INTRODUCTION

1. This action is brought by the Plaintiff GUOPING GU, on behalf of himself as well as other employees similarly situated, against the Defendants for alleged violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, (FLSA) 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. and New York Labor Law (NYLL), arising from Defendants' various willfully and unlawful employment policies, patterns and practices.

2. Upon information and belief, Defendants have willfully and intentionally committed widespread violations of the FLSA and NYLL by engaging in pattern and practice of failing to pay its employees, including Plaintiff, minimum wage for each hour worked and overtime compensation for all hours worked over forty (40) each workweek.

3. Plaintiff alleges pursuant to the FLSA, that he is entitled to recover from the Defendants: (1) unpaid minimum wage and unpaid overtime wages, (2) out of pocket expenses to delivery experts on the road, (3) liquidated damages, (4) prejudgment and post-judgment interest; and or (5) attorney's fees and cost.

4. Plaintiff further alleges pursuant to NYLL § 650 et seq. and 12 New York Codes, Rules and Regulations § 146 (NYCRR) that he is entitled to recover from the Defendants: (1) unpaid minimum wage compensation and unpaid overtime compensation, (2) unpaid spread-of-hours premium, (3) out of pocket expenses to delivery experts on the road, (4) up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) per Plaintiff for Defendants' failure to provide a Time of Hire Notice detailing rates of pay and payday, (5) up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) per Plaintiff for Defendants' failure to provide a paystub that accurately and truthfully lists employee's hours along with the employee's name, employer's name, employer's address and telephone number, employee's rate or rates of pay, any deductions made from employee's wages, any allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, and the employee's gross and net wages for each pay day, (6) liquidated damages equal to the sum of unpaid minimum wage, unpaid "spread of hours" premium, unpaid overtime in the amount of twenty five percent under NYLL § 190 et seq., § 650 et seq., and one hundred percent after April 9, 2011 under NY Wage Theft Prevention Act, (7) 9% simple prejudgment interest provided by NYLL, (8) post-judgment interest, and (9) attorney's fees and costs.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Wage and Hour Claims

22. There are at least 12 employees at the restaurant, including five (5) kitchen workers, two (2) waiters, one (1) receptionist, one (1) packer, two (2) deliverymen and one (1) miscellaneous worker.

23. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully against the Plaintiff, the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, and the Class.

24. Pursuant to NYCRR Part 146-2.2 and 29 USC § 203(m), an employer cannot take credit towards the basic minimum wage if a service employee or food service worker has not received notification of the tip credit.

25. At all relevant times, Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and similarly situated employees at least the New York minimum wage for each hour worked.

26. At all relevant times, Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to pay

Plaintiff his lawful overtime compensation of one and one-half times (1.5x) their regular rate of pay for all hours worked over forty (40) in a given workweek.

31. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of overtime pay and New York's "spread of hours" premium for every day in which Plaintiff worked over ten (10) hours would financially injure Plaintiff and similarly situated employees and violate state and federal laws.

32. Defendants did not post the required New York State Department of Labor posters regarding minimum wage pay rates, overtime pay, tip credit, and pay day.

Plaintiff GUOPING GU

33. From on or about June 01, 2014 to October 08, 2018, Plaintiff GUOPING GU was employed by Defendants to work as a deliveryman at 197 Mineola Blvd., Mineola NY 11501.

34. From on or about June 01, 2014 to August 17, 2016, Plaintiff GUOPING GU's regular work schedule ran from from 12:00 to 22:00 for ten (10) hours, with no break, on Sunday for one (1) day for a total of 10.00 hours each week.

35. From on or about August 18, 2016 to October 08, 2018, Plaintiff GUOPING GU's regular work schedule ran from 11:00 to 22:00 for eleven (11) hours a day from Mondays through Thursdays, with no break, for four (4) days and forty four (44) hours and from 11:00 to 23:00 for twelve (12) hours a day on Fridays and Saturdays for two (2) days and twenty four (24) hours for a total of 68 hours each week.

36. At all relevant times, Plaintiff GUOPING GU did not have a fixed time for lunch.

37. While the restaurant provided both lunch and dinner, Plaintiff GUOPING GU only eat lunch for at most ten (10) minutes while he ate dinner at home.

38. In fact, Plaintiff GUOPING GU had ten (10) minutes to eat and even then he was on call, meaning that if customer's order came, his break stopped and he had to deliver.

39. From on or about June 01, 2014 to August 17, 2016, Plaintiff GUOPING GU was paid a flat compensation at a rate of eighty dollars ($80.00) per day.

40. From on or about August 18, 2016 to October 08, 2018 , Plaintiff GUOPING GU was paid a flat compensation at a rate of one thousand eight hundred dollars ($1800.00) per month.

41. At all relevant times, Plaintiff GUOPING GU was not paid overtime pay for overtime work.

42. At all relevant times, Plaintiff GUOPING GU was never informed of his hourly pay rate or any tip deductions toward the minimum wage.

43. Further, Plaintiff GUOPING GU was required to do side work, including peeling shrimp, and cutting the cardboard to be used to pack the delivery bags.

44. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff GUOPING GU was not given a statement with his weekly payment reflecting employee's name, employer's name, employer's address and telephone number, employee's rate or rates of pay, any deductions made from employee's wages, any allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, and the employee's gross and net wages for each pay day in Chinese, Plaintiff's native language.

45. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff GUOPING GU was not compensated at least at one-and-one-half his promised hourly wage for all hours worked above forty (40) in each workweek.

46. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff GUOPING GU was not compensated for New York's "spread of hours" premium for shifts that lasted longer than ten (10) hours at his promised rate.

47. As part of Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Plaintiff GUOPING GU was required to bear the cost of the purchase of Camry XLE for delivery.

48. The Camry XLE cost Plaintiff $28,000 to purchase.

49. In addition, to maintain the Camry XLE, Plaintiff was required to spend roughly five hundred twenty dollars ($520) in gas, fifty dollars ($50) a month in changing the engine oil and replace four tires at a cost of one hundred dollars ($180) each for a total of seven hundred twenty ($720) dollars as well as three (3) brakes at a cost of ninety dollars ($90) each for two hundred seventy dollars ($270) total.

50. In particular, Plaintiff GUOPING GU was required to deliver between twenty five (25) to thirty (30) orders, with a delivery radius ranging from one (1) mile to seven (7) miles with an average delivery radius of six (6) miles per order.

51. Plaintiff GUOPING GU has to travel between one hundred (100) and one hundred twenty (120) miles a day to deliver food for Defendants.

52. The out-of-pocket Plaintiff GUOPING GU expended on Defendants' behalf brought his equivalent hourly rate below both the state and federal minimum wage.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

53. Plaintiff brings this action individually and as class representative individually and on behalf of all other and former non-exempt employees who have been or were employed by the Defendants for up to the last three (3) years, through entry of judgment in this case (the "Collective Action Period") and whom were not compensated at their promised hourly rate for all hours worked and at one and one half times their promised work for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week (the "Collective Action Members").

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

54. Plaintiff brings his NYLL claims pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("Fed. R. Civ. P.") Rule 23, on behalf of all non-exempt personnel employed by Defendants on or after the date that is six years before the filing of the Complaint in this case as defined herein (the "Class Period").

55. All said persons, including Plaintiff, are referred to herein as the "Class."

56. The Class members are readily ascertainable. The number and identity of the Class members are determinable from the records of Defendants. The hours assigned and worked, the positions held, and the rate of pay for each Class Member is also determinable from Defendants' records. For purpose of notice and other purposes related to this action, their names and addresses are readily available from Defendants. Notice can be provided by means permissible under said Fed. R. Civ. P. 23.

Numerosity

57. The proposed Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, and the disposition of their claims as a class will benefit the parties and the Court. Although the precise number of such persons is unknown, and the facts on which the calculation of the number is presently within the sole control of the Defendants, upon information and belief, there are more than forty (40) members of the class.

Commonality

58. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class which predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members, including:

- a. Whether Defendant employed Plaintiff and the Class within the meaning of the New York law;
- b. Whether Plaintiff and Class members are promised and not paid at their promised hourly wage;
- c. Whether Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to and paid overtime at their promised hourly wage under the New York Labor Law;
- d. Whether Defendants maintained a policy, pattern and/or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class spread-of-hours pay as required by the NYLL;
- e. Whether Defendants reimbursed Plaintiff and the Deliverymen Subclass for out-of-pocket delivery costs;
- f. Whether Defendants maintained a policy, pattern and/or practice of failing to provide requisite statutory meal periods;

g. Whether Defendants provided a Time of Hire Notice detailing rates of pay and payday at the start of Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class's start of employment and/or timely thereafter;

h. Whether Defendants provided paystubs detailing the rates of pay and credits taken towards the minimum wage to Plaintiff and the Rule 23 class on each payday; and

i. At what common rate, or rates subject to common method of calculation was and is Defendants required to pay the Class members for their work.

Typicality

59. Plaintiff's claims are typical of those claims which could be alleged by any member of the Class, and the relief sought is typical of the relief that would be sought by each member of the Class in separate actions. All the Class members were subject to the same corporate practices of Defendants, as alleged herein, of failing to pay minimum wage or overtime compensation. Defendants' corporate-wide policies and practices affected all Class members similarly, and Defendants benefitted from the same type of unfair and/or wrongful acts as to each Class member. Plaintiff and other Class members sustained similar losses, injuries and damages arising from the same unlawful policies, practices and procedures.

Adequacy

60. Plaintiff is able to fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class and have no interests antagonistic to the Class. Plaintiff is represented by attorneys who are experienced and competent in representing Plaintiffs in both class action and wage-and-hour employment litigation cases.

Superiority

61. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, particularly in the context of wage-and-hour litigation where individual Class members lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit against corporate defendants. Class action treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently and without the unnecessary duplication of efforts and expenses that numerous individual actions engender. Because the losses, injuries and damages suffered by each of the individual Class members are small in the sense pertinent to a class action analysis, the expenses and burden of individual litigation would make it extremely difficult or impossible for the individual Class members to redress the wrongs done to them. Further, important public interests will be served by addressing the matter as a class action. The adjudication of individual litigation claims would result in a great expenditure of Court and public resources; however, treating the claims as a class action would result in a significant saving of these costs. The prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the Class would create a risk of inconsistent and/or varying adjudications with respect to the individual members of the Class, establishing incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants and resulting in the impairment of Class members' rights and the disposition of their interests through actions to which they were not parties. The issues in this action can be decided by means of common, class-wide proof. In addition, if appropriate, the Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods to efficiently manage this action as a class action.

62. Upon information and belief, Defendants and other employers throughout the state violate the New York Labor Law. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing claims because doing so can harm their employment, future employment, and future efforts to secure employment. Class actions provide class members who are not named in the complaint a degree of anonymity which allows for the vindication of their rights while eliminating or reducing these risks.
