CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SCOTT THOMPSON,
individually and as parent and guardian of his Minor Child A.T.,
and DANIELLE THOMPSON, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

THE WALT DISNEY COMPANY

Defendants.

Case No.:

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND DECLARATORY AND
INJUNCTIVE RELIEF FOR:

(1) VIOLATION OF
CALIFORNIA UNFAIR
COMPETITION LAW,
CAL. BUS. & PROF. CODE
§§ 17200;

(2) VIOLATION OF
CALIFORNIA LEGAL
REMEDIES ACT (CLRA),
CAL. CIV. CODE § 1750, ET SEQ.; AND

FOR DAMAGES FOR:

(3) NEGLIGENCE

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMES NOW, SCOTT THOMPSON, individually and as parent and guardian of his Minor Child A.T., and DANIELLE THOMPSON, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated ("Plaintiffs"), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, seeks a permanent injunction and, (specifically excluding damages under the California Legal Remedies Act (CLRA), Cal. Civ. CODE § 1750,

1 et seq.) damages against The Walt Disney Company (“Defendant” or “Disney”).

2 In support thereof, Plaintiffs allege, upon personal knowledge as to Plaintiffs’
3 individual actions and upon information and belief and/or counsel’s investigations as 4 to all other matters, the following:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §
7 1332(d)(2)(A) because this case is a class action where the aggregate claims of all
8 members of the proposed class are in excess of $5,000,000.00, exclusive of interest
9 and costs, there are 100 or more members of the proposed class, and at least one 10 member of the proposed class, including Plaintiff, is a citizen of a state different than 11 Defendant.

12 2. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants 13 conduct business in California, including within this District. Defendant is 14 headquartered in California and, therefore, has sufficient minimum contacts with this 15 state, and/or sufficiently avail themselves to the markets of this state through their 16 sales and marketing within this state to render the exercise of jurisdiction by this 17 Court permissible.

18 3. Under 28 U.S.C. 1391, venue lies in this District because Defendant is 19 headquartered in this District and makes decisions related to all of its parks, hotels, 20 and/or resorts from its headquarters and are thus subject to the court’s personal 21 jurisdiction as indicated above.

22 INTRODUCTION

23 4. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants for violation of 24 California’s Unfair Competition Law (“UCL”), Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 and 25 California’s Consumer Legal Remedies Act (“CLRA”) Cal. Civ. Code § 1750, and 26 Negligence.

27 5. Since at least 2013, Disney has known or should have known that it’s 28 pool area surface is slippery and that it should apply anti-slip products and/or

1 technology on the ground to prevent slipping of visitors to Disney Aulani and that it
2 should provide adequate warnings prior to and at the time of their arrival that it's 3 grounds are particularly slippery and that it has failed to apply anti-slip products
4 and/or technology on the ground to decrease the likelihood of slips and falls.

5 6. Because Disney does not have, and has never had, an adequate corporate 6 policy that is reasonably calculated to prevent slipping on its pool grounds, Plaintiffs 7 seek a permanent injunction against Disney requiring that Disney:

8 (a) Disseminate a notice reasonably intended to reach all vacationers and 9 insert remedial disclosures in future advertising and marketing in a form approved by 10 the above counsel, and correcting any misstatements, misrepresentations, and 11 omissions of fact described above;

12 (b) Immediately cease marketing and selling vacations, accommodations,
13 and access to the pool area unless you first notify visitors of the defects in the pool 14 area flooring;

15 (c) Cease Defendant's advertising, marketing, and/or sales of their of their 16 vacations and accommodations at Aulani, a Disney Resort and Spa (hereinafter, 17 "Aulani"), as described more fully below, in violation of the Consumers Legal 18 Remedies Act ("CLRA"), CAL. CIV. CODE § 1750 et seq.;

19 (d) Meaningfully disclose all material facts regarding its outdoor pool area
20 and the propensity to slip and failure to disclose that Disney fails to apply anti-slip 21 technology and/or products; and otherwise immediately cease to engage in the 22 violations of the Consumers Legal Remedies Act and Unfair Competition Law (for 23 example, put in the marketing that the pool grounds are more slippery than other pool 24 grounds, place anti-slip floor products and technologies in areas that are prone to 25 slipping – namely any areas where people walk and are expected to be wet, encourage 26 people to wear anti-slip shoes when walking around wet areas, and train Disney
27 employees to remind people to walk around wet areas, place anti-skid strips in areas 28 prone to slipperiness.);

1 (e) Apply anti-slipping products and/or technology on the pool area;

2 (f) Expressly excluding any and all damages under the CLRA, providing to 3 each Class Member compensatory, statutory, nominal, and/or punitive damages owed
4 to them as a result of medical bills incurred as a result of Defendants' violations of 5 law.

6 (g) Require Defendant to:

7 (i) warn the general public of the propensity of Disney's pool grounds
8 to be slippery and that Disney fails to apply anti-slip products
9 and/or technology to the grounds to provide a safe place for people
10 to walk near the pool area.

11 (ii) Implement adequate corporate policies to prevent the general
12 public and visitors and consumers to Aulani from slipping and 13 falling.

14 (h) Any other relief that that justice so requires.

15 PARTIES

16 A. Plaintiffs

17 7. Plaintiff Scott Thompson, natural father and guardian of A.T. (a minor), 18 is a citizen of the state of Missouri.

19 8. Minor A.T. is a citizen of the state of Missouri.

20 9. Danielle Thompson is a citizen of the State of Missouri.

21 10. As a result of Disney's misrepresentations and/or omissions, Danielle 22 Thompson booked a stay at Aulani, A Disney Resort and Spa, for her family. On the 23 date of arrival, Minor A.T. slipped on the floor of the pool deck near the slides.

24 B. Defendant

25 11. Defendant The Walt Disney Company is a Delaware corporation with its 26 principal place of business located at 500 S Buena Vista Street in Burbank, California
27 90521. Defendant is, therefore, a citizen of the states of Delaware and California.
28 Defendant is engaged in the sale and marketing of family vacations, family hotel and

1 resort stays, and family friendly entertainment, including stays at Aulani, A Disney
2 Resort and Spa.

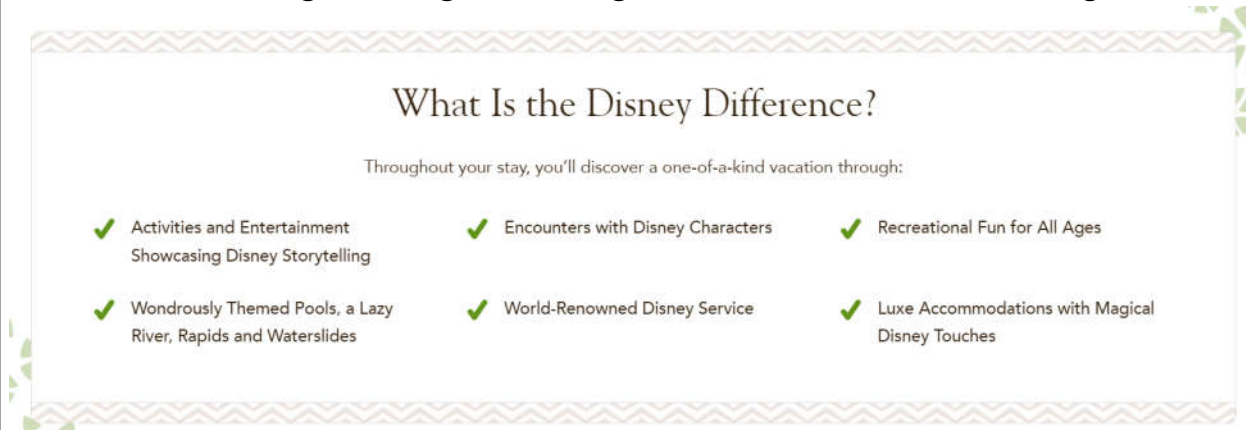

3 12. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of Defendants
4 proximately caused Plaintiffs' damages.

5 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

6 MATERIAL MISREPRESENTATIONS AND OMISSIONS OF FACT

7 13. Defendant has advertisements and marketing that create a false 8 impression that their facilities are safe and are for families of all ages and that they 9 were designed with families in mind.

10 14. For example, Disney describes the "Disney Difference" as a one-of-a-11 kind vacation through, among other things, "Recreational Fun for All Ages":

21 See, e.g., <https://www.disneyaulani.com/about-aulani/the-disney-difference/>

22 15. Similarly, Disney claims that "Aulani Resort offers family fun and 23 surprises at every turn[,]” including the opportunity to “play in pools with special 24 Disney touches”:

17. Nowhere in the online marketing and advertising materials regarding the Waikolohe Pool and surrounding areas does Disney disclose that the ground is more slippery than a normal pool area grounds or that guests should use extreme caution when ambulating around Aulani Waikolohe Pool area.

18. Disney, does indicate that the Pool was “Designed with families in mind” and that the area is “enticing for every member of your ‘ohana”:

1 FEATURES OF WAIKOLOHE POOL

2 Waikolohe is Hawaiian for “mischievous water”—and with its whimsical features, Waikolohe Pool lives up to its name.

6 Just ok, not worth price

7 Stayed 4 nights, 5 days. Within an hour of being on property I realized
8 that was way to much time here. Ideally 2 nights, maybe even 1 is all you
9 need. I was nervous coming here based on the reviews but wanted to take 10 the kids and see it for myself. All the negative reviews I read are correct.
11 For one thing, it's def way to crowded, especially for the price. The four 12 seasons next door seemed so much more relaxing and more my speed.

13 The grounds here are super slippery, I mean law suit slippery. Wife 14 slipped on first day just walking. Daughter slipped next day while

18 "we have resurfacing planned later in the month". Well that does us 19 no good right now at peak season and premium pricing. They should 20 be closed down until resurfacing is complete . This is a major 21 problem that they are waiting til peak season is over to address, sad.

Terrible!! Dangerous!! Fear for kids safety here!!

Our family is here currently - kids age 3 and 6. Pool dangerous- kids have fallen dozens of times as super slippery!! Room a/c doesn't work because "it is motion activated". Water takes >5 minutes to heat up and 5 mins to cool down (concern for scalding children in shower). Kids club is full before it even opens. Beach so busy that you cannot even enjoy water and people will run over you with boogie boards, etc - again, extremely dangerous!! Chair situation is supposed to be monitored but isn't-watched two families fight over chairs as there are none available!! Cost is also issue - almost $50 for two muffins and a cup of strawberries (although this really is the least of our concern at this time)! I wish we had options for getting away from this place before something bad happens- it is DANGEROUS and I am very concerned being here!!

The only positive is that kids club is very nice if you can get a spot!

9 I CAN'T BELIEVE THEY DID THAT!!!

10 My mother in law fell two times in a five minute period near the pool
11 area the first full day we were at the resort. She sprained her knee 12 which left her in a wheel chair for the entire trip and she broke her 13 wrist in two places and may now need to get pins put into her arm.
14 The material used on the ground is a very slippery stone in an area 15 that is intended for swimmers, hence they know it is going to be 16 consistently wet - why would they do that? Clearly our trip was 17 ruined as we had to cancel nearly all our excursions, she could no
18 longer go in the water, she was stuck in her room and had to spend 19 too much time in the hospital. During one of her trips to the hospital, 20 she was told by the medical staff that this has happened before and 21 often (why have they not fixed the problem???). My own son nearly 22 fell in the same area three times but luckily I was holding his hand.
23 Numerous managers at the resort were notified numerous times over
24 a seven day period and. . . ready for this. . . THEY DID NOTHING 25 (except send a plate with 4 chocolate covered strawberries to her 26 room)!! Need I say more? Unfortunately for them - I am a lawyer:)

They need a lot of work with customer service as well as providing a safe environment

We've never stayed at the Aulani and heard so many great things about it so we finally went (couple days ago) for our daughter's birthday and so regret it. My poor girl slipped and fell into the pool and there's no lifeguard coming to check on us, absolutely nobody despite my loud scream. They do have lifeguards everywhere (teenagers) but I really don't know if they're there for a show or take their job seriously enough. On our 2nd night, our 6mo vomit all over the bed and we asked for room service, guess what? They left the sheets on our bed instead of making the bed for us - is this a hostel or a hotel? Even a motel would change sheets for their customers. On our last night, we had buffet dinner at the hotel and our entire family suffered from food poisoning. (probably from the oysters) And all of these added up to my $4000 hotel expense, thanks Aulani for this memorable trip.

poor safety features around property

just came back. spent a lot of time around the pool where i saw people slipping and sliding on the deck. then of course i fell, but did a faceplant, which caused a lot of bleeding on my cheek. luckily a lifeguard was there (Marcos) and patched me up as best he could. no 'slip' signs on walkway. no rubber mats. went to front desk to complain and got zero response (Kristen). insisted on filing a safety claim (was dissuaded several times from doing so). Disney needs to do something about the deck, and about taking claims more seriously if they want repeat guests.

BEWARE OF INJURY! GROUNDS EXTREMELY SLIPPERY!!
DISNEY WILL SAY IT'S YOUR FAULT

My family and I are huge Disney fans. We have been on 3 cruises and countless vacations to Disneyland and World. This was our first trip to Aulani. We stayed Aug 1-5. While there I slipped and injured my back

1 on the stairs getting into the Ka Maka pool (the one with the infinity
 2 edge and Jacuzzi). Another lady slipped on the stairs as I was getting out.
 3 Disney did nothing to prevent others from getting hurt. No sign. No
 4 padding, or something on the stairs. I had a horrible rest of my 7 day
 5 vacation because of the pain. I haven't been able to work. Disney is now
 6 stating that they have no cameras and no proof that I didn't just slip on 7 my own! "Magically", they can't locate the life guard that helped me. I
 8 am shocked that a company like Disney would be so unethical! If you 9 were there during that time and saw anyone fall getting into this pool, please PM me. If you are planning a trip, BE CAREFUL!!! Disney will ignore your injuries, blame you, and while your entire life is stopped because you can't work: send passive aggressive emails with
 " Ma halo".Shame on Disney for treating guests this way.

14 Too expensive, not worth it,

15 Paid >$400/night, small room, very small kitchenette. My room had 16 ocean and resort view but pool view is not great due to faked mountain 17 and trees cover pool and lazy river. The resort is trying to sell package to 18 Japanese tourists....cost more money to swim (snorkel) with fish while 19 Sheraton in mauii is free. Not too many activities on beach except a 20 floating deck in ocean but kids can slip easily (very dangerous). Long line for water slide. With the same amount of money spend, I rather go to all inclusive resort in Mexico or Caribbean and less waiting for water park. The only nice thing I like is the shower room for guess after we check out (I traveled in apr 2015)

24 30. Also, Minor A.T. is not the only person to have slipped and/or fallen on 25 the wet floors of Aulani's pool area within the year.

26 31. A Disney Vacation Club owner fell in or about the month of September 27 2022, so Defendant was on clear notice of the condition of the pool area and its 28 excessive slipperiness.

1 32. Additionally, Lauren Pangle, P.A., an emergency room medical provider
2 of The Queen's Medical Center-West O’ahu located at 91-2141 Fort Weaver Road
3 Ewa Beach, Hawaii 96706 stated to Danielle Thompson and Scott Thompson that they 4 see numerous kids from slipping and falling at Disney Aulani.

5 ANTI-SLIP TECHNOLOGIES

6 33. Constant exposure to the sun and water can deteriorate your pool’s
7 concrete deck and cause it to lose its grip. In addition to the examples listed above,
8 Aulani can also utilize and apply anti-slip treatments on the pool area flooring on a 9 regular basis. The technology can be applied quickly (within 2 hours) and can be 10 immediately walked on – i.e., there is no downtime.

11 34. For example, www.dontslip.com sells an anti-slip treatment even for 12 floors that are wet:

13 STEP 1
14 Our expert team applies the treatment and most jobs require less than 2 hours

15 STEP 2
16 Our patented “no cure” solution requires no drying time so its ready to go almost immediately

17 STEP 3
18 Enjoy traction even when floors are wet! Reduce potential injury and liability. Satisfaction Guaranteed!

19 WORKS ON NEARLY ANY SURFACE
20 Without changing appearance

21 PRICES STARTING AS LOW AS $2.00 PER FT
($150 minimum per job)

22 POOL DECK COATINGS

- 23 x Non Slip
- 24 x Barefoot Friendly
- 25 x Easy to clean
- 26 x Non Fading

27 PERFECT FOR POOL DECKS, WOOD
28 DECKS, PATIOS AND RAMPS

Commercial & Residential: Ceramic Tile, Natural Stone, Vinyl, VCT, and Laminate & More. Kitchens, Tubs, Showers, Floors, Decks, Pools, Spas, Boats, Lobbies, Stairs, and Walkways. Safer floors, wet or dry!

1 <https://dontslip.com/> (emphasis added)

2 35. The FAQs available on the website provide, importantly:

4 Why do you say that the treatment makes it "Safer Wet than Dry"?

6 Our treatment changes the surface in such a way that when exposed to 7 water the floor is actually measurably less slippery when it is wet than 8 when it is dry.

9 36. Aulani could easily have this treatment – or something similar – applied
10 to the pool deck areas. However, Aulani does not apply it or something similar or it 11 does not apply it frequently enough.

12 37. Additionally, Aulani does not apply anti-slip grip tape or anti-slip rugs in 13 areas that should have anti-slip grip tape or anti-slip rugs.

14 PLAINTIFF SPECIFIC FACTS

15 38. Plaintiffs arrived on Aulani's property on or about March 19, 2023 for a 16 two day, one night stay.

17 39. One of the reasons that Plaintiffs stayed at the Disney Aulani Resort and 18 Spa was to enjoy the slides that it advertised. Plaintiffs checked in and while waiting 19 for their rooms to be ready, Plaintiffs attempted to enjoy the poolside amenities and 20 slides.

21 40. The Thompson children went down the slides and upon exiting the slide
22 and stepping out of the pool, Minor A.T. (then, age 10) slipped and fell on the slippery 23 surface of the ground, hitting the back of his head and splitting his head open on the 24 corner of the top step of the steps leading outside of the slides area.

25 41. As a result of the injury, Danielle Thompson and Scott Thompson had to 26 take Minor A.T. to the Emergency Room for examination. The entire ordeal took 27 several hours, hours they should have been relaxing in and around the pool and 28 enjoying the amenities offered at Aulani.

42. Minor A.T.'s injury required several stiches to close up the wound. As a

1 result of having a wound requiring stitches, Minor A.T. was unable to get his head wet
2 in the ocean or pool to prevent the wound from being infected for the seven (7+)
3 remaining days of the trip. Furthermore, the Thompson family was unable to enjoy the 4 rest of their stay at Aulani itself (check out was on March 20th). Minor A.T. even 5 stayed inside until March 21 because of how he felt and which impacted Minor A.T.'s
6 family's ability to enjoy Hawaii as well during that time.

7 43. As a result of Minor A.T.'s fall, Minor A.T. incurred medical expenses.

8 44. Additionally, Plaintiffs wish that Disney take proactive steps necessary to 9 prevent this from happening to anyone else again and/or to make disclosures to the 10 public to make people aware of the excessively slippery condition of the Aulani pool
11 grounds. Reason being, had Defendants disclosed the unsafe conditions of its pool
12 area grounds, Plaintiffs would have known of the unsafe conditions of the pool area 13 grounds and Plaintiffs would have never booked and/or stayed at Aulani or would 14 have paid less to do so.

15 45. Of note, Plaintiffs noticed that at the next hotel they stayed at for the 16 remainder of their time in Hawaii, the facility had Non-Slip strips on staircases.

17 46. Similarly, other hotels in Hawaii utilize Vinyl Mesh Pool Mats in high 18 slip areas.

19 47. Other hotels utilize slip resistant surfaces and permanent warning signs 20 for slippery areas.

21 48. Other hotels utilize slip resistant materials for flooring to prevent 22 excessive slipping in and around the pool areas.

23 49. Plaintiffs believe that the aforementioned Anti-Slip Products and/or 24 Technology would be appropriate and that the Court should require Disney to have the 25 treatment applied if Disney will not do it on its own accord.

26 NOTICE TO DEFENDANT

27 50. In or about May 6, 2023, Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of their 28 minor son, by and through undersigned counsel sent a letter to Defendant notifying

1 them of the problems addressed herein, Certified, Return Receipt Requested. To date,
2 Disney has not sent a response.

3 51. Because the United States Postal Service failed to Return Receipt as 4 Requested, Plaintiffs intend to send a second CLRA letter contemporaneously with 5 the filing of this Complaint. In the event that Defendant fails to rectify the situation
6 within thirty days of receipt of the new letter, Plaintiffs will amend the instant
7 Complaint to add damages under the CLRA.

8 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

9 52. SCOTT THOMPSON, individually and as Parent and Guardian of his 10 Minor Child A.T., and DANIELLE THOMPSON, seek relief individually and on 11 behalf of all others similarly situated.

12 53. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 23(a), (b)(2), (b)(3) and (c)(4), Plaintiffs 13 seek certification of a Nationwide class defined as follows:

14 All citizens of the United States who stayed at Aulani.

15 54. Excluded from the Classes are Defendant, its subsidiaries and affiliates, 16 its officers, directors, the members of their immediate families, and any entity in 17 which Defendant has a controlling interest, to include the legal representatives, heirs, 18 successors, or assigns of any such excluded party. Also excluded are the judicial 19 officer(s) to whom this action is assigned, and the members of their immediate 20 families.

21 55. Plaintiffs hereby reserve the right to amend or modify the class 22 definitions with greater specificity or division after having had an opportunity to 23 conduct discovery.

24 56. The proposed Class meets the criteria for certification under Rule 23(a), 25 (b)(2), (b)(3) and (c)(4).

26 57. Numerosity. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1). Consistent with Rule 23(a)(1), 27 the members of the Class are so numerous and geographically dispersed that the 28 joinder of all members is impractical. Disney has physical and/or email addresses for

1 the parents Class Members who therefore may be notified of the pendency of this 2 action by recognized, Court-approved notice dissemination methods, which may 3 include U.S. mail, electronic mail, internet postings, and/or published notice.

4 58. Commonality and Predominance. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2) and (b)(3).
5 Consistent with Rule 23(a)(2) and with 23(b)(3)'s predominance requirement, this 6 action involves common questions of law and fact that predominate over any 7 questions affecting individual Class members. The common questions include:

8 a. Whether Defendant had a duty of reasonable care to maintain its pool 9 deck and/or step area, including applying anti-slip products and/or anti-slip 10 technology to reduce the likelihood of slipping;

11 b. Whether Defendant knew or should have known of the susceptibility of 12 its pool deck and steps to be susceptible to falling;

13 c. Whether Defendant's measures to prevent slipping and/or falling was 14 reasonable;

15 d. Whether Defendant was negligent in failing to implement reasonable and 16 adequate procedures and practices regarding pool deck and steps to prevent slipping 17 and/or falling.

18 e. Whether Defendant engaged in unfair, unlawful, and/or deceptive trade
19 practices to encourage people to stay at Aulani and feel safe on and around the pool 20 deck and step areas;

21 f. Whether Defendant's failure to implement adequate safety measures 22 rendered its pool deck and step area susceptible to slipping and/or falling;

23 g. Whether Defendant failed to adequately warn regarding its excessively 24 slippery pool deck and/or steps and the lack of anti-slip products and/or technologies 25 being applied.

26 h. Whether Defendant's acts and omissions were unfair, unlawful, and/or 27 deceptive as it relates to its marketing and sales of its hotel stays and/or vacations at 28 Aulani;

1 i. Whether Plaintiffs and Class Members were injured and suffered
2 damages or other losses because of Defendant's acts and omissions;

3 j. Whether Plaintiffs and Class members are entitled to relief.

4 59. Typicality. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). Consistent with Rule 23(a)(3), 5 Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of other Class members. Plaintiffs each stayed
6 at Aulani and suffered damage as a result of the unsafe conditions of the pool area
7 surfaces, and that Aulani had safe conditions for a resort were a material fact in 8 Plaintiffs decision to book a stay at Aulani resort. Plaintiffs' damages and injuries are 9 akin to other Class Members, and Plaintiffs seek relief consistent with the relief
10 sought by the Class. The claims of the Plaintiffs and the respective Class are based on 11 the same legal theories and arise from the same unlawful and willful conduct of 12 Defendants, resulting in the same injury to the Plaintiffs and the respective Class.
13 Plaintiffs and all members of the Class are similarly affected by Defendants' wrongful 14 conduct and were damaged in the same way. Plaintiffs' interests coincide with, and 15 are not antagonistic to, those of the other Class members. Plaintiffs have been 16 damaged by the same wrongdoing set forth in this Complaint. Plaintiffs' damages and 17 injuries are akin to other Class Members, and Plaintiffs seek relief consistent with the 18 relief sought by the Class.

19 60. Adequacy. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). Consistent with Rule 23(a)(4), 20 Plaintiffs are adequate representatives of the Class because Plaintiffs are a member of 21 the Class they seeks to represent; are committed to pursuing this matter against Disney
22 to obtain relief for the Class; and have no conflicts of interest with the Class.
23 Moreover, Plaintiffs' Counsel are competent and experienced in litigating class
24 actions, including privacy litigation of this kind. Plaintiffs intend to vigorously 25 prosecute this case and will fairly and adequately protect the Class's interests.

26 61. Superiority. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). Consistent with Rule 23(b)(3), a 27 class action is superior to any other available means for the fair and efficient 28 adjudication of this controversy, and no unusual difficulties are likely to be

1 paragraph as though set forth at length herein.

2 66. Plaintiffs have standing to pursue this cause of action as Plaintiffs have 3 suffered injury in fact and has lost money or property as a result of Defendants'
4 actions as delineated herein.

5 67. The UCL defines unfair business competition to include any “unlawful,
6 unfair or fraudulent” act or practice, as well as any “unfair, deceptive, untrue or 7 misleading” advertising. Cal. Bus. Prof. Code § 17200.

8 68. A business act or practice is “unlawful” if it violates any established state 9 or federal law.

10 69. Defendants’ business practices, as alleged herein, violate the “unlawful”
11 prong by:

12 (a) engaging in negligent acts and practices by failing to take one or more
13 acts when it should have acted or by taking one or more affirmative actions that it 14 should not have taken as described herein;

15 (b) knowingly and intentionally concealing from Plaintiffs and the Class 16 material information; and/or

17 (c) Being negligent with respect to the maintenance of its pool deck and/or 18 steps;

19 (d) having an attractive nuisance on its property;

20 (e) violating the Consumer Legal Remedies Act – namely, Cal. Civ. Code (a) 21 § 1770(a)(5), represented that its “goods or services have sponsorship, approval, 22 characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, or quantities that they do not have”; (b) §
23 1770(a)(7), represented that Defendants’ “goods or services are of a particular 24 standard, quality, or grade, or that goods are of a particular style or model, if they are 25 of another”; (c) § 1770(a)(9), advertised goods or services with intent not to sell them 26 as advertised”; (e) § 1770(a)(19), inserted an unconscionable provision in the 27 contract”; and (f) for other such violations of the CLRA that discovery will uncover.

28 (f) violating the FTC;

- 1 (g) being unjustly enriched;
- 2 (h) violating other common or statutory law.

3 70. Defendants’ business practices, as alleged herein, violate the “unfair”
4 prong of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. Defendants’
5 business practices are unfair business practice under the UCL because they “either
6 ‘offend[] an established public policy’ or [are] ‘immoral, unethical, oppressive, 7 unscrupulous or substantially injurious to consumers.’” Evenchik v. Avis Rent A Car
8 Sys., LLC, 2012 WL 4111382, at *8 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 17, 2012) (quoting McDonald v.
9 Coldwell Banker, 543 F.3d 498, 506 (9th Cir.2008) (quoting People v. Casa Blanca 10 Convalescent Homes, Inc., 159 Cal.App.3d 509, 530, 206 Cal.Rptr. 164 (1984)).

11 71. A business act or practice is also “unfair” under the Unfair Competition 12 Law if the reasons, justifications, and motives of the alleged wrongdoer are 13 outweighed by the gravity of the harm to the alleged victims.

14 72. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ unlawful and unfair,
15 business practices, Plaintiffs and the Class have suffered injury in fact and lost money 16 or property.

17 73. In particular, Minor A.T. slipped and fell and hit the back of his head
18 requiring a visit to the hospital. A.T.’s visit to the hospital resulted in medical bills 19 due to testing and treatment for his head injury. Plaintiffs were not able to enjoy the 20 facilities of Aulani as a result of the injury A.T. sustained on the property, which was 21 the purpose for which they chose to book a stay at Aulani.

22 74. Additionally, Danielle Thompson would not have booked a stay at 23 Aulani had Disney not engaged in the “unlawful, unfair or fraudulent” acts or 24 practices identified herein, as well as the “unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading” 25 advertising as identified herein.

26 75. Furthermore, Scott Thompson, Danielle Thompson, and Minor A.T. were 27 unable to enjoy their stay at Aulani as they spent their time at the hospital and were 28 tending to Minor A.T.’s injuries during the rest of their stay at Aulani instead of 1 utilizing the slides and pool area at Aulani.

2 76. The injury resulting from Defendant’s acts and practices is substantial,
3 not outweighed by any countervailing benefits to consumers or to competition, and 4 not an injury that the consumers themselves could reasonably have avoided.

5 77. The basis for Plaintiffs’ claims emanated from California as one or more
6 decisions regarding the safety and/or maintenance of its pool deck and/or pool steps
7 occurred at The Walt Disney Company. Additionally, one or more decisions regarding 8 the sale and marketing of its hotel stays and vacations occurred at The Walt Disney 9 Company.

10
11 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

12 VIOLATIONS OF THE CALIFORNIA CONSUMER LEGAL REMEDIES
13 ACT (CAL. CIV. CODE § 1750, ET SEQ.)

14 78. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all preceding allegations as though 15 fully forth herein.

16 79. California’s Consumers Legal Remedies Act (“CLRA”), Cal. Civ. Code
17 § 1750, et seq., proscribes “unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive 18 acts or practices undertaken by any person in a transaction intended to result or which 19 results in the sale or lease of goods or services to any consumer.”

20 80. Disney offers various pool and/or slide related Activities (hereinafter 21 “Pool-Side Services”) at the Aulani Resort & Spa.

22 81. By way of example and not limitation, pool and/or slide related Activities
23 Disney advertises is the Waikolohe Pool, the Wikolohe Stream, the Wailana Pool, and

83. The Activities Disney offers are each a “service” within the meaning of Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(b).

84. Plaintiffs and the other Class members are “consumers” as defined in Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(d), and Plaintiffs, the other Class members, and Defendants are “persons” as defined in Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(c).

85. As alleged herein, Defendants made misleading representations and omissions concerning the benefits, performance, and safety of the “Pool-Side Services”.

86. In booking a Resort Stay, Plaintiff Danielle Thompon purchased the access to the Pool-Side Services on behalf of herself and her family, including Scott Thompson and Minor A.T.

1 87. Plaintiffs and other Class members were deceived by Defendants failure
2 to disclose its knowledge of the defective and dangerous nature of the Pool-Area
3 Services pool-side area and grounds.

4 88. Defendants' conduct as described herein was and is in violation of the 5 CLRA. Defendants' conduct violates at least the following enumerated CLRA
6 provisions:

7 (a) in violation of § 1770(a)(5), represented that Defendants' "goods or 8 services have sponsorship, approval, characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, or 9 quantities that they do not have";

10 (b) in violation of § 1770(a)(7), represented that Defendants' "goods or 11 services are of a particular standard, quality, or grade, or that goods are of a particular 12 style or model, if they are of another";

13 (c) in violation of § 1770(a)(9), advertised goods or services with intent not 14 to sell them as advertised";

15 (d) in violation of § 1770(a)(19), inserted an unconscionable provision in the 16 contract"; and

17 (e) for other such violations of the CLRA that discovery will uncover.

18 89. Defendants intentionally and knowingly misrepresented and omitted
19 material facts regarding the pool area surfaces and services with an intent to mislead
20 Plaintiffs and Class members.

21 90. Defendants' actions as described herein were done with conscious 22 disregard of Plaintiffs' rights and Defendants was wanton and malicious in 23 Defendant's concealment of the same.

24 91. In purchasing or leasing the goods or services, Plaintiffs and other Class 25 members were deceived by Defendants' failure to disclose their knowledge of the 26 Defect.

27 92. Plaintiffs and other Class members had no way of knowing Defendants' 28 representations were false, misleading, and incomplete or knowing the true nature of

1 the Defect.

2 93. As alleged herein, Defendants engaged in a pattern of deception and 3 public silence in the face of a known Defect.

4 94. Plaintiffs and other Class members did not, and could not, unravel
5 Defendants' deception on their own.

6 95. Defendants knew or should have known their conduct violated the 7 CLRA.

8 96. Defendants owed Plaintiffs and the Class members a duty to disclose the 9 truth about the dangerous condition of the Pool-Area Services because the Pool side

12 area surfaces and related services;

13 (b) Intentionally concealed the foregoing from Plaintiffs and Class members;
14 and/or

15 (c) Made incomplete representations in advertisements and on its website, 16 failing to warn the public of the dangerous condition of the pool area surfaces and 17 related services.

18 97. Defendants had a duty to disclose that the pool area has the defective
19 surfaces making them extremely dangerous to Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs' family, and other 20 hotel guests, because the pool area surfaces created a safety hazard, and Plaintiffs and 21 the other Class members relied on Defendants' material misrepresentations and 22 omissions regarding the features of the pool area and related services.

23 98. Defendants' conduct proximately caused injuries to Plaintiffs and 24 Plaintiffs' Minor A.T. and the other Class members that purchased the and suffered 25 harm as alleged herein.

26 99. Plaintiffs and the other Class members were injured and suffered 27 ascertainable loss, injury-in-fact, and/or actual damage as a proximate result of

1 including overpaying for their Hotel Stay and related fees that have suffered a 2 diminution in value.

3 100. Defendants' violations cause continuing injuries to Plaintiffs and other 4 Class members.

5 101. Defendants' unlawful acts and practices complained of herein affect the 6 public interest.

7 102. Defendants knew of the dangerous condition of the pool area surfaces
8 and related services, and that the pool-area surfaces and services were materially 9 compromised by it.

10 103. The facts concealed and omitted by Defendants from Plaintiffs and other 11 Class members are material in that a reasonable consumer would have considered
12 them to be important in deciding whether to purchase access to the Pool-Area Services 13 or pay a lower price.

14 104. Had Plaintiffs and the other Class members known about the defective
15 nature of the Pool Area and related services, they would not have purchased the hotel 16 stay and related services or would not have paid the prices they paid.

18 omissions, and/or courses of conduct, as described herein, were undertaken by 19 Defendants in a transaction intended to result in, and which did result in, the sale or 20 lease of goods or services to consumers.

21 106. Pursuant to § 1780(d) of the CLRA, attached hereto as Exhibit A are the 22 affidavits showing that this action has been commenced in the proper forum.

23 107. Plaintiffs' and the other Class members' injuries were proximately
24 caused by Defendants' unlawful and deceptive business practices.

25 108. Pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code § 1780(a), Plaintiffs seek an order enjoining
26 Defendants from engaging in the methods, acts, or practices alleged herein, including 27 further concealment of the dangerous condition of the Pool-Area Services.

28 109. Pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code § 1782(a)(2), Plaintiffs demand judgment

1 against Defendants under the CLRA for injunctive and equitable relief to enjoin the 2 practices described herein.

3 110. Plaintiffs intend to send a CLRA notice letter to Defendants certified
4 mail, return receipt requested regarding Defendant's violations of the CLRA.

7 this Complaint to add claims under the Cal. Civ. Code for Actual damages, but in no
8 case shall the total award of damages in a class action be less than one thousand 9 dollars ($1,000).

10 112. Under the CLRA, a plaintiff may without prior notification file a 11 complaint alleging violations of the CLRA that seeks injunctive relief only. Then, if 12 the Defendant does not remedy the CLRA violations within 30 days of notification, 13 the plaintiff may amend her or his CLRA causes of action without leave of court to 14 add claims for damages. Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of the class, intend to 15 amend this complaint to add damages claims if Defendants do not remedy their 16 respective violations as to Plaintiffs and the Class Members within the statutory 17 period.

24 116. Defendant's practices, acts, and courses of conduct in connection with 25 the sale of its pool-area services that were in a dangerous condition, as described 26 above, are likely to mislead a reasonable consumer acting reasonably under the 27 circumstances to his or her detriment. As a result of Defendant's acts and practices as 28 alleged in this Complaint, Plaintiffs are entitled to injunctive relief prohibiting

1 Defendants from continuing in the future the unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent practice
2 as described herein.

3 117. Plaintiffs reasonably believed and/or depended on the material false
4 and/or misleading information provided by, or omitted by, Defendants with respect to 5 Defendant's unfair acts and deceptive practices.

6 118. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant's unlawful methods, acts, or 7 practices as described herein have caused damage to Plaintiff, entitling Plaintiffs to 8 damages and injunctive relief; Attorneys' fees and costs; and other relief that this 9 Court deems proper.

10 119. Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend this Complaint and to assert a claim 11 for damages pursuant to Civil Code §1782.
