CLASS ACTION

v.

CAPITAL LINK MANAGEMENT, LLC,

Defendant.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Ronald Henry (“Plaintiff” or “Henry”), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, brings this action against Capital Link Management, LLC (“Defendant” or “Capital Link”), and alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This action seeks damages, attorneys’ fees, and costs against Capital Link for its violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (“FDCPA”).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 42 Pa. C.S. § 931.
3. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant pursuant to 42 Pa. C.S. § 5301.
4. Venue is proper pursuant to Pa. R. Civ. P. 2179 because Defendant regularly conducts business in this County.

PARTIES

5. Henry is a person residing in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.
6. Capital Link is a limited liability company headquartered in Amherst, New York.
7. Capital Link helps creditors and debt buyers collect debt from consumers.
8. Capital Link uses instrumentalities of interstate commerce, such as telephone, mail, and the internet, to collect debt.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

The Account Capital Link Attempted to Collect from Henry

9. In 2015, Marlette Funding, LLC, d/b/a Best Egg (“Marlette”), issued a personal loan to Henry (the “Account”).
10. The Account was used for personal, family, and household purposes.
11. At some point, Marlette allegedly sold the Account to a debt buyer called UHG I, LLC (“UHG”).
12. At that time, the unpaid balance of the Account allegedly was $5,193.52.
13. This amount included an unpaid interest and fee balance of $413.87.
14. These interest and fees were charged at an annual percentage rate of over 21%.
15. Marlette provided documents to UHG that showed the amounts and rates of interest and fees charged on the Account.
16. After the alleged sale of the Account, UHG hired Capital Link to collect the Account from Henry.
17. UHG provided or made available to Capital Link the documents that showed the amounts and rates of interest and fees charged on the Account.

18. These documents showed that the Account included unpaid interest and fees charged at an annual percentage rate of over 21%.

19. Capital Link attempted to collect the full unpaid balance of the Account from Henry, including the unpaid interest and fees which were charged on the Account at an annual percentage rate of over 21%.

Capital Link Could Not Lawfully Collect the Full Balance of the Account

20. The Account is a personal loan of under $25,000, meaning it is governed by a law called the Consumer Discount Company Act (“CDCA”).

21. The CDCA prohibits those in the business of making or buying personal loans from charging, collecting, contracting for, or receiving interest and fees that combine to exceed the interest a business can charge without a CDCA license. 7 P.S. § 6203.A.

22. UHG, the alleged purchaser of the Account, does not possess a CDCA license.

23. UHG is also not a bank or depository institution.

24. Non-bank entities that do not hold a CDCA license, like UHG, may not charge more than 6% interest without a CDCA license. 41 P.S. § 201(a).

25. That means such entities cannot charge, collect, contract for, or receive more than 6% interest on covered loans without a CDCA license. 7 P.S. § 6203.A.

26. Yet UHG allegedly bought a direct loan and Capital Link attempted to collect the full balance of the loan on behalf of UHG, even though this balance included unpaid interest and fees that were charged well in excess of 6% simple interest per year.

27. Capital Link could not lawfully collect such interest and fees from Henry because UHG did not have the authority to charge, collect, contract for, or receive such interest and fees. 41 P.S. § 201(a); 7 P.S. § 6203.A.

28. Capital Link regularly attempts to collect interest and fees that UHG and other debt buyers are not licensed to charge, collect, contract for, or receive.

29. On information and belief, Capital Link has no policies, practices, or procedures to screen the debt buyers for which Capital Link collects debt to determine whether such entities are permitted to charge, collect, contract for, or receive interest and fees.

Pennsylvania Residents were Harmed by Capital Link's Conduct

30. The rights of Henry and other similarly situated individuals were harmed by Capital Link's attempts to charge, collect, contract for, or receive interest and fees that Capital Link was not permitted by law to charge, collect, contract for, or receive.

31. As a result of Capital Link's actions, the rights of Henry and those similarly situated were violated, and Henry and the class members suffered injury in fact.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

32. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated under Rules 1702, 1708, and 1709 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

33. Plaintiff seeks to certify the following class: "All persons who, within the applicable statute of limitations, were: i) issued a personal consumer loan; ii) charged interest and fees that combined to exceed 6% simple interest per year; and iii) contacted by Capital Link on behalf of a debt buyer that did not hold a CDCA license."

34. Plaintiff reserves the right to expand, narrow, or otherwise modify the class as litigation continues and discovery proceeds.

35. Pa. R. Civ. P. 1702(1), 1708(a)(2): The class is so numerous that joinder of the class members is impracticable. Since each of the claims of the class members is substantially identical, and the class members request substantially similar relief, centralizing the class members' claims in a single proceeding likely is the most manageable litigation method available.

36. Pa. R. Civ. P. 1702(2), 1708(a)(1): Plaintiff and the class members share numerous common questions of law and fact that will drive the resolution of the litigation and predominate over any individual issues. For example, there is a single common answer to the question of whether Capital Link could charge, collect, contract for, or receive interest and fees that aggregate in excess of 6% when collecting debt on behalf of debt buyers that do not hold a CDCA license. This question, and other common questions of law and fact, predominate over any individual issues.

37. Pa. R. Civ. P. 1702(3): Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the class because the claims of Plaintiff and the class are based on the same legal theories and arise from the same conduct.

38. Pa. R. Civ. P. 1702(4), 1709: Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the class because the interests of Plaintiff and the class members align. Plaintiff will fairly, adequately, and vigorously represent and protect the interests of the class and has no interest antagonistic to the class. Plaintiff retained counsel who are competent and experienced in the prosecution of class action litigation generally and consumer finance and credit litigation specifically.

39. Pa. R. Civ. P. 1708(a)(3), (6), (7): Given the complexity and nature of the issues presented and the relief requested, the expense and time necessary to obtain such relief, and the anticipated recovery and relief Plaintiff and the class members may obtain, the class action mechanism is by far the preferred and most efficient litigation mechanism to adjudicate the claims of Plaintiff and the class members. Additionally, requiring Plaintiff and the class members to file individual actions would impose a crushing burden on the court system and almost certainly lead to inconsistent judgments. Class treatment presents far fewer management difficulties and provides benefits of a single adjudication and economies of scale.

40. Pa. R. Civ. P. 1708(a)(4): Based on the knowledge of Plaintiff and undersigned counsel, there are no cases currently pending that address the issues or request relief for the conduct at issue in this case.

41. Pa. R. Civ. P. 1708(a)(5): This forum is appropriate for this litigation, as Defendant regularly conducts business in this County and part of the claims arose in this County.

COUNT I
Violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act
15 U.S.C. §§ 1692, et seq.

42. This claim is brought individually and on behalf of the class.

43. Plaintiff is a consumer, the Account is a debt, and Defendant is a debt collector under the FDCPA. 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692a(3), (5), (6).

44. Defendant's actions and practices described herein constitute false, deceptive, or misleading representations or means in connection with the collection of a debt, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692e, and/or unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect a debt, in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1692f.

45. As a result of Defendant's failure to comply with the provisions of the FDCPA, and the resulting injury and harm this failure caused, Plaintiff and the class members are entitled to actual damages, statutory damages, and attorneys' fees and costs under 15 U.S.C. § 1692k.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff requests a jury trial on all claims so triable.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- a. An order certifying the proposed class, appointing Plaintiff as representative of the proposed class, and appointing undersigned counsel as counsel for the proposed class;
- b. An order awarding actual, statutory, and all other damages available by law, along with pre- and post-judgment interest;
- c. An order awarding attorneys' fees and costs;
- d. An order declaring Defendant's conduct unlawful;
- e. An order awarding all other relief that is just, equitable, and appropriate.
