In support of this Notice of Removal, Defendant states the following:

3 I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On January 9, 2018, Plaintiff filed a civil putative class action in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Los Angeles, captioned Laura Vasquez, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, Plaintiff, v.
 JustFoodForDogs, LLC, a California limited liability company, and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, Defendants, Case No. BC689098 in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Orange (the "State Court Action"). A true and correct copy of the Complaint is attached as Exhibit A ("Complaint").

11 2. The State Court issued Summons in the State Court Action on 12 January 9, 2018. A true and correct copy of the Summons is attached as Exhibit B
13 ("Summons").

14 3. Pursuant to California Code of Procedure Section 415.30(c), service of 15 the Summons was deemed complete on February 2, 2018. This is the date counsel
16 for Defendant (Mark J. Austin) signed the Notice of Acknowledgement of Receipt—17 Civil. A true and correct copy of the Notice of Acknowledgement of Receipt—Civil 18 is attached as Exhibit C ("Acknowledgement").

19 4. Defendants DOES 1 through 10 are unnamed and unknown, and,20 therefore, have not been served with Plaintiff's Complaint.

5. To the best of Defendant's knowledge, no other proceedings related hereto have been heard in the Los Angeles County Superior Court.

6. The documents attached as Exhibits A through C constitute all process, pleadings, orders, and other documents served upon the Defendant in this action. See 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a). (Based on the State Court's docket in the State Court Action, there appear to be additional orders and documents that have not been served on Defendant.)

II. STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION

7. The basis for removal is that this Court has original jurisdiction of this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and is one which may be removed to this Court by Defendant pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a).

8. Plaintiff's Complaint contains a single cause of action that "aris[es] 5 under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States" (28 U.S.C. § 1331)-6 namely, the Fair and Accurate Credit Transaction Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1581c(g) 7 ("FACTA"). Plaintiff alleges that Defendant printed a credit-card expiration date on 8 a receipt that she received in June of 2017. (Ex. A, Complaint, ¶ 14.) She seeks to 9 10 represent a class of "[a]ll person in the United States to whom, since the date two years preceding the filing of this Action, Defendant provided an electronically printed 11 hardcopy receipt at the point of sale or transaction on which was printed the expiration 12 13 date of the person's credit or debit card." (Ex. A, Complaint, ¶ 15.)

9. Plaintiff has not asserted any State law claims.

15 III. TIMELINESS OF REMOVAL

16 10. Pursuant to California Code of Procedure Section 415.30(c), service of the Summons was deemed complete on February 2, 2018. In accordance with 17 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b), Defendant filed this removal action within 30 days of 18February 2nd. The removal is, therefore, timely. Madren v. Belden, Inc., No. 12-CV-19 01706-RMW, 2012 WL 2572040, at *2 (N.D. Cal. July 2, 2012), citing Murphy Bros., 20 Inc. v. Mitchetti Pipe Stringing, Inc., 526 U.S. 344, 347-48, 354 (1999) ("Formal 21 22 service of process, measured from the service date according to state law, is a 23 prerequisite for triggering the 30-day removal period because it 'assures defendants 24 adequate time to decide whether to remove an action to federal court.").

25 IV. VENUE

26 11. Plaintiff originally filed this action in the Superior Court of California, 27 for the County of Los Angeles. Venue is thus proper in this district, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a), because it encompasses the county in which this action is

-3-

Rutan & Tucker, LLP attorneys at law 1 pending.

2 V. PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

12. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a), copies of all process, pleadings, and orders served upon Defendant are attached to this Notice of Removal. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), a copy of this Notice of Removal is being served upon counsel for Plaintiff and a copy is being filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court of California, for the County of Los Angeles.

8 VI. DEFENSES

9 13. The removal of this action to the Central District of California does not 10 waive Defendant's ability to assert any defense to this action.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully prays that this Notice of Removal be deemed good and sufficient, and that Case No. BC689098 be removed from the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, to the docket of this Honorable Court.

2. In 2003, Congress passed the Fair and Accurate Credit Transaction Act ("FACTA") to assist in the prevention of identity theft and credit and debit card fraud.

3. A main provision of FACTA (codified as 15 U.S.C. § 1681c(g) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act) provides that:

> "No person that accepts credit cards or debit cards for the transaction of business shall print more than the last five digits of the card number or the expiration date upon any receipt provided to the cardholder at the point of sale or transaction."

4. Defendants have willfully violated this law and failed to protect Plaintiff and others similarly situated against identity theft and credit card and debit card fraud by printing of the credit and/or debit card expiration date on receipts provided to cardholders transacting business with Defendants.

5. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, brings this action against Defendants based on Defendants' violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681 et seq.

6. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the Class, seeks statutory damages, punitive damages, costs and attorneys' fees, all of which are expressly made available by statute at 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681 et seq., and a permanent injunction enjoining Defendants from continuing their unlawful practice of willfully violating FACTA's provisions intended to safeguard against identity theft and credit and debit card fraud.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a resident of the State of California.

8. At all times relevant herein, Defendants have been doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California. The violations alleged herein have taken place at Defendants' business location within the County of Los Angeles, State of California. Venue as to each Defendant is therefore proper in this judicial district, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 395.

-2-COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF EXHIBIT A, PAGE & 9. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of Defendant sued herein as DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues Defendant by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendant designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known.

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

11. At times since at least June, 2012, Defendants have owned and/or operated one or more pet food stores in California.

12. Based on information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants accepted credit and debit cards from customers to make purchases at its stores.

13. Plaintiff used a credit card to make a purchase at Defendants' Sherman Oaks, California store in June, 2017. The expiration date of her credit card was printed on the receipt generated and provided to her at the point of sale.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants printed expiration dates on receipts provided to their customers for transactions since at least June, 2012.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

15. Plaintiff brings this class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §382. Plaintiff seeks to certify a Class composed of and defined as follows:

THE CLASS

All persons in the United States to whom, since the date two years preceding the filing of this Action, Defendant provided an

The Class is so numerous that joinder of all individual members in one action 16. would be impracticable. The disposition of the individual claims of the respective class members through this class action will benefit both the parties and this Court.

17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that there are, at minimum, 1,000 Class members.

18. The exact size of the Class and the identities of the individual members thereof are ascertainable through Defendants' records, including, but not limited to, Defendants' sales and transaction records.

Typicality

Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Class. The claims of the Plaintiff 19. and the Class are based on the same legal theories and arise from the same unlawful conduct.

20. Plaintiff and Class members were customers of Defendants, having made a purchase from, or transacted business with, Defendants using a credit card and/or debit card. At the point of such sale or transaction with Plaintiff and Class members, Defendants provided to Plaintiff and Class members a receipt which violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681c(g).

Common Questions of Fact and Law

There is a well-defined community of interest and common questions of fact and 21. law affecting members of the Class.

22. The questions of fact and law common to the Class predominate over questions which may affect individual members and includes the following:

- Whether Defendants' conduct of providing Plaintiff and Class members with a a. sales or transaction receipt whereon Defendants printing of the credit and/or debit card expiration date violated FACTA, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681 et seq.;
- Whether Defendants' conduct was willful; b.

Whether Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to statutory damages, c. punitive damages, costs and/or attorneys' fees for Defendants' acts and conduct; and

d. Whether Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to a permanent injunction enjoining Defendants from continuing to engage in its unlawful conduct.

Adequacy of Representation

23. Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the Class because her interests do not conflict with the interests of the Class. Plaintiff will fairly, adequately and vigorously represent and protect the interests of Class members and has no interests antagonistic to Class members. Plaintiff has retained counsel who are competent and experienced in the prosecution of class action litigation.

Superiority 12

A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient 24. 13 adjudication of the Class' claims. The damages suffered by individual Class members are 14 relatively small. As a result, the expense and burden of individual litigation makes it economically infeasible and procedurally impracticable for Class members to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them. Plaintiff does not know of any other litigation concerning this controversy already commenced by or against any Class member. The likelihood of the individual Class members prosecuting separate claims is remote. Individualized litigation would also present the potential for varying, inconsistent or contradictory judgments, and would increase the delay and expense to all parties and the court system resulting from multiple trials of the same factual issues. In contrast, the conduct of this matter as a class action presents fewer management difficulties, conserves the resources of the parties and the court system, and would protect the rights of members of the Class. Plaintiff does not know of any difficulty to be encountered in the management of this action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

- 5 -COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Injunctive Relief 1 Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to all Class members, 25. 2 thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief with respect to the Class as a whole. 3 CAUSE OF ACTION 4 PLAINTIFF AND THE CLASS AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS FOR 5 VIOLATION OF 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681 ET SEQ. 6 26. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference all the allegations contained in 7 paragraphs 1 through 25, inclusive, of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein. 8 27. Plaintiff asserts this claim on behalf of herself and the Class against Defendants. 9 Title 15 U.S.C. § 1681c(g)(1) provides in relevant part that: "no person that 28. 10 accepts credit cards or debit cards for the transaction of business shall print more than the last 11 five digits of the card number or the expiration date upon any receipt provided to the cardholder 12 at the point of sale or transaction." 13 29. Defendants transact business in California and accept credit cards and debit cards 14 in the course of transacting business with persons such as Plaintiff and Class members. In 15 transacting such business, Defendants use cash registers and/or other machines or devices that 16 17 electronically print receipts for credit card and/or debit card transactions. 30. Defendants, at the point of sale or transaction with Plaintiff, provided Plaintiff 18 with one or more electronically printed receipts on each of which Defendants printed the 19 expiration date of Plaintiff's credit or debit card. 20 21 31. Defendants, at the point of a sale or transaction with Class members, provided, through use of a machine, Class members with one or more electronically printed receipts, on 22 each of which Defendants printed, for each respective Class member, the expiration date of their 23 credit or debit card. 24 32. Defendants' actions were and continue to be willful. Despite having more than 12 25 years to become compliant with FACTA. Defendants have willfully violated this law and failed 26 to protect Plaintiff and others similarly situated against identity theft and credit card and debit 27 28 card fraud by intentionally printing of the credit and/or debit card expiration date on receipts. - 6 -

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Defendants knew of, or should have known of, and were informed about the law, including specifically FACTA's requirements concerning the prohibition on printing of the credit and/or debit card expiration date on receipts.

33. In addition, on information and belief, many companies such as VISA and MasterCard devised and implemented policies well before the operative date of FACTA's requirements, wherein such companies as VISA and MasterCard and others required Defendants (and informed Defendants of the FACTA requirements) to prevent the printing the credit and/or debit card expiration date on receipts.

34. Despite knowing and being repeatedly informed about FACTA and the importance of preventing the printing of the credit and/or debit card expiration date on receipts, Defendants willfully violated and continue to violate FACTA's requirements by printing the printing of the credit and/or debit card expiration date on the receipts provided to Class members – persons with whom Defendants transact business.

35. Defendants willfully violated FACTA in conscious disregard of the rights of Plaintiff and Class members thereby exposing Plaintiff and Class members to an increased risk of identity theft and credit and/or debit card fraud.

36. As a result of Defendants' willful violations of FACTA, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and each Class member in the statutory damage amount of "not less than $100 and not more than $1000" for each violation. 15 U.S.C. 1681n(a)(1)(A).

37. As a result of Defendants' willful violations of FACTA, Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to recover costs of suit and their reasonable attorneys' fees. 15 U.S.C. 1681n(a)(3).

38. As a result of Defendants' willful violations of FACTA, Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to punitive damages. 15 U.S.C. 1681n(a)(2).

39. Defendants' conduct is continuing and, unless restrained, Defendants will continue to engage in its unlawful conduct.
