ECF Case

Plaintiffs,

-against-

BDJVEGAN1, INC. (d/b/a BLOSSOM DU
JOUR), BDJVEGAN2, INC. (d/b/a BLOSSOM DU JOUR), BDJVEGAN4, INC.
(d/b/a BLOSSOM DU JOUR), BDJVEGAN5
INC. (d/b/a BLOSSOM DU JOUR), and
PAMELA ELIZABETH BLACKWELL,

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiffs Celvin Lisandro Perez Ramos, Miguel Aviles, and Alejandro Rosas Flores, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), by and through their attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon their knowledge and belief, and as against BDJVEGAN1, Inc. (d/b/a Blossom Du Jour) BDJVEGAN2, Inc. (d/b/a Blossom Du Jour), BDJVEGAN4, Inc. (d/b/a Blossom Du Jour), BDJVEGAN5 Inc. (d/b/a Blossom Du Jour) (“Defendant Corporations”), and Pamela Elizabeth Blackwell, allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiffs are former employees of defendants BDJVEGAN1, Inc. (d/b/a Blossom Du Jour) BDJVEGAN2, Inc. (d/b/a Blossom Du Jour), BDJVEGAN4, Inc. (d/b/a Blossom Du Jour), BDJVEGAN5 Inc. (d/b/a Blossom Du Jour) (“Defendant Corporations”), and Pamela Elizabeth Blackwell (collectively, “Defendants”).

2. Defendants own, operate, or control a chain of vegan restaurants located around Manhattan, including 165 Amsterdam Avenue, New York, New York 10023 (hereinafter the “67th Street location”), 449 Amsterdam Avenue New York 10025 (hereinafter the “82nd Street location”), 259 West 23rd Street New York 10011 (hereinafter “the 23rd street location”), 617 9th Avenue, New York 10036 (hereinafter “the 9th Avenue location”), and 15 East 13th Street New York 10003 (hereinafter “the 13th Street location”) all operating under the trade name “Blossom du Jour.”

3. Upon information and belief, individual defendant Pamela Elizabeth Blackwell serves as owner, manager, principal, or agent of Defendant Corporations and, through these corporate entities, operates all of the Blossom Du Jour restaurants as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiffs ostensibly were employed as delivery workers.

5. However, they were required to spend a considerable part of their work day performing non-tipped, non-delivery duties including but not limited to, various restaurant duties such as washing dishes, preparing food, cleaning and organizing the restaurant, preparing guacamole, pico de gallo, cooking sweet potato, cutting vegetables, sweeping and mopping, cleaning the bathroom, windows, and refrigerator, going to and from other Blossom Du Jour locations to pick up items, twisting and tying up cardboard boxes, taking out the garbage, cleaning the sidewalk, and stocking deliveries in the basement or the first floor (hereinafter the “non-tipped, non-delivery duties”).

6. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiffs worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage and/or overtime compensation for the hours that they worked.

7. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked, failed to pay Plaintiffs appropriately either at the straight rate or at overtime compensation for any hours worked.

8. Defendants employed and accounted for Plaintiffs as delivery workers in their payroll, but in actuality Plaintiffs’ duties required greater or equal time spent in non-tipped, non-delivery duties.

9. Regardless, at all times Defendants paid Plaintiffs at a rate that was lower than either the minimum wage rate or the required tip-credit rate.

10. In addition, under state law, Defendants were not entitled to take a tip credit because Plaintiffs’ non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday, or 2 hours per day, whichever was less in each day (12 N.Y. C.R.R. §146-2.9).

11. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed the policy and practice of disguising Plaintiffs’ actual duties in payroll records by designating them as delivery workers instead of non-tipped employees. This allowed Defendants to avoid paying Plaintiffs at the minimum wage rate and enabled them to pay plaintiffs at the tip-credit rate, and they still failed to pay it.

12. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs and other employees to work without providing the minimum wage or overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

13. Plaintiffs now bring this action on behalf of themselves, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.

14. Plaintiffs seek certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of themselves individually and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs’ state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

16. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a chain of vegan restaurants located in this district. Further, Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants in this district.

94. Defendants required Plaintiff Rosas to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds, including two bicycles, two chains, four sets of bike lights and three pairs of rain boots.

Defendants' General Employment Practices

95. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours per week without paying them appropriate minimum wage or overtime pay as required by federal and state laws.

96. Plaintiffs were victims of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate their rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying them the wages they were owed for the hours they worked.

97. At no time did Defendants inform Plaintiffs that they had reduced their hourly wage by a tip allowance.

98. Defendants required Plaintiffs to perform general non-delivery, non-tipped restaurant tasks in addition to their primary duties as delivery workers.

99. Plaintiffs were employed ostensibly as tipped employees by Defendants, although their actual duties included spending more than 20% of their time performing non-tipped duties.

100. Plaintiffs were paid at a rate that was below either the minimum wage rate or the tip-credit rate required by NYLL.

101. New York State regulations provide that an employee cannot be classified as a tipped employee on any day he works for two hours or more, or 20 percent of his shift, performing non-tipped work. (12 N.Y.C.R.R. §146-2.9). Similarly, under federal regulation 29 C.F.R. §531.56(e), an employer may not take a tip credit for any employee time if that time is devoted to a non-tipped occupation.

102. Plaintiffs' duties were not incidental to their occupation as delivery workers, but instead constituted entirely unrelated general restaurant work with duties including the non-tipped, non-delivery duties described herein.

103. In violation of federal and state law, as discussed above, Defendants classified Plaintiffs as tipped employees and did not pay them at the minimum wage or the tip-credited rate when they should have classified them as non-tipped employees and paid them at the minimum wage rate.

104. Defendants failed to inform Plaintiffs that their tips would be credited towards the payment of the minimum wage.

105. Throughout the period of time relevant to this lawsuit, Defendants paid Plaintiffs their wages in cash.

106. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiffs (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiffs properly for their full hours worked.

107. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

108. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiffs and other similarly situated current and former delivery workers.

109. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

110. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees with wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

111. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

Plaintiffs bring their FLSA minimum wage, overtime, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons who are or were employed by Defendants on or after the date that is three years before the filing of this Complaint (the "FLSA Class Period"), as employees of Defendants (the "FLSA Class").

113. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs, and other members of the FLSA Class who are and/or were similarly situated, have had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions.

114. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs, and other members of the FLSA Class who are and/or were similarly situated, were subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans of willfully failing and refusing to pay them minimum wage and overtime at a one and one-half times their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek.
