GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Who is eligible to file a claim? All Class Members may file a claim. The court has defined the Class this way: “all individuals residing in the United States whose Personal Information was compromised in the Data Security Incident experienced by Mana Products Inc. which began on or around September 2, 2023, including all those who received notice of the Data Security Incident.”

Excluded from the Settlement Class are: (1) the Judge in this case, and the Judge’s family and staff, (2) Mana and related companies and corporate directors; (3) anyone who validly excludes themselves from the Settlement; and (4) anyone who perpetrated the cyberattack.

COMPLETE THIS CLAIM FORM IF YOU ARE A CLASS MEMBER AND WISH TO RECEIVE ONE OR MORE OF THE FOLLOWING SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

AVAILABLE BENEFITS

Mana will pay for the benefits described below. You are not limited to one benefit. You may file a claim for each benefit that you qualify for.

BENEFITS

Credit Monitoring Services. All Class Members are eligible to receive two years of Credit Monitoring Services from the three credit bureaus. This benefit will include $1,000,000.00 of identity theft protection insurance.

Cash Benefits. There are three types of Cash Benefits claims:

- Documented Out-of-Pocket Losses
- Reimbursement for Lost Time
- Documented Extraordinary Losses

Mana will pay up to $200,000.00 for these three benefits. This amount is expected to be enough to cover all Cash Benefits claims. However, if it turns out not to be enough, all Cash Benefits payments will be reduced pro rata.

Documented Out-of-Pocket Expenses. If you incurred actual, documented out-of-pocket expenses because of the Data Security Incident, you can get back up to $400.00.

This benefit covers out-of-pocket expenses like:

- (1) attorney or accountant fees;

- (2) fees for credit reports, credit monitoring, or credit repair;
- (3) fees for freezing or unfreezing credit;
- (4) miscellaneous expenses like notary, postage, or copying.

You must provide receipts or other proofs of expenses. You can include “self-prepared” documents to explain or support other submitted documentation, but self-prepared documents by themselves are not sufficient for a valid claim.

If you also claim Reimbursement for Lost Time, below, the combined total is capped at $400.00

Reimbursement for Lost Time. If you spent time fixing problems caused by the Data Security Incident, you can get back $20.00 per hour for up to 4 hours (up to $80.00). You need to have spent at least 1 full hour on these problems.

To claim this benefit, list on the Claim Form what you did and how much time each task took. You must attest, under penalty of perjury, that the tasks were related to the Data Security Incident.

If you also claim Documented Out-of-Pocket Expenses, above, the combined total is capped at $400.00

Documented Extraordinary Expenses. You can get back up to $4,000.00 if you experienced fraud or identity theft. This benefit applies if:

- (1) you have actual, documented expenses; and
- (2) the expenses were probably because of the Data Security Incident; and
- (3) the expenses happened after September 2, 2023; and
- (4) the expenses are not already covered by the Out-of-Pocket or Lost Time benefits; and
- (5) you tried your best to avoid the expenses, or to get your money back.

You must provide receipts or other proofs of expenses. You can include “self-prepared” documents to explain or support other submitted documentation, but self-prepared documents by themselves are not sufficient for a valid claim.

Alternative Cash Payment. Instead of all the other benefits described above, you can claim a one-time $25.00 cash payment. Do not claim any other benefits if you claim the Alternative Cash Payment. You do not have to provide any proof or additional information to claim this payment.
