Plaintiff Raymond Lafayette Hudson, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, files this Class Action Complaint against Diversified Consultants, Inc. (“Diversified” or “Defendant”). Plaintiff alleges, based on personal knowledge as to Defendant’s actions and upon information and belief as to all other matters, as follows:

I. NATURE OF THE CASE

1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant for violations of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (“FCRA”), 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681a–1681x.

2. Defendant Diversified routinely procures consumers’ credit reports for the purpose of reviewing credit obligations and collection of consumer debt.

3. Plaintiff brings nationwide class claims against Diversified for knowingly and intentionally procuring credit reports of consumers whose debts had been discharged in bankruptcy and for which there was therefore no permissible purpose for accessing such reports.

II. PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Raymond Lafayette Hudson is a “consumer” as protected and governed by the FCRA, and resides in Indianapolis, Indiana.

5. Defendant Diversified maintains its registered agent at 5305 North River Road, Ste. B1, Keizer, Oregon 97303. Diversified is a debt collector, as defined by section 1692a of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, because it regularly uses the mails and/or the telephone to collect, or attempt to collect, delinquent consumer debts. Diversified operates a nationwide debt collection business.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. The Court has federal question jurisdiction under the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. § 1681p, and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

7. Venue is proper in this Court because Diversified can be found in this District. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(3). Defendant regularly sell its products and services in this District.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8. On September 16, 2014, Plaintiff filed for relief under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

9. Plaintiff's bankruptcy petition contained a list of his debts. In particular, Schedule F of the petition listed Diversified as one of Plaintiff's creditors.

10. The Bankruptcy Noticing Center sends electronic notice of the bankruptcy and automatic stay to those entities listed on a bankruptcy petition who have signed up for that service. The Defendant is one such entity.

11. On September 20, 2014, the Bankruptcy Noticing Center sent Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case, Meeting of Creditors and Deadlines, electronically to the Defendant. See Notice attached hereto as Exhibit A.

12. The Notice advised that the Plaintiff had filed a bankruptcy case and that all collection activities were to be stayed pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code. Id.

13. On December 31, 2014, the Plaintiff received an order granting him a discharge of his debts. See Exhibit B hereto.

14. The Bankruptcy Noticing Center sent the Order of Discharge of Debtor electronically to the Defendant on January 2, 2015. Id.

15. The Defendant received multiple notifications from the U.S. Bankruptcy Court that Plaintiff's debt was subject to the bankruptcy case. Thus, the Defendant knew that the Plaintiff had completed a chapter 7 bankruptcy case and had received a discharge of his debts, including the debt(s) that the Defendant was attempting to collect.

16. Notwithstanding, on March 3, 2015, the Defendant procured the Plaintiff's TransUnion credit report for the purpose of "Collection." See Exhibit C attached hereto.

17. Congress has determined, at sections 1681b(a)(3) and 1681b(f) of the FCRA, that consumers are at a substantial risk of harm from a person, such as Defendant, using or obtaining information concerning consumers for purposes other than those purposes explicitly authorized by the FCRA.

18. Congress therefore has clearly sought to curb the dissemination and disclosure of information concerning consumers except in certain limited instances, thus expressly prohibiting persons such as Defendant from obtaining consumer reports for purposes other than those specifically enumerated in section 1681b(a)(3).

19. Permissible purposes for accessing a credit report include, but are not limited to, a person seeking a credit report in connection with a possible credit transaction, employment purposes, servicing of an existing credit obligation, or an otherwise legitimate business need. 15 U.S.C. § 1681b(a)(3)(A), (B), (E) and (F).

20. The Defendant had no permissible purpose for procuring the Plaintiff's credit report.

21. As the result of its violations of the FCRA, Diversified is liable to Plaintiff for actual, statutory and punitive damages, as well as attorneys' fees and costs. 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681n, 1681o.

22. Defendant received multiple notices that the alleged debt was subject to bankruptcy, had been discharged and was no longer collectible. Nonetheless, Defendant willfully, deliberately and intentionally procured Plaintiff's credit report on at least one occasion after receiving notice of the entry of the discharge order.

23. Defendant routinely obtains and uses consumer reports under false pretenses and/or for impermissible purposes regarding consumers with whom Defendant has no account or credit relationship.

24. This practice violates the fundamental privacy protection afforded consumers under the FCRA and runs counter to longstanding regulatory guidance. The Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) has long held that under section 604(a)(3) of the FCRA (15 U.S.C. § 1681b(a)(3)), “‘review’ of an account refers to an existing (i.e., open or current) account. See FTC letter dated April 29, 1999 to Don Gowen. Because there no longer exists any account to “review” and the consumer is not applying for credit, the FCRA provides no permissible purpose for the creditor to receive a consumer report from a CRA. See FTC Advisory Opinion letter dated April 30, 1999 to Kenneth J. Benner.

25. Case law existing prior to and at the time of Defendant’s actions described herein served to put Defendant on notice that its actions in accessing a consumer’s credit report when the alleged debt was no longer collectible was in violation of the FCRA.¹

26. By reasons of the clear statutory language, the FTC opinions, the above cases and others construing section 1681b(a)(3) of the FCRA, Defendant had substantial notice that its conduct violated the FCRA. Further, because the FCRA was enacted in 1970, Defendant has had years to become compliant but has failed to do so.

27. As a result of Defendant's conduct, the consumer class members such as Plaintiff have suffered concrete injuries. In addition to having their privacy invaded, consumer class members have had their personal identifying and sensitive account-related information unnecessarily accessed by the Defendant, and, upon information and belief, by its related information-sharing affiliates. Defendant has further subjected consumer class members to an increased risk of identity theft and/or a data breach, resulting in consequential anxiety and emotional distress. These injuries are particularized and concrete, but difficult to quantify, rendering the recovery of class statutory damages ideal and appropriate.

28. Defendant, at all times relevant hereto, was acting by and through its agents, servants and/or employees who were acting within the course and scope of their agency or employment, and under the direct supervision and control of Defendant.

V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

29. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and 15 U.S.C. § 1681b, Plaintiff brings this action for himself and on behalf of the following Class:

All natural persons: (a) whose consumer report was obtained by Defendant after the date beginning five years prior to the filing of this Complaint; (b) for an account review purpose; and, (c) where Defendant's records note that the account relationship had terminated because (i) the debt on the account had been discharged in bankruptcy; (ii) the account was closed with a zero balance; or, (iii) the account had been sold or transferred to a third party.

Plaintiff reserves the right to amend the definition of the Class based on discovery or legal developments.

30. Specifically excluded from the Class are: (a) all federal court judges who preside over this case and their spouses; (b) all persons who elect to exclude themselves from the Class;

(c) all persons who have previously executed and delivered to Diversified releases of all their claims; and (d) Defendant's employees, officers, directors, agents, and representatives and their family members.

31. Numerosity. The Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the exact size of the Class. Based on information and belief, the Class is are comprised of at least thousands of members who are geographically dispersed throughout the country so as to render joinder of all Class members impracticable. The names and addresses of the Class members are identifiable through documents maintained by Defendant, and the Class members may be notified of the pendency of this action by published and/or mailed notice.

32. Commonality. Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the Class, and predominate over the questions affecting only individual members. The primary common legal and factual question is whether Defendant's procuring the consumer report of a consumer whose debts had been discharged by bankruptcy court order violated section 1681b(a) of the FCRA by procuring such reports without a permissible purpose.

33. Typicality. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of each Class member. Plaintiff has the same claims for statutory and punitive damages that she seeks for absent class members.

34. Adequacy. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff's interests coincide with, and are not antagonistic to, other Class members' interests. Additionally, Plaintiff has retained counsel experienced and competent in complex, commercial, multi-party, consumer, and class-action litigation. Plaintiff's counsel have prosecuted complex FCRA class actions across the country.

35. Predominance and Superiority. Questions of law and fact common to the Class members predominate over questions affecting only individual members, and a class action is superior to other available methods for fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The statutory and punitive damages sought by each member are such that individual prosecution would prove burdensome and expensive given the complex and extensive litigation necessitated by Defendant's conduct. It would be virtually impossible for the Class members individually to redress effectively the wrongs done to them. Even if the Class members themselves could afford such individual litigation, it would be an unnecessary burden on the courts. Furthermore, individualized litigation presents a potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments and increases the delay and expense to all parties and to the court system presented by the complex legal and factual issues raised by Defendant's conduct. By contrast, the class action device will result in substantial benefits to the litigants and the Court by allowing the Court to resolve numerous individual claims based upon a single set of proof in a unified proceeding.

36. Furthermore, individualized litigation presents a potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments and increases the delay and expense to all parties and to the court system presented by the complex legal and factual issues raised by Defendant's conduct. By contrast, the class action device will result in substantial benefits to the litigants and the Court by allowing the Court to resolve numerous individual claims based upon a single set of proof in just one case.

Filing of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case	A bankruptcy case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by or against the debtor(s) listed on the front side, and an order for relief has been entered.
Legal Advice	The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice. Consult a lawyer to determine your rights in this case.
Creditors Generally May Not Take Certain Actions	Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code § 362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor by telephone, mail or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor; repossessing the debtor's property; starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures; and garnishing or deducting from the debtor's wages. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay.
Presumption of Abuse	If the presumption of abuse arises, creditors may have the right to file a motion to dismiss the case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The debtor may rebut the presumption by showing special circumstances.
Meeting of Creditors	A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time and location listed on the front side. The debtor (both spouses in a joint case) must be present at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date specified in a notice filed with the court. All individual debtors MUST provide picture identification and proof of social security number to the trustee at the meeting of creditors. Failure to do so may result in your case being dismissed. Language interpretation of the meeting of creditors will be provided to the debtor at no cost through a telephone interpreter service upon request made to the trustee. These services may not be available at all locations.
Do Not File a Proof of Claim at This Time	There does not appear to be any property available to the trustee to pay creditors. You therefore should not file a proof of claim at this time. If it later appears that assets are available to pay creditors, you will be sent another notice telling you that you may file a proof of claim, and telling you the deadline for filing your proof of claim. If this notice is mailed to a creditor at a foreign address, the creditor may file a motion requesting the court to extend the deadline. Do not include this notice with any document filed with the court.
Discharge of Debts	The debtor is seeking a discharge of most debts, which may include your debt. A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor. If you believe that the debtor is not entitled to receive a discharge under Bankruptcy Code § 727(a) or that a debt owed to you is not dischargeable under Bankruptcy Code § 523(a)(2), (4), or (6), you must file a complaint — or a motion if you assert the discharge should be denied under § 727(a)(8) or (a)(9) — in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the "Deadline to Object to Debtor's Discharge or to Challenge the Dischargeability of Certain Debts" listed on the front of this form. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the complaint or motion and any required filing fee by that deadline.
Exempt Property	The debtor is permitted by law to keep certain property as exempt. Exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors. The debtor must file a list of all property claimed as exempt. You may inspect that list at the bankruptcy clerk's office. If you believe that an exemption claimed by the debtor is not authorized by law, you may file an objection to that exemption. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the objection by the "Deadline to Object to Exemptions" listed on the front side.
Change of Address	Creditors are responsible for notifying the bankruptcy clerk's office in writing of address changes. The case number must be included on any correspondence.
Bankruptcy Clerk's Office	Any paper filed on this bankruptcy case should be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office or http://ecf.insb.uscourts.gov . All filed papers, including the list of the debtor's property and debts and the list of the property claimed as exempt, may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office or http://pacer.insb.uscourts.gov .
Creditor with a Foreign Address	Consult a lawyer familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions regarding your rights in this case.

Debtor(s).

DISCHARGE OF DEBTOR IN A CHAPTER 7 CASE

The Court, after reviewing this case, finds that the debtor is entitled to a discharge.

IT IS ORDERED that the the debtor is granted a discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 727.

SEE THE BACK OF THIS ORDER FOR IMPORTANT INFORMATION.

EXPLANATION OF BANKRUPTCY DISCHARGE IN A CHAPTER 7 CASE

This court order grants a discharge to the person named as the debtor. It is not a dismissal of the case and it does not determine how much money, if any, the trustee will pay to creditors.

Collection of Discharged Debts Prohibited

The discharge prohibits any attempt to collect from the debtor a debt that has been discharged. For example, a creditor is not permitted to contact a debtor by mail, phone, or otherwise, to file or continue a lawsuit, to attach wages or other property, or to take any other action to collect a discharged debt from the debtor. A creditor who violates this order can be required to pay damages and attorney's fees to the debtor.

However, a creditor may have the right to enforce a valid lien, such as a mortgage or security interest, against the debtor's property after the bankruptcy, if that lien was not avoided or eliminated in the bankruptcy case. Also, a debtor may voluntarily pay any debt that has been discharged.

Debts That are Discharged

The chapter 7 discharge order eliminates a debtor's legal obligation to pay a debt that is discharged. Most, but not all, types of debts are discharged if the debt existed on the date the bankruptcy case was filed. (If this case was begun under a different chapter of the Bankruptcy Code and converted to chapter 7, the discharge applies to debts owed when the bankruptcy case was converted.)

Debts That are Not Discharged

Some of the common types of debts which are NOT discharged in a chapter 7 bankruptcy case are:

- a. Debts for most taxes;
- b. Debts incurred to pay for nondischargeable taxes (in a case filed on or after October 17, 2005);
- c. Debts that are domestic support obligations;
- d. Debts for most student loans;
- e. Debts for most fines, penalties, forfeitures, or criminal restitution obligations;
- f. Debts for personal injuries or death caused by the debtor's operation of a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated;
- g. Some debts which were not properly listed by the debtor;
- h. Debts that the bankruptcy court specifically has decided or will decide in this bankruptcy case are not discharged;
- i. Debts for which the debtor has given up the discharge protections by signing a reaffirmation agreement in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code requirements for reaffirmation of debts; and
- j. Debts owed to certain pension, profit sharing, stock bonus, other retirement plans, or to the Thrift Savings Plan for federal employees for certain types of loans from these plans (in a case filed on or after October 17, 2005).

This information is only a general summary of the bankruptcy discharge. There are exceptions to these general rules. Because the law is complicated, you may want to consult an attorney to determine the exact effect of the discharge in this case.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I.(a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
 - (b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)
 - (c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".
- II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
 United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.
 United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.
 Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
 Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)
- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerk(s) in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.
- V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the six boxes.
 Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.
 Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.
 Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
 Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
 Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.
 Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.
- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.
 Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction.
 Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
