CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Agreement (“Agreement” or “Settlement Agreement”) is entered into by and among (i) Plaintiffs Shamar Jasher and Jackie Mutschler (“Representative Plaintiffs”); (ii) the Settlement Class (as defined herein); and (iii) Defendants Service Spot, LLC and TripGate LLC (“Defendants”). The Settlement Class and Representative Plaintiffs are collectively referred to herein as the “Plaintiffs” unless otherwise noted. Plaintiffs and Defendants are collectively referred to herein as the “Parties.” This Agreement is intended by the Parties to fully, finally, and forever resolve, discharge, and settle the Released Claims (as defined herein), upon and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and subject to the final approval of the Court.

RECITALS

A. On or about March 24, 2025, Plaintiff Jasher sent a Demand for Corrective Action (“Jasher Demand”) asserting claims against Defendant Service Spot, LLC. The Jasher Demand alleged that Defendant Service Spot, LLC, on its website, parkon.com, charged an additional “Reservation Fee” without including that fee in the initially advertised prices for its service.

Plaintiff Jasher alleged that this pricing scheme violates (1) Honest Pricing Law, Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(29)(A) and (2) California’s Unfair Competition Law, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq.

B. On April 25, 2025, Plaintiff Jasher filed a class action complaint styled Jasher v. Service Spot, LLC, Case No. 25-cv-01203-DJC (E.D. Cal.), asserting the claims identified in the Jasher Demand (“CA Action”).

C. On or about May 1, 2025, Plaintiff Mutschler sent a Demand for Corrective Action (“Mutschler Demand”) asserting claims against Defendant TripGate LLC. The Mutschler Demand alleged that Defendant TripGate LLC also charged an additional “Reservation Fee” on its website, cheapairportparking.org, without including that fee in the initially advertised prices for its service. Plaintiff Mutschler alleged that this pricing scheme violates (1) Honest Pricing Law, Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(29)(A) and (2) California’s Unfair Competition Law, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq.

D. Shortly after filing the Jasher complaint, the Parties engaged in good-faith negotiations, seeking to resolve the claims brought by the Representative Plaintiffs. On or about August 26, 2025, the Parties reached an agreement on all material terms of a class action settlement.

E. On September 9, 2025, Plaintiffs filed the operative Complaint in the Circuit Court for the 11th Judicial Circuit in and for Miami-Dade County, Florida, styled at Jasher, et al. v. Service Spot, LLC, et al., Case No. 2025-017619-CA-01, Section No. CA43, Judge Thomas J. Rebull (“FL Action”).

F. At all times, Defendants have denied, and continue to deny, any wrongdoing whatsoever, deny that they committed, or threatened or attempted to commit, any wrongful act or violation of law or duty alleged in the Jasher Demand, the Mutschler Demand, the CA Action, and the FL Action, and deny that certification of a litigation class is necessary or proper. Accordingly, any references to the alleged business practices of Defendants in this Agreement, any settlement document, or the related Court hearings and processes will raise no inference with respect to the propriety of those business practices or any other business practices of Defendants. Nonetheless, taking into account the uncertainty and risks inherent in any litigation and the desire to avoid the expenditure of further legal fees and costs, Defendants have concluded that it is desirable and beneficial that the CA Action and the FL Action (as well as the allegations in the Jasher Demand and the Mutschler Demand) be fully and finally settled and terminated in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement to avoid further expense, inconvenience, and burden. This Agreement is a compromise, and the Agreement, any related documents, and any negotiations resulting in it shall not be construed as, or deemed to be, evidence of or an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing on the part of Defendants, or any of the Released Parties (defined below), with respect to any claim of any fault or liability or wrongdoing or damage whatsoever or with respect to the certifiability of a litigation class.

G. Plaintiffs believe that the claims asserted in the Jasher Demand, the Mutschler Demand, the CA Action, and the FL Action against Defendants have merit and that they would have prevailed at summary judgment and/or trial. Nonetheless, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel recognize that Defendants have raised factual and legal defenses that present a risk that Plaintiffs may not prevail. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel also recognize the expense and delay associated with continued prosecution of the CA Action and FL Action against Defendants through class certification, summary judgment, trial, and any subsequent appeals. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel also have taken into account the uncertain outcome and risks of litigation, especially in complex class actions, as well as the difficulties inherent in such litigation. Therefore, Plaintiffs believe it is desirable that the Released Claims (defined below) be fully and finally compromised, settled, and resolved with prejudice. Based on its evaluation, Class Counsel has concluded that the terms and conditions of this Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate to the Settlement Class (defined below), and that it is in the best interests of the Settlement Class to settle the claims raised in the Jasher Demand, the Mutschler Demand, the CA Action, and the FL Action pursuant to the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

H. Defendants maintain that they have meritorious defenses to the claims asserted in this FL Action, and that Defendants would prevail in this matter on summary judgment or at trial. Defendants deny any wrongdoing and any liability to the Representative Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class whatsoever. Defendants also deny that class certification is warranted or appropriate. Nevertheless, Defendants recognize the risks and uncertainties inherent in litigation, the significant expense associated with defending class actions, the costs of any appeals, and the disruption to business operations arising out of class action litigation. Defendants also recognize the risks that a trial on class-wide claims might present. Accordingly, Defendants believe that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is likewise in the best interests of all parties involved.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and among the Representative Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, and Defendants, by and through their undersigned counsel that, subject to final approval of the Court after a hearing or hearings as provided for in this Settlement Agreement, in consideration of the benefits flowing to the Parties from the Agreement set forth herein, that the CA Action, the FL Action, and the Released Claims shall be finally and fully compromised, settled, and released, and both the CA Action and the FL Action shall be dismissed with prejudice, upon and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Local Rules).

4.4. (e) Make available for inspection by Class Counsel or Defendants' Counsel the Claim Forms received by the Settlement Administrator at any time upon reasonable notice.

5.2. The Settlement Administrator shall be obliged to employ reasonable procedures to screen claims for abuse or fraud and deny Claim Forms where there is evidence of abuse or fraud. The Settlement Administrator shall determine whether a Claim Form submitted by a Settlement Class Member is an Approved Claim by determining if the Person is on the Class List and shall reject Claim Forms that fail to (a) comply with the instructions on the Claim Form or the terms of this Agreement, or (b) provide full and complete information as requested on the Claim Form. If a Person submits a timely Claim Form by the Claims Deadline where the Person appears on the Class List but the Claim Form is not otherwise complete, then the Settlement Administrator shall give such Person one (1) reasonable opportunity to provide any requested missing information, which information must be received by the Settlement Administrator no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days after providing notice of the deficiency. If the Settlement Administrator receives such information more than twenty-one (21) calendar days after providing notice of the deficiency, then any such claim shall be denied. The Settlement Administrator may contact any Person who has submitted a Claim Form to obtain additional information necessary to verify the Claim Form.

5.3. Defendants' Counsel and Class Counsel shall have the right to challenge the acceptance or rejection of a Claim Form submitted by Settlement Class Members. The Settlement Administrator shall follow any agreed decisions of Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel as to the validity of any disputed submitted Claim Form. To the extent Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel are not able to agree on the disposition of a challenge, the disputed claim shall be submitted to the Court for binding determination.

5.4. In the exercise of its duties outlined in this Agreement, the Settlement Administrator shall have the right to reasonably request additional information from the Parties or any Settlement Class Member.

5.5. Defendants, the Released Parties, and Defendants' Counsel shall have no responsibility for, interest in, or liability whatsoever with respect to: (i) any act, omission, or determination by Class Counsel, or the Claims Administrator, or any of their respective designees or agents, in connection with the administration of the settlement or otherwise; (ii) the management, investment, or distribution of the Settlement Fund; (iii) the allocation of net Settlement Funds to Settlement Class Members or the implementation, administration, calculation or interpretation thereof; (iv) the determination, administration, calculation, or payment of any claims asserted against the Settlement Fund; or (v) the payment, reporting, or withholding of any taxes, tax expenses, or costs incurred in connection with the taxation of the Settlement Fund or the filing of any federal, state, or local returns.

5.6. All taxes and tax expenses shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund, and shall be timely paid by the Settlement Administrator pursuant to this Agreement and without further order of the Court. Any tax returns or reporting forms prepared for the Settlement Fund (as well as the election set forth therein) shall be consistent with this Agreement and in all events shall reflect that all taxes on the income earned by the Settlement Fund shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund as provided herein. The Released Parties shall have no responsibility or liability for the acts or omissions of the Settlement Administrator or its agents with respect to the reporting or payment of taxes or tax expenses.

6. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER AND FINAL APPROVAL ORDER.

6.1. Promptly after the execution of this Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel shall submit this Agreement together with its Exhibits to the Court and shall move the Court for Preliminary Approval of the settlement set forth in this Agreement; conditional certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only; appointment of Class Counsel and the Class Representative; and entry of a Preliminary Approval, which order shall set a Final Approval Hearing date and approve the Notice and Claim Form for dissemination substantially in the form of Exhibits A, B, and C hereto. The Preliminary Approval Order shall also authorize the Parties, without further approval from the Court, to agree to and adopt such amendments, modifications, and expansions of the Settlement Agreement and its implementing documents (including all Exhibits to this Agreement) so long as they are consistent in all material respects with the terms of the Settlement Agreement and do not limit or impair the rights of the Settlement Class or expand the obligations of Defendants.

6.2. At the time of the submission of this Agreement to the Court as described above, Class Counsel shall request that, after Notice is given, the Court hold a Final Approval Hearing and approve the settlement of the FL Action as set forth herein.

6.3. After Notice is given, the Parties shall request and seek to obtain from the Court a Final Judgment, which will (among other things):

(a) find that the Court has personal jurisdiction over all Settlement Class Members and that the Court has subject matter jurisdiction to approve the Agreement, including all Exhibits thereto;

(b) approve the Settlement Agreement and the proposed settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate as to, and in the best interests of, the Settlement Class Members; direct the Parties and their counsel to implement and consummate the Agreement according to its terms and provisions; and declare the Agreement to be binding on, and have res judicata and preclusive effect in all pending and future lawsuits or other proceedings maintained by or on behalf of Plaintiffs and Releasing Parties;

(c) find that the Notice implemented pursuant to the Agreement (1) constitutes the best practicable notice under the circumstances; (2) constitutes notice that is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of the FL Action, their right to object to or exclude themselves from the proposed Agreement, and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (3) is reasonable and constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice; and (4) meets all applicable requirements of the Florida Code of Civil Procedure, the Due Process Clauses of the United States and Florida Constitutions, and the rules of the Court;

(d) conditionally find that the prerequisites for a class action under Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.220(a)-(b) have been satisfied for settlement purposes for the Settlement Class in that: (1) the number of Settlement Class Members is so numerous that joinder of all members thereof is impracticable; (2) there are questions of law and fact common to the Settlement Class

Members; (3) the claims of the Class Representatives are typical of the claims of the Settlement Class they seek to represent; (4) the Class Representatives have and will continue to fairly and adequately represent the interests of the Settlement Class for purposes of entering into the Settlement Agreement; (5) the questions of law and fact common to Settlement Class Members predominate over any questions affecting any individual Settlement Class Member; (6) the Settlement Class is ascertainable; and (7) a class action is superior to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy;

(e) dismiss the FL Action (including all individual claims and Settlement Class Claims presented thereby) on the merits and with prejudice, without fees or costs to any party except as provided in the Settlement Agreement;

(f) incorporate the Release set forth above, make the Release effective as of the date of the Effective Date, and forever discharge the Released Parties as set forth herein;

(g) permanently bar and enjoin all Settlement Class Members from filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, or participating (as class members or otherwise) in any lawsuit or other action in any jurisdiction based on the Released Claims;

(h) without affecting the finality of the Final Judgment for purposes of appeal, retain jurisdiction as to all matters relating to administration, consummation, enforcement, and interpretation of the Settlement Agreement and the Final Judgment, and for any other necessary purpose;

(i) close the case; and

(j) incorporate any other provisions, as the Court deems necessary and just, provided that such other provisions do not materially abridge, enlarge, or modify any rights or responsibilities of the Released Parties or Settlement Class Members under this Agreement.

6.4. The Parties agree to stay all proceedings in the FL Action, other than those proceedings necessary to carry out or enforce the terms and conditions of the Settlement, until the Effective Date of the Settlement has occurred. The Parties also agree to use their best efforts to seek the stay and dismissal of, and to oppose entry of any interim or final relief in favor of any Settlement Class Member in, any other proceedings against any of the Released Parties that challenges the Settlement or otherwise asserts or involves, directly or indirectly, a Released Claim.

7. TERMINATION OF SETTLEMENT

7.1. Subject to Paragraphs 9.1-9.3 below, Defendants or the Class Representatives on behalf of the Settlement Class, shall have the right but not the obligation to terminate this Agreement by providing written notice of the election to do so (“Termination Notice”) to all other Parties hereto within twenty-one (21) days of any of the following events: (i) the Court’s refusal to grant Preliminary Approval of this Agreement in any material respect; (ii) the Court’s refusal to grant final approval of this Agreement in any material respect; (iii) the Court’s refusal to enter the Final Judgment in this FL Action in any material respect; (iv) the date upon which the Final Judgment is modified or reversed in any material respect by an appellate court with jurisdiction; or (v) the date upon which an Alternate Judgment, as defined in Paragraph 9.1(d) of this Agreement is modified or reversed in any material respect by an appellate court with jurisdiction.

7.2. Confirmatory Discovery. Defendants represent that they have collected approximately $1,200,000 in Reservation Fees from California residents in connection with their online parking reservation marketplaces accessible through the Websites from July 1, 2024 to June 9, 2025. Defendants have executed an affidavit from an appropriate representative with knowledge attesting to the same prior to execution of this Settlement Agreement.

8. CLASS COUNSEL’S ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES; SERVICE AWARD

8.1. Defendants agree that Class Counsel shall be entitled to seek an award of attorneys’ fees and costs out of the Settlement Fund in an amount to be determined by the Court as the Fee Award. With no consideration given or received, Class Counsel will limit its petition for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses to no more than 33% of the Settlement Fund (i.e., $165,000). Payment of the Fee Award shall be made from the Settlement Fund and should the Court award less than the amount sought by Class Counsel, the difference in the amount sought and the amount ultimately awarded pursuant to this Paragraph shall remain in the Settlement Fund.

8.2. Class Counsel intends to file a motion for Court approval of a Service Award to the Class Representatives, to be paid from the Settlement Fund, in addition to any funds the Class Representative stands to otherwise receive from the Settlement. With no consideration having been given or received for this limitation, the Representative Plaintiffs will seek no more than $5,000 each as a Service Award. Should the Court award less than this amount, the difference in the amount sought and the amount ultimately awarded pursuant to this Paragraph shall remain in the Settlement Fund. Such Service Award shall be paid from the Settlement Fund (in the form of a check to the Class Representatives that is sent care of Class Counsel), within five (5) business days after entry of the Final Judgment if there have been no objections to the Settlement Agreement, and, if there have been such objections, within five (5) business days after the Effective Date.

9. CONDITIONS OF SETTLEMENT, EFFECT OF DISAPPROVAL, CANCELLATION OR TERMINATION

9.1. The Effective Date of this Settlement Agreement shall not occur until all of the following events occur, and shall be the date which falls ten (10) calendar days after the last (in time) of the following events:

- (a) The Parties and their counsel have executed this Agreement;
- (b) The Court has entered the Preliminary Approval Order;
- (c) The Court has entered an order finally approving the Agreement, following Notice of the Settlement Class and a Final Approval Hearing, as provided in the Florida Code of Civil Procedure, and has entered the Final Judgment, or a judgment consistent with this Agreement in all material respects; and

(d) The Final Judgment has become Final, as defined above, or if the Court enters an Alternate Judgment, such Alternate Judgment becomes Final.

9.2. If some or all of the conditions specified in Paragraph 8.1 are not met, or if this Agreement is not approved by the Court, or the settlement set forth in this Agreement is terminated or fails to become effective in accordance with its terms, then this Settlement Agreement shall be canceled and terminated unless Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel mutually agree in writing to proceed with this Agreement. If any Party is in material breach of the terms hereof, any other Party, provided that it is in substantial compliance with the terms of this Agreement, may terminate this Agreement on notice to all of the Settling Parties.

Notwithstanding anything herein, the Parties agree that the Court's failure to approve, in whole or in part, Class Counsel's request for payment of attorneys' fees, costs, and/or expenses and/or the request for Service Award payments set forth in Paragraph 8 above shall not prevent the Agreement from becoming effective, nor shall it be grounds for termination.

9.3. If this Agreement is terminated or fails to become effective, including but not limited to, for the reasons set forth in Paragraphs 9.1-9.2 above, the Parties shall be restored to their respective positions in the FL Action as of the moment just prior to the signing of this Agreement and the Class Action Settlement Term Sheet entered into between Defendants and the Class Representatives shall be cancelled, null, and void. In such event, any Final Judgment or other order entered by the Court in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be treated as vacated, nunc pro tunc, and the Parties shall be returned to the status quo ante with respect to the FL Action as if this Agreement and the Class Action Settlement Term Sheet had never been entered into. If the Final Settlement Order and Judgment or any part of it is vacated, overturned, reversed, or rendered void as a result of an appeal, or the Settlement Agreement is voided, rescinded, or otherwise terminated for any other reason, Class Counsel shall, within thirty (30) days, repay to Defendants, based upon written instructions provided by Defendants' Counsel, the full amount paid by Defendants into the Settlement Fund, including any accrued interest. If the Service Award or attorneys' fees and costs awarded by the Court or any part of them are vacated, modified, reversed, or rendered void as a result of an appeal, Class Counsel shall within thirty (30) days repay to Defendants, based upon written instructions provided by Defendants' Counsel, the attorneys' fees and costs paid to Class Counsel and/or Class Representative from the Settlement Fund, in the amount vacated or modified, including any accrued interest.

10. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

10.1. The Parties (a) acknowledge that it is their intent to consummate this Settlement Agreement; and (b) agree, subject to their fiduciary and other legal obligations, to cooperate to the extent reasonably necessary to effectuate and implement all terms and conditions of this Agreement, to exercise their reasonable best efforts to accomplish the foregoing terms and conditions of this Agreement, to secure final approval, and to defend the Final Judgment through any and all appeals. Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel agree to cooperate with one another in seeking Court approval of the Settlement Agreement, entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, and the Final Judgment, and promptly to agree upon and execute all such other documentation as may be reasonably required to obtain final approval of the Agreement.

10.2. The Parties intend this Settlement Agreement to be a final and complete resolution of all disputes between them with respect to the Released Claims by Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class and each or any of them, on the one hand, against the Released Parties, and each or any of the Released Parties, on the other hand. Accordingly, the Parties agree not to assert in any forum that the FL Action was brought by Plaintiffs or defended by Defendants, or each or any of them, in bad faith or without a reasonable basis.

10.3. The Parties have relied upon the advice and representation of counsel, selected by them, concerning their respective legal liability for the claims hereby released. The Parties have read and understand fully the above and foregoing agreement and have been fully advised as to the legal effect thereof by counsel of their own selection and intend to be legally bound by the same.

10.4. Whether or not the Effective Date occurs or the Settlement Agreement is terminated, neither this Agreement, the Class Action Settlement Term Sheet, or any other settlement document, nor the settlement contained herein or any term, provision, or definition therein, nor any act or communication performed or document executed in the course of negotiating, implementing, or seeking approval pursuant to or in furtherance of this Agreement or the settlement:

(a) is, may be deemed, or shall be used, offered, or received in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency, arbitral proceeding, or other tribunal against the Released Parties, or each or any of them, as an admission, concession, or evidence of, the validity of any Released Claims, the truth of any fact alleged by Plaintiffs, the deficiency of any defense that has been or could have been asserted in the FL Action, the violation of any law or statute, the definition or scope of any term or provision, the reasonableness of the settlement amount or the Fee Award, or of any alleged wrongdoing, liability, negligence, or fault of the Released Parties, or any of them. Defendants, while continuing to deny all allegations of wrongdoing and disclaiming all liability with respect to all claims, considers it desirable to resolve the action on the terms stated herein to avoid further expense, inconvenience, and burden, and therefore has determined that this settlement is in Defendants' best interests. Any public statements made by Plaintiffs or Class Counsel will be consistent with this Paragraph and Class Counsel will not issue any press release concerning this Agreement or the settlement contained herein;

(b) is, may be deemed, or shall be used, offered, or received against any Released Party, as an admission, concession or evidence of any fault, misrepresentation, or omission with respect to any statement or written document approved or made by the Released Parties, or any of them;

(c) is, may be deemed, or shall be used, offered, or received against the Released Parties, or each or any of them, as an admission or concession with respect to any liability, negligence, fault or wrongdoing, or statutory meaning as against any Released Parties, or supporting the certification of a litigation class, in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency, or other tribunal. However, the settlement, this

Agreement, and any acts performed and/or documents executed in furtherance of or pursuant to this Agreement and/or Settlement may be used in any proceedings as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Agreement. Further, if this Settlement Agreement is approved by the Court, any Party or any of the Released Parties may file this Agreement and/or the Final Judgment in any action that may be brought against such Party or Parties in order to support a defense or counterclaim based on principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction, or any other theory of claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense or counterclaim;

(d) is, may be deemed, or shall be construed against the Representative Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, the Releasing Parties, or each or any of them, or against the Released Parties, or each or any of them, as an admission or concession that the consideration to be given hereunder represents an amount equal to, less than or greater than that amount that could have or would have been recovered after trial; and

(e) is, may be deemed, or shall be construed as or received in evidence as an admission or concession against the Representative Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, the Releasing Parties, or each and any of them, or against the Released Parties, or each or any of them, that any of the Representative Plaintiffs' or the Settlement Class's claims are with or without merit or that damages recoverable in the FL Action would have exceeded or would have been less than any particular amount.

10.5. The Parties acknowledge that (a) any certification of the Settlement Class as set forth in this Agreement, including certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes in the context of Preliminary Approval, shall not be deemed a concession that certification of a litigation class is appropriate, or that the Settlement Class definition would be appropriate for a litigation class, nor would Defendant be precluded from challenging class certification in further proceedings in the FL Action or in any other action if the Settlement Agreement is not finalized or finally approved; (b) if the Settlement Agreement is not finally approved by the Court for any reason whatsoever, then any certification of the Settlement Class will be void, the Parties and the FL Action shall be restored to the status quo ante, and no doctrine of waiver, estoppel, or preclusion will be asserted in any litigated certification proceedings in the FL Action or in any other action; and (c) no agreements made by or entered into by Defendants in connection with the Settlement may be used by Plaintiffs, any person in the Settlement Class, or any other person to establish any of the elements of class certification in any litigated certification proceedings, whether in the FL Action or any other judicial proceeding.

10.6. No person or entity shall have any claim against the Class Representative, Class Counsel, the Settlement Administrator or any other agent designated by Class Counsel, or the Released Parties and/or their counsel, arising from distributions made substantially in accordance with this Agreement. The Parties and their respective counsel, and all other Released Parties shall have no liability whatsoever for the investment or distribution of the Settlement Fund or the determination, administration, calculation, or payment of any claim or nonperformance of the Settlement Administrator, the payment or withholding of taxes (including interest and penalties) owed by the Settlement Fund, or any losses incurred in connection therewith.

10.7. The Plaintiffs, Settlement Class Members, and Class Counsel receiving funds pursuant to this Agreement shall be solely responsible for filing all information and other tax returns necessary or making any tax payments related to funds received pursuant to this Settlement Agreement. The Released Parties provide no legal advice and make no representations to the Plaintiffs, Class Members, or Class Counsel regarding the legal or tax consequences of this Agreement, including any benefit or monies paid and received. The Plaintiffs, Class Members, and Class Counsel shall be solely responsible for any tax or legal consequences for any benefit or award paid and/or received pursuant to this Agreement.

10.8. All proceedings with respect to the administration, processing, and determination of Claims and the determination of all controversies relating thereto, including disputed questions of law and fact with respect to the validity of Claims, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court.

10.9. The headings used herein are used for the purpose of convenience only and are not meant to have legal effect.

10.10. The waiver by one Party of any breach of this Agreement by any other Party shall not be deemed as a waiver of any other prior or subsequent breaches of this Agreement.

10.11. All of the Exhibits to this Agreement are material and integral parts thereof and are fully incorporated herein by this reference.

10.12. This Agreement and its Exhibits and the Class Action Settlement Term Sheet, set forth the entire agreement and understanding of the Parties with respect to the matters set forth herein, and supersede all prior negotiations, agreements, arrangements, and undertakings with respect to the matters set forth herein. No representations, warranties, or inducements have been made to any Party concerning this Settlement Agreement or its Exhibits or the Class Action Settlement Term Sheet other than the representations, warranties, and covenants contained and memorialized in such documents. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by or on behalf of all Parties or their respective successors-in-interest.

10.13. Except as otherwise provided herein, each Party shall bear its own costs.

10.14. Plaintiffs represent and warrant that they have not assigned any claim or right or interest therein as against the Released Parties to any other Person or Party and that they are fully entitled to release the same.

10.15. Each counsel or other Person executing this Settlement Agreement, any of its Exhibits, or any related settlement documents on behalf of any Party hereto, hereby warrants and represents that such Person has the full authority to do so and has the authority to take appropriate action required or permitted to be taken pursuant to the Agreement to effectuate its terms.

10.16. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts. Signature by digital means, facsimile, or in PDF format will constitute sufficient execution of this Agreement. All executed counterparts and each of them shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. A complete set of original executed counterparts shall be filed with the Court if the Court so requests.

10.17. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors and assigns of the Parties hereto and the Released Parties.

10.18. The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to implementation and enforcement of the terms of this Agreement, and all Parties hereto submit to the jurisdiction of the Court for purposes of implementing and enforcing the settlement embodied in this Agreement.

10.19. This Settlement Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of California without giving effect to its conflict of laws provisions.

10.20. This Agreement is deemed to have been prepared by counsel for all Parties, as a result of arms' length negotiations among the Parties. Because all Parties have contributed substantially and materially to the preparation of this Agreement, it shall not be construed more strictly against one Party than another.

10.21. Where this Agreement requires notice to the Parties, such notice shall be sent to the undersigned counsel: Philip L. Fraietta, Bursor & Fisher, P.A., 50 Main Street, Suite 475, White Plains, NY 10606; Paul B. Derby and Mane Sardaryan, Skiermont Derby LLP, 633 West Fifth Street, Suite 5800, Los Angeles, CA 90071; and Robert S. Re: Legal Notice of Class Action Settlement

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT
Jasher, et al. v. Service Spot, LLC, et al., Case No. 2025-017619-CA-01
(11th Judicial Circuit In and For Miami-Dade County)

Our Records Indicate You Made a Booking on Parkon.com and/or Cheapairportparking.org Between July 1, 2024 and June 9, 2025 and Paid a Mandatory Reservation Fee In Connection With Such Booking, and May Be Entitled to a Payment From a Class Action Settlement.

A court authorized this notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

This notice is to inform you that a settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit claiming that Defendants Service Spot, LLC and TripGate LLC (“Defendants”) failed to properly disclose a mandatory “Reservation Fee” for online bookings on parkon.com and/or cheapairportparking.org, in alleged violation of California’s Honest Pricing Law, Cal. Civ. Code § 1700(a)(29)(A). Defendants deny that they violated any law, but have agreed to the settlement to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with continuing the case.

Am I a Class Member? Our records indicate you are or were a California resident who made a booking on parkon.com and/or cheapairportparking.org between July 1, 2024 and June 9, 2025, and paid a mandatory “Reservation Fee” in connection with such booking(s).

What Does The Settlement Provide? A Settlement Fund of $500,000.00 has been established to pay the Settlement Class, together with notice and administration expenses, approved attorneys’ fees and costs, and a service award to the class representatives. Additionally, as part of the Settlement, Defendants have represented that they will clearly and conspicuously disclose Reservation Fee to the consumer with the advertised price presented to a consumer in the first instance, unless and until California’s Honest Pricing Law, Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(29)(A), is amended, repealed, or otherwise invalidated.

How Do I Get a Payment? To receive a pro rata share of the Settlement, which will be based on the total amount of service charges you paid, you must submit a timely and complete Claim Form no later than [claims deadline]. You can file a claim by clicking [here.] Your payment will be by PayPal, Venmo, Zelle, or check, at your election. Claim Forms must be submitted online by 11:59 p.m. E.T. on [DATE] or postmarked and mailed by [DATE].

What are My Other Options? You may exclude yourself from the Class by sending a letter to the settlement administrator no later than [objection/exclusion deadline]. If you exclude yourself, you cannot get a settlement payment, but you keep any rights that you may have to sue Defendants over the legal issues in the lawsuit. You and/or your lawyer have the right to appear before the Court and/or object to the proposed settlement. Your written objection must be filed no later than [objection/exclusion deadline]. Specific instructions about how to object to, or exclude yourself from, the Settlement are available at www.servicespotsettlement.com. If you file a claim or do nothing, and the Court approves the Settlement, you will be bound by all of the Court's orders and judgments. In addition, your claims relating to the alleged collection of Service Charges in connection with bookings from July 1, 2024 through and including June 9, 2025 by Defendants will be released.

Who Represents Me? The Court has appointed lawyer Philip L. Fraietta of Bursor & Fisher, P.A. to represent the class. This attorney is called Class Counsel. You will not be charged for this lawyer. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer in this case, you may hire one at your expense.

When Will the Court Consider the Proposed Settlement? The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing at _____ .m. on [date] by Zoom videoconference [access instructions]. At that hearing, the Court will: hear any objections concerning the fairness of the settlement; determine the fairness of the settlement; decide whether to approve Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and costs; and decide whether to award Class Representatives Shamar Jasher and Jackie Mutschler, $5,000 each from the Settlement Fund for their service in helping to bring and settle this case. Defendants have agreed that Class Counsel may be paid reasonable attorneys' fees from the Settlement Fund in an amount to be determined by the Court. Class Counsel will seek no more than 33% of the Settlement Fund, but the Court may award less than this amount.

How Do I Get More Information? Exhibit C

11TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR MIAMI-DADE COUNTY

Jasher, et al. v. Service Spot, LLC, et al., Case No. 2025-017619-CA-01

If You Made a Booking on Parkon.com and/or Cheapairportparking.org Between July 1, 2024 and June 9, 2025 and Paid a Mandatory Reservation Fee In Connection With Such Booking, and May Be Entitled to a Payment From a Class Action Settlement.

A court authorized this notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- A Settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit claiming that Defendants Service Spot, LLC and TripGate LLC (“Defendants”) failed to properly disclose a mandatory “Reservation Fee” for online bookings on parkon.com and/or cheapairportparking.org, in alleged violation of California’s Honest Pricing Law, Cal. Civ. Code § 1700(a)(29)(A). Defendants deny that they violated any law, but have agreed to the settlement to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with continuing the case.
- You are included if you are or were a California resident who made a booking on parkon.com and/or cheapairportparking.com between July 1, 2024 and June 9, 2025, and paid a mandatory “Reservation Fee” in connection with such booking(s). Persons included in the Settlement will be eligible to receive a pro rata portion of the Settlement Fund, which will be based on the total amount of processing fees they paid.
- Read this notice carefully. Your legal rights are affected whether you act, or don’t act.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why was this Notice issued?

A Court authorized this notice because you have a right to know about a proposed Settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to give final approval to the Settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, and your legal rights.

The Honorable Judge Thomas J. Rebull, of the 11th Judicial Circuit in and for Miami-Dade County, Florida is overseeing this case. The case is called Jasher, et al. v. Service Spot, LLC, et al., Case No. 2025-017619-CA-01. The people who sued are called the Plaintiffs. The Defendants are Service Spot, LLC and TripGate LLC.

2. What is a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called class representatives (in this case, Shamar Jasher and Jackie Mutschler) sue on behalf of a group or a “class” of people who have similar claims. In a class action, the Court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class.

3. What is this lawsuit about?

This lawsuit claims that Defendants failed to properly disclose a mandatory “Reservation Fee” for online bookings on parkon.com and/or cheapairportparking.org, in alleged violation of California’s Honest Pricing Law, Cal. Civ. Code § 1700(a)(29)(A). Defendants deny that they violated any law. The Court has not determined who is right and who is wrong. Rather, the Parties have agreed to settle the lawsuit to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with ongoing litigation.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

The Court has not decided whether Plaintiffs or Defendants should win this case. Instead, both sides agreed to a Settlement. That way, they avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with ongoing litigation, and Class Members will get compensation sooner rather than, if at all, after the completion of a trial.

WHO’S INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am in the Settlement Class?

The Court decided that everyone who fits the following description is a member of the Settlement Class:

All California residents who made a reservation through parkon.com or cheapairportparking.org and paid a mandatory “Reservation Fee” at checkout from July 1, 2024 to June 9, 2025.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

6. What does the Settlement provide?

Monetary Relief. A Settlement Fund has been created totaling $500,000.00. Class Member payments, and the cost to administer the Settlement, the cost to inform people about the Settlement, attorneys' fees (inclusive of litigation costs), and an award to the Class Representatives will also come out of this fund (see Question 12).

Prospective Relief. Additionally, as part of the Settlement, Defendants have represented that they will clearly and conspicuously disclose Reservation Fee to the consumer with the advertised price presented to a consumer in the first instance, unless and until California's Honest Pricing Law, Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(29)(A), is amended, repealed, or otherwise invalidated.

A detailed description of the settlement benefits can be found in the Settlement Agreement, a copy of which is accessible on the Settlement Website by clicking here.

REMAINING IN THE SETTLEMENT

10. What am I giving up if I stay in the Class?

If the Settlement becomes final, you will give up your right to sue Defendants and other Released Parties for the claims being resolved by this Settlement. The specific claims you are giving up against Defendants are described in the Settlement Agreement. You will be “releasing” Defendants and certain of its affiliates, employees, and representatives as described in Section 1.30 of the Settlement Agreement. Unless you exclude yourself (see Question 13), you are “releasing” the claims, regardless of whether you claim your electronic payment or not. The Settlement Agreement is available through the “court documents” link on the website.

The Settlement Agreement describes the released claims with specific descriptions, so read it carefully. If you have any questions, you can talk to the lawyers listed in Question 11 for free or you can, of course, talk to your own lawyer if you have questions about what this means.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

11. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

The Court has appointed Philip L. Fraietta of Bursor & Fisher, P.A. to be the attorney representing the Settlement Class. He is called “Class Counsel.” He believes, after conducting an extensive investigation, that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. You will not be charged for this lawyer. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer in this case, you may hire one at your expense.

12. How will the lawyers be paid?

Defendants have agreed that Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees and costs may be paid out of the Settlement Fund in an amount to be determined by the Court. The fee petition will seek no more than 33% of the Settlement Fund, inclusive of reimbursement of costs and expenses; the Court may award less than this amount. Under the Settlement Agreement, any amount awarded to Class Counsel will be paid out of the Settlement Fund.

Subject to approval by the Court, Defendants have agreed that the Class Representatives may be paid a service award of $5,000 each from the Settlement Fund for their services in helping to bring and resolve this case.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

13. How do I get out of the Settlement?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must submit a request for exclusion by 11:59 p.m. ET on [objection/exclusion deadline]. Requests for exclusion may be submitted either on the Settlement Website (via the online form accessible here [insert hyperlink]) or by mailing or otherwise delivering a letter (or request for exclusion) stating that you want to be excluded from the Jasher, et al. v. Service Spot, LLC, et al., Case No. 2025-017619-CA-01settlement. Your letter or request for exclusion must also include your name, your address, a statement that you made a reservation through parkon.com and/or cheapairportparking.org and paid a mandatory “Reservation Fee” at checkout from July 1, 2024 to June 9, 2025, your signature, the name and number of this case, a statement that you wish to be excluded, the grounds for exclusion, and the identification of any other exclusion requests you have made in the last five (5) years. If you choose to submit a request for exclusion by mail, you must mail or deliver your exclusion request, postmarked no later than [objection/exclusion deadline], to the following address:

Service Spot Settlement
0000 Street
City, ST 00000

14. If I don’t exclude myself, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue Defendants for the claims being resolved by this Settlement.

15. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from this Settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive any payment from the Settlement Fund.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

16. How do I object to the Settlement?

If you are a Class Member, you can object to the Settlement if you don’t like any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must file with the Court a letter or brief stating that you object to the Settlement in Jasher, et al. v. Service Spot, LLC, et al., Case No.

2025-017619-CA-01 and identify all your reasons for your objections (including citations and supporting evidence) and attach any materials you rely on for your objections. Your letter or brief must also include your name, your address, the basis upon which you claim to be a Class Member, the name and contact information of any and all attorneys representing, advising, or in any way assisting you in connection with your objection, and your signature. If you, or an attorney assisting you with your objection, have ever objected to any class action settlement where you or the objecting attorney has asked for or received payment in exchange for dismissal of the objection (or any related appeal) without modification to the settlement, you must include a statement in your objection identifying each such case by full case caption. You must also mail or deliver a copy of your letter or brief to Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel listed below.

Class Counsel will file with the Court and post on this website its request for attorneys' fees by [two weeks prior to objection deadline].

If you want to appear and speak at the Final Approval Hearing to object to the Settlement, with or without a lawyer (explained below in answer to Question Number 20), you must say so in your letter or brief. File the objection with the Court (or mail the objection to the Court) and mail a copy of the objection to Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel, at the addresses below, postmarked no later than [objection deadline].

17. What's the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the Settlement?

Objecting simply means telling the Court that you don't like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Class. Excluding yourself from the Class is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing at [redacted] m. on [date] by Zoom videoconference [access instructions]. The purpose of the hearing will be for the Court to determine whether to approve the Settlement as fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Class; to consider the Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and expenses; and to consider the request for incentive awards to the Class Representatives. At that hearing, the Court will be available to hear any objections and arguments concerning the fairness of the Settlement.

The hearing may be postponed to a different date or time without notice, so it is a good idea to check for updates by visiting the Settlement Website at www.servicespotsettlement.com or calling (800) 000-0000. If, however, you timely objected to the Settlement and advised the Court that you intend to appear and speak at the Final Approval Hearing, you will receive notice of any change in the date of the Final Approval Hearing.

19. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. But, you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection or comment, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you filed and mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay another lawyer to attend, but it's not required.

20. May I speak at the hearing?

Yes. You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Fairness Hearing. To do so, you must include in your letter or brief objecting to the settlement a statement saying that it is your "Notice of Intent to Appear in Jasher, et al. v. Service Spot, LLC, et al., Case No. 2025-017619-CA-01." It must include your name, address, telephone number and signature as well as the name and address of your lawyer, if one is appearing for you. Your objection and notice of intent to appear must be filed with the Court and postmarked no later than [objection deadline], and be sent to the addresses listed in Question 16.
