

By providing this notice, Interstate Management Company, LLC (“Interstate Management”) does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Maine law, the applicability of the Maine data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On April 23, 2026 Interstate Management confirmed that personal information may have been accessed or taken from certain hotel systems between November 19, 2025 and November 22, 2025. As part of its response to this event, Interstate Management took steps to secure systems, investigate what happened, and identify the data that may be involved. These efforts included a review of the information involved to identify the types of information within the files and to whom that information may relate.

The information that could have been subject to unauthorized access includes name, Social Security number and financial account information.

Notice to Maine Residents

On or about May 26, 2026, Interstate Management provided written notice of this incident to three (3) Maine residents. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, Interstate Management moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of Interstate Management systems, and identify potentially affected individuals. Interstate Management is also working to implement additional safeguards and training to its employees. Interstate Management is providing access to credit monitoring services for one (1) year, through IDX, to individuals whose personal information was potentially affected by this incident, at no cost to these individuals.

Additionally, Interstate Management is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud. Interstate Management is providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one’s credit file, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud.

Interstate Management is providing written notice of this incident to relevant state regulators, as necessary, and to the three major credit reporting agencies, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion.
