

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

Rafal Lojewski et al. v. Salal Credit Union et al.

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Case No. 1:22-cv-10816-PAE

PREAMBLE

This Settlement Agreement and Release (the “Agreement”) is entered into by and among Plaintiff Rafal Lojewski (“Class Representative”) and the Settlement Class Members (as defined below), on the one hand, and Defendant Salal Credit Union (“Defendant”), on the other hand, as of the date executed below. Plaintiff and Defendant are referred to collectively in the Agreement as the “Parties”.

RECITALS

A. On December 22, 2022, Rafal Lojewski, Manuel Acevedo, Isamar Delacruz, Danielle Garcia and Smith Garcia (collectively, “Initial Plaintiffs”) filed a putative class action complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, entitled Lojewski et al. v. Salal Credit Union et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-10816-PAE.

B. On March 24, 2023 Initial Plaintiffs filed an Amended Complaint (“Complaint”). In the Complaint, only Rafal Lojewski, Manuel Acevedo and Isamar Delacruz (collectively, the “Salal Plaintiffs”) asserted class claims against Defendant on behalf of themselves and the class.

C. The Salal Plaintiffs alleged a total of five class claims against Defendant for violation of New York General Business Law, New York Personal Property Law and common law, including N.Y. General Business Law § 349 and §350, New York Personal Property Law § 401, et seq., breach of contract and unjust enrichment, which asserted Defendant had derivative liability for the actions of other co-defendants, including inter alia the alleged failure of other co-defendant to to pay the Salal Plaintiffs a promised amount of incentive money in connection with entering in retail installment contracts for the sale and financing of residential solar panels.

D. On August 17, 2023 the Court granted co-defendant Solar Mosaic, Inc.’s motion to compel arbitration of the claims in the Complaint asserted against it by Initial Plaintiffs Smith Garcia and Danielle Garcia and stayed those claims.

E. On December 21, 2023, the Court granted in part and denied in part Defendant’s motion to dismiss the Complaint, but did not fully dismiss any of the five class claims asserted by the Salal Plaintiffs against Defendant.

F. On January 26, 2024, Defendant filed its Answer to the Complaint, denying liability in full. The Parties then engaged in an extended period of discovery.

G. On April 25, 2025 and April 28, 2025 the Parties engaged in mediation in an attempt to settle this Action (defined below) and successfully settled the Litigation.

H. In light of certain information produced by third parties during discovery that arguably placed Plaintiff Acevedo and Plaintiff Delacruz outside the class alleged in the First Amended Complaint (and the Settlement Class below), Defendant and Plaintiff Acevedo and Plaintiff Delacruz negotiated and reached an individual settlement agreement that resolved Acevedo and Delacruz’ individual claims against Defendant.

I. As set forth herein, Class Representative reached a resolution with Defendant on a class-wide basis.

J. Defendant has entered into this Agreement to resolve any and all controversies and disputes arising out of or relating to the allegations made in the Action, and to avoid the burden, risk, uncertainty, expense, and disruption to its business operations associated with further litigation. Defendant does not in any way acknowledge, admit to or concede any of the allegations made in the Action, and expressly disclaims and denies any fault or liability, or any charges of wrongdoing that have been or could have been asserted in the Action. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be used or construed as an admission of liability and this Agreement shall not be offered or received in evidence in any action or proceeding in any court or other forum as an admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing of any nature or for any other purpose other than to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

K. Class Representative has entered into this Agreement to liquidate and recover on the claims asserted in the Action on behalf of himself and the Settlement Class, and to avoid the risk, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation both to himself and to the Settlement Class. Class Representative does not in any way concede the claims alleged in the Action lack merit or are subject to any defenses.

About This Notice

Why did I get this notice?

This notice is to tell you about the settlement of a class action lawsuit brought in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, Lojewski, et al. v. Group Solar USA, LLC, et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-10816-PAE, brought on behalf of Group Solar clients who did not receive their promised “Welcome Checks”. You received this notice because our records indicate you are a member of the group of people affected, called the “class.” This notice gives you a summary of the terms of the proposed settlement agreement, explains what rights class members have, and helps class members make informed decisions about what action to take.

The Court approved this notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of a class action lawsuit, and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement. If the Court approves it, and objections and appeals (if any), are resolved, the Settlement Administrator will make the payments the settlement allows.

What do I do next?

Read this notice to understand the settlement. Then, decide if you want to:

Options	More information about each option
Do Nothing	You will be eligible to get a payment for your share of the Settlement Fund. If the Court approves the settlement, you give up your right to bring your own lawsuit about the issues within this lawsuit.
Opt Out	Exclude yourself from the settlement. You will get no payment. This option allows you to bring another lawsuit against Salal Credit Union about the same issues.
Object	Tell the Court why you do not like the settlement or the request for attorneys' fees and costs. If the Court approves the settlement, you will still receive payment and give up your right to bring your own lawsuit about the issues within this lawsuit.

Go to a Hearing	Ask to speak in Court about the fairness of the settlement.

Read on to understand the specifics of the settlement and what each choice would mean for you.

Learning About the Lawsuit

What is this lawsuit about?

The lawsuit claims that Salal Credit Union purchased certain solar panel finance agreements from Group Solar LLC and thereby became liable for Group Solar's alleged failure to send certain "Welcome Checks" that had been promised to customers. The lawsuit claimed violations of New York General Business Law §§ 349 and 350, Breach of Contract, New York Personal Property Law § 401, and Unjust Enrichment.

Salal Credit Union denies that it did anything wrong.

Where can I learn more?

You can get a complete copy of the proposed settlement and other key documents in this lawsuit on the documents page of this website.

Why is there a settlement in this lawsuit?

In 2025, the parties agreed to settle, which means they have reached an agreement to resolve the lawsuit. Both sides want to avoid the risk and expense of further litigation. While Defendant disputes the allegations in the lawsuit and denies any liability or wrongdoing, it enters into the settlement solely to avoid the expense, inconvenience, and distraction of further proceedings in the litigation.

In a class action, someone called a Class Representative (in this case Rafal Lojewski) sue on behalf of all people who have similar claims. Salal Credit Union challenged whether this case should proceed as a class action but have agreed not to oppose this case proceeding as a class for settlement purposes only.

The Court has not decided this case in favor of either side.

What is a class action?

All of these people with similar claims are "Class Members," and grouped together are a "Class." One court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class.

What happens next in this lawsuit?

You have until [date] to object to or opt out of the settlement, with further details on these options provided below.

The Court will then hold a Fairness hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. The hearing will be held at:

Where: US District Court for the Southern District of New York, 40 Foley Square, New York, NY 10007

When: [time] on [date].

The Court has directed the parties to send you this notice about the proposed settlement. Because the settlement of a class action decides the rights of all members of the proposed class, the Court must give final approval to the settlement before it can take effect. Payments will only be made if the Court approves the settlement.

You do not have to attend, but you may at your own expense. You may also ask the Court for permission to speak and express your opinion about the settlement.

If the Court does not approve the settlement, it will be void and the lawsuit will continue. The date of the hearing may change without further notice to members of the class.

Learning About the Settlement

What does the settlement provide?

Salal Credit Union have agreed to create a $415,000 settlement fund to be divided among all class members. The portion of the fund that each class member will receive will be determined based upon the value of each member's disputed claim. In the event funds remain after the first round of payments to class members, a second round of payments will be issued to those class members that accepted the first payment, but only if this second distribution will result (after subtracting the cost of issuing a second round of checks) in at least $20.00.

Members of the settlement class will "release" their claims as part of the settlement, which means they cannot sue Salal Credit Union for the same issues and legal violations raised in this lawsuit. The full terms of the release can be found [\[here\]](#).

If there is money left over after the payment process is completed, it will be donated to Empire Justice Center's Foreclosure Prevention Program.

How much will my payment be?

Each Settlement Class member who does not opt-out will receive a pro rata share of the $415,000 settlement fund, calculated based on the amount of their unfulfilled "Welcome Checks". It is estimated that you will get about ADD% of the amount of your unfulfilled "Welcome Checks".

You will receive payment via check.

Deciding What to Do

How do I weigh my options?

You have three options. You can do nothing, you can opt out of the settlement, or you can object to the settlement. This chart shows the effects of each option:

	Do Nothing	Opt Out	Object
Can I receive settlement money if I . . .	YES	NO	YES
Am I bound by the terms of this lawsuit if I . . .	YES	NO	YES
Can I pursue my own case if I . . .	NO	YES	NO
Will the class lawyers represent me if I . . .	YES	NO	NO

What is the best path for me?

Do I have a lawyer in this lawsuit?

In a class action, the court approves class representatives and lawyers to work on the case and represent the interests of all the class members. For this settlement, the Court has approved the following individuals and lawyers:

Your lawyers:

- Daniel A. Schlanger from Schlanger Law Group LLP

This is the lawyer who negotiated this settlement on your behalf. He is experienced in handling similar cases.

If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

Do I have to pay the lawyers in this lawsuit?

Lawyers' fees and costs will be paid by Salal Credit Union. You will not have to pay the lawyers directly.

To date, the lawyers have not been paid any money for their work or the expenses that they have paid for the case. To pay for some of their time and risk in bringing this case without any guarantee of payment unless they were successful, your lawyer will request, as part of the final approval of this Settlement, that the Court approve a payment of up to $138,331.95 total in attorneys' fees plus out-of-pocket expenses. The lawyers' complete request will be filed with the Court and posted to this website no later than [DATE].

Lawyers' fees and expenses will only be awarded if approved by the Court as a fair and reasonable amount. You have the right to object to the lawyers' fees even if you think the settlement terms are fair.

Your lawyers will also ask the Court to approve a Service Payment of $6,000 to the Class Representative for the time and effort she contributed to the case. If approved by the Court, the Service Payment will be paid from the Settlement Fund.

Opting Out

What if I don't want to be part of this settlement?

You can exclude yourself, which is often referred to as “opting out” of the settlement. If you do, you will not receive payment and cannot object to the settlement. However, you will not be bound or affected by anything that happens in this lawsuit. That means you keep the right to sue Salal Credit Union or be part of another case against Salal Credit Union about the issues in this lawsuit. If you have a pending lawsuit against Salal Credit Union speak to your lawyer in that case immediately. You may need to exclude yourself from this Class to continue your own lawsuit.

How do I opt out?

To opt out of the settlement, you must send the Settlement Administrator a Request to Opt Out that is postmarked no later than . It must contain a statement that clearly indicates your desire to be excluded from the Settlement Class. For example, it might say “I hereby request that I be excluded from the proposed Settlement Class in the Action.” Be sure to include the case name (Lojewski, et al. v. Group Solar USA, LLC, et al.), your name, address, telephone number, and signature. A request to Opt-Out by an owner or a co-owner on an account will be treated as a request to Opt-Out by all owners on the account.

Objecting

What if I disagree with the settlement?

If you disagree with any part of the settlement (including the lawyers' fees) but don't want to opt out, you may object. You must give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it and say whether your objection applies to just you, a part of the class, or the entire class. The Court will consider your views. The Court can only approve or deny the settlement — it cannot change the terms of the settlement. You may, but don't need to, hire your own lawyer to help you.

You can only object if you stay in the class. If you opt out of the class, you cannot object because the case no longer affects you.

The objection must:

- (1) be in writing;
be filed with the Clerk of the Court by [date];
- (2) include the case name and number (Lojewski, et al. v. Group Solar USA, LLC, et al., 1:22-cv-10816-PAE);

- (5) state the reasons for your objection;
- (6) state whether either you or your lawyer intend to appear at the final approval hearing;
- (7) include your signature.

The written objection must be filed with the Clerk of the Court by [date].

File your written objection using the Court's ECF system or mail your written objection to:

District Court Clerk's Office
Daniel Patrick Moynihan
U.S Courthouse
500 Pearl Street
New York, New York 10007

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Fairness Hearing on [Date]. To do so, you or your lawyer must send a letter stating that it is your "Notice of Intention to Appear in Lojewski, et al. v. Group Solar USA, LLC, et al., 1:22-cv-10816-PAE," Your Notice of Intention to Appear must be filed or mailed so as to be filed with the Court no later than [date] and be sent to the same parties as listed above to file an objection. The Notice of Intention to Appear must include copies of any papers, exhibits, or other evidence that you will present to the Court in connection with the Fairness Hearing. You cannot speak at the hearing if you exclude yourself from the settlement.

Doing Nothing

What are the consequences of doing nothing?

If you do nothing, you will receive payment from the Settlement Fund. You will also be bound by the settlement and its “release” provisions. That means you won’t be able to start, continue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Salal Credit Union about the issues in this case. A full description of the claims and persons who will be released if this settlement is approved can be found [\[here\]](#).
