

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

Wanda Rosario-Medina, Individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated, Plaintiff, -v- K Zark Medical P.C., and Konstantinos Zarkadas, Defendants.	Civ. Action #: Complaint Date Filed: Jury Trial Demanded
--	--

Plaintiff Wanda Rosario-Medina, (“Plaintiff” or “Medina”), on behalf of herself and all others similarly-situated, by Abdul Hassan Law Group, PLLC, her attorney, complaining of the Defendants K Zark Medical P.C., and Konstantinos Zarkadas (collectively “Defendants”), respectfully alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff alleges on behalf of herself, and other similarly-situated current and former hourly employees who worked for the Defendants, individually and/or jointly, and who elect to opt into this action pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. §§ 216 (b), that she and they are: (i) entitled to unpaid wages from Defendants for working more than forty hours in a week and not being paid an overtime rate of at least 1.5 times the regular rate for each and all such hours over forty in a week, and (ii) entitled to maximum liquidated damages and attorneys’ fees pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq. including 29 U.S.C. §§ 216(b).
2. Plaintiff complains on behalf of herself and a class of other similarly-situated current and former hourly employees who worked for the Defendants, pursuant to the Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 23, that she and they are: (i) entitled to unpaid overtime wages from Defendants for working more than forty hours in a week and not being paid an overtime rate of at least 1.5 times the regular rate for each and all such hours over forty in a week, and (ii) entitled to costs and attorney’s fees, pursuant to the New York Minimum Wage Act (“NYMWA”), N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 650 et seq., (“NYLL”) including NYLL § 663, and the regulations thereunder – 12

NYCRR § 142-2.2.

3. Plaintiff further complains under Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 23, on behalf of herself and a class of other similarly-situated current and former employees who were employed by Defendants as manual workers, within the six-year period preceding the filing of this action to the date of disposition of this action, that she and they: 1) were employed by Defendants within the State of New York as manual workers; 2) entitled to maximum liquidated damages (for the period after April 9, 2011) and interest for being paid overtime wages and non-overtime wages later than weekly; and 3) entitled to costs and attorneys' fees, pursuant to the New York Labor Law ("NYLL") §§ 191, 198, and the regulations thereunder; as well as an injunction prohibiting Defendants from continuing to violate the weekly payment requirement for manual workers set forth in NYLL 191.
4. Plaintiff and the class members are also entitled to recover compensation for not receiving notices and statements required by NYLL 195, under Article 6 of the New York Labor Law, and attorneys' fees pursuant to Section 198 of the New York Labor Law.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1337 and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367. In addition, the Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claim under the Fair Labor Standards Act pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216 (b).
6. Venue is proper in the Southern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and/or 29 U.S.C. § 216 (b).
7. This Court is empowered to issue a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 2202.

THE PARTIES

8. Plaintiff Wanda Rosario-Medina ("Plaintiff" or "Medina") is an adult, over eighteen years old, who currently resides in Bronx County in the State of New York.

9. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, K Zark Medical P.C. (“KZM”) is a business entity.
10. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, the corporate Defendant was owned/controlled/managed by Defendant Konstantinos Zarkadas (“Zarkadas”), who was in charge of the operations and management of KZM.
11. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, the corporate Defendant KZM was owned/controlled/managed by Defendant Zarkadas and was his alter ego, and it was Defendant Zarkadas who controlled the employment of Plaintiff and was responsible for hiring, firing, scheduling, controlling, managing, supervising, and record-keeping as to Plaintiff’s employment, among other employment functions.
12. Upon information and belief, Defendants KZM and Zarkadas shared a place of business in New York County at 299 West 97th Street, Suite 1D, New York, NY 10025, and other locations as well, such as in Bronx county.
13. At all times relevant herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff individually and/or jointly.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. Upon information and belief, and at all relevant times herein, Defendants owned/operated a medical practice providing medical services to the public.
15. Upon information and belief, and at all relevant times herein, Defendants, individually and/or jointly owned and/or operated about three locations and employed approximately 40 employees or more.
16. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants from in or around August 2014 to on or about November 4, 2016.
17. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff Medina was an hourly employee of Defendants and was paid at a regular hourly rate of $14- $15 an hour.
18. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a manual worker to perform a variety of functions including, filing and cleaning, etc.

19. At all times relevant herein, with the exception of some weeks during Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Defendants paid Plaintiff at her straight regular rate for all hours worked including her overtime hours (hours over 40 in a week). For example, for the bi-weekly pay period ending February 28, 2016, Plaintiff worked at least 95.56 hours and Defendants paid Plaintiff at a straight regular rate of $15 an hour for each and all of these 95.56 hours worked. Likewise, for the bi-weekly pay period ending October 23, 2016, Plaintiff worked at least 85.53 hours and Defendants paid Plaintiff at a regular rate of $15 an hour for each and all of these 85.53 hours worked. These examples are reflective of Defendants' payment pattern throughout the employment of Plaintiff and the class.
20. Upon information and belief, and at all times relevant herein, due to the demands of her job, Plaintiff was required to work through her lunch break for most days during her employment with Defendants.
21. Plaintiff worked about 43-45 hours a week during her employment with Defendants and likely more; 5-6 days a week – numbers that will be refined when Defendants produce wages and time records they were required to keep under the FLSA and NYLL.
22. Accurate copies of Plaintiff's wage and time records that Defendants were required to keep pursuant to 29 USC 211, 29 CFR 516 and NYLL 195, 12 NYCRR 142.2-6, are incorporated herein by reference.
23. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff at a rate of at least 1.5 times her regular rate for hours worked in excess of 40 in a week, for each week during the period of her employment with Defendants.
24. Upon information and belief, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the putative class members at a rate of 1.5 times their regular rate for each and all overtime hours worked (hours over 40 in a week).
25. At all times relevant herein, Defendants paid Plaintiff and the class on a bi-weekly basis in violation of NYLL 191 (1)(a)(i).

26. At all times relevant herein, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with the notice(s) required by NYLL 195(1).
27. At all times relevant herein, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with the statement(s) required by NYLL 195(3) – all wage statements provided to Plaintiff and the class did not state their overtime rate of pay and overtime wages earned, among other deficiencies.
28. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, Defendants had annual revenues and/or expenditures in excess of $500, 000. Plaintiff references and incorporates herein, accurate copies of records of Defendants’ business volume and revenues as well as business operations and commerce that Defendants were required to keep and maintain under the FLSA including under 29 CFR 516.
29. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, Defendants conducted business with medical laboratories and testing companies outside the state of New York.
30. Upon information and belief, and at all times relevant herein, Defendants and Plaintiff conducted business with insurance companies outside the state of New York.
31. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, Defendants purchased medical and other supplies from vendors outside the state of New York.
32. At all times applicable herein, Defendants conducted business with vendors and other businesses outside the State of New York.
33. Defendants as a regular part of their business, makes payment of taxes and other monies to agencies and entities outside the State of New York.
34. Defendants as a regular part of their business, engaged in credit card transactions involving banks and other institutions outside the state of New York.
35. At all times applicable herein and upon information and belief, Defendants utilized the instrumentalities of interstate commerce such as the United States mail, electronic mail, the internet and telephone systems.

36. All times applicable or relevant herein as to the FLSA overtime claim refers to at least the two-year and three-year period preceding the filing of this complaint but this period may be longer. All times applicable or relevant herein as to the NYLL overtime claim refers to at least the six-year period preceding the filing of this complaint but this period may be longer.
37. At all times relevant herein and for the time Plaintiff was employed by Defendants, Defendants failed and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and the class at an overtime rate of one and one half times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a week for each week in which such overtime was worked.
38. Upon information and belief, and at all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to display federal and state minimum wage/overtime posters.
39. Upon information and belief, and at all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to notify Plaintiff and the class of their federal and state minimum wage and overtime rights and failed to inform plaintiff that he could seek enforcement of such rights through the government enforcement agencies.
40. "Plaintiff" as used in this complaint refers to the named Plaintiff.
41. The "present" or the "present time" as used in this complaint refers to the date this complaint was signed.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT - 29 U.S.C 201 et Seq. (Unpaid Overtime)

42. Plaintiff alleges on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated who opt into this action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and incorporates by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 41 above as if set forth fully and at length herein.
43. The named Plaintiff has consented to be part of this action by the filing of this action on his behalf and with her consent.
44. The FLSA cause of action is brought as a collective action on behalf of the named Plaintiff and all others who are/were similarly situated and who file consents to opt-in to the action.

45. The class of similarly situated individuals as to the FLSA cause of action is defined as current and former employees of Defendants, and who 1) worked more than forty hours in a week, within at least the three-year period, preceding the filing of this complaint; and 2) were not paid at an overtime rate of at least 1.5 times their regular rate for each and all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a week as also explained above.
46. Although the precise number of putative class members is unknown, and facts on which the calculation of that number is based are presently within the sole control of Defendants, upon information and belief, there are over 50 members of the class during the class period.
47. The class definition will be refined as is necessary, including after discovery if necessary.
48. At all times relevant to this action, Plaintiff and all those similarly-situated, were employed by Defendants within the meaning of the FLSA – 29 U.S.C 201 et Seq.
49. Upon information and belief, and at all times relevant to this action, Plaintiff and all those similarly similarly-situated, were engaged in commerce and/or in the production of goods for commerce and/or Defendants constituted an enterprise(s) engaged in commerce within the meaning of the FLSA including 29 U.S.C. §§ 207(a).
50. Upon information and belief and at all times relevant herein, Defendants transacted commerce and business in excess of $500,000.00 annually or had revenues and/or expenditures in excess of $500,000.00 annually.
51. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff, and all those similarly similarly-situated as class members, overtime compensation at rates not less than 1.5 times their regular rate of pay for each and all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a work week, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207.

Relief Demanded

52. Due to Defendants' FLSA violations, Plaintiff, and all those similarly-situated, are entitled to recover from Defendants, their unpaid overtime wage compensation, plus maximum liquidated damages, attorney's fees, and costs of the action, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

NYLL 650 et Seq. and 12 NYCRR 142-2.2 etc. (Unpaid Overtime)

53. Plaintiff alleges on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated as class members, and incorporates by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 51 above as if set forth fully and at length herein.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

54. Plaintiff sues on her own behalf and on behalf of a class of persons under Rule 23(a), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

55. The class of similarly-situated individuals as to the overtime cause of action under the NYLL is defined as current and former hourly employees of Defendants, and who: 1) were employed by Defendants within the State of New York; 2) worked more than forty hours in a week, within at least the six-year period, preceding the filing of this complaint; and 3) not paid at an overtime rate of at least 1.5 times their regular rate for each and all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a week as also explained above.

56. The class definition will be refined as is necessary, including after discovery if necessary.

57. Although the precise number of putative class members is unknown, and facts on which the calculation of that number is based are presently within the sole control of Defendants, upon information and belief, there are over 50 members of the class during the class period.

58. Upon information and belief, the putative class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.

59. Upon information and belief, the claims of the representative party are typical of the claims of the class.

60. The representative party will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.
61. The Defendants has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole.
62. There are questions of law and fact common to the class which predominate over any questions solely affecting individual members of the class, including:
 - (a) Whether, Defendants failed and/or refused to pay the Plaintiff and the putative class members at a rate of at least one and one half (1 ½) times their regular hourly rate for all hours worked in excess of forty each week within the meaning of New York Minimum Wage Act and the regulations thereunder – 12 NYCRR § 142-2.2.
63. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy - particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation where individual Plaintiffs lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit in federal court against corporate Defendants and in light of the large number of putative class members.
64. At all times relevant to this action, Plaintiff and all those similarly-situated as class members, were employed by Defendants within the meaning of the New York Labor Law, §§ 2 and 651 and the regulations thereunder including 12 NYCRR § 142.
65. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed to pay and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and all those similarly-situated as class members, overtime compensation at rates not less than 1.5 times their regular rate of pay for each and all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a work week, in violation of the New York Minimum Wage Act and its implementing regulations. N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 650 et seq.; 12 NYCRR § 142-2.2.

Relief Demanded

66. Due to Defendant's NYLL overtime violations, Plaintiff, and all those similarly-situated, are entitled to recover from Defendants, their unpaid overtime wage compensation, maximum liquidated damages, prejudgment interest, attorney's fees, and costs of the action, pursuant to NYLL § 663(1).

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(NYLL § 191, 198 - Untimely Wage Payments)

67. Plaintiff alleges on behalf of himself and all others similarly-situated and incorporates by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 66 above.

68. The class of similarly-situated individuals as to the first cause of action under the NYLL is defined as current and former employees who worked for the Defendants as manual workers within the State of New York and who: 1) were not paid their non-overtime and/or overtime wages weekly as also explained above, within at least the six-year period, preceding the filing of this complaint to the date of disposition of this action.

69. The class definition will be refined as is necessary, including after discovery if necessary.

70. Although the precise number of putative class members is unknown, and facts on which the calculation of that number is based are presently within the sole control of Defendants, upon information and belief, there are over 50 members of the class during the class period.

71. Upon information and belief, the putative class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.

72. Upon information and belief, there are questions of law or fact common to the class – whether the putative class was paid wages weekly.

73. Upon information and belief, the claims of the representative party are typical of the claims of the class.

74. The representative party will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

75. The Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole.

76. There are questions of law and fact common to the class which predominate over any questions solely affecting individual members of the class, including:
- (a) Whether, Defendants failed and/or refused to pay the Plaintiff and the putative class members their wages weekly, as required by NYLL 190(1)(a).
77. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy - particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation where individual plaintiffs lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit in federal court against corporate Defendants and in light of the large number of putative class members.
78. At all times relevant to this action, plaintiff and all those similarly-situated as class members, were employed by Defendants within the meaning of the New York Labor Law, §§ 190 et Seq., including NYLL 190(1)(a) and the regulations thereunder.
79. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed to pay and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and all those similarly-situated as class members, their wages including overtime and non-overtime wages weekly, in violation of the NYLL 190(1)(a).

Relief Demanded

80. Due to Defendant's NYLL 190 et Seq. violations, Plaintiff, and all those similarly situated, are entitled to recover from Defendants, maximum liquidated damages (for the period after April 9, 2011), and interest on wages paid later than weekly, plus attorneys' fees, and costs of the action, pursuant to NYLL § 198.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NYLL § 190, 191, 193, 195 and 198

81. Plaintiff alleges on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as class members, and incorporates by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 80 above as if set forth fully and at length herein.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

82. Plaintiff sues on her own behalf and on behalf of a class of persons under Rule 23(a), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
83. The class of similarly-situated individuals as to the cause of action for NYLL 195(1) and NYLL 195(3) violations is defined as current and former hourly employees of Defendants who: 1) were not provided with the notice(s) required by NYLL 195(1), or 2) were not provided with the statement(s) required by NYLL 195(3).
84. The class includes but is not limited to employees who did not receive wage statements, employees who received wage statements but whose wage statements did not reflect all hours worked or all wages earned, and employees who did not receive the required wage notices setting forth the regular and overtime rate of pay among other information.
85. The class definition will be refined as is necessary, including after discovery if necessary.
86. Although the precise number of putative class members is unknown, and facts on which the calculation of that number is based are presently within the sole control of Defendants, upon information and belief, there are over 50 members of the class during the class period.
87. Upon information and belief, the putative class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.
88. Upon information and belief, there are questions of law or fact common to the class – (a) whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with the notice(s) required by NYLL 195(1), and (b) whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the putative class with the statement(s) required by NYLL 195(3).
89. Upon information and belief, the claims of the representative party are typical of the claims of the class.

90. The representative party will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.
91. The Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole.
92. There are questions of law and fact common to the class which predominate over any questions solely affecting individual members of the class, including:
 - (a) whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with the notice(s) required by NYLL 195(1), and whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the putative class with the statement(s) required by NYLL 195(3).
93. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy - particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation where individual Plaintiffs lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit in federal court against corporate Defendants and in light of the large number of putative class members.
94. At all times relevant to this action, Plaintiff and all those similarly-situated as class members, were employed by Defendants within the meaning of the New York Labor law, §§ 190 et seq., including §§ 191, 193, 195 and 198.
95. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the class members with the notice(s) required by NYLL 195(1) – Plaintiff and the class are therefore entitled to and seeks to recover in this action the maximum recovery for this violation, plus attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to NYLL 198 including NYLL 198(1-b), as well as an injunction directing Defendants to comply with NYLL 195(1).
96. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the class members with the statement(s) required by NYLL 195(3) – Plaintiff and the class are therefore entitled to and seeks to recover in this action the maximum recovery for this violation, plus attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to NYLL 198 including NYLL 198(1d), as well as an injunction directing Defendants to comply with NYLL 195(1).

Relief Demanded

97. Due to Defendants' New York Labor Law Article 6 violations including violation of sections 191, 193, 195 and 198, Plaintiff, and all those similarly-situated, are entitled to recover from Defendants, maximum recovery for violations of NYLL 195(1) and NYLL 195(3), reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of the action, pursuant to N.Y. Labor Law § 190 et seq. including § 198.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant the following relief:

98. Declare Defendants, individually, and/or jointly, to be in violation of the Plaintiff's rights under the Fair Labor Standards Act, Article 6 of the New York Labor Law, the New York Minimum Wage Act, and the Regulations thereunder;

99. As to the First Cause of Action, award Plaintiff and those similarly-situated as class members, who opt-in to this action, their unpaid overtime wages due under the FLSA, together with maximum liquidated damages, costs and attorney's fees pursuant to 29 USC § 216(b);

100. As to the Second Cause of Action, award Plaintiff and those similarly-situated as class members, their unpaid overtime wages due under the New York Minimum Wage Act and the Regulations thereunder including 12 NYCRR §§ 142-2.2, together with maximum liquidated damages, prejudgment interest, costs and attorney's fees pursuant to NYLL § 663;

101. As to the Third Cause of Action, award Plaintiff and all those similarly-situated as class members, maximum liquidated damages (for the period after April 9, 2011), and interest on wages paid later than weekly, plus attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements pursuant to NYLL §§ 191, 198;

102. As to the Fourth Cause of Action, award Plaintiff and those similarly-situated as class members, maximum recovery for violations of NYLL 195(1) and NYLL 195(3), reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of the action, pursuant to N.Y. Labor Law § 190 et seq. including § 198.

103. Award Plaintiff prejudgement interest on all monies due;
104. Award Plaintiff and all others similarly-situated where applicable, any relief requested or stated in the preceding paragraphs but which has not been requested in the WHEREFORE clause, in addition to the relief requested in the wherefore clause;
105. Award Plaintiff and all others similarly-situated, such other, further and different relief as the Court deems just and proper.
