INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action brought by Plaintiff on his own behalf and on behalf of similarly situated employees, alleging violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”) and the New York Labor Law, arising from Defendants’ various willful and unlawful employment policies, patterns and/or practices.

2. Upon information and belief, Defendants have willfully and intentionally committed widespread violations of the FLSA and NYLL by engaging in a pattern and practice of failing to pay their employees, including Plaintiff, overtime compensation for all hours worked over forty (40) each workweek.

3. Plaintiff alleges pursuant to the FLSA, that he is entitled to recover from the Defendants: (1) unpaid minimum wages, (2) unpaid overtime compensation, (3) reimbursement for expenses relating to tools of the trade, (4) liquidated damages, (5) prejudgment and post-judgment interest; and (6) attorneys' fees and costs.

Upon information and belief, Defendant Mila “Doe” is the owner, officer, director and/or managing agent of Atlantic Bagels LLC d/b/a Atlantic Bagels Café, at 200 Clinton Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201 and participated in its day-to-day operations, acted intentionally and maliciously, is an employer pursuant to FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §203d, and regulations promulgated

18. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to the institution of this action and/or conditions have been waived.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

19. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

20. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of minimum wages, overtime pay, spread of hours premium, and failure to provide the required wage notice at the time of hiring would financially injure Plaintiff and similarly situated employees and violate state and federal laws.

21. From on or about June 1, 2017 to June 23, 2018, Plaintiff Bernabe Sanchez Gonzalez (“Plaintiff Sanchez”) was hired by Defendants as a delivery worker for Defendants’ bagel café restaurant located at 200 Clinton Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201.

22. Starting on or about June 1, 2017 until November 1, 2017, Plaintiff Sanchez worked six (6) days per week from 6:30 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. During this period Plaintiff Sanchez was not provided with an hour break, and worked approximately fifty-seven (57) hours per week.

23. Starting on or about November 2017 until March 2018, Plaintiff Sanchez worked six (6) days per week from 6:30 am until 1:00 p.m. During this period Plaintiff Sanchez was not provided with an hour break, and worked approximately thirty-nine (39) hours per week.

24. Starting on or about March 2018 until June 23, 2018, Plaintiff Sanchez worked four (4) days per week from 6:30 am until 1:00 p.m. During this period Plaintiff Sanchez was not provided with an hour break, and worked approximately twenty-six (26) hours per week.

25. Plaintiff Sanchez was paid an hourly rate of $5.00 per hour, with no overtime compensation, regardless for the total amount of hours worked.

26. Plaintiff Sanchez was paid weekly in cash throughout his employment with the Defendants.

27. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not reimbursing Plaintiff Sanchez for expenses incurred in relation to tools of the trade used by Plaintiff Sanchez to make deliveries for the Defendant. Plaintiff Sanchez was required to purchase and maintain his own bicycle which was never reimbursed by Defendants. Plaintiff Sanchez spent $300.00 to purchase the bicycle. However, Defendant’s requested Plaintiff Sanchez obtain an electronic bicycle in order to make deliveries faster. Plaintiff Sanchez purchased the electronic bicycle for $1,550.00, spent approximately $80.00 per month to maintain and repair the electric bicycle, and was not reimbursed by the Defendants.

28. Under the FLSA, the Plaintiff Sanchez is entitled to a credit for expenses for tools of trade.

29. Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff overtime compensation according to state and federal laws.

30. Plaintiff was not compensated for New York State's "spread of hours" premium for shifts that lasted longer than ten (10) hours, one day each week.

31. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with a wage notices at the time of his hiring.

32. Defendants did not reimburse Plaintiff for expenses incurred in relation to tools of the trade used by Plaintiff to make deliveries for the Defendant.

33. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

34. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of overtime and minimum wage would economically injure Plaintiff and the Collective Members by their violation of federal and state laws.

35. While employed by Defendants, Plaintiff was not exempt under federal and state laws requiring employers to pay employees overtime.

36. Defendants failed to keep full and accurate records of Plaintiff's hours and wages.

37. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and other Collective Action Members with written notices about the terms and conditions of their employment upon hire in relation to their rate of pay, regular pay cycle and rate of overtime pay. These notices were similarly not provided upon Plaintiff and other Collective Members' pay increase(s).

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

38. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying either the FLSA minimum wage or the New York State minimum wage to Plaintiff or other similarly situated employees.

39. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying the New York State unpaid “Spread of Hours” premium to Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.

40. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees either the FLSA overtime rate (of time and one-half), or the New York State overtime rate (of time and one-half), in violation of the FLSA and New York Labor Law and the supporting federal and New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

41. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying the New York State “spread of hours” premium to Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees.

42. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other and former non-exempt employees who have been or were employed by the Defendants at their restaurant location for up to the last three (3) years, through entry of judgment in this case (the “Collective Action Period”) and whom failed to receive minimum wages, spread-of-hours pay, and/or overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week (the “Collective Action Members”), and have been subject to the same common decision, policy, and plan to not provide required wage notices at the time of hiring, in contravention to federal and state labor laws.

43. Upon information and belief, the Collection Action Members are so numerous the joinder of all members is impracticable. The identity and precise number of such persons are unknown, and the facts upon which the calculations of that number may be ascertained are presently within the sole control of the Defendants. Upon information and belief, there are more than ten (10) Collective Action Members, who have worked for or have continued to work for the Defendants during the Collective Action Period, most of whom would not likely file individual suits because they fear retaliation, lack adequate financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims. Therefore, Plaintiff submits that this case should be certified as a collection action under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §216(b).

44. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Collective Action Members, and have retained counsel that is experienced and competent in the field of employment law and class action litigation. Plaintiff has no interests that are contrary to or in conflict with those members of this collective action.

45. This action should be certified as collective action because the prosecution of separate action by individual members of the collective action would risk creating either inconsistent or varying adjudication with respect to individual members of this collective that would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interest of the other members not party to the adjudication, or subsequently impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

46. A collective action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since joinder of all members is impracticable. Furthermore, inasmuch as the damages suffered by individual Collective Action Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation makes it virtually impossible for the members of the collective action to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them. There will be no difficulty in the management of this action as collective action.

47. Questions of law and fact common to members of the collective action predominate over questions that may affect only individual members because Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to all members. Among the questions of fact common to Plaintiffs and other Collective Action Members are:

- a. Whether the Defendants employed Collective Action members within the meaning of the FLSA;
- b. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members the minimum wage in violation of the FLSA and the regulations promulgated thereunder;
- c. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members spread of hours payment for each day an employee worked over 10 hours;
- d. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members overtime wages for all hours worked above forty (40) each workweek in violation of the FLSA and the regulation promulgated thereunder;
- e. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members spread of hours payment for each day an employee worked over 10 hours;
- f. Whether the Defendants failed to provide the Collective Action Members with a wage notice at the time of hiring as required by the NYLL;
- g. Whether the Defendants' violations of the FLSA are willful as that term is used within the context of the FLSA; and,

h. Whether the Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, punitive, and statutory damages, interest, costs and disbursements and attorneys' fees.

48. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a collective action.

49. Plaintiffs and others similarly situated have been substantially damaged by Defendants' unlawful conduct.
