

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and Release is made and entered into as of the Execution Date between Plaintiff, Michael Stoff, both individually and on behalf of the Class as defined below, and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (the “Settling Parties”). This Agreement is intended by the Settling Parties to fully, finally, and forever resolve, discharge, and settle the claims described herein upon the following terms and conditions:

WHEREAS, Plaintiff is prosecuting the Action as defined below on behalf of the Class against Wells Fargo;

WHEREAS, the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, Pub. L. 116-136, § 4021, 134 Stat. 281, 489 (Mar. 27, 2020) required furnishers to provide accommodations to certain consumers under the CARES Act, including CARES Act forbearances, and required furnishers who made an “accommodation with respect to 1 or more payments on a credit obligation or account of a consumer” to “report the credit obligation or account as current” unless “the credit obligation or account was delinquent before the accommodation;”

WHEREAS, Wells Fargo provided CARES Act forbearances to Class Members;

WHEREAS, on June 18, 2020, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint against Wells Fargo in the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego, Case No. 37-2020-00020808-CU-BT-CTL (the “Action”);

WHEREAS, on March 23, 2023, Plaintiff filed the operative Third Amended Complaint (the “Complaint”);

WHEREAS, the Complaint asserted a single claim for willful violation of the Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act, Civ. Code § 1785.31(a)(2);

WHEREAS, Plaintiff contends that the information Wells Fargo furnished to consumer reporting agencies about Class Members failed to comply with the CARES Act, that such information was inaccurate or incomplete, and that such borrowers were damaged as a result;

WHEREAS, on February 5, 2024, the Court certified the following class: “All mortgag[ors] with a mortgage on property located in California whose accounts were ‘current,’ who received a CARES Act forbearance on or after March 27, 2020, and whose accounts were reported as ‘in forbearance’ (or something similar) by Defendant to a consumer reporting agency;”

WHEREAS, a notice of pendency of class action was sent to all Class Members and included the ability to opt-out of the Class, and no Class Member opted out;

WHEREAS, Wells Fargo denies each and all of the claims and allegations of wrongdoing made by Plaintiff; denies that it has violated any law; denies that it has engaged in any wrongdoing or any other act or omission that would give rise to liability or cause Plaintiff or other Class Members injuries, damages, or entitlement to any relief; denies that it furnished inaccurate or incomplete information to consumer reporting agencies; and denies that the requirements for certification of a class are satisfied;

WHEREAS, Wells Fargo nevertheless desires to enter into this Agreement to avoid the uncertainty, expense, inconvenience, delay, and distraction of burdensome and protracted litigation, and thereby to put to rest this controversy with respect to Plaintiff and the Class and avoid the risks inherent in complex litigation;

WHEREAS, the Settling Parties have engaged in extensive formal and informal discovery concerning the strength of Plaintiff’s claim;

WHEREAS, Plaintiff and Wells Fargo have agreed to the terms of this Agreement, which embodies all of the terms and conditions of the Settlement between the Settling Parties and which, subject to the approval of the Court as provided below, will supersede any and all prior agreements between the Settling Parties;

WHEREAS, Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of proceedings necessary to continue the litigation through trial, and any possible appeals. They have taken into account the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation. They are also aware of the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability and damages for the claims alleged in the Action and the defenses thereto. Based upon their evaluation, the Class Representative and Class Counsel have determined that the settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interests of Plaintiff and the Settlement Class and is fair, adequate and reasonable;

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and among the Settling Parties, by and through their attorneys of record, that, subject to the approval of the Court, the Action and the Class Released Claims shall be finally and fully settled, compromised, and dismissed on the merits and with prejudice upon and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, as follows:

Class Releasors shall be permanently barred and enjoined from instituting, commencing, or prosecuting any claims against the Class Releasees of any kind (including, but not limited to, for actual damages, statutory damages, restitution, and exemplary or punitive damages) based on the Class Released Claims.

This Agreement may be pleaded as a bar to a lawsuit, and an injunction may be obtained preventing any action from being initiated or maintained, in any case sought to be prosecuted on behalf of any Class Releasors (including, but not limited to, for actual damages, statutory damages, and exemplary or punitive damages) based on the Class Released Claims.

C. Waiver of California Civil Code § 1542 and Similar Laws

In addition, upon Final Approval of this Settlement, Plaintiff individually waives and releases with respect to Plaintiff's Class Released Claims any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred (a) by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, which reads:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR;

(b) by any and all equivalent, similar, or comparable federal or state rules, regulations, laws, or principles of law of any other jurisdiction that may be applicable herein; or (c) any law or principle of law of any jurisdiction that would limit or restrict the effect or scope of the provisions of the release set forth in the Agreement. Plaintiff expressly agrees that for the consideration received under this Agreement, it is Plaintiff's intention to release, and Plaintiff is releasing, all Plaintiff's Class Released Claims, including any claims that Plaintiff does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of the release that if known by him, might have affected his settlement with and release of the Class Releasees, or might have affected his decision not to object to or to opt-out of this Settlement. D. Agreement to Be Bound

Subject to Court approval, all Class Releasors shall be subject to and bound by this Agreement, all of their Class Released Claims shall be released, and the Action shall be dismissed with prejudice, regardless of whether such Class Releasors received actual notice of the Action or

IV. SETTLEMENT CONSIDERATION

In full, complete, and final settlement of any and all Class Released Claims, and as consideration for the releases provided by this Agreement, Wells Fargo agrees as follows:

A. Settlement Fund

Within fifteen (15) business days after entry of the Order granting Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Wells Fargo will deposit the sum of $56,850,000 into the Settlement Fund, in the Escrow Account to be maintained by the Settlement Administrator and used to pay for the following obligations under this Agreement: (1) any Fee and Expense Award(s) approved by the Court; (2) all costs and expenses associated with administering the Settlement, and (3) each Class Member's Settlement Share. In no event shall Wells Fargo be required to pay an amount in excess of the $56,850,000 it deposits to create the Settlement Fund to cover any obligations set forth in the Agreement. Wells Fargo and Counsel for Wells Fargo shall have no responsibility, financial obligation, or liability whatsoever with respect to the notifications to the Class required hereunder, and the maintenance, preservation, investment, or distribution of any amount of the Settlement Fund, including payments to Class Members, payments to the Class Representative, payment of federal, state, and local income, employment, unemployment, excise, and any other taxes, penalties, interest or other charges related to taxes imposed on the Settlement Fund or its disbursements, payment of the administrative, legal, accounting, or other costs occasioned by the use or administration of the Settlement Fund, since it is agreed that such deposit shall fully discharge Wells Fargo's obligation to the Class Representative, Class Members, Class Counsel, and expenses of administration with respect to the disposition of the Settlement Fund.

B. Distribution of Net Settlement Amount

The Net Settlement Amount, which is all amounts in the Settlement Fund, including interest, available for distribution to Class Members after payment of any Fee and Expense Awards approved by the Court and the Settlement Administrator's Cost and Expenses, shall be distributed according to the Distribution Plan. In summary:

1. Settlement Share

Upon the Effective Date, the Settlement Administrator shall determine each Class Member's Settlement Share by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the number of Class Members, such that each Class Member receives an equal pro rata share. Twenty (20) days after the latter of (1) payment of all Fee and Expense Awards approved by the Court or (2) payment of the Settlement Administrator's Cost and Expenses ("Distribution Date"), the Class Administrator shall mail a Settlement check in an amount equal to each Class Member's Settlement Share. Settlement checks shall be mailed to Class Members without the need for claim forms or documentary proof. Each Settlement check shall be void after 90 days, if not cashed.

Upon expiration of a 90-day period following the Distribution Date, the Settlement Administrator shall void the checks of Class Members that were returned as undeliverable or remain uncashed on that date. Class Members whose checks are not cashed within 90 days after the Distribution Date shall be automatically rendered ineligible for future payments. Within fourteen (14) days thereafter, the Settlement Administrator shall notify counsel in writing of the number of Class Members who were sent checks, the number of Class Members who did not cash their checks, the total dollar amount of the checks distributed by the Settlement Administrator, and the total dollar amount of uncashed checks.

2. Remaining Amounts

Remaining Amounts shall be distributed evenly to Class Members who cashed a previous Settlement check, unless those Class Members would receive less than $5 each of Remaining Amounts. Any monies that remain in the Settlement Fund ninety (90) days after the Settlement Administrator distributes Remaining Amounts (or upon determination that Class Members would receive less than $5) shall be distributed to a court approved cy pres recipient. The parties will work cooperatively to propose a mutually agreed upon recipient, and if one cannot be agreed upon, the parties will submit separate proposals to the Court.

3. Administrative Costs and Expenses

All necessary costs and expenses to administer the terms of this Settlement, including but not limited to the costs of the Notice Plan and the Settlement Administrator, and payment of taxes, shall be paid for exclusively out of the Settlement Fund. Wells Fargo shall have no responsibility or liability for the maintenance, preservation, investment, or distribution of any amount of the Settlement Fund.

for rehearing en banc, and petitions for certiorari or any other form of review, have been finally disposed of, and the time to appeal therefrom has expired, in a manner resulting in an affirmation without material modification of the Final Approval Order and Judgment or the Settlement.

B. Failure of Effective Date

If any of the conditions specified in Section VII(A) is not met, then this Settlement Agreement shall be cancelled and terminated and any funds deposited with the Settlement Administrator, including any interest thereon accrued, minus the Settlement Administrator's Cost and Expenses incurred, shall be returned to Wells Fargo, subject to and in accordance with the provisions set forth herein unless the Settling Parties mutually agree in writing to proceed with the Settlement.

C. Objections

Class Members who wish to object to any aspect of the Settlement, including any Fee and Expense Application, must file with the Court a written statement containing their objections no later than the Objection Deadline and abide by the requirements laid out in the Notice of Settlement. The written objections must also be mailed to the Settlement Administrator with a post-mark date no later than the Objection Deadline. The written statement must include all required information as specified in the Notice of Settlement, including but not limited to a description of all objections to the Settlement, the reasons for said objections, and any legal authority supporting the objections.

Neither the Settling Parties nor any person acting on their behalf shall solicit or otherwise encourage anyone to object to the Settlement, or to appeal from any order of the Court that is consistent with the terms of this Settlement.

D. Termination

Either Plaintiff, through Class Counsel, or Wells Fargo shall have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate this Agreement if: (1) the Court rejects, modifies, or denies approval of any portion of this Agreement or the proposed Settlement in a manner that results in a substantial modification to a material term of the proposed Settlement; or (2) any appellate court(s) does not enter or completely affirm, or alters, narrows, or expands, any portion of the Final Approval Order and Judgment, in a manner that results in a substantial modification to a material term of the proposed Settlement. Further, Wells Fargo shall have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate the Agreement if (1) the Court does not enter the Preliminary Approval Order within one hundred and eighty (180) days of Plaintiff's filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval; or (2) the Court does not enter the Final Approval Order and Judgment within one hundred and eighty (180) days of Plaintiff's filing of the Motion for Final Approval. The terminating party must exercise the option to terminate this Agreement, as provided in this Section, by a signed writing served on the other Settling Party no later than ten (10) Days after receiving notice of the event prompting the termination. If, but only if, this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section then:

1. The Settling Parties will be returned to their positions status quo ante and this Agreement shall be null and void and shall have no force or effect, and all of its provisions, and all negotiations, statements, and proceedings relating to it shall be without prejudice to the rights of Plaintiff, Wells Fargo, or any Class Member, all of whom shall be restored to their respective positions existing immediately before the execution of this Agreement, except that the Settling Parties shall cooperate in requesting that the Court set a new scheduling order such that no Party's substantive or procedural rights are prejudiced by the settlement negotiations and proceedings; and
2. Neither this Agreement, the fact of its having been made, nor the negotiations leading to it, shall be admissible or entered into evidence for any purpose whatsoever.

VIII. NO ADMISSION OF LIABILITY

A. Final and Complete Resolution

The Settling Parties intend the Settlement to be a final and complete resolution of all disputes between them with respect to the Action, and to compromise claims that are contested. This Agreement shall not be deemed an admission by any Settling Party as to the merits of any claim or defense or any allegation made in the Action.

B. Use of Agreement

The Settling Parties agree that this Agreement, its terms, and the negotiations surrounding this Agreement shall be governed by California Evidence Code §§ 1152 and 1154, Federal Rule of Evidence 408, and any other state-law equivalents, and shall not be admissible or offered or received into evidence in any suit, action, or other proceeding, except upon the written agreement of the Settling Parties hereto, pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or as shall be necessary to give effect to, declare, or enforce the rights of the Settling Parties with respect to any provision of this Agreement.

IX. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

A. This Agreement and the Settlement shall be subject to the Court's judicial approval procedures under California Rules of Court Rule 3.769. Until and unless this Agreement is dissolved or becomes null and void by its own terms, or unless otherwise ordered by the Court, or if Final Approval is not achieved, Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Wells Fargo, and counsel for Wells Fargo represent and warrant that they shall take all appropriate steps in the Action necessary to cause the Court to grant Preliminary and Final Approval of this Agreement as promptly as practicable, and shall take or join in such other appropriate steps as may be reasonably necessary

G. Class Counsel represent and warrant that they have no present intention to seek out, solicit, or pursue individual or class claims against Wells Fargo or any of the Class Releasees with respect to matters within the scope of the Class Released Claims. The Settling Parties understand and agree that nothing in this paragraph imposes or shall be construed to prohibit or restrict Class Counsel from representing persons who seek representation for such claims arising subsequent to the date of this Agreement.

H. The Settling Parties agree to continue to comply with the Protective Order entered in the Action.

I. The undersigned representatives of Wells Fargo represent that they are fully authorized to enter into and to execute this Agreement on behalf of Wells Fargo. Class Counsel, on behalf of Plaintiff and the Class, represent that they are expressly authorized to take all action required or permitted to be taken by or on behalf of the Class pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms and to enter into and execute this Agreement and any modifications or amendments to the Agreement on behalf of the Class that may be appropriate.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. WHY AM I RECEIVING THIS NOTICE?

A Court authorized this notice because you have a right to know about a proposed Settlement of the class action lawsuit and about your options before the Court decides whether to grant final approval of the Settlement.¹ This notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, and your legal rights. Judge Katherine A. Bacal of the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego is overseeing the case and has exclusive jurisdiction over the Settlement. The lawsuit is known as Stoff v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Case No. 37-2020-00020808-CU-BT-CTL.

2. WHAT IS THIS LAWSUIT ABOUT?

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, Pub. L. 116-136, § 4021, 134 Stat. 281, 489 (Mar. 27, 2020) required furnishers like Wells Fargo to provide accommodations to certain consumers under the CARES Act, including CARES Act forbearances, and required furnishers who made an “accommodation with respect to 1 or more payments on a credit obligation or account of a consumer” to “report the credit obligation or account as current” unless “the credit obligation or account was delinquent before the accommodation.” Wells Fargo provided CARES Act forbearances to Class Members.

On June 18, 2020, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint against Wells Fargo in the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego. Plaintiff contends that the information Wells Fargo furnished to consumer reporting agencies about Class Members failed to comply with the CARES Act, that such information was inaccurate or incomplete, and that such borrowers were damaged as a result. Wells Fargo denies each and all of the claims and allegations of wrongdoing made by Plaintiff; denies that it has violated any law; denies that it has engaged in any wrongdoing or any other act or omission that would give rise to liability or cause Plaintiff or other Class Members injuries, damages, or entitlement to any relief; denies that it furnished inaccurate or incomplete information to consumer reporting agencies; and denies that the requirements for certification of a class are satisfied.

The operative Third Amended Complaint filed in the lawsuit, which provides greater details about Plaintiff’s claims, can be viewed on the Settlement Website at <https://www.caresactlitigation.com/>.

3. WHY IS THIS LAWSUIT A CLASS ACTION?

Class action lawsuits allow a large number of people with a common claim to sue collectively while being represented by a member or members of the group called the “Class Representatives.”

¹ All terms contained herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, which is available on the Settlement Website at <https://www.caresactlitigation.com/>.

In this case, the Class Representative has brought the lawsuit on behalf of himself and others with similar claims. Together, all of the individuals with similar claims are referred to as “Class Members.”

4. WHAT ARE THE REASONS FOR THE SETTLEMENT?

Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe this Settlement provides a fair and reasonable resolution of the claims asserted in the lawsuit for the benefit of the Class.

The Court has not ruled in favor of either the Plaintiff or Wells Fargo. Instead, both sides agreed to a Settlement that they believe is a fair, reasonable, and adequate compromise of their respective positions. The parties reached this Settlement after litigating the case for over five years, conducting formal and informal discovery, and with the assistance of an experienced neutral mediator.

By agreeing to the Settlement, the parties avoid the costs, delay, and uncertainty of further litigation, and Class Members receive the benefits described in this Notice.

Wells Fargo denies any wrongdoing and the Settlement shall in no event be construed or deemed to be evidence or an admission or concession on the part of Wells Fargo with respect to any claim or of any fault, liability, wrongdoing, or damage.

THE SETTLEMENT

5. WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT CLASS?

The “Settlement Class” or “Class” means the class as certified by the Court on February 5, 2024, which includes (a) “[a]ll mortgag[ors] with a mortgage on property located in California whose accounts were ‘current,’ who received a CARES Act forbearance on or after March 27, 2020, and whose accounts were reported as ‘in forbearance’ (or something similar) by [Wells Fargo] to a consumer reporting agency,”² and (b) are not the Judge assigned to this case.

² For purposes of this definition, an account was “current” if, at the time the borrower initially contacted Wells Fargo regarding a CARES Act forbearance, the borrower’s mortgage payment was between 0 and 29 days past due. Further, for purposes of this definition, “mortgagors with a mortgage on property located in California” are California residents with a Wells Fargo mortgage on property in California based on Wells Fargo’s records.

6. WHAT BENEFITS DOES THE SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

Under the Settlement, Wells Fargo has agreed to establish a Settlement Fund totaling fifty-six million eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($56,850,000.00) to provide the following benefits as consideration for the resolution and release of the Class Members' claims:

- The Settlement Fund will first be used to pay any Fee and Expense Awards to Class Counsel approved by the Court, including any Service Award(s) approved by the Court; and the Claims Administrator's costs and expenses. The Net Settlement Amount is all remaining amounts in the Settlement Fund, including interest, available for distribution to Class Members after payment of any Fee and Expense Awards approved by the Court and the Settlement Administrator's Cost and Expenses.
- Each Class Member will be distributed a Settlement Share, determined by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the number of Class Members, such that each Class Member receives an equal pro rata share.
- Settlement Share checks will be mailed to class members without the need for claim forms or documentary proof. Class Members will have 90 days to cash the Settlement Share checks, after which the checks will be voided.

If the Settlement Fund has a remaining amount after paying the Net Settlement Amount, any Fee and Expense Awards, including any Service Award(s), and the Claims Administrator's costs and expenses, the remaining funds will be distributed evenly to Class Members who cashed a previous Settlement check, unless those Class Members would receive less than $5 each of Remaining Amounts. Any monies that remain in the Settlement Fund ninety (90) days after the Settlement Administrator distributes Remaining Amounts (or upon determination that Class Members would receive less than $5) shall be distributed to a non-profit organization (cy pres recipient) approved by the Court.

In return for the benefits in this Settlement, if the Settlement is approved, all Class Members will release Wells Fargo from the claims as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and the Action will be dismissed with prejudice.

7. DO I NEED TO DO ANYTHING TO RECEIVE A PAYMENT?

You do not need to take any action to receive a Settlement Share. If the Settlement is approved by the Court, the Claims Administrator will mail the Settlement Share checks to Class Members.

8. HOW WILL THIS SETTLEMENT AFFECT MY RIGHTS?

If this Settlement is granted final approval by the Court, then you will release certain claims against Wells Fargo as set forth in the Settlement Agreement and described in Section 13 below.

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Superior Court of California County of San Diego Case No. 37-2020-00020808-CU-BT-CTL Notice of Class Action Settlement A California Court authorized this notice. You are not being sued. You have been identified as a member of a class action. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer. See contents for details. You have been identified as a Class Member in a class action settlement of a lawsuit against Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo"). The lawsuit claims Wells Fargo violated the California Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act ("CCRAA"), at Cal. Civ. Code § 1785.25(a), by furnishing information to consumer credit reporting agencies that it knew or should have known was incomplete or inaccurate. More specifically, it alleges that Wells Fargo, as part of its COVID-19 credit reporting, unlawfully furnished information to the credit bureaus indicating that consumers with current Wells Fargo mortgages were in forbearance. Wells Fargo denies the allegations and claims. The parties have now reached a settlement, the Court granted preliminary approval of the settlement, and the Court will decide whether to give final approval of the settlement at the Final Approval Hearing set for [Date/Time/Location]. Why am I being contacted? Wells Fargo's records identified you as a "Class Member." Thus, you have a right to know about a proposed Settlement of the class action lawsuit and about your options before the Court decides whether to grant final approval of the Settlement. This notice summarizes the lawsuit, the Settlement, and your legal rights. You can visit www.CaresActLitigation.com for more details, including a copy of the Settlement Agreement. What benefits does the Settlement provide? Wells Fargo has agreed to establish a Settlement Fund totaling $56,850,000.00. This amount will first be used to pay any Fee (not to exceed 30% of the Settlement Fund) and Expense (not to exceed $165,000) Awards to Class Counsel approved by the Court; including any Service Award(s) (no more than $100,000) approved by the Court; and the Claims Administrator's costs and expenses (approximately XXX,000). Each Class Member will then receive an equal pro rata share of the remaining funds by check sent through U.S. mail. What are my options? Do Nothing. If you do nothing and the Settlement is granted final approval by the Court, you will receive a pro rata Payment from the Settlement Fund and release the claims described in the Settlement Agreement. Object. If you believe the Settlement is unfair or inadequate, you may file a written objection to the Settlement with the Court, on or before the Objection Deadline, which is 75 days after the Preliminary Approval Order. Go to a Hearing. If you file an objection and if you want to speak at the Final Approval Hearing either to oppose or support the settlement, you must file a written Notice of Intention to Appear which must be filed, and postmarked on or before the Objection Deadline, which is 75 days after the Preliminary Approval Order. Do I have a lawyer? Yes. The Court has appointed Russell S. Thompson, IV (Thompson Consumer Law Group, PC; (602) 388-8898; rthompson@thompsonconsumerlaw.com) and Andrew J. Brown (Law Offices of Andrew J. Brown; (619) 501-6550; andrewb@thebrownlawfirm.com) to represent you as "Class Counsel." You will not be charged by these lawyers. You can hire your own lawyer to make an appearance in the lawsuit, but you'll need to pay your own legal fees. NOTE: This notice is a summary only. 1 Plaintiff Michael Stoff (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Defendant”)
2 (collectively, the “Parties”) have reached a proposed settlement, which is set forth in the Parties’
3 Settlement Agreement. Now before the Court is Plaintiff’s motion for preliminary approval of the 4 Settlement. The Court has considered the Parties’ papers, relevant legal authority, and the record in 5 this case, and the Court hereby GRANTS the request and preliminarily approves the Settlement
6 Agreement.

7 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

8 1. This Order hereby incorporates all defined terms as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, 9 and all capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meaning as set forth in the 10 Settlement Agreement;

11 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this litigation and over the Settling 12 Parties.

13 Settlement

14 3. The Court does hereby preliminarily approve the Settlement and its exhibits, subject to 15 further consideration at the Final Approval Hearing described below and directs the Settling 16 Parties to perform and satisfy the terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement that are 17 hereby triggered.

18 4. This Court preliminarily finds that the Settlement meets the requirements of California law, 19 as the Settlement appears to have been negotiated at arms’ length; the relief provided for the 20 Class is adequate; the Settlement does not improperly grant preferential treatment to the 21 Class Representatives or segments of the Class; and it appears to be fair, reasonable, and 22 adequate.

23 Class Notice

24 5. The Court approves, as to form and content, the Class Notice attached as Exhibits 1 and 2 to

1 the Settlement Agreement. The Court further finds that the proposed Notice Plan, including
2 the form of the proposed Class Notice, substantially meets the requirements of California
3 Rule of Court 3.769(f) and due process, is the best notice practicable under the 4 circumstances, and shall constitute due process and sufficient notice to all persons entitled 5 thereto.

- 7 6. The Court confirms and appoints AB Data as the Administrator to administer the terms of 8 the Settlement Agreement and to notify and pay Class Members. The Administrator shall 9 commence all aspects of the approved Notice Plan, including mailing direct notice and 10 maintaining a dedicated website, as more fully set forth in the Declaration Regarding 11 Dissemination of Class Notice, in accordance with the schedule set forth below.
- 12 7. No later than thirty (30) days from Preliminary Approval, the Administrator shall have 13 completed the Notice Plan to the Class by sending direct notice to all Class Members by 14 United States Postal Service, substantially in the form as Exhibit 2 to the Settlement
15 Agreement and by posting the long form notice attached as Exhibit 1 to the Settlement
16 Agreement on the dedicated settlement website (“Notice Deadline”). The Settlement
17 Administrator will use reasonable efforts to update and confirm the accuracy of the Class
18 Members’ contact information provided by Wells Fargo through the United States Postal 19 Service change of address system.
- 20 8. All reasonable expenses incurred in identifying and notifying members of the Class, as well 21 as administering and distributing the settlement funds, shall be paid for as set forth in the 22 Settlement Agreement.
- 23 9. No later than sixteen (16) Court days before the Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel shall 24 file with the Court a declaration from a representative of the Administrator confirming that 25 the Notice Plan has been accomplished in accordance with the Settlement Agreement and 1 this order (“Notice Declaration”).

2 Final Approval Hearing

3 10. A Final Approval Hearing shall be held before this Court on _____, 2026, at 4 _____ a.m./p.m., at Hall of Justice, Third Floor, 330 W Broadway San Diego, CA 92101, to 5 determine whether the proposed Settlement on the terms and conditions provided for in the 6 Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate to the Class Members and should be 7 approved by the Court; whether final judgment should be entered; the amount of the Fee and 8 Expense Award that should be awarded to Class Counsel and any Class Representatives.
9 Attendance at the Final Approval Hearing is not mandatory and Class Members need not 10 appear or take any other action to indicate their approval of the Settlement Agreement. The 11 Court may change the date or time of the Final Approval Hearing without further notice to 12 the Class, except all such information shall be posted on the Settlement website.
13

14 Objections

13 13. All non-settlement-related proceedings in this action remain stayed pending final approval

17 documentation and papers, no later than forty-five (45) days after the Notice Deadline.

18 15. Class Counsel shall file their motion for final approval of the Settlement, and all supporting 19 documentation and papers, no later than sixteen (16) Court days before the Final Approval
20 Hearing.

21 16. If for any reason the Settlement Agreement is not finally approved by the Court, each Party's 22 rights to litigate will be restored to the same extent as if the Settlement Agreement had never 23 been entered into.

24 17. Neither the Settlement Agreement, nor any of its terms or provisions, nor any of the 25 negotiations or proceedings connected with it, shall be construed as an admission or 26 concession by Plaintiff or Defendant of the truth or falsity of any of the allegations in this 27 lawsuit, or of any liability, fault, or wrongdoing of any kind.

1 18. Upon Final Approval of the Settlement by the Court, each Class Member releases Wells
2 Fargo from all claims asserted in the Action and from any and all past and/or present claims,
3 lawsuits, and complaints of any kind resulting from, arising from, or relating in any way to 4 Wells Fargo's furnishing of information to credit reporting agencies with respect to
