

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

MAX WEINSTEIN, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, v.

Plaintiff,

SEATGEEK, INC.,

Defendant.

Civil Action No.: 9:25-cv-81314

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff Max Weinstein (“Plaintiff”) brings this action on behalf of himself, and all others similarly situated against SeatGeek, Inc. (“SeatGeek” or “Defendant”). Plaintiff makes the following allegations pursuant to the investigation of his counsel and based upon information and belief, except as to the allegations specifically pertaining to himself, which are based on personal knowledge.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is a class action on behalf of all persons that purchased resale tickets from SeatGeek’s website to a multiday or multievent concert, entertainment event, permanent exhibition, or recreational activity within a park or entertainment complex in the State of Florida.

2. For years, Defendant has overcharged customers on its website in violation of the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act. Under Florida law, “[a] person or entity that offers for resale or resells any ticket may charge only $1 above the admission price charged therefor by the original ticket seller of the ticket for the following transactions: ... (b) Multiday or multievent tickets to a park or entertainment complex or to a concert, entertainment event, permanent exhibition, or recreational activity within such a park or complex, including an entertainment/resort complex as defined in s. 561.01(18).” Fla. Stat. Ann. § 817.36(1)(b) (emphasis added).

3. SeatGeek is subject to this law and yet it charges more than $1.00 over the original ticket seller’s admission price anyway. SeatGeek resells tickets for multiday and multievent experiences, such as concerts or sporting events, held within parks and entertainment complexes in the State of Florida. Whenever a consumer visits <https://seatgeek.com/> to buy a ticket to a multiday or multievent experiences in an entertainment complex or park in the state of Florida, SeatGeek resells those tickets from the original seller with prices over $1.00 above the admission price charged therefor by the original ticket seller. SeatGeek is thus violating Section 817.36.

4. Florida’s Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (“FDUTPA”) prohibits “[u]nfair methods of competition, unconscionable acts or practices, and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of any trade or commerce.” Fla. Stat. Ann. § 501.204(1). SeatGeek’s practice of charging over $1.00 than the original ticket seller’s price of admission is a per se violation of FDUTPA. The FDUTPA provides that a violation may be based upon “any law, statute, rule, regulation, or ordinance” which proscribes such conduct in trade or commerce. Fla. Stat. Ann. § 501.203(3)(c). And here the violation is based on Florida Statute § 817.36(1)(b), which, as noted, says “[a] person or entity that offers for resale or resells any ticket may charge only $1 above the admission price charged ... for ... [m]ultiday or multievent tickets to a park or entertainment complex or to a concert, entertainment event, permanent exhibition, or recreational activity within such a park or complex.”

5. For these reasons, Plaintiff seeks relief in this action individually, and on behalf of all other ticket purchasers from Defendant’s website, <https://seatgeek.com/>, for actual damages, reasonable attorneys’ costs and fees, and injunctive relief under Fla. Stat. § 501.204.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A), as modified by the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, because at least one member of the Class, as defined below, is a citizen of a different state than Defendant, there are more than 100 class members, and the aggregate amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000 exclusive of interest and costs.

7. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because the wrongful conduct against Plaintiff occurred in this District.

8. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in this District, and because Defendant transacts business and/or has agents within this District.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff Max Weinstein is an individual consumer who, at all times material hereto, was a domiciliary of Boca Raton, Florida. Plaintiff purchased a multiday event ticket to gain attendance to the 2025 Formula 1 Miami Grand Prix on April 23, 2025 and May 4, 2025 through Defendant's website, <https://seatgeek.com/>. The transaction flow process he viewed on Defendant's website was substantially similar to that as depicted in Figures 1 through 7 in this Complaint.

10. Defendant SeatGeek, Inc. is a New York corporation with its principal place of business in New York, NY. Defendant owns and operates the website, <https://seatgeek.com/>.

RELEVANT FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

11. When a consumer visits Defendant's website, <https://seatgeek.com/>, on the main page, he can browse different entertainment events occurring in parks and entertainment complexes in his area. The consumer can browse the types of events, such as sporting or music events, to see more specific options. Defendant offers for resale tickets for many events that contain a multiday or multievent component, such as tournaments or music festivals that occur over the course of a weekend. See Figures 1 and 2, below and next page.

Figure 2

12. After a consumer selects the type of entertainment event he is interested in purchasing tickets for, such as Formula 1 racing events, he is taken to a screen which shows those events in his area. See Figure 3, next page.

Figure 3

13. After a consumer selects the specific event he wishes to purchase tickets for, such as the 2026 Miami Grand Prix, he is shown the variety of tickets available for purchase. See Figure 4, next page.

Figure 4

14. When a consumer clicks the section and row he is interested in purchasing tickets to sit in, he is taken to another page which presents the exact ticket available for purchase. The consumer can click on that ticket to select it and proceed to check out. See Figures 5 and 6, next page.

15. Once the consumer presses the “Continue” button, Defendant prompts him to input his contact information. See Figure 7, below. On this page, Defendant reveals that it charges $1,433.00 for the base ticket, and $285.06 in “Fees.” See id. From this point, the consumer can continue clicking the buttons to complete his purchase, inputting his payment information, never knowing that SeatGeek is violating Florida law with its ticket pricing practices.

16. If a consumer instead visits the Formula 1 Miami Grand Prix 2026 website, <https://f1miamigp.com/>, to purchase his ticket directly from the original seller, he can select tickets in the same section and row which are a substantially lower price than SeatGeek charges. See Figure 8, below.

19. In Figure 9, it shows that the Miami Grand Prix only charges $1,250.00 for a 3-day ticket, without any additional fees, for seats in section T1-3, row 2. This $1,250.00 price point is consistent amongst every seat in section T1-3, row 2. Whereas SeatGeek charges customers $1,433.00 for the base ticket, and quotes customers $285.06 in “Fees” for a 3-day pass in the same section and row. In other words, SeatGeek violates Fla. Stat. Ann. § 817.36(1)(b) before it even adds fees to its resale admission price by charging consumers over $1.00 “above the admission price charged therefor by the original ticket seller of the ticket.”

20. SeatGeek engages in this same price gauging when it resells tickets for different types of multievent or multiday recreational activities held in a park or entertainment complex in Florida, such as music festivals. See Figure 11, below.

21. After a consumer selects the specific music festival he wishes to purchase tickets for, such as III Points Music Festival, he is shown the variety of ticket types available for purchase. See Figure 12, below.

24. In Figures 14 and 15, it shows that III Points only charges $269.00 for the base 2-day general admission ticket, a $40.00 fee, and a $7.50 shipping fee. Whereas SeatGeek charges customers $466.00 for a base 2-day pass, and additionally quotes customers $101.27 in “Fees” and $17.44 in “Delivery Fees.” In other words, SeatGeek again violates Fla. Stat. Ann. § 817.36(1)(b) before it even adds its substantial fees to its resale admission price by charging consumers over $1.00 “above the admission price charged therefor by the original ticket seller of the ticket.”

25. As shown in Figures 1 through 16, SeatGeek consistently charges well above the $1.00 limit on the tickets it resells, in its base pricing and in extra fees, to multievent or multiday ticket passes held within parks or entertainment complexes in the State of Florida in violation of Fla. Stat. Ann. § 817.36(1)(b).

FLORIDA’S RESALE OF TICKETS LAW

26. Effective June 29, 2010, Florida enacted a statute, which provides that “[a] person or entity that offers for resale or resells any ticket may charge only $1 above the admission price charged therefor by the original ticket seller of the ticket for the following transactions: . . . (b) Multiday or multievent tickets to a park or entertainment complex or to a concert, entertainment event, permanent exhibition, or recreational activity within such a park or complex, including an entertainment/resort complex as defined in s. 561.01(18).” Fla. Stat. Ann. § 817.36(1)(b).

27. By violating Florida’s Resale of Tickets Law, Defendant has violated Florida’s Deceptive And Unfair Trade Practices Act (“FDUTPA”), which provides that “[u]nfair methods of competition, unconscionable acts or practices, and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of any trade or commerce are hereby declared unlawful.” Fla. Stat. Ann. § 501.204.

28. The FDUTPA provides that a violation may be based upon “any law, statute, rule, regulation, or ordinance” which proscribes such conduct in trade or commerce. Fla. Stat. Ann. § 501.203(3)(c).

CLASS REPRESENTATION ALLEGATIONS

29. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class defined as all individuals who purchased resale tickets from Defendant’s website, <https://seatgeek.com/>, and paid an excess of $1.00 above the admission price charged therefor by the original seller of the ticket to SeatGeek (the “Class”) for a multiday or multievent ticket to a park or entertainment complex, or to a concert, entertainment event, permanent exhibition, or recreational activity in such park or complex within the State of Florida. Excluded from the Class is any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest, and officers or directors of Defendant.

30. Members of the Class are so numerous that their individual joinder herein is impracticable. On information and belief, members of the Class are at least in the thousands. The precise number of Class members and their identities are unknown to Plaintiff at this time but may be determined through discovery. Class members may be notified of the pendency of this action by mail, email, and/or publication through the distribution records of Defendant.

31. Common questions of law and fact exist as to all Class members and predominate over questions affecting only individual Class members. Common legal and factual questions include, but are not limited to: (a) whether Defendant charged more than $1.00 above the original ticket sellers' price in violation of Florida's Resale of Tickets Law, Fla. Stat. Ann. § 817.36(1)(b).

32. The claims of the named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class in that the named Plaintiff and the Class sustained damages as a result of Defendant's uniform wrongful conduct, based upon Defendant's unlawfully excessive resale prices charged for multiday or multievent tickets to a park or entertainment complex, or to a concert, entertainment event, permanent exhibition, or recreational activity in such park or complex within the State of Florida.

33. Plaintiff is an adequate representative of the Class because his interests do not conflict with the interests of the Class members he seeks to represent, he has retained competent counsel experienced in prosecuting class actions, and he intends to prosecute this action vigorously. The interests of Class members will be fairly and adequately protected by Plaintiff and his counsel.

34. The class mechanism is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of Class members. Each individual Class member may lack the resources to undergo the burden and expense of individual prosecution of the complex and extensive litigation necessary to establish Defendant's liability. Individualized litigation increases the delay and expense to all parties and multiplies the burden on the judicial system presented by the complex legal and factual issues of this case. Individualized litigation also presents a potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments. In contrast, the class action device presents far fewer management difficulties and provides the benefits of single adjudication, economy of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court on the issue of Defendant's liability. Class treatment of the liability issues will ensure that all claims and claimants are before this Court for consistent adjudication of the liability issues.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (“FDUTPA”)
(Fla. Sta. Ann. § 501.204)
(On Behalf Of Plaintiff And The Class)

35. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

36. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and on behalf of the members of the Class against Defendant.

37. Defendant violated Florida’s Deceptive And Unfair Trade Practices Act (“FDUTPA”) by violating Florida’s Resale of Tickets Law. The FDUTPA prohibits “[u]nfair methods of competition, unconscionable acts or practices, and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of any trade or commerce.” Fla. Stat. Ann. § 501.204.

38. The FDUTPA provides that a violation may be based upon “any law, statute, rule, regulation, or ordinance” which proscribes such conduct in trade or commerce. Fla. Stat. Ann. § 501.203(3)(c).

39. Defendant violated Florida’s Resale of Tickets Law, Fla. Stat. Ann. § 817.36(1)(b), by charging more than $1.00 above the original ticket sellers’ price on its multiday or multievent tickets to a park, entertainment complex, or to a concert, entertainment event, permanent exhibition, or recreational activity in that park or complex within the State of Florida, as depicted in Figures 1 through 16 of this Complaint.

40. Defendant resells “[m]ultiday or multievent tickets to a park or entertainment complex or to a concert, entertainment event, permanent exhibition, or recreational activity within such a park or complex, including an entertainment/resort complex as defined in s. 561.01(18).”

Fla. Stat. Ann. § 817.36(1)(b). In particular, Defendant resells tickets to multiday or multievent entertainment experiences in parks and complexes for hundreds of events in the State of Florida, such music or sporting events that provide admission to multiple days or events through the purchase of one ticket.

41. On April 23, 2025 and May 4, 2025, Plaintiff purchased multiday event tickets to gain attendance to the 2025 Formula 1 Miami Grand Prix through Defendant's website, <https://seatgeek.com/>. Plaintiff paid the total price provided by Defendant, totaling substantially more than the cost of the tickets by the original seller. For his April 23, 2025 purchase of Formula 1 tickets, Plaintiff paid SeatGeek $539.28 in fees—or $528.28 more than he was legally required to pay. For his May 4, 2025 purchase of Formula 1 tickets, Plaintiff paid SeatGeek $6,310.84 in fees—or $6,309.84 more than he was legally required to pay. In other words, Plaintiff was harmed by paying Seatgeek's illegally appropriated surplus. The transaction flow process he viewed on Defendant's website during those purchases was substantially similar to that as depicted in Figures 1 through 7 in this Complaint.

42. At the time Plaintiff purchased his tickets, he was not aware that Defendant's resale fees were unlawfully high under the FDUTPA. He was not browsing websites in search of legal violations. Instead, Plaintiff was browsing Defendant's website because he sincerely intended to purchase bus tickets, and he did, in fact, purchase those tickets.

43. On behalf of himself and members of the Class, Plaintiff seeks to enjoin the unlawful acts and practices described herein, to recover his actual damages and reasonable attorneys' fees, and any other relief the Court deems proper under the FDUTPA.

COUNT II
Unjust Enrichment
(On Behalf Of Plaintiff and The Class)

44. Defendant charged and collected a higher amount for the sale of resale tickets to a multiday or multievent concert, entertainment event, permanent exhibition, or recreational activity within a park or complex in the State of Florida than the permitted amount allowed on tickets resold by Defendant on its website because the amount charged exceeded $1.00 beyond the total amount of the ticket sold by the original seller.

45. Defendant has been unjustly enriched in that it received and retained the benefit of funds to which it was not entitled and received in violation of Florida law.

46. Said funds were conferred on Defendant by Plaintiff and the Class members under a mistake of fact due to Defendant's misrepresentations, and unlawfully obtained to the detriment of Plaintiff and the Class members.

47. Defendant's retention of these funds is unjust because Defendant misrepresented the purpose of the fees, and collected more fees than allowed under Florida law.

48. Allowing Defendant to retain the aforementioned benefits violates fundamental principles of justice, equity, and good conscience.

49. Because Defendant's retention of the non-gratuitous benefits conferred on it by Plaintiff and the Class is unjust and inequitable, Defendant must pay restitution to Plaintiff and the Class for their unjust enrichment, as ordered by the Court.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, seeks judgment against Defendant, as follows:

- (a) For an order certifying the Class under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and naming Plaintiff as representative of the Class and Plaintiff's attorneys as Class Counsel to represent the Class members;
- (b) For an order declaring that Defendant's conduct violates the statutes referenced herein;

- (c) For an order finding in favor of Plaintiff and the Class on all counts asserted herein;
- (d) For compensatory and punitive damages in amounts to be determined by the Court and/or jury;
- (e) For prejudgment interest on all amounts awarded;
- (f) For an order of restitution and all other forms of equitable monetary relief;
- (g) For injunctive relief as pleaded or as the Court may deem proper; and
- (h) For an order awarding Plaintiff and the Class their reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and costs of suit.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38(b), Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on any and all claims so triable.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
 United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.
 United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.
 Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked. Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If there are multiple nature of suit codes associated with the case, pick the nature of suit code that is most applicable. Click here for: Nature of Suit Code Descriptions.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Refiled (3) Attach copy of Order for Dismissal of Previous case. Also complete VI.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (8) Check this box if remanded from Appellate Court.

VI. Related/Refiled Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases or re-filed cases. Insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judges name for such cases.

VII. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553

Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VIII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

Signature of Clerk or Deputy Clerk
