

If you purchased a Levoit-branded Core or EverestAir air purifier and/or replacement filter in the United States between August 29, 2019 and August 4, 2023, you may be entitled to an award from a class action settlement.

A state court has authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

This Notice may affect your rights. Please read this Notice carefully.

A Settlement has been reached to resolve a class action lawsuit against Vesync (US) Corp. (“Vesync” or “Defendant”), challenging certain “True HEPA”, “HEPA”, and/or “H13” claims made about Levoit-branded Core and EverestAir air purifiers and/or replacement filters purchased in the United States between August 29, 2019 and August 4, 2023.

Vesync unequivocally denies all allegations and denies any wrongdoing. The Court has not decided who is right. Instead, to avoid the costs and risks of further litigation, the parties have agreed to the Settlement. Plaintiffs and their counsel believe the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class.

You are a Settlement Class Member if you purchased a Levoit-branded Core or EverestAir air purifier and/or replacement filter with “True HEPA,” “HEPA,” and/or “H13” language in the United States between August 29, 2019 and August 4, 2023. Settlement Class Members who submit a valid Claim are eligible to receive a Settlement Award in the form of a $10.00 USD digital payment.

Your legal rights will be affected whether you act or do not act. Please read this Notice carefully to understand your rights and options.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why did I get this Notice?

You received this notice because you may have purchased a Levoit-branded Core or EverestAir air purifier and/or replacement filter in the United States with “True HEPA,” “HEPA,” and/or “H13” language between August 29, 2019 and August 4, 2023. If so, you are a Settlement Class Member and may be eligible to receive a Settlement Award in the form of a $10.00 USD digital payment by submitting a valid Claim.

A Court authorized this Notice to inform you of a proposed Settlement of a class action lawsuit and of your rights and options before the Court decides whether to give final approval. This Notice explains the nature of the lawsuit, the terms of the Settlement, and your legal rights and options.

The lawsuit is titled Sen et al. v. Vesync (US) Corp. and is pending in the Kings County Supreme Court in the State of New York, Case No. 510627/2026, before Judge Katherine Levine. The people who filed the lawsuit are referred to as the “Plaintiffs,” and Vesync (US) Corp. (“Vesync”) is referred to as the Defendant. The Plaintiffs and the Defendant have agreed to resolve the lawsuit through this Settlement.

Questions? Call 1 (800) 837-2979 or visit www.LAPsettlement.com.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The lawsuit alleges that Vesync made false or misleading “True HEPA,” “HEPA,” and/or “H13” claims about Levoit-branded Core and EverestAir air purifiers and/or replacement filters sold in the United States between August 29, 2019 and August 4, 2023. More information about these allegations is available in the Class Action Complaint, which can be found on the settlement website at www.LAPsettlement.com. Vesync unequivocally denies all allegations and maintains that it did not engage in any wrongdoing. The Court has not decided who is right. To avoid the costs and risks of further litigation, the Parties have agreed to a Settlement.

3. Why is the lawsuit a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called “Class Representatives” (in this case, Plaintiffs Devika Sen, Daniel Tepper, Rick Chen, and Jordan Menter) bring a lawsuit on behalf of themselves and other people with similar legal claims. All individuals who have similar legal claims and do not exclude themselves are referred to as the “Settlement Class”.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

The Court has not decided in favor of the Plaintiffs or Vesync. The Parties have agreed to the Settlement to avoid the costs and uncertainty of a trial. If the Court approves the Settlement, eligible Settlement Class Members who submit valid Claims will receive the benefits described in this Notice. The proposed Settlement does not mean that Vesync did anything wrong. Vesync unequivocally denies all allegations in this case and maintains that it did not engage in any wrongdoing. Plaintiffs and their counsel believe the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and in the best interests of the Settlement Class.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

To see if you are eligible for benefits, you must first determine if you are a Settlement Class Member.

5. Am I part of the Settlement?

You are included in the Settlement if you purchased a Levoit-branded Core or EverestAir air purifier and/or replacement filter with “True HEPA,” “HEPA,” and/or “H13” language in the United States between August 29, 2019 and August 4, 2023.

Settlement Class Members who submit a valid Claim are eligible to receive a $10.00 USD digital payment.

To receive a Settlement Award, you must complete and submit a Claim Form. You may submit your claim form online at www.LAPsettlement.com. Your completed Claim Form must be submitted online by November 3, 2026.

After you submit a Claim Form, the Settlement Administrator will review it and determine whether it is valid. 8. When and how will I receive my Settlement Award?

If the Court approves the Settlement, there may still be appeals. Resolving any appeals can take time; potentially more than one year. You will not receive a Settlement Award until the Settlement becomes final and any appeals are resolved. Please be patient.

9. What am I giving up to receive the Settlement Award?

judgments of the Court. By submitting a Claim Form or doing nothing, you will release Vesync from all claims described in the Settlement Agreement (the “Released Claims”).

The Settlement Agreement is available at www.LAPsettlement.com. It contains detailed information about the Released Claims in precise legal terms, so you should read it carefully. Unless otherwise stated, initial capitalized terms in this Notice have the same meaning as those defined in the Settlement Agreement. You may contact Class Counsel (listed in Question 10) at no cost, or you may consult your own attorney at your own expense if you have questions about the Released Claims or what they mean.

The Court has appointed lawyers from the following law firms as Class Counsel to represent you and the other Settlement Class Members: Bursor & Fisher, P.A.; Sinderbrand Law Group, P.C.; Migliaccio & Rathod LLP; Hecht Partners LLP; and Taus, Cebulash & Landau, LLP. These lawyers are called Class Counsel. They are experienced in handling similar class action cases. You will not be charged for their services. 11. How will Class Counsel be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve an award of attorneys’ fees and costs not to exceed $5,244,500. If approved, these amounts will be paid separately by Vesync and will not reduce Settlement Awards to Settlement Class Members.

Class Counsel will also request service awards not to exceed a combined $11,500 for the Class Representatives for their time, effort, and risks undertaken in pursuing this litigation. If approved, these service awards will also be paid separately by Vesync.

Vesync has agreed not to oppose Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees and costs up to $5,244,500. The Court will determine the amount to award and may approve less than the amounts requested.

YOUR RIGHTS – EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want to receive a Settlement Award and want to keep your right to sue Vesync on your own regarding the claims in this lawsuit, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement. This is called “excluding yourself” or “opting out” of the Settlement Class.

12. How do I get out of the Settlement?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must send a written “Request for Exclusion” that includes the following:

- Your name, mailing address, email address, and telephone number;
- Your personal signature (a signature by your lawyer or anyone else acting on your behalf is not sufficient); and
- The statement “I hereby request to be excluded from the proposed Settlement Class in Sen et al. v. Vesync (US) Corp., Case No. 510627/2026.”

Your Request for Exclusion must be postmarked no later than November 3, 2026, and mailed to the Settlement Administrator at the following address:

Vesync Air Purifier Settlement Exclusions

You cannot exclude yourself by telephone or by email.

If you do not follow these procedures and meet the deadline, you will remain a Settlement Class Member and will not be able to exclude yourself. If that occurs, your rights will be determined by the Settlement Agreement if it receives final approval from the Court.

13. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from the Settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you cannot receive a Settlement Award. However, you will retain the right to sue or participate in another proceeding against Vesync concerning the claims in this case.

YOUR RIGHTS – OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You may tell the Court that you object to the Settlement or any part of it.

14. How do I tell the Court that I do not agree with the Settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you may object to the Settlement if you do not agree with any part of it. You may state the reasons why you believe the Court should not approve the Settlement. The Court will consider your views. You cannot ask the Court to change the terms of the Settlement; the Court may only approve or reject it. If the Court

If you do not submit a written objection in accordance with these procedures and deadlines, you will waive your right to be heard at the Fairness Hearing.

15. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting means telling the Court that you do not agree with something about the Settlement. You may object only if you remain in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself

YOUR RIGHTS – APPEARING AT THE FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing to decide whether to approve the Settlement. You may attend the Fairness Hearing and request permission to speak, but you are not required to do so.

16. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing by video conference at 11:00 a.m. ET on February 17, 2027, at the Kings County Supreme Court of the State of New York, located at 360 Adams Street, Brooklyn, New York 11201, in Courtroom 541.

At the hearing, the Court will consider any comments, objections, and arguments concerning the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the proposed Settlement, including the amounts requested by Class Counsel for attorneys' fees, costs, and service awards. If proper objections are submitted, the Court will consider them. You do not need to attend this hearing to have your comments or objections considered by the Court. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement. It is not known how long this decision will take.

Please note: The date and time of the Fairness Hearing may change by Court Order. Any changes will be posted at www.LAPsettlement.com. You should check this website to confirm that the date and/or time have not changed.

17. Do I have to attend the Fairness Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will represent the interests of the Settlement Class at the hearing. But you are welcome to attend the hearing at your own expense. If you submit a written objection, you do not need to attend the hearing for the Court to consider it. As long as your written objection is timely and properly submitted, the Court will consider it. You may also hire your own lawyer to attend on your behalf at your own expense, but this is not required.

18. May I speak at the Fairness Hearing?

If you do not exclude yourself, you may (but are not required to) speak at the Fairness Hearing about the Settlement. This is called making an appearance. You may also have your own lawyer speak on your behalf, at your own expense.
