

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 21-1372
Filed: July 19, 2021

MARQUITA RODDY et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

THE UNITED STATES,

Defendant.

ORDER

On July 16, 2021, the United States filed a motion to stay this matter pending a decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in another case, Cody Adams v. United States, No. 21-1662 (Fed. Cir.). (Mot. to Stay, ECF No. 6). The United States reports that plaintiff does not oppose the motion.

Upon consideration of the motion, the motion is GRANTED, and the case is STAYED until further order of the Court. The deadline for the defendant to file its answer to the complaint is SUSPENDED pending further order of the Court. The parties are directed to file a Joint Status Report, proposing a schedule for further proceedings in this case, within 30 days of the date the Federal Circuit's decision in Cody Adams becomes final and unappealable.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
