) Whether Plaintiff and other members of the Proposed Classes sustained
22 damages as a result of TomoCredit's pattern of wrongful conduct;

23 (g) Whether any or all applicable limitations periods are tolled by 24 TomoCredit's acts;

25 (h) Whether, and to what extent, equitable relief should be imposed on 26 TomoCredit to prevent it from continuing its pattern of wrongful conduct; and 27
28

1 (i) The extent of class-wide injury and the measure of damages for those 2 injuries.

3 79. Ascertainability. Members of the Proposed Classes can easily be 4 identified by an examination and analysis of the business records maintained by 5 TomoCredit, among other records within its possession, custody, or control.

6 80. Predominance. The common issues of law and fact identified above
7 predominate over any other questions affecting only individual members of the 8 Proposed Classes. The issues of the Proposed Classes fully predominate over any 9 individual issue because no inquiry into individual conduct is necessary; all that is 10 required is a narrow focus on TomoCredit’s pattern of wrongful conduct.

11 81. Superiority. A class action is superior to all other available methods for 12 the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy since a joinder of all members
13 of the Proposed Classes is impracticable. Furthermore, as damages suffered by 14 members of the Proposed Classes may be relatively small, the expense and burden 15 of individual litigation make it impossible for them to individually redress the 16 wrongs done to them. Individualized litigation also presents a potential for 17 inconsistent or contradictory judgments, and increases the delay and expense 18 presented by the complex legal and factual issues of the case to all parties and the 19 court system. By contrast, the class action device presents far fewer management 20 difficulties and provides the benefits of a single adjudication, economy of scale, and 21 comprehensive supervision by a single court.

22 82. Accordingly, this class action is properly brought and should be 23 maintained as a class action because questions of law or fact common to members
24 of the Proposed Classes predominate over any questions affecting only individual 25 members, and because a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly 26 and efficiently adjudicating this controversy.

1 83. This class action is also properly brought and should be maintained as 2 a class action because Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief and declaratory relief on behalf
3 on grounds generally applicable to all members of the Proposed Classes.

4 84. Certification is appropriate because TomoCredit acted or refused to 5 act in a manner that applies generally to the Proposed Classes, making final 6 declaratory or injunctive relief appropriate.

7 85. Injunctive and Declaratory Relief. Class certification is also
8 appropriate under Rule 23(b)(2) and (c). TomoCredit, through TomoCredit's 9 uniform conduct, acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the 10 proposed Classes as a whole, making injunctive and declaratory relief appropriate to 11 the proposed Classes as a whole. Injunctive relief is necessary and proper to compel
12 TomoCredit to cease its violations of the UCL alleged herein and to prevent Plaintiff
13 and Members of the proposed Classes from not being able to cancel the plan.

14 86. Likewise, particular issues under Rule 23(c)(4) are appropriate for 15 certification because such claims present only particular, common issues, the 16 resolution of which would advance the disposition of this matter and the parties'
17 interests therein.

18 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

19 Violation of the California Automatic Renewal Law

20 (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 17600 et seq.)

21 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Proposed Classes)

22 87. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing
23 allegations as if fully set forth herein.

24 88. Plaintiff is informed and believe and thereon allege that, during the 25 applicable statute of limitations period, TomoCredit has enrolled consumers,
26 including Plaintiff and proposed Members of the Classes, in an automatic renewal
27

1 program and have violated the ARL by, among other things, (a) failing to present
2 automatic renewal offer terms in a clear and conspicuous manner before a 3 subscription or purchasing agreement is fulfilled and in visual proximity, or in the 4 case of an offer conveyed by voice, in temporal proximity, to a request for consent
5 to the offer; (b) charging the consumer's credit card, debit card, or third-party
6 payment account for an automatic renewal without first obtaining the consumer's 7 affirmative consent to an agreement containing clear and conspicuous disclosure of 8 all automatic renewal offer terms; and (c) failing to provide an acknowledgment that 9 includes clear and conspicuous disclosure of all automatic renewal offer terms, the 10 cancellation policy, and information regarding how to cancel in a manner that is 11 capable
12 of being retained by the consumer and that provides a mechanism for cancellation
13 that is cost-effective, timely, and easy to use, all in violation of § 17602(a) and (b).

14 89. Plaintiff has suffered injury in fact and lost money as a result of 15 TomoCredit's violations of ARL.

16 90. Pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code § 17535, Plaintiff and the proposed 17 members of the Classes are entitled to restitution of all amounts that TomoCredit
18 charged to Plaintiff's and Members of the Classes' credit cards, debit cards, or third-
19 party payment accounts in connection with an automatic renewal membership
20 program during the four years preceding the filing of this Complaint and continuing 21 until TomoCredit's statutory violations cease.

22 91. Violation of the ARL gives rise to restitution and injunctive relief under 23 the general remedies provision of the False Advertising Law, Bus. & Prof., Code §
24 17535. (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 17604(a).)

25 92. Unless enjoined and restrained by this Court, TomoCredit will 26 continue to commit the violations alleged herein. Pursuant to § 17535, on behalf of 27
28

1 themselves, the proposed members of the Classes, and for the benefit of the general
2 public of the State of California, Plaintiff seeks an injunction prohibiting
3 TomoCredit from continuing their unlawful practices as alleged herein.

4 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

5 VIOLATION OF THE CALIFORNIA UNFAIR COMPETITION LAW

6 (Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq.)

7 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Proposed Class)

8 93. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing
9 allegations as if fully set forth herein.

10 94. Business and Professions Code section 17200 provides:

11 “As used in this chapter, unfair competition shall mean and 12 include any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or 13 practice and unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading advertising
14 and any act prohibited by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section
15 17500) of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions
16 Code.”

17 Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200.

18 95. Pursuant to the unfairness prong of the UCL, TomoCredit has a duty 19 not to engage in “any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice and 20 unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading advertising”.

21 96. TomoCredit willfully and knowingly engaged in unlawful, unfair or 22 fraudulent business acts or practices and unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading 23 advertising by: (a) engaging in acts or practices that are unethical; (b) violating 24 established public policy as recognized by the FTC and the Direct Marketing
25 Association; (c) causing harm that outweighs these practices’ utility.

26 97. TomoCredit’s business practices violate the “unfair” prong of 27 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

28 98. TomoCredit’s business practices are unfair business practice under the

1 UCL because they either offend[] an established public policy or [are]immoral,
2 unethical, oppressive, unscrupulous or substantially injurious to consumers.

3 99. TomoCredit’s business practices also violate the “unfair” prong of the 4 UCL because it: (5) representing that goods or services have sponsorship, approval,
5 characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, or quantities that they do not have; (7)
6 Representing that goods or services are of a particular standard, quality, or grade, 7 [...] if they are of another; (9) advertising goods and services with the intent not to 8 sell them as advertised; (14) representing that a transaction confers or involves 9 rights, remedies, or obligations that it does not have or involve, or that are prohibited
10 by law; (19) inserting an unconscionable provision in the contract; and/or Engaging 11 in other acts and/or practices in violation of the CLRA that discovery will uncover.

12 100. Additionally, TomoCredit’s further violates the “unfair” and/or have 13 violated the “unlawful” prong of the UCL by engaging in one or more of the 14 following practices:

- 15 (a) Violating regulations promulgated by the FTC;
- 16 (b) Negligence Per Se;
- 17 (c) Negligence;
- 18 (d) Fraud;
- 19 (e) Fraud by Omission;
- 20 (f) Unjust Enrichment;
- 21 (g) violation of California and New York law, and/or other statutes and/or 22 common law;
- 23 (h) a violation of other common law claims.
- 24 (i) Violations of the applicable state Consumer Protection Act;
- 25 (j) Violations of the UCL;
- 26 (k) Violations of CLRA;
- 27
- 28

1 (l) Violations of the FAL;

2 (m) Violations of the ARL;

3 (n) Knowingly and intentionally concealing from Plaintiff and the 4 proposed Classes' material information;

5 (o) Engaging in conduct in which the gravity of the harm to the Plaintiff
6 and the proposed Classes outweighs the utility of the TomoCredit's conduct; and/or

7 (p) Engaging in acts and/or practices and/or omissions that are immoral,
8 unethical, oppressive, or unscrupulous and causes injury to consumers which 9 outweigh its benefits.

10 101. Each and every separate act constitutes an unlawful and/or unfair
11 business practice. Each day that TomoCredit engaged in each separate unlawful act,
12 omission, or practice is a separate and distinct violation of Business and Professions
13 Code 17200.

14 102. In addition, TomoCredit's practices violate the "fraudulent" prong of 15 the UCL because TomoCredit's conduct was: (a) intended to cause injury to the 16 Plaintiff; (b) carried on with a high degree of despicable and conscious disregard of 17 the Plaintiff's rights; (c) a clear attempt to use the Plaintiff's need for a boost in 18 credit to hook them into an autorenewal subscription and/or negative option program 19 that they cannot get out of; and (d) wrongfully committed by design in order to 20 increase TomoCredit's own profit, while at the same time taking Plaintiff and the 21 proposed class's money.

22 103. Plaintiff has standing to pursue this cause of action as Plaintiff has 23 suffered injury in fact and has lost money or property as a result of TomoCredits'
24 actions as delineated herein.

25 104. As a direct and proximate result of TomoCredits' unfair, unlawful,
26 unethical, deceptive, fraudulent, unreasonable, otherwise wrongful, and/or in bad 27

1 faith business practices, Plaintiff and the proposed Classes have suffered injury in 2 fact and lost money or property.

3 105. In addition, TomoCredit's conduct violates the California Automatic 4 Renewal Law (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 17600 et seq. (ARL) and under the unlawful 5 prong of the UCL a violation of another law is treated as unfair competition and is 6 independently actionable.

7 106. TomoCredit imposed charges without complying with all applicable
8 requirements of the ARL including without limitation the lack of clear and 9 conspicuous disclosure of certain terms and conditions and affirmative consent by 10 the Plaintiff and the proposed Classes or other provisions of the ARL.

11 107. TomoCredit's acts, omissions, nondisclosures, misleading statements 12 as alleged herein were and are false, misleading, and/or are likely to deceive the 13 general public and thus constitute fraudulent business practices in violation of the 14 UCL. These acts, omissions, nondisclosures, and misleading statements were 15 contrary to the provisions of the False Advertising Law, Bus. & Prof. Code, § 17500
16 and constitute violations of the UCL

17 108. The basis for Plaintiff's respective claims emanated from California as 18 one or more decisions regarding TomoCredit's policies and practices occurred at its 19 California headquarters.

20 109. As demonstrated by its acts herein, TomoCredit had and has no
21 intention of honoring its conspicuous promises. As such, TomoCredit has violated
22 Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., and has engaged in unfair,
23 unlawful, unethical, deceptive, fraudulent, unreasonable, otherwise wrongful, and/or
24 in bad faith business act or practice and/or unfair, deceptive, untrue, or misleading 25 advertising.

26 110. Plaintiff and members of the proposed Classes paid for what 27
28

1 TomoCredit represented was a credit boosting service and/or product that boosts
2 your credit 105 points. Defendant failed to disclose that it would be difficult to 3 cancel.

4 111. Further, the Plaintiff was and is a party aggrieved and who has suffered
5 injury as a result of TomoCredit's unfair, deceptive, untrue, and/or misleading
6 advertising. Plaintiff has sustained damages as alleged herein.

7 112. Pursuant to Kraus v. Trinity Mgr. Services, Inc. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 116,
8 138, restitution of Plaintiff's automatic renewal and/or negative option fees are 9 compelled.

10 113. Further, Plaintiff is not required to exhaust all other remedies prior to 11 pursuing the remedies afforded by Business and Professions Code section 17200.
12 Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17205, these statutory remedies
13 are cumulative to all other laws of this state.

14 114. Plaintiff is informed and believe and, on that basis, alleges that the 15 unfair, unlawful, unethical, deceptive, fraudulent, unreasonable, otherwise 16 wrongful, and/or in bad faith practices alleged above are continuing in nature and 17 are widespread practices engaged in by TomoCredit.

18 115. The conduct of TomoCredit, as set forth above, constituted unfair,
19 unlawful, unethical, deceptive, fraudulent, unreasonable, otherwise wrongful, and/or 20 in bad faith business practices as defined by the above-referenced statutes.

21 116. Plaintiff prosecutes this action on Plaintiff's own respective behalf, on 22 behalf of the general public, and on behalf of others similarly situated.

23 117. Plaintiff is entitled to an injunction preventing TomoCredit from 24 engaging in the widespread conduct alleged herein, to restitution, and for an award
25 of attorney's fees upon prevailing in this request for relief.

26 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

1 NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION
2 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Proposed Class)

3 118. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing
4 allegations as if fully set forth herein.

5 119. TomoCredit's practice of: (a) misrepresenting material facts in selling
6 any good or service with a negative-option feature; (b) failing to disclose material
7 facts prior to obtaining consumer's billing information and charging customers; (c)
8 failing to obtain unambiguous affirmative consent to the negative option feature
9 prior to charging Plaintiff and the proposed Classes for it; and/or (d) failing to 10 provide Plaintiff and the proposed Classes with simple cancellation mechanisms to 11 immediately halt all recurring charges are material facts that influenced the decision
12 of Plaintiff and the proposed Classes to provide payment card information and ask a 13 question on TomoCredit.

14 120. TomoCredit's practice of failing to adequately disclose the actual 15 benefits – or lack thereof – of the credit boost product, failure to provide the 16 acknowledgement required by the Automatic Renewal Laws, and/or failure to 17 provide an easy way to stop your card being charged are material facts that influenced 18 the decision of Plaintiff and the proposed Classes to provide payment card
19 information and ask a question on TomoCredit.

20 121. TomoCredit enrolled Plaintiff and the proposed Classes in automatic 21 renewal programs and/or continuous service programs and/or negative option
22 programs without: (a) presenting the automatic renewal or continuous service offer
23 in a clear and conspicuous manner before the subscription or purchasing agreement 24 is fulfilled and in visual proximity, or in the case of an offer conveyed by voice, in 25 temporal proximity, to the request for consent to the offer; (b) charging the 26 consumer's credit or debit card or the consumer's third-party payment account for 27

1 an automatic renewal or continuous service without first obtaining the consumer's
2 affirmative consent to an agreement containing clear and conspicuous disclosures
3 of the automatic renewal offer terms or continue service offer terms; and (c) failed
4 to provide an acknowledgment that includes the required clear and conspicuous
5 disclosure of automatic renewal or continuous service offer terms, cancellation
6 policy, information regarding how to cancel, and a toll-free telephone number,
7 electronic mail address, postal address or other mechanism for cancellation.

8 122. Additionally, TomoCredit (a) misrepresented and/or omitted material 9 facts in selling any good or service with a negative-option feature; (b) failed to 10 disclose material facts prior to obtaining consumer's billing information and 11 charging customers; (c) failed to obtain unambiguous affirmative consent to the 12 negative option feature prior to charging Plaintiff and the proposed Classes for it;
13 and (d) failed to provide Plaintiff and the proposed Classes with simple cancellation
14 mechanisms to immediately halt all recurring charges.

15 123. At the time TomoCredit made the material misrepresentations and/or 16 omissions, TomoCredit knew or should have known that the misrepresentations
17 were false, or TomoCredit made the misrepresentations without knowledge of their 18 truth or veracity.

19 124. Plaintiff and the proposed Classes reasonably, justifiably, and 20 detrimentally relied on the misrepresentations and, as a proximate result thereof, 21 suffered damages and could suffer additional damages in the future.

22 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 UNJUST ENRICHMENT

24 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Proposed Class)

25 125. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing
26 allegations as if fully set forth herein.
27
28

1 126. Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the proposed Classes, assert a
2 common law claim for unjust enrichment.

3 127. By means of its pattern of wrongful conduct, TomoCredit knowingly 4 assessed fees upon Plaintiff and the proposed Classes that are unfair,
5 unconscionable, and oppressive.

6 128. TomoCredit knowingly received and retained wrongful benefits and 7 funds from Plaintiff and the proposed Class. In so doing, TomoCredit acted with 8 conscious disregard for the rights of Plaintiff and the proposed Class.

9 129. As a result of TomoCredit's wrongful conduct as alleged herein, 10 TomoCredit has been unjustly enriched at the expense of, and to the detriment of,
11 Plaintiff and the proposed Class.

12 130. TomoCredit's unjust enrichment is traceable to, and resulted directly 13 and proximately from, the conduct alleged herein.

14 131. Under the common law doctrine of unjust enrichment, it is inequitable
15 for TomoCredit to retain the benefits it received, and/or is still receiving, without 16 justification from the imposition of the automatic renewal fees from members of the 17 Classes who attempted to cancel.

18 132. Under the common law doctrine of unjust enrichment, it is inequitable
19 for TomoCredit to retain the benefits it received, and/or is still receiving, without 20 justification from the imposition of fees for a product that does not work or does not 21 work as quickly as advertised.

22 133. The financial benefits derived by TomoCredit rightfully belong to 23 Plaintiff and the Proposed Class. TomoCredit should be compelled to disgorge to a 24 common fund for the benefit of Plaintiff and the proposed Classes all wrongful or 25 inequitable proceeds collected by TomoCredit. A constructive trust should be 26 imposed upon all wrongful or inequitable sums received by TomoCredit traceable 27

1 to Plaintiff and the proposed Class.

2 134. Plaintiff and the proposed Classes have no adequate remedy at law.

3 135. Plaintiff and the proposed Classes seek disgorgement of all proceeds,
4 profits, benefits, and/or other compensation obtained by TomoCredit from their 5 improper and unlawful charges, as well as all other appropriate relief permitted by 6 law of unjust enrichment, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

7 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 VIOLATION OF THE CALIFORNIA CONSUMERS LEGAL REMEDIES

9 ACT (CAL. CIV. CODE § 1750, ET SEQ.)

10 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Proposed Class)

11 136. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference each of the foregoing
12 allegations as if fully set forth herein.

13 137. California's Consumers Legal Remedies Act ("CLRA"), Cal. Civ.
14 Code § 1750, et seq., proscribes "unfair methods of competition and unfair or 15 deceptive acts or practices undertaken by any person in a transaction intended to 16 result or which results in the sale or lease of goods or services to any consumer."

17 138. TomoCredit's credit building service and/or product pertains to 18 "goods" or "services" within the meaning of Civil Code § 1761(a) and (b).

19 139. Plaintiff and the proposed Members of the Classes are "consumers"
20 within the meaning of Civil Code § 1761(d) in that Plaintiff sought or acquired 21 TomoCredit's goods and/or services for personal, family, or household purposes by 22 purchase or lease.

23 140. Plaintiff, the other proposed members of the Classes, and TomoCredit
24 are "persons" as defined in Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(c).

25 141. The payments by Plaintiff and proposed Classes are "transactions"
26 within the meaning of Civil Code § 1761(e).

1 142. TomoCredit has violated Civil Code § 1770, subdivisions (a) by:

- 2 • (5) representing that goods or services have sponsorship, approval,
3 characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, or quantities that they do not have;
- 4 • (7) Representing that goods or services are of a particular standard, quality,
5 or grade, [...] if they are of another.
- 6 • (9) advertising goods and services with the intent not to sell them as 7 advertised;
- 8 • (14) representing that a transaction confers or involves rights, remedies, or 9 obligations that it does not have or involve, or that are prohibited by law;
- 10 • (19) inserting an unconscionable provision in the contract;
- 11 • Engaging in other acts and/or practices in violation of the CLRA that 12 discovery will uncover.

13 143. TomoCredit intentionally and knowingly misrepresented and/or 14 omitted material facts regarding the credit building product and/or service with an 15 intent to mislead Plaintiff and proposed members of the Classes.

16 144. TomoCredit's actions as described herein were done with conscious 17 disregard of Plaintiff's rights and TomoCredit was wanton and malicious in 18 TomoCredit's concealment of the same.

19 145. In purchasing the credit building service or goods, Plaintiff and other
20 proposed members of the Classes were deceived by TomoCredit's failure to 21 meaningfully, adequately, and/or conspicuously disclose the inability to easily 22 cancel and/or the inability to cancel online without scheduling a telephone call.

23 146. In purchasing the credit building service or goods, Plaintiff and other
24 proposed members of the Classes were deceived by TomoCredit's failure to 25 meaningfully, adequately, and/or conspicuously disclose that the credit boosting 26 product and/or service does not boost credit in an instant.

1 147. Plaintiff and other proposed members of the Classes had no way of (a)
2 knowing TomoCredit’s representations were false, misleading, and/or incomplete
3 and/or (b) knowing the true nature of the credit building service product.

4 148. As alleged herein, TomoCredit’s material omissions and/or deception
5 is likely to – and does – lead to confusion.

6 149. Plaintiff and other proposed members of the Classes did not, and could 7 not, unravel TomoCredit’s unfairness and/or deception on their own.

8 150. TomoCredit knew or should have known their conduct violated the 9 CLRA.

10 151. TomoCredit owed Plaintiff and the proposed members of the Classes a 11 duty to disclose the truth about the credit building service and/or product
12 TomoCredit: (a) Possessed exclusive knowledge of the details of the credit building
13 service and/or product; (b) Intentionally failed to conspicuously disclose and/or 14 otherwise meaningfully concealed the foregoing from Plaintiff and the proposed 15 members of the Classes; and/or (c) Made incomplete representations in 16 advertisements and on its website, (i) failing to warn the public of the inability to 17 easily cancel and/or the inability to cancel the credit boosting product and/or service
18 online without scheduling a telephone call; (ii) failing to warn that the credit 19 boosting product and/or service does not actually boost credit as quickly as 20 promised.

21 152. TomoCredit had a duty to disclose that the credit building service
22 and/or product did not work as quickly as represented and/or was difficult to cancel, 23 and Plaintiff had to take an affirmative step to stop TomoCredit from continuing to 24 charge Plaintiff.

25 153. Plaintiff and the other proposed members of the Classes relied on 26 TomoCredit’s material misrepresentations and/or omissions regarding the inability 27
28

1 to easily cancel and/or the inability to cancel the credit boosting product and/or 2 service online without scheduling a telephone call; (ii) the fact that the credit
3 boosting product and/or service does not actually instantly boost credit or even 4 during the 30 days that follow.

5 154. Specifically, the material misrepresentation and/or omission was a
6 substantial factor in Plaintiff and the proposed Classes' respective decision to enroll
7 and/or subscribe into the service and/or program.

8 155. Plaintiff and the proposed Classes were harmed.

9 156. Plaintiff's and the proposed Class' harm resulted from TomoCredit's 10 conducted described above.

11 157. Plaintiff and the other proposed members of the Classes were injured
12 and suffered ascertainable loss, injury-in-fact, and/or actual damage as a proximate
13 result of TomoCredit's conduct in that Plaintiff and the other proposed members of 14 the Classes incurred charges for a product despite having attempted to cancel.

15 158. TomoCredit's violations can cause continuing injuries to Plaintiff and 16 other proposed members of the Classes as Plaintiff and the proposed Members of 17 the Classes could be tricked into purchasing TomoCredit's credit building service
18 and/or product again because TomoCredit uses different websites with different 19 monikers that in the fine print disclose in a non-conspicuous way at the very bottom
20 of the website that the website is powered by TomoCredit.

21 159. TomoCredit's unlawful acts and practices complained of herein affect 22 the public interest.

23 160. TomoCredit knew of the confusing nature of its marketing materials for 24 its credit building service and/or product.

25 161. The facts concealed and/or omitted by TomoCredit from Plaintiff and 26 other proposed members of the Classes and/or not meaningfully and/or 27

1 conspicuously disclosed are material in that a reasonable consumer would have
2 considered them to be important in deciding whether to enroll into the credit building
3 service and/or product.

4 162. Had Plaintiff and the other proposed members of the Classes known 5 about the unfair nature of the negative option fee credit building service and/or 6 product, they would not have purchased the credit building service and/or product 7 and/or would have canceled if they could have.

8 163. TomoCredit's unfair and/or unlawful acts, practices, representations, 9 omissions, and/or courses of conduct, as described herein, were undertaken by 10 TomoCredit in a transaction intended to result in, and which did result in, the sale or 11 lease of goods or services to consumers.

12 164. Pursuant to § 1780(d) of the CLRA, attached hereto as Exhibit A is an 13 Venue Affidavit showing that this action has been commenced in the proper forum.

14 165. Plaintiff's and the other proposed members' of the Classes injuries were 15 proximately caused by TomoCredit's unlawful and deceptive business practices.

16 166. Pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code § 1780(a), Plaintiff seeks an order enjoining
17 TomoCredit from engaging in the methods, acts, or practices alleged herein, 18 including further concealment of material facts related to the ineffectiveness of 19 TomoBoost and/or the inability to easily cancel as describe above.

20 167. Pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code § 1782(a)(2), Plaintiff demands judgment
21 against TomoCredit under the CLRA for injunctive and equitable relief to enjoin the 22 practices described herein.

23 168. Plaintiff sent a CLRA notice letter to TomoCredit via certified mail,
24 return receipt requested regarding TomoCredit's violations of the CLRA on January
25 15, 2026. See, Exhibit C, CLRA Letter with Proof of Mailing Certified Mail, Return
26 Receipt Requested.

1 169. Pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code § 1782, if TomoCredit does not rectify its 2 conduct within 30 days of the date of receipt of the letter, Plaintiff intends to amend
3 this Complaint to add claims under the Cal. Civ. Code for actual damages.

4 170. Under the CLRA, a plaintiff may, without prior notification file
5 complaint alleging violations of the CLRA that seeks injunctive relief only. Then, if 6 the TomoCredit does not remedy the CLRA violations within 30 days of notification, 7 the plaintiff may amend her or his CLRA causes of action without leave of court to 8 add claims for damages. Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the proposed class, 9 intends to amend this complaint to add damages claims if TomoCredit does not 10 remedy their respective violations as to Plaintiff and the proposed Members of the 11 Classes within the statutory period.

12 171. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law for the future unlawful acts, 13 methods, and/or practices as set forth above.

14 172. In sending the letter and bringing this action, Plaintiff has engaged the 15 services of attorneys and has incurred reasonable legal fees and expenses in an 16 amount to be proved at trial.

17 173. Plaintiff is thus entitled to recover Plaintiff's attorneys' fees, costs, and 18 expenses.

19 174. TomoCredit's practices, acts, and/or courses of conduct in connection 20 with the sale of its credit building service and/or product, as described above, are 21 likely to mislead a reasonable consumer acting reasonably under the circumstances
22 to his or her detriment. As a result of TomoCredit's acts and practices as alleged in 23 this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief prohibiting TomoCredit from 24 continuing in the future the unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent practice as described 25 herein.

26 175. Plaintiff reasonably believed and/or depended on the material false
27
28

1 and/or misleading information provided by, and/or omitted by, TomoCredit with 2 respect to TomoCredit’s unfair acts and deceptive practices.

3 176. By reason of the foregoing, TomoCredit’s unlawful methods, acts, or 4 practices as described herein have caused damage to Plaintiff, entitling Plaintiff to 5 damages and injunctive relief; Attorneys’ fees and costs; and other relief that this 6 Court deems proper.

7 177. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend this Complaint and to assert a claim
8 for damages pursuant to Civil Code §1782.

9 178. Unless enjoined and restrained by this Court, TomoCredit will continue 10 to commit the violations alleged herein. Pursuant to Civil Code § 1780(a)(2), on 11 behalf of the Classes and general public, Plaintiff seeks an injunction prohibiting 12 TomoCredit from continuing their unlawful practices as alleged herein.

13 179. Plaintiff faces a real and immediate threat of repeated harm because he 14 cannot rely on Defendant’s representations in the future.

15 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

16 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against TomoCredit as follows:

17 (a) Certifying the proposed Classes defined above, appointing the Plaintiff
18 as a Class representative of the Classes, and designating undersigned attorneys as 19 Counsel for the Classes;

20 (b) Finding that TomoCredit committed the violations of laws alleged 21 herein;

22 (c) Determining that TomoCredit was unjustly enriched as a result of its 23 pattern of wrongful conduct;

24 (d) Expressly excluding any and all damages under California’s
25 Consumer Legal Remedies Act (“CLRA”) Cal. Civ. Code § 1750, providing to 26 each Member of the Classes compensatory, statutory, treble, nominal, and/or 27

1 punitive damages owed to them as a result of Defendants’ violations of law;

2 (e) Granting all appropriate relief including injunctive relief on behalf of 3 Plaintiff and the Classes under the applicable state laws;

4 (f) Awarding interest, costs, reasonable attorneys’ fees, costs, and/or 5 expenses; and

6 (g) Granting all such other relief as the Court deems appropriate.

7 DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

8 Plaintiff demands a trial by jury of any and all issues in this action so triable 9 as of right.
