

worked as exotic dancers (hereinafter referred to as “Dancers”) at Whispers Club, a club located at 5215 NW 10th St., Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Plaintiff contends that Whispers Club denied the Dancers their fundamental rights under federal and state wage and hour laws, causing them financial loss and injury. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant intentionally misclassified dancers as independent contractors to deny them, and all other class members, minimum wages due and other employment benefits. Additionally, Plaintiff contends that Defendant imposed unlawful tip sharing when Defendant required Dancers to share their gratuities that patrons gave to them with Defendant and other employees. Based on the alleged violations of state and federal law, Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant, seeking back pay, restitution, liquidated damages, injunctive and declaratory relief, civil penalties, prejudgment interest, attorneys’ fees and costs, and any and all other relief that the Court deems just and reasonable in the circumstances.

2. Since at least 2001, Oklahoma Courts have applied the “economic reality test” to determine the existence of an employer-employee relationship within the state of Oklahoma. See Washington v. Cornell Corr., Inc., 2001 OK CIV APP 102, ¶ 2, 30 P.3d 1162, 1163.

3. Federal courts across the country have held that the economic reality test further applies to dancers at adult nightclubs and that said dancers were employees under the Fair Labor Standards Act (the “FLSA”). See e.g., Clincy v. Galardi S. Enterprises, Inc., 808 F. Supp. 2d 1326 (N.D. Ga. 2011); McFeeley v. Jackson St. Entm’t, LLC 825 F. 235 (4th Cir. 2016); Verma v. 3001 Castor, Inc., CIV.A. 13-3034, 2014 WL 2957453 (E.D. Pa. June 30, 2014).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. § 1331 and 1332 (West) because this action involves a federal question, specifically 29 U.S.C.A. § 216(b) (West).

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. § 1391 (West) in that many of the acts and transactions giving rise to this action occurred in this District and because Defendant:

(a) is authorized to conduct business in this District and has intentionally availed itself of the laws and markets within this District through the promotion, marketing, distribution and sale of its products in this District;

(b) does substantial business in this District; and

(c) is subject to personal jurisdiction in this District.

PARTIES

3. At all times relevant to this matter, Plaintiff resided and continues to reside in this District and was an employee of Whispers Club as defined in 29 U.S.C.A. § 201 (West) et seq. and O.S. tit. 40, § 165.01(2) working as an exotic dancer at Defendant's nightclub. Plaintiff worked various dates during the class period, starting in June 2016 through the end of her employment on November 25, 2016. Throughout the course of her employment with Defendant, Plaintiff, like all other class members, was: (1) misclassified as an independent contractor; (2) deprived of wages and other benefits that she was entitled to as an employee, and (3) required to split tip income with Defendant and their employees.

4. Defendant Whispers Club is an Oklahoma for Profit Corporation with the service address in Oklahoma to H. Craig Pitts, 1503 E. 19th Street, Edmond, OK 73013. Defendant owns and operates the exotic entertainer dance club, Whispers Club.

5. Throughout the relevant period, Whispers Club: (1) misclassified Dancers as independent contractors as opposed to employees; (2) required Dancers to split their tips with Defendant; (3) required Dancers to split their tips with Defendant's managers, doormen, floorwalkers, disc jockeys, and other employees who do not usually receive tips, by paying "tip-outs;" (4) did not pay Dancers any wages; (5) demanded improper and unlawful payments from class members; and (6) adopted and implemented employment policies that violate the FLSA and other age and hour laws.

6. Defendant knew or should have known that its business model was unlawful, because money that patrons gave to Dancers and not taken into Defendant's gross receipts is legally defined as a gratuity and is the sole property of each Dancer.

7. At all relevant times, Defendant owned and operated an enterprise engaged in interstate commerce and utilized goods which moved in interstate commerce, as defined in 29 U.S.C.A. § 203(r) and 203(s) (West).

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8. Defendant owns and operates the adult entertainment club called Whispers Club, which is located at 5215 NW 10th St, Oklahoma City, OK 73127.

9. Defendant is an "employer" involved in interstate commerce within the meaning of the FLSA, codified at 29 U.S.C.A. § 201, et seq. In addition, Defendant is or was, at all times mentioned herein, enterprises engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce as defined in Section 3(r) of the Act (29 U.S.C.A. § 203(r) and 203(s)).

10. Plaintiff was Defendant's employee and worked at Whispers Club from June 2016 through November 2016.

11. Plaintiff was deprived compensation to which they were entitled through the following singular practices, decisions or plans of Defendant:

(a) Requiring adult entertainers and other employees to work without compensation;

(b) Requiring adult entertainers and other employees to perform work without compensation during times for which they could not receive tips;

(c) Refusing to compensate adult entertainers one and one half times minimum wage when their total hours worked exceeded 40 hours.

(d) Requiring adult entertainers to share tips with non-tipped employees;
and

(e) Requiring adult entertainers to pay fees for the right to work.

12. At all times in the three years preceding the filing of the instant Complaint, Defendant has employed adult entertainers at the Whispers Club.

13. In the three years preceding the filing of the instant Complaint, Defendant has misclassified all adult entertainers at the Whispers Club as "independent contractors."

14. In the three years preceding the filing of the instant Complaint, Defendant has not required the adult entertainers to possess specialized training, background or education.

15. Defendant established specific work schedules. Additionally, Defendant dictated the specific times and manner in which the adult entertainers interacted with customers and danced on stage. Plaintiff was subject to the policies of Defendant outlined in this paragraph.

16. Defendant required the adult entertainers, including Plaintiff, to wear specific types of attire while performing, required them to attend unpaid staff meetings, and financed all advertising and licensing related to the business. Plaintiff was subject to the policies of Defendant outlined in this paragraph.

17. Defendant required that the adult entertainers, including Plaintiff, pay a specific amount, often referred to as a “house fee” or “bar fee,” to qualify to work any given shift. The “house fee” or “bar fee” varied from shift to shift, depending on the shift and the event promoted by Defendant. Plaintiff was subject to the policies of Defendant outlined in this paragraph.

18. Adult entertainers, including Plaintiff, were fined for not showing up for a scheduled shift. Defendant fined adult entertainers, who notified Defendant that they would be unable to work a shift. Defendant fined adult entertainers who failed to “call in” prior to a scheduled shift. Plaintiff was subject to the policies of Defendant outlined in this paragraph.

19. Defendant required adult entertainers, including Plaintiff, to pay a specific “Disc Jockey” fee at the instruction of all Defendant. The amounts required to be paid by the adult entertainers varied from event to event and night to night. Plaintiff was subject to the policies of Defendant outlined in this paragraph.

20. Defendant required adult entertainers to pay a percentage of all gratuities received back to the Whispers Club. Plaintiff was subject to the policies of Defendant outlined in this paragraph.

21. The fees described above constitute illegal tip sharing arrangements with non-tipped employees. Further, the fees described above represent illegal kickbacks within the meaning of the FLSA.

22. Defendant has never paid the adult entertainers, including Plaintiff, any amount as wages. The adult entertainers' sole source of work-related income during their employment with the Defendant was gratuities received from paying customers.

23. Because Defendant did not pay an earned wage to adult entertainers, Defendant did not pay adult entertainers one and one half times their regular rate of pay when Plaintiff exceeded forty hours worked in any given workweek.

24. Defendant knew or should have known that misclassifying Plaintiff as "independent contractors" instead of the appropriate employee designation was a violation of the FLSA. As a result, Defendant failed to pay the required minimum wage and failed to pay overtime wages as required by the FLSA.

25. Defendant's above-mentioned actions, policies and practices of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated persons compensation for work performed was in violation of the FLSA.

26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each and every one of the acts and omissions asserted herein was performed by, and/or is attributable to Defendant acting as agents and/or employees, and/or under the direction and control of Defendant, and that said acts and failures to act were within the course and scope of said agency, employment and/or direction and control, and were committed willfully within the meaning of the FLSA.

27. Courts, including the United States Supreme Court, have repeatedly held that the subjective intentions of the parties, labels placed on the workers, or contractual agreements are irrelevant to the determination of whether a worker is actually an “employee” covered by the FLSA and wage and hour laws. Rutherford Food Corp. v. McComb, 331 U.S. 722, 727, 67 S. Ct. 1473, 91 L. Ed. 1772 (1947), citing Walling v. Am. Needlecrafts, 139 F.2d 60 (6th Cir. 1943) (“Where the work done, in its essence, follows the usual path of an employee, putting an independent contractor label does not take the worker from the protection of the Act.”).

28. As courts have further explained, the FLSA and state wage and hour laws are designed to defeat rather than implement contractual arrangements that attempt to have workers waive or contract out their rights as employees. See, e.g., Imars v. Contractors Mfg. Servs., Inc., 165 F.3d 27 (6th Cir. 1998) (“We agree that it makes very good sense to reject contractual intention as a dispositive consideration in our analysis. The reason is simple: ‘The FLSA is designed to defeat rather than implement contractual arrangements.’ [Sec’y of Labor, U.S. Dep’t of Labor v. Lauritzen, 835 F.2d 1529, 1544–455 (7th Cir. 1987) Easterbrook J., concurring]); see also Real v. Driscoll Strawberry Associates, Inc., 603 F.2d 748, 755 (9th Cir. 1979) (‘Economic realities, not contractual labels, determine employment status for remedial purposes of the FLSA’). The FLSA represents the New Deal’s rejection of Lochner v. New York, 198 U.S. 45, 25 S. Ct. 539, 49 L. Ed. 937 (1905), abrogated by W. Coast Hotel Co. v. Parrish, 300 U.S. 379, 57 S. Ct. 578, 81 L. Ed. 703 (1937), and its doctrine of freedom of contract. Even if employees freely want to work for below the minimum wage, or work in statutorily banned conditions, or work long hours without extra compensation – even if their choices are moral and economically efficient – the FLSA does not allow this. This is true even when bargaining is done at arm’s length.”).

29. Applying the actual economic reality test that governs employee/independent contractor determinations, all Dancers in the Class have been misclassified as independent contractors.

30. As a direct and proximate result of the unlawful actions of Defendant, Plaintiff and persons similarly situated have suffered, and continue to suffer, from loss of earnings yet to be ascertained, but subject to proof at trial, in amounts in excess of the minimum jurisdiction of this Court.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

31. As alleged herein, Defendant is liable under the FLSA for willfully failing to properly compensate Plaintiff, and all other similarly situated current and former adult entertainers employed by Defendant during the three year period prior to commencement of this action, and as such, notice should be sent to past and present adult entertainers employed by Defendant during the three year period prior to initiation of this action, pursuant to 29 U.S.C.A. § 216(b).

32. As alleged herein, Defendant deprived Plaintiff and other similarly situated adult entertainers of compensation to which they are entitled through the following singular practices, decisions or plans:

- (a) Requiring adult entertainers and other employees to work without compensation;
- (b) Requiring adult entertainers to perform work during times for which they could not receive tips without compensation;
- (c) Refusing to compensate adult entertainers one and one half times minimum wage when their total hours worked exceeded 40 hours;
- (d) Requiring adult entertainers to share tips with non-tipped employees; and
- (e) Requiring adult entertainers to pay fees for the right to work.

33. Based thereon, Defendant have repeatedly and intentionally engaged in a similar practice, commonly and typically applied to the class of adult entertainers, of improperly depriving compensation to which such adult entertainers are entitled under the FLSA.

34. Questions that are common among the FLSA Collective Action members include, but are not limited to:

- (a) whether Defendant has and continues to unlawfully refuse to pay adult entertainers proper compensation, in violation of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.A. § 201, et seq., for all work performed;
- (b) whether Defendant has and continues to unlawfully refuse to pay adult entertainers proper overtime compensation, in violation of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.A. § 201, et seq., through the aforementioned policies and practices;

(c) whether Defendant's failure to pay such proper compensation is willful within the meaning of the FLSA.

35. There are numerous, similarly situated current and former adult entertainers employed by Defendant in venues owned and/or operated by Defendant who have been subject to the same policies and practices alleged herein, in violation of the FLSA, and who would benefit from the issuance of a Court-supervised notice of the present lawsuit and the opportunity to join in the present lawsuit. Those similarly situated employees are known to Defendant, and are readily identifiable by Defendant's records.

36. The FLSA applied to Plaintiff and the Class at all times in which they worked at Whispers Club, because Defendant employed Plaintiff and each member of the Class under the FLSA and other applicable law.

37. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and each member of the Class were employees of Defendant under the FLSA and applicable state wage and hour laws.

38. No exceptions to the application of the FLSA or state wage and hour laws apply to plaintiff or the Class. For example, no class member has ever been a professional or artist exempt from the provisions of the federal or state employment statutes. The exotic dancing performed by class members while working at Whispers Club does not require invention, imagination, or talent in a recognized field of artistic endeavor, and Defendant never compensated class members on a set salary, wage, or fee basis.

39. Class members' sole source of income while working at Whispers Club was tips that patrons provided in exchange for dances.

40. At all relevant times, Defendant was an employer of all class members under the FLSA and state wage and hour laws. Defendant suffered or permitted class members to work and, directly or indirectly, exercised significant control over the wages, hours, and working conditions of the Dancers in the Class.

41. Plaintiff consented to sue in this action pursuant to 29 U.S.C.A. § 216(b). Additional potential collective action members may execute and file forms consenting to opt-in to join as a plaintiff in the instant action. A copy of the “Plaintiff’s Notice of Consent” is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

42. Plaintiff, on behalf of themselves and other similarly situated current and former employees, bring this collective action against Defendant under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.A. § 201, et seq. for failure to pay minimum wage and overtime compensation.

43. Plaintiff and others similarly situated (the “FLSA Collective”), are individuals who are current and former adult entertainer employees of Defendant within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.A. § 203(e)(1).

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

44. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit on behalf of herself and the proposed Class members under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). The proposed Class consists of:

All workers at Defendant’s Whispers Club.

45. Numerosity. The members of the Class are so numerous that their individual joinder is impracticable.

46. Existence and Predominance of Common Questions of Law and Fact.

Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the Class and predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class members.

47. Typicality. Plaintiff' claims are typical of the claims of the members of the Class and Plaintiff has the same claims as those of the other Class members.

48. Adequacy of Representation. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the members of the Class. Plaintiff have retained counsel highly experienced in complex consumer class action litigation, and Plaintiff intend to prosecute this action vigorously. Plaintiff have no adverse or antagonistic interests to those of the Class.

49. Predominance and Superiority. The requirements of predominance and superiority are met under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3).

COUNT I
Failure to pay Wages in Violation of the Minimum Wage Provision of FLSA

50. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in the paragraphs above as if fully set forth herein.

51. This claim arises from Defendant's willful violation of the FLSA for failure to pay a minimum wage to Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective.

52. At all times relevant, Defendant has been, and continues to be, an "employer" engaged in interstate commerce and/or the production of goods for commerce, within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.A. § 201, et seq. Defendant has employed and continues to employ adult entertainers, including named Plaintiff and members of the FLSA Collective, who engage or engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce. At all times relevant, upon information and belief, this Defendant has had annual gross sales or done business in excess of $500,000.00.

53. The minimum wage provisions of the FLSA apply to Defendant and protect Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective. Defendant was required to compensate all adult entertainers for all work performed as non-exempt employees.

54. Pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.A. § 206 (West), Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective were entitled to be compensated at a rate of $7.25 per hour. Plaintiff was an employee of Defendant and Defendant was engaged in commerce.

55. Defendant was not allowed to avail themselves of the federal tipped minimum wage rate under the FLSA because Defendant provided no notice to adult entertainers of its intention to take a tip credit and because Plaintiff was required by Defendant to pool tips with non-tipped employees, specifically members of the management staff of the Whispers Club.

56. Defendant, pursuant to its policies and practices, refused and failed to pay a minimum wage to Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective.

57. Such acts were committed knowingly and willfully, within the meaning of 29 U.S.C.A. § 255(a) (West), with a conscious disregard for the rights of the Plaintiff and persons similarly situated under federal wage and hour laws, by which such acts have deprived the Plaintiff and persons similarly situated of their property and legal rights.

58. As a result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff and potential collective action members have suffered, and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages, and have incurred expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendant to fully perform its obligations under the law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at the time of trial, but in excess of the minimum jurisdiction of this Court.

59. Pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.A. § 201, et seq., and including, 29 U.S.C.A. § 216(b), Plaintiff is legally entitled to recover unpaid wages at their regular rate, plus interest, liquidated damages, attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

COUNT II
Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of the Overtime Provisions of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.A. § 201, et seq.

60. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in the paragraphs above as if fully set forth herein.

61. Pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.A. § 201, et seq., Defendant is and/or was required to compensate all non-exempt employees for all overtime work performed at a rate of pay not less than one and one half the regular rate of pay for work performed in excess of 40 hours in a work week.

62. Defendant pursuant to its policies and practices, refused and failed to pay any wage at all to Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective, including failing to pay a rate of not less than one and one half the regular rate of pay when Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective worked in excess of 40 hours in a workweek.

63. Such acts were committed knowingly and willfully, within the meaning of 29 U.S.C.A. § 255(a), and with a conscious disregard of the rights of the Plaintiff and persons similarly situated under federal wage and hour laws, and such acts have deprived Plaintiff and persons similarly situated of their property and legal rights.

64. As a result of the aforementioned violations, Plaintiff and potential collective action members have suffered, and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages, and have incurred expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendant to fully perform its obligations under the law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at the time of trial, but in excess of the minimum jurisdiction of this Court.

65. Pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.A. § 201, et seq., and including, 29 U.S.C.A. § 216(b), Plaintiff are legally entitled to recover unpaid balances of overtime compensation, plus interest, liquidated damages, attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff pray judgment against Defendant as set forth herein below.

COUNT III
Violation of the Oklahoma Wage and Hour Law, O.S. tit. 40, § 160, 165.2, and 197.1
(West) et seq.
(Failure to pay Minimum Wages)

66. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

67. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and members of the Class were employees of the Defendants within the meaning of O.S. tit. 40, § 165.01(2).

68. At all relevant times, Defendant was an employer of all members of the Class within the meaning of O.S. tit. 40, § 165.01(1).

69. The Oklahoma Minimum Wage Act requires that all employees be paid minimum wages by their employers. O.S. tit. 40, § 197.1 (West) et seq.

70. Under Oklahoma law, an employer cannot give credit exceeding 50% for tips or gratuities towards meeting the minimum wage. Further, employers are not allowed to take any portion of an employee's tips.

71. Any agreement between an employee and employer that has the effect of an employee receiving less than minimum wage is invalid.

72. By requiring class members to share their tips with Defendant and/or their employees, Defendant violated Oklahoma law.

73. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class any minimum wages for their labor during the relevant time period in violation of Oklahoma law. All unpaid minimum wages must be paid to the Class.

Unjust Enrichment

74. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

75. Because of the unlawful conduct described herein, Defendant has been unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiff and the other members of the Class.

76. Specifically, Defendant's unfair and unlawful actions, as described herein, have enabled Defendant to receive money and other benefits in violation of the law at the expense of Plaintiff and the other members of the Class.

77. Defendant's receipt and retention of this financial benefit is unfair and improper under the circumstances.

78. As such, Defendant should be required to disgorge the money retained as a result of its unjust enrichment.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays for a judgment:

A. Judgment against Defendant for an amount equal to Plaintiff's unpaid back wages, overtime pay and unlawful kickbacks;

B. Judgment against Defendant as its violations of the various provisions of FLSA were willful;

C. Enjoining Defendant and its employees, officers, directors, agents, successors, assignees, affiliates, merged or acquired predecessors, parent or controlling entities, subsidiaries and all other persons acting in concert or participation with them from their unlawful acts.

D. Disgorgement of monies obtained through unjust enrichment.

E. An amount equal to the unpaid wages and kickback damages as liquidated damages;

F. An award of prejudgment interest;

G. All costs and attorney's fees incurred in prosecuting these claims;

H. Leave to add additional Plaintiff by motion, the filing of written consent forms, or any other method approved by the Court.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.
