2. What is the lawsuit about?

The class action lawsuit claims that the fuel tanks in certain Toyota and Lexus vehicles are equipped with defective Denso-manufactured fuel pumps. The lawsuit pursues claims for violations of various state consumer protection statutes, among other claims. You can read the class action complaint by visiting www.ToyotaFuelPumpsSettlement.com. Toyota and Denso deny that they have violated any law and deny that they engaged in any wrongdoing. The parties agreed to resolve these matters before these issues were decided by the Court.

This settlement does not involve claims of personal injury, wrongful death, or actual physical property damage arising from the Covered Vehicles.

On February 4, 2020, Plaintiff Sharon Cheng filed a class action complaint in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York, Sharon Cheng, et al. v. Toyota Motor Corporation, et al., Case No. 1:20-cv-00629-WFK-JRC (E.D.N.Y.), asserting claims related to Toyota's January 13, 2020 recall report (the "Recall Report") to NHTSA voluntarily recalling nearly 700,000 Toyota and Lexus vehicles manufactured between August 1, 2018 through January 31, 2019 with low-pressure Denso fuel pumps (together with the expansions referenced below, the "Recall"). The Recall Report states:

These fuel pumps contain an impeller that could deform due to excessive fuel absorption. Although the cause is unknown, if impeller deformation occurs, the impeller may interfere with the fuel pump body, and this could result in illumination of check engine and master warning indicators, rough engine running, engine no start and/or vehicle stall while driving at low speed. However, in rare instances, vehicle stall could occur while driving at higher speeds, increasing the risk of crash.

On March 4 and March 19, 2020, Toyota expanded the Recall to cover more than 1.8 million affected Toyota and Lexus vehicles equipped with Denso Fuel Pumps manufactured between 2013 and 2019.

On April 14, 2020, Plaintiff Cheng filed her first amended complaint adding as defendants Denso Corporation and Denso International America, Inc., the makers of the defective fuel pumps, and allegations relating to Toyota's March 4 and 19, 2020 expansions of the Recall.

Between March 20, 2020 and April 20, 2020, additional putative class actions were filed in other federal courts making substantially similar allegations as those in Cheng. These three cases were voluntarily transferred to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York and consolidated with Cheng.

On April 27 and June 11, 2020, Denso recalled over 2 million of its Fuel Pumps.

On July 3, 2020, Plaintiffs in the consolidated Cheng action filed their consolidated amended class action complaint which included refined allegations related to Toyota's expanded Recall, Denso's recall, the Fuel Pump issue and countermeasure. The consolidated amended complaint asserted claims on behalf a nationwide class; a multi-state consumer protection class covering 25 states; another multi-state consumer protection class covering six states; multi-state strict liability class and multi-state negligent recall classes, each covering 22 states.

On October 28, 2020, Toyota expanded its Recall to cover an additional 1.5 million affected Toyota and Lexus vehicles manufactured between 2013 and 2019. The Recall currently encompasses approximately 3.36 million Toyota and Lexus vehicles.

On November 5, 2020, Plaintiffs in Cheng filed their first amended consolidated amended class action complaint which included allegations relating to Toyota's most recent expansion of the Recall. The first amended consolidated amended complaint asserted claims on behalf a nationwide class, multi-state classes for consumer protection, strict liability class and negligent recall.

On December 14, 2020, Plaintiffs filed their Second Amended Consolidated Complaint, adding allegations about the updated recall, and refining their allegations. The Class Action Complaint is brought by 33 named Plaintiffs on behalf of a nationwide class, multi-state classes for consumer protection, strict liability, and negligent recall, and individual state classes for Alabama, Arizona, California, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Maryland, Missouri, New York, New Jersey, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas, Utah and Virginia, and asserts claims against Toyota and Denso.³ There were 33 plaintiffs named and 97 causes of action.

On January 15, 2021, TMNA and Denso served their motions to dismiss. TMNA and Denso made numerous arguments. Plaintiffs served their opposition on March 30, 2021, responding to TMNA and Denso's arguments. TMNA and Denso filed their replies on May 28, 2021.

As a part of formal discovery, Defendants produced, and Plaintiffs processed and reviewed, about 655,000 documents containing approximately 1.5 million pages of documents related to the Recall, the design and operation of the subject fuel pumps, warranty data, failure modes attributed to the subject fuel pumps, the Defendants' investigation into the issue, and the countermeasure development and implementation. Additionally, Plaintiffs' independent automotive engineering expert sourced and inspected over 100 fuel pumps replaced pursuant to the Recall, and has analyzed, inter alia, the pumps' operation, specifications, and density of the impeller.

As a part of confirmatory discovery, Defendants have produced a substantial number of additional documents, tangible things, and information requested by Class Counsel related to the design and operation of the original equipment fuel pump; the design, operation, development, implementation, the effectiveness of the countermeasure fuel pump; and the Recalls. Plaintiffs' independent automotive engineering expert reviewed and analyzed this additional material, including assessing the efficacy of the countermeasure, the pre- and post-recall warranty repair rates, and the average time in service for manifestation, among other things. Defendants also provided witnesses for interview on these topics and other matters requested by Class Counsel.

On November 3, 2021, the Parties jointly moved the Court to appoint Patrick A. Juneau as Settlement Special Master. The Court granted the joint motion and So Ordered the appointment of Patrick A.

³ Plaintiffs also sued Denso Corporation, the corporate parent of Denso, but later dismissed Denso Corporation from the case.

Juneau on the same day. The Parties had numerous communications with the Settlement Special Master regarding the negotiations, terms, timing, and related issues.

On February 16, 2022, on the Parties' consent, the Action was referred to Magistrate Judge James R. Cho to conduct all proceedings and order the entry of a final judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).

On March 1, 2022, TMNA and DIAM withdrew their pending motions to dismiss without prejudice and with leave to refile.

On September 7, 2022, Plaintiffs filed their Third Amended Consolidated Class Action Complaint which included additional allegations relating to updated facts since the Second Amended Complaint. The 33 named plaintiffs assert claims on behalf of a nationwide class; a multi-state consumer protection class covering 25 states and the District of Columbia; another multi-state consumer protection class covering six other states; multi-state strict liability class and multi-state negligent recall classes, each covering 25 states.

3. What vehicles are included in the settlement?

Various Toyota and Lexus vehicles which were equipped with certain Denso fuel pumps (called the "Covered Vehicles") distributed for sale or lease in the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and all other United States territories and/or possessions are included in the settlement.

In order to determine if your vehicle is a Covered Vehicle, you can look up your vehicle's VIN on the Settlement Website, www.ToyotaFuelPumpsSettlement.com.

4. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, people called "class representatives" sue on behalf of other people who have similar claims. All of these people together are the "Class" or "Class Members" if the Court approves this procedure. Once approved, the Court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class.

5. Why is there a settlement?

Both sides in the lawsuit agreed to a settlement to avoid the cost and risk of further litigation, including a potential trial, and so that the Class Members can get benefits, in exchange for releasing Toyota and Denso from liability. The settlement does not mean that Toyota and Denso broke any laws or did anything wrong, and the Court did not decide which side was right. This settlement has been preliminarily approved by the Court, which authorized the issuance of this Notice. The Class Representatives and the lawyers representing them called Plaintiffs' Counsel, including Class Counsel, believe that the settlement is in the best interests of all Class Members.

The essential terms of the settlement are summarized in this Notice. The Settlement Agreement along with all exhibits and addenda sets forth in greater detail the rights and obligations of the parties. If there is any conflict between this Notice and the Settlement Agreement, the Settlement Agreement governs.

B. WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT?

To see if you are affected or if you can get benefits, you first have to determine whether you are a Class Member.

6. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

You are part of the settlement if you are a person, entity or organization who, at any time as of the entry of the Initial Notice Date, own or owned, purchase(d) or lease(d) Covered Vehicles distributed for sale or lease in any of the fifty States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and all other United States territories and/or possessions. This is called the “Class.”

Excluded from the Class are: (a) Toyota, its officers, directors and employees; its affiliates and affiliates’ officers, directors and employees; its distributors and distributors’ officers, directors and employees; and Toyota Dealers and Toyota Dealers’ officers and directors; (b) Denso, its officers, directors and employees; its affiliates and affiliates’ officers, directors and employees; its distributors and distributors’ officers, directors and employees; (c) Plaintiffs’ Counsel; and (d) judicial officers and their immediate family members and associated court staff assigned to this case.

In order to determine if you are a part of the Settlement, you can look up your vehicle’s VIN on the Settlement Website, www.ToyotaFuelPumpsSettlement.com.

7. I’m still not sure if I’m included in the settlement.

If you are not sure whether you are included in the Class, you may call 1-833-512-2318 or go to www.ToyotaFuelPumpsSettlement.com, which contains a VIN lookup tool to determine if your vehicle is part of the Class.

If you believe that you are a Class Member, but you did not previously receive a Direct Mail Notice, you may contact Class Counsel or the Settlement Notice Administrator. You will need to provide necessary documentation for the Settlement Notice Administrator to confirm that you are Class Member eligible for the relief provided in the Settlement Agreement.

Please do not contact the Court. All questions should be directed to the Settlement Notice Administrator at the number above.

C. THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS —WHAT YOU GET AND HOW TO GET IT

8. What does the settlement provide?

If you are a Class Member, what you are eligible to receive depends on several factors. The settlement benefits are outlined generally below, and more information can be found on the settlement website. The Court still has to decide whether to finally approve the settlement. No benefits have to be provided until and unless the Court finally approves the settlement and only after any appeal period expires or any appeals are resolved in favor of the settlement. After the issuance of the Preliminary Approval

Order signed by the Court, Defendants, at their sole discretion, may, after consultation with Class Counsel, implement the Customer Support Program in advance of the occurrence of the Final Effective Date. We do not know when the Court will finally approve the settlement if it does so or whether there will be any appeals that would have to be resolved in favor of the settlement before certain benefits would be provided, so we do not know precisely when any benefits may be available. Please check www.ToyotaFuelPumpsSettlement.com regularly for updates regarding the settlement.

Please note that you may have to take action within certain deadlines to receive certain benefits, such as completing and submitting a claim form for reimbursement of eligible out-of-pocket expenses. If you do nothing, you may not receive certain benefits from the settlement, and, as a Class Member, you will not be able to sue Toyota and Denso about the issues in the lawsuit.

To determine whether your vehicle is an Additional Vehicle, a Subject Vehicle, or an SSC vehicle, including the specific definitions for each of those terms, all of which are Covered Vehicles in the settlement, please see Appendix A, B, and C, respectively, at the end of this Long Form Notice. You can also look up your vehicle's VIN on the Settlement Website, www.ToyotaFuelPumpsSettlement.com, to determine if you have a vehicle that is covered by the settlement.

a. Additional Vehicles: Customer Support Program

If the settlement is finally approved, for Class Members who still own or lease their Additional Vehicles, the Customer Support Program will be implemented.

Toyota will offer the Customer Support Program ("CSP") to all Class Members who, as of the Final Effective Date, own or lease Additional Vehicles. A Class Member's rights under the CSP are transferred with the Additional Vehicle. Salvaged Vehicles, inoperable vehicles, and vehicles with titles marked flood-damaged are not eligible for this benefit. The CSP will provide prospective coverage for repairs (including parts and labor) needed to correct defects, if any, in materials or workmanship in the Fuel Pumps for the Additional Vehicles. The implementation of the CSP will begin no later than 30 days after the Final Effective Date. Coverage under the CSP for the original parts will continue for 15 years, measured from the Date of First Use, which is the date the vehicle was originally sold or leased from the Toyota Dealer.

Without cost to and upon request from Class Members who own or lease Additional Vehicles whose fuel pumps are being replaced pursuant to the CSP, Class Members shall be provided with the same loaner or rental vehicles and/or towing options provided to the owners or lessees of the Subject Vehicles under the Recall(s). In appropriate circumstances, where the Class Member has a demonstrated need for a Loaner Vehicle similar to the Additional Vehicle different than what is available under the Recall(s), Toyota, through its dealers, shall use good faith efforts to satisfy the request.

In the event that any of the Additional Vehicles becomes the subject of a future recall for the same underlying condition, which is the subject of the Plaintiff's Class Action Complaint, those Additional Vehicles will then be entitled and only be entitled to the same relief provided to Subject Vehicles, as discussed in the next paragraph.

b. Subject Vehicles and SSC Vehicles: Extended New Parts Warranty

Toyota shall extend the new parts warranty coverage for the fuel pump kit replaced (“replacement fuel pump kit”) on the Subject Vehicles and the SSC Vehicles. The extended warranty will last for 15 years, measured from July 15, 2021, and up to 150,000 total odometer miles, whichever comes first.

Without cost to and upon request from Class Members who own or lease SSC Vehicles or Subject Vehicles whose fuel pumps are being replaced pursuant to the Extended Warranty shall be provided with the same loaner or rental vehicles and/or towing options provided to the Subject Vehicles under the Recall(s). In appropriate circumstances, where the Class Member has a demonstrated need for a Loaner Vehicle similar to the Subject Vehicle or the SSC Vehicle, Toyota, through its dealers, shall use good faith efforts to satisfy the request.

In the event that any of the SSC Vehicles becomes the subject of a future recall for the same underlying condition, which is the subject of the Plaintiff’s Class Action Complaint, those SSC Vehicles will be entitled to the relief provided under the settlement as defined above in this subparagraph as well as any additional benefits provided pursuant to a future recall.

c. Out-of-Pocket Claim Process

If the Settlement is finally approved, including resolving any appeals in favor of upholding the Settlement, you can ask to be reimbursed if you previously paid for expenses incurred to repair or replace a Fuel Pump of Covered Vehicles that were not otherwise reimbursed and that were either (a) incurred prior to the Initial Notice Date; or (b) incurred after the Initial Notice Date and before the Final Effective Date. For costs that were incurred after the Initial Notice Date and before the Final Effective Date, the Class Member must provide proof that they were denied coverage by the Toyota dealer prior to incurring the cost.

To be eligible for reimbursement, you must submit a Claim Form prior to 90 days after the Court issues the Final Order and Final Judgment, which will occur, if approved, no earlier than March 14, 2023. The Claim Form is available on the Settlement website www.ToyotaFuelPumpsSettlement.com. You must submit your Claim Form and any supporting documentation, if available, for prior paid repair expenses for a covered condition to the Settlement Notice Administrator. The deadline to submit Claim Forms is ninety (90) days after the Court issues the Final Order and Final Judgment, which will occur, if approved, no earlier than March 14, 2023.

The Settlement Claims Administrator will determine whether Claim Forms are complete and timely. If your Claim is deficient, the Settlement Notice Administrator will mail you a letter requesting that you complete and/or correct the deficiencies and resubmit the Claim Form within sixty (60) days. If you fail to provide the requested documentation or information, your Claim will be denied.

The Settlement Claims Administrator will review your Claim Form and other Claims that are submitted and determine if reimbursement is owed. Review of Claims should be completed within sixty (60) days of receipt, but this review period is not required to begin any earlier than sixty (60) days after the Final Effective Date.

If the Claim is rejected for payment, in whole or in part, the Settlement Claims Administrator shall notify Class Counsel, Toyota's Counsel, and Denso's Counsel of said rejection of Class Member's Claim and the reason(s) why within sixty (60) days of the rejection. The decision of the Settlement Claims Administrator shall be final; provided, however, that Class Counsel, Toyota's Counsel, and Denso's Counsel may meet and confer to resolve any denied Claims. If Class Counsel, Toyota's Counsel, and Denso's Counsel jointly recommend payment of the rejected Claims or payment of a reduced claim amount, then Toyota's Counsel and/or Denso's Counsel shall inform the Settlement Claims Administrator, who shall instruct Toyota and/or Denso's Counsel to pay said Claims. If Class Counsel, Toyota's Counsel, and Denso's Counsel disagree with the Settlement Claims Administrator's initial determination, they shall so notify the Settlement Claims Administrator, with explanation, and the Settlement Claims Administrator shall make a final determination as to whether the Claim shall be paid. If a Claim is rejected in full or in part, the Settlement Claims Administrator shall direct the Settlement Notice Administrator to mail a notice of rejection letter to the Class Member and email notice to the Class member if an e-mail address was provided.

d. Procedure for Denial of Coverage

If a Class Member and/or subsequent purchaser/lessee of a Covered Vehicle is denied coverage for repairs (including parts and labor), if any, in materials or workmanship in the Fuel Pumps under the Customer Support Program for Additional Vehicles, or the Extended New Parts Warranty for Subject Vehicles and the SSC Vehicles, the Class Member and/or subsequent purchaser/lessee may take the Covered Vehicle to a second Toyota Dealer for an independent determination. If the second Toyota Dealer determines that the Covered Vehicle qualifies for a repair and/or replacement of the fuel pump kit, the Class Member shall be provided those benefits as provided in this Agreement.

9. How do I dispute the refusal of a benefit under the Settlement Agreement?

In the event there remains a dispute by a Class Member relating to entitlement to any benefit under the Customer Support Program, the Loaner/Towing Program, the Extended New Parts Warranty, and/or Out-of-Pocket Claims Process that is not resolved after exhausting all other means of resolution available under this Settlement, the Settlement Claims Administrator or the Settlement Notice Administrator, as the case may be, shall provide a written notice of same, together with all necessary documentation, to the Settlement Special Master, Class Counsel, Toyota's Counsel and Denso's Counsel within fifteen (15) days of the final act constituting the denial of the benefit. Class Counsel, Toyota's Counsel, and Denso's Counsel shall confer and either make a joint recommendation to the Settlement Claims Administrator or separately relay their positions concerning the dispute to the Settlement Claims Administrator within thirty (30) days. The Settlement Claims Administrator shall make a final determination concerning the dispute and provide written notice of same, with directions for implementation, to the Parties, or Settlement Notice Administrator within thirty (30) days. Toyota's Counsel, Denso's Counsel, and/or the Settlement Notice Administrator shall implement the Settlement Claims Administrator's determination within thirty (30) days; provided, however, that if the determination was to allow, in full or in part, a previously denied Claim, the Settlement Notice Administrator shall pay the Claim in the next distribution of checks for allowed Claims.

During the twelve (12) months after the Final Effective Date, the Settlement Claims Administrator and the Settlement Notice Administrator, with cooperation of Toyota’s Counsel and Denso’s Counsel, shall provide quarterly reports to Class Counsel concerning the implementation of and Class Member participation in the Customer Support Program.

10. What am I giving up in exchange for the settlement benefits?

If the settlement becomes final, Class Members who do not exclude themselves from the Class will release Toyota and Denso from liability and will not be able to sue Toyota and Denso about the issues in the lawsuit, but will not be releasing any claims for personal injury, wrongful death or physical property damage (except to the Fuel Pump in the Covered Vehicle itself) from the Covered Vehicle. The Settlement Agreement at Section VII describes the released claims in necessary legal terminology, so read it carefully. For ease of reference, we also attach the full release section in Appendix D to this Notice. The Settlement Agreement is available at www.ToyotaFuelPumpsSettlement.com. You can talk to one of the lawyers listed in Question 14 below for free or you can, of course, talk to your own lawyer at your own expense if you have questions about the released claims or what they mean.

D. EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue Defendants over the legal issues in the lawsuit, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from this settlement. This is also known as “opting out” of the Class.

11. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from this settlement?

If you exclude yourself, you do not get settlement benefits and you will not be bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit. If you ask to be excluded, you cannot object to the settlement. But, if you timely and properly request exclusion, the settlement will not prevent you from suing, continuing to sue or remaining or becoming part of a different lawsuit against Toyota and Denso in the future about the issues in the lawsuit.

12. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue later?

Unless you exclude yourself, you give up the right to sue Toyota and Denso for the claims resolved by this settlement. If you do not exclude yourself and the settlement is finally approved, you will be permanently enjoined and barred from initiating or continuing any lawsuit or other proceeding against Toyota and Denso about the issues in the lawsuit.

13. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must submit a written request saying that you want to be excluded from the settlement. In your letter, you must include: (a) a heading which refers to the lawsuit, Cheng, et al., v. Toyota Motor Corp., et al., Case No. 1:20-cv-00629-WFK-JRC (E.D.N.Y.); (b) the excluding Class Member’s full name, current residential address, mailing address (if different), telephone number, and email address; (c) an explanation of the basis upon vehicles inspected, resulting in an amount of $72,500.00. The full amount of service awards for all 33 Class Representatives is up to $86,500.00 (eighty-six thousand five hundred dollars and no cents).

At the conclusion of the Parties reaching agreement on the substantive material terms of this Settlement Agreement, the Parties mediated attorneys' fees and costs and individual Class Representative service awards with the assistance of Settlement Special Master Patrick A. Juneau. Following a series of intensive negotiations between the Parties and the Settlement Special Master Juneau on August 11, 2022, the Parties requested that Settlement Special Master Juneau propose a mediator's number for the amount of attorneys' fees; Settlement Special Master Juneau provided the Parties with $28,500,000.00 for attorneys' fees. After discussion with the clients, the Parties subsequently agreed to accept the Settlement Special Master Juneau's mediator number.

The Court must approve the request for Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Expenses and the request for Class Representative service awards. Class Counsel will file the motion for Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Expenses and the request for Class Representative service awards with the Court, which will then be posted on the settlement website. The amounts awarded by the Court will be paid by Defendants in addition to all other settlement benefits. Under no circumstances will Defendants' payment of Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Expenses and Class Representative service awards reduce your settlement benefits.

In order to pay the Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Expenses and Class Representative service awards, the Parties, through their respective counsel, shall move the Court to establish and create a Qualified Settlement Fund ("QSF"), pursuant to Internal Revenue Code § 468B and the Regulations issued thereto, which shall be used to deposit and distribute Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Expenses and Class Representative service awards as may be awarded by the Court, with the QSF to be held by the Escrow Agent. All payments to be made by Defendants pursuant to this Agreement shall be made by wire transfer into an Escrow Account, established and controlled consistent with and pursuant to an Escrow Agreement at a mutually-agreed-upon bank with a preference for a bank located in New York State. The Escrow Agent shall invest the payments in short-term United States Agency or Treasury Securities (or a mutual fund invested solely in such instruments), or in a United States Government fully-insured account, and shall collect and reinvest any and all interest accrued thereon, if applicable, unless interest rates are such that they would effectively preclude investment in interest-bearing instruments as defined herein. All (i) taxes on the income of the Escrow Account and (ii) expenses and costs incurred with taxes paid from the Escrow Account (including, without limitation, expenses of tax attorneys, accountants, and the Tax Administrator) (collectively, "Taxes") shall be timely paid by Defendants without prior Order of the Court. All other expenses related to the Escrow Account and/or QSF (including but not limited to the payment of the Escrow Account officer), shall be paid for separately, by Defendants. The Parties agree that the Escrow Agent, with the assistance of the Tax Administrator, shall be responsible for filing tax returns for the QSF and paying from the Escrow Account any Taxes owed with respect to the QSF.

The Parties agree that the Escrow Account shall be treated as a QSF from the earliest date possible and agree to any relation back election required to treat the Escrow Account as a QSF from the earliest date possible. The Escrow Account shall be initially comprised of one fund which shall be a single QSF. Toyota, Denso, the Settlement Special Master, Class Representatives, and Class Counsel shall have no responsibility with respect to taxes owed by the QSF or Class Members who receive distributions from the QSF pursuant to this Settlement Agreement.

Defendants agree to deposit the amount of the Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Expenses and Class Representative service awards into a QSF no later than ninety (90) days from the date of the issuance of the preliminary approval order by the Court. The timing of the distribution of the Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Expenses and Class Representative service awards, as awarded by the Court in the issued Final Order, shall be at the discretion of Settlement Special Master Juneau.

Following the Court's grant of Final Approval, the Settlement Special Master may distribute funds from the QSF.

If the Court does not grant final approval to the Settlement, any funds remaining in the QSF shall revert to Defendants, as per their contributions, and any such funds paid into the QSF and not returned to Defendants will be credited towards any eventual settlement that may be approved.

F. OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

16. How do I tell the Court if I do not like the settlement?

If you are a Class Member, and you do not exclude yourself from the Class, you can object to the settlement if you do not like some part of it or all of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. You can also object to the request for attorneys' fees, costs and expenses and the request for Class Representative service awards. To object, you must file electronically or mail to the Clerk of the Court a written objection signed by you saying that you object to the settlement in *Cheng, et al., v. 17. What is the difference between objecting and excluding?

Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the settlement no longer affects you. Objecting is telling the Court that you do not like something about the settlement, the requested fees, costs and expenses, and/or Class Representative service awards. You can object only if you stay in the Class.

If you are a Class Member and you do nothing, you will remain a Class Member and all of the Court's orders will apply to you, you will be eligible for the settlement benefits described above as long as you satisfy the conditions for receiving each benefit, and you will not be able to sue Toyota over the issues in the lawsuit.

G. THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to grant final approval to the settlement. If you have filed an objection on time and attend the hearing, you may ask to speak (provided you have previously filed a timely notice of intention to appear), but you do not have to attend or speak.

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to grant final approval of the settlement?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing at 10:00 a.m. Eastern time on December 14, 2022, at the United States District Courthouse, Eastern District of New York, 225 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, NY 11201. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and whether to approve the request for attorneys' fees, costs and expenses, and the request for Class Representative service awards. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court will only listen to people who have met the requirement to speak at the hearing (see Question 20 below). After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to grant final approval of the settlement, and, if so, how much to pay the lawyers representing Class Members and the Class Representatives. We do not know how long these decisions will take. The Court may reschedule the Fairness Hearing, so check the settlement website periodically for further updates.

19. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. But you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to Court to talk about it – but you can if you provide advance notice of your intention to appear (see Question 19 below). As long as you filed a written objection with all of the required information on time with the Court, the Court will consider it. You may also pay another lawyer to attend, but it is not required.

20. May I speak at the hearing?

You or your attorney may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Fairness Hearing. To do so, you must send a letter saying that it is your "Notice of Intent to Appear in Cheng, et al., v. Toyota Motor Corp., et al.," to the Clerk of Court so that it is received and filed no later than November 25, 2022. You must include your name, address, telephone number, the year, make and model and VIN number of your vehicle, the identity of all counsel representing the objector, if any, who will appear at the Fairness Hearing, and your signature. Anyone who has requested permission to speak must be present at the start of the Fairness hearing at 10:00 a.m. Eastern time on December 14, 2022. You cannot speak at the hearing if you excluded yourself from the Class.

H. GETTING MORE INFORMATION

21. How do I get more information?

This Notice summarizes the proposed settlement. More details are in the Settlement Agreement. You can get a copy of the Settlement Agreement and other documents and information about the settlement at www.ToyotaFuelPumpsSettlement.com. You can also call the toll-free number, 1-833-512-2318 or write the settlement administrator at Cheng v. Toyota Motors, c/o Kroll Settlement Administration, Po Box 5324 New York, NY 10150-5324.

22. When will the settlement be final?

The settlement will not be final unless and until the Court grants final approval of the settlement at or after the Fairness Hearing and after any appeals are resolved in favor of the settlement. Please be patient and check the settlement website identified in this Notice regularly. Please do not contact the Court. All questions should be directed to the Settlement Notice Administrator.

A. The Parties agree to the following release and waiver, which shall take effect upon entry of the Final Judgment and Final Order.

B. In consideration for the Settlement Agreement, Class Representatives, and each Class Member, on behalf of themselves and any other legal or natural persons who may claim by, through, or under them, agree to fully, finally, and forever release, relinquish, acquit, and discharge the Released Parties from any and all claims, demands, suits, petitions, liabilities, causes of action, rights, and damages of any kind and/or type regarding the subject matter of the Action, including, but not limited to, compensatory, exemplary, punitive, expert and/or attorneys' fees or by multipliers, whether past, present, or future, mature, or not yet mature, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, derivative or direct, asserted or un-asserted, whether based on federal, state or local law, statute, ordinance, regulation, code, contract, common law, violations of any state's deceptive, unlawful, or unfair business or trade practices, false, misleading or fraudulent advertising, consumer fraud or consumer protection statutes, any breaches of express, implied or any other warranties, RICO, or the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, or any other source, or any claim of any kind arising from, related to, connected with, and/or in any way involving the Action, the Covered Vehicles' Fuel Pumps, and/or associated parts that are, or could have been, defined, alleged, or described in the Class Action Complaint, the Action, or any amendments of the Class Action Complaint ("Released Claims"); provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, Class Representatives and the other Class Members are not releasing claims for personal injury, wrongful death or physical property damage (except to the Fuel Pump in the Covered Vehicle itself) from the Covered Vehicle.

C. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Class Representatives and/or the other Class Members shall hold Released Parties harmless for all Released Claims that may be asserted by another legal or natural person (including but not limited to legal guardians and estate administrators) who claim by, through, or under that Class Representative or Class Member.
